CONNELL'S CONCLUSION.

That Ball Playing on Sunday is a Violation of Law.

The game of base ball intended to be played yesterday afternoon on the St. Mary's Avenue grounds received a setback in more ways than one. The business men and the pulpit united in a petition to the mayor requesting him to prevent Sunday base ball games The petition was referred to City Attorney Connell, who returned to him the following opinion :

OMARA, June 21, 1884. Hon C. S. Chase, Mayor of Omaha—Dran Sen—Am in rec ipt if yours of this date refer-ting to me position of Hev. J. M. Harris and nine others, requesting that the law o as to prevent the mane of base ball to be layed to morrow within the incorporated incises the city, and asking for my opinion as to the law.

The law referred to is found on page 703 of the consided statutes, and provides for a line not exceeding $ 0, or impresentent for twenty days, or to this the case of any person over by years or age, who shall be found sporting on Sunday.

What They Did There.

A Small But Enthusiastic Meeting a the Academy of Music.

The meeting held in the academy of land music Saturday night given as a reception to the Nebraska delegates to the national convention at Chicago was not very largely attended, owing to a lack of interest and enthusiasm in its object.

H. D. Estabrock presided over the meeting. Beside him on the stage were, Hon. J. M. Thurston, of this city. Hon, E. L. Reed, Weeping Water, Hon. J. J. Jensen, Geneva, Hon. C. P. Mattheson, Norfolk, Hon, J. H. McCall, Plum been sold and they are going fast. Tickets state, and Mesars, E. M. Stanbury, C. K. Coutant, E. W. Simeral, W. F. Bechel and Frank Hanlon, of this city. Mr. Estabrook began the speech-mak-
