

THE DAILY BEE.

Friday Morning, June 27.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

At the grand excursion and picnic of the Musical Union orchestra, Sunday, June 23rd, Sixty of Omaha's best musicians and all the singing societies of Omaha will take part.

At 7 o'clock Saturday evening the board of public works will hold a meeting. At that time the bids for grading portions of Twenty-fourth street in this city will be opened.

If you want to enjoy yourself to-day, go with the picnicers to Ashland. Tickets are only one dollar for the round trip. The train starts from the B. & M. depot at 8 to-morrow morning, (Friday).

Look! Look! One of the finest chances ever offered. A fine business for sale; small capital required. Everything new and saleable. No dead stock. Open to the fullest investigation. The best of reasons given. Come and investigate. Address, BUSINESS, Box office.

If you need a little recreation invent a dollar and go to Ashland with the K. P. excursionists to-day. A pleasant ride, lots of fun, all for a trifling sum. Don't fail to secure a ticket at To-day's cigar store, or of some one else, and be at the B. & M. depot at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The closing exercises of the German American school will take place at Germania Hall on Friday evening, June 27th. An extensive and interesting programme has been prepared by the managers, who extend a cordial invitation to all friends of the school. A small admittance, 25 cents, will be charged to cover actual expenses.

Mrs. Curry, widow of the late Richard Curry, has used the colored Masonic society for payment in full of the funeral expenses of her husband, who died last fall. The Masons answer that they only agreed to defray one-half of the expenses of the burial. The case was heard by Judge McCulloch, of the county court, who has taken the matter under advisement.

The faces placed on sale yesterday by S. P. Morse & Co. are the cheapest lot ever shown at retail; while there are some beautiful wide white Brussels lace that is elegant for floorings or trimming white goods. Tomorrow morning will open up a large lot of Galtroppe Hamburg Embroideries at about half the cost to import.

The Musical Union orchestra will have an excursion on Sunday next to the Union Pacific park near Papillion. An attractive programme of amusements has been arranged for the occasion. There will be sixty musicians and a full chorus, including the following organizations: Musical Union brass band and String orchestra, Irvine's String and Brass band, Probraska's Bohemian band, Mannerchor Singing society, Quartet club, Hoffman's orchestra, Ancient Order of Hebraean brass band, Concordia singing society, Schweitzer's singing society, and Omaha Turn Verein.

A meeting of Irish-Americans was held in the city council chamber on Wednesday evening for the purpose of organizing a Blaine and Logan club. Col. Burke was elected chairman, and Gen. O'Brien was chosen secretary. Mr. Murphy, acting mayor, made a strong speech supporting the republican nominees, and moved that a committee of nine, Col. Burke to be chairman, be appointed to organize an Irish-American Blaine and Logan club. Messrs. Quinn, White, and O'Brien and others urged the formation of such an organization. The chairman was empowered to appoint the committee of nine, taking the necessary time to select the most suitable men. The meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the committee through its chairman.

It will be remembered that some three or four years ago the Washburn railway sold a pile of tickets at reduced rates, and the scalpers and speculators invested heavily in them. Several hundred thousand dollars were sold. A few days ago the Washburn officials made an order that no tickets issued prior to May 1st, would be received. A day or two, two travelers purchased two of those tickets from Omaha scalpers, and started for Chicago. They had ridden but a short distance on the Washburn train, when the conductor not only refused to receive their tickets, but put them off the train. It is quite likely that damage suits will follow. The scalpers in Omaha, Kansas City, and other points in the Missouri valley are heavy holders of these tickets, and they no doubt will take some immediate action in the premises to protect themselves from loss.

Police Court: A fellow named Berthold Stein yesterday entered John G. Brand's place on Tenth street and begged for a drink, saying that he was sick. The bar-keeper gave him a drink, and then stepped to the rear to fill a bottle. Stein then tapped the till for $2.25; but was caught by the bar-keeper, who took him to the police court, where the prisoner was sentenced to twenty days in jail. Two drunkards were assessed $5 each. A tramp was sentenced to 15 days on bread and water, but the sentence was suspended to allow him to leave town before noon. Frank Krogh, charged with assaulting John Nelson, failed to appear, and his bond of $200 was declared forfeited.

MINNEHABA AVERY. The subject was "Liberty the result of despotism." The bound of the hammer upon the anvil has its counterpart in civil institutions. From oppression and despotism comes a reaction and liberty arises. In the middle ages monarchy became despotic and absolute and the liberties so lightly relinquished were only regained by the strongest effort. At last leaders were found who led the people to that great bulwark whose corner stone is the principle that all men are created equal. This oration evinced a clear thought on the part of the speaker and the earnest manner in which it was delivered added much to the production.

LIZZIE VAN SANT'S. Themo was "Wires." Only a half a century ago, the speaker, wires were very little used, but now they pierce every quarter of the civilized world. They are used for the telegraph, bridges and many other purposes. There is a use also made of a wire so subtle it cannot be seen and this manipulation is called wire working. When a man becomes