

DEMOCRACY'S DAY.

Three State Conventions Yesterday of the Ever-Sanguine Party.

Ohio for Tariff for Revenue Only, Except on Whisky and Wool.

Also "So as to Encourage Productive Industries at Home."

Pendletonism Recognized in the Resolutions-Ignored Otherwise.

A Radical Free-Trade Resolution Voted Down Overwhelmingly.

A Resolution to Vote for 'Ex-President' Tilden, Dead or Alive.

Thurman, Durbin Ward, McLean for Delegates, with a Hoop-La.

The Indiana Democrats Name Isaac P. Gray for Governor.

And Indorse Her "Favorite Son" for the Presidency.

Missouri Democrats Vote Down Instructions for Tilden with a Howl.

OHIO. DEMOCRATIC DEMOCRACY.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 25.—The democratic state convention was called to order in the opera house at 10:30 this morning, with meagre attendance as compared with any state convention in many years.

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OHIO.—The democratic convention assembled at Columbus, Ohio, June 25, at 10:30 a. m. The platform adopted was as follows: "The platform of 1883, and embodies the views of the party upon the tariff and wool in the following language:—

REVENUE ONLY.—Wool favors a tariff for revenue limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered, and so adjusted in its application as to prevent unequal burdens, encourage productive industries at home, and afford a just compensation to labor, but not to foster or create monopolies.

state convention, with a full delegation from every county, met at noon and effected a temporary organization.

INDIANA. THE POSSIBLE TO THE FRONT. INDIANAPOLIS, June 25.—The democratic state convention was called to order at 10:30 a. m. by Joseph E. McDonald, who was loudly cheered. Daniel W. Voorhees was made permanent chairman.

FOR GOVERNOR. Isaac P. Gray, M. D. Manson and David Turpe were placed in nomination. Governor Gray was nominated on the first ballot.

OTHER NOMINATIONS. Manson was nominated for lieutenant governor by acclamation; W. R. Meyer, for secretary of state, and John J. Cooper, for treasurer.

THE PLATFORM adopted condemns the corrupt and extravagant expenditures which have been made at Washington, and declares that such expenditures of public money may be removed from the taxpayer. It demands that the federal taxes be reduced to the lowest point consistent with efficiency in the public service, and demands the revision and reform of the present unjust tariff.

It favors a tariff which will relieve, as far as possible, the necessities of life from taxation, and that the surplus of revenue shall be faithfully applied to the payment of the public debt. It favors the enforcement of the national eight-hour labor law, as also a reduction of the number of hours in a day's labor upon all public works, state and municipal. It favors the establishment of bureaus of labor statistics, state and national. It favors, as far as practical, the use of prison and reformatory labor so as not to compete with the labor of the honest citizens on the outside.

MISSOURI. DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES AT LARGE. ST. LOUIS, June 25.—The democratic convention elected John O'Day, Morrison Muniford, D. R. Francis and Charles H. Manser delegates at large.

NO TARIFF—NO TILDEN. The platform declares for a tariff for revenue only. A resolution to vote as a unit and one to vote for Tilden were howled down. Adjourned till Friday.

THE PLATFORM IN FULL. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

THE RESOLUTIONS were unanimously adopted. The following is the platform as reported by the committee on resolutions: "The democracy of Missouri, in convention assembled at the city of St. Louis, reaffirms the time-honored doctrine of the democratic party as enumerated in its series of platforms and affirmed and emphasized in positive terms in its platforms adopted at St. Louis in convention in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880. That we especially declare in favor of a tariff for the purposes of revenue, and that the taxing power of the government should be so limited; and we are opposed to all policies intended or calculated to foster monopolies at the expense of the people.

HORRORS HERE. The Chief of Police at Fremont Shoots Dead a Liveryman.

The Latter Frenzied Drunk and About to Axe an Officer.

A San Francisco Dane Kills His Inamorata and Suicides.

The Glasgow Court Finds the State of Florida's Captain Guilty.

A Seventy-Year-Old Iowa Farmer Killed by a Runaway.

The Mexican President's Son the Cause of a Double Murder in a Street Car.

Homicide at Fremont. Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

FREMONT, Neb., June 25.—At seven o'clock this evening Pat Jordan, a livery man, was shot dead by the chief of police and a police officer. Jordan was drunk and resisted arrest. Having an axe in his hand when the policemen approached him, he struck the policeman falling down with the uplifted weapon when he was shot three times, dying in five minutes. Great excitement prevailed.

Two Deaths for Love. SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Albertina Anderson was shot dead this morning by William C. Milton, who then blew his own brains out. Cause, her refusal to marry him. In a letter left Milton says Mrs. Anderson was known as Mrs. Brockman, having one child by Mr. Brockman, clerk to the Danish consulate at New York. Milton, who was a wino, left her married to his 12-year-old son. Falling in with the Danish consul of this city. Death in both cases was almost instantaneous.

Seduction Near Sioux City. SIOUX CITY, June 25.—Adolph Dills, a German farmer living in Volk's town, took the county, seduced a 13-year-old girl, the daughter of a neighbor named D. Grasp. The girl, becoming envious, Dills endeavored to have her married to his 12-year-old son. Falling in with the Danish consul of this city. Death in both cases was almost instantaneous.

The State of Florida Collided. GLASGOW, June 25.—In the matter of the collision of the steamer State of Florida and the bark Ponona, the court found that Thompson, the chief officer of the State of Florida, was to blame for the calamity. The court advised the suspension of Thompson's certificate as master for six months, he, meanwhile, to be allowed a mate's certificate.

Murder in a Mexican Street Car. MEXICO, June 25.—Military Cadet Gonzalez, the president's 20-year-old son, riding in a street car with Captain Pedro Ganza, professor in a military school, quarreled with General M. G. Gomez, who had a servant, was shot dead by Ganza.

A Violent Death at Seventy. TOLEDO, Ohio, June 25.—A farmer named Felzer, seventy years of age, was killed to-day by a runaway team.

VILLAINOUS VANILLA. Secreted in the Seductive Ice Cream, It Proves More Deadly than Dynamite.

COAL BLUFF, Pa., June 25.—A party of 11 persons ate ice cream in Conlin's saloon Saturday evening, and within two hours all were attacked with vomiting and violent pain in the stomach. The party consisted of William Conlin, wife and child, Mrs. Conlin, Mrs. W. Conlin and three children, Thos. Williams, Robert Cook and a colored man. One of the Williams children died yesterday. To-night one man died. Good Dr. Price's Kidney Cure is not expected to live, and the children are very low. Vanilla flavoring is supposed to be the cause.

Forty-Eighth Congress. SENATE. WASHINGTON, June 25.—The consideration of the legislative bill was resumed. Mr. Beck opposed the amendment proposed by the senate committee on appropriations, striking out the clause consolidating and reorganizing the customs collection districts. The opposing districts that did not pay expenses were merely to support a lot of election banners; that was the meaning of it. The employees were kept because they contributed to the party.

Mr. Ingalls remarked that if the house of representatives should pass a senate appropriation bill with a clause limiting the number of post offices in the United States to 99, the case would be parallel to that under discussion. After further debate the committee's amendment was agreed to, striking out the clause directing the secretary of the treasury to say 12.

The Oregon Insurance Swindle. PORTLAND, Oregon, June 25.—Lewis Kackley, recently from Iowa, suspected of setting fire to the Oregon Insurance Co. building, and of burning a skeleton intended to represent his own remains, so that his wife could recover the life insurance, was arrested to-day in Astoria. He feigned insanity.

A Railroad Man Captures an Actress. COUNCIL BLUFFS, June 25.—Miss Kate L. Jansen, a well-known actress, was captured to-day by Wm. A. Strong, a Chicago railroad man.

A Quadruple Killing. WAUSAU, Wis., June 25.—A boiler in Smith's planing mill exploded this morning, killing four persons and wounding several others.

A Georgia Failure. ROME, Ga., June 25.—R. T. and C. B. Hargood, bankers, failed to-day; liabilities $60,000; nominal assets $75,000.

Railway Dividends Passed. NEW YORK, June 25.—The Michigan Central and Chicago Southern have agreed to pass their dividend.

Morgan & Sons Assign. NEW YORK, June 25.—Morgan & Sons have made an assignment to Wm. B. Dickson.

Thunder It Down the Ages. That for lameness, for rheumatism, for aches, for pains, and for sprains Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is a positive and reliable remedy. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil can be purchased of any druggist.

THE RAILWAYS. All Serene on Lake Superior Business.—Wabash Officials Go to the Missouri Pacific.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The differences in the Northwest Traffic association on Lake Superior business, which at one time threatened to disrupt the pool and endanger the integrity of other western pools, was amicably adjusted to-day, at a meeting of the general managers, by mutual concessions. It is rumored in railroad circles here that H. M. Hoyle, third vice-president; General Manager R. S. Hayes, first vice-president, and George Olds, traffic manager, all of the Wabash road, will soon return from consultation with that road, going to the Missouri Pacific.

THE GENERAL PACIFIC. A Report that It Will Stand Off Its Employees for this Month's Wages.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—The Bulletin publishes the following this evening: "It is semi-officially announced that the Central Pacific railroad company will postpone for a time payment of wages to its employees this month, in order to accumulate a fund to meet more pressing demands, in the nature of current expenses. The present cramped condition of the company arises from the falling off of Charles and other, resulting in a loss of profits caused by disasters, especially to the Southern Pacific and its branches.

Timothy Hopkins, treasurer, was the only president of the railroad to be mentioned. He declined to make any statement. General Manager Towne, visiting Monterey, was telegraphed on the subject. He replied, "There is but little foundation in fact for the statement that the company will postpone the payment of the salaries of employees. It is possible, however, that the pay car may not now draw very tight."

Home at Fremont. Special Dispatch to THE BEE. Fremont, Neb., June 25.—At seven o'clock this evening Pat Jordan, a livery man, was shot dead by the chief of police and a police officer. Jordan was drunk and resisted arrest. Having an axe in his hand when the policemen approached him, he struck the policeman falling down with the uplifted weapon when he was shot three times, dying in five minutes. Great excitement prevailed.

Two Deaths for Love. SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Albertina Anderson was shot dead this morning by William C. Milton, who then blew his own brains out. Cause, her refusal to marry him. In a letter left Milton says Mrs. Anderson was known as Mrs. Brockman, having one child by Mr. Brockman, clerk to the Danish consulate at New York. Milton, who was a wino, left her married to his 12-year-old son. Falling in with the Danish consul of this city. Death in both cases was almost instantaneous.

Seduction Near Sioux City. SIOUX CITY, June 25.—Adolph Dills, a German farmer living in Volk's town, took the county, seduced a 13-year-old girl, the daughter of a neighbor named D. Grasp. The girl, becoming envious, Dills endeavored to have her married to his 12-year-old son. Falling in with the Danish consul of this city. Death in both cases was almost instantaneous.

The State of Florida Collided. GLASGOW, June 25.—In the matter of the collision of the steamer State of Florida and the bark Ponona, the court found that Thompson, the chief officer of the State of Florida, was to blame for the calamity. The court advised the suspension of Thompson's certificate as master for six months, he, meanwhile, to be allowed a mate's certificate.

Adjusted to-day, at a meeting of the general managers, by mutual concessions. It is rumored in railroad circles here that H. M. Hoyle, third vice-president; General Manager R. S. Hayes, first vice-president, and George Olds, traffic manager, all of the Wabash road, will soon return from consultation with that road, going to the Missouri Pacific.

THE GENERAL PACIFIC. A Report that It Will Stand Off Its Employees for this Month's Wages.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—The Bulletin publishes the following this evening: "It is semi-officially announced that the Central Pacific railroad company will postpone for a time payment of wages to its employees this month, in order to accumulate a fund to meet more pressing demands, in the nature of current expenses. The present cramped condition of the company arises from the falling off of Charles and other, resulting in a loss of profits caused by disasters, especially to the Southern Pacific and its branches.

Timothy Hopkins, treasurer, was the only president of the railroad to be mentioned. He declined to make any statement. General Manager Towne, visiting Monterey, was telegraphed on the subject. He replied, "There is but little foundation in fact for the statement that the company will postpone the payment of the salaries of employees. It is possible, however, that the pay car may not now draw very tight."

Home at Fremont. Special Dispatch to THE BEE. Fremont, Neb., June 25.—At seven o'clock this evening Pat Jordan, a livery man, was shot dead by the chief of police and a police officer. Jordan was drunk and resisted arrest. Having an axe in his hand when the policemen approached him, he struck the policeman falling down with the uplifted weapon when he was shot three times, dying in five minutes. Great excitement prevailed.

Two Deaths for Love. SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Albertina Anderson was shot dead this morning by William C. Milton, who then blew his own brains out. Cause, her refusal to marry him. In a letter left Milton says Mrs. Anderson was known as Mrs. Brockman, having one child by Mr. Brockman, clerk to the Danish consulate at New York. Milton, who was a wino, left her married to his 12-year-old son. Falling in with the Danish consul of this city. Death in both cases was almost instantaneous.

Seduction Near Sioux City. SIOUX CITY, June 25.—Adolph Dills, a German farmer living in Volk's town, took the county, seduced a 13-year-old girl, the daughter of a neighbor named D. Grasp. The girl, becoming envious, Dills endeavored to have her married to his 12-year-old son. Falling in with the Danish consul of this city. Death in both cases was almost instantaneous.

The State of Florida Collided. GLASGOW, June 25.—In the matter of the collision of the steamer State of Florida and the bark Ponona, the court found that Thompson, the chief officer of the State of Florida, was to blame for the calamity. The court advised the suspension of Thompson's certificate as master for six months, he, meanwhile, to be allowed a mate's certificate.

Murder in a Mexican Street Car. MEXICO, June 25.—Military Cadet Gonzalez, the president's 20-year-old son, riding in a street car with Captain Pedro Ganza, professor in a military school, quarreled with General M. G. Gomez, who had a servant, was shot dead by Ganza.

A Violent Death at Seventy. TOLEDO, Ohio, June 25.—A farmer named Felzer, seventy years of age, was killed to-day by a runaway team.

VILLAINOUS VANILLA. Secreted in the Seductive Ice Cream, It Proves More Deadly than Dynamite.

COAL BLUFF, Pa., June 25.—A party of 11 persons ate ice cream in Conlin's saloon Saturday evening, and within two hours all were attacked with vomiting and violent pain in the stomach. The party consisted of William Conlin, wife and child, Mrs. Conlin, Mrs. W. Conlin and three children, Thos. Williams, Robert Cook and a colored man. One of the Williams children died yesterday. To-night one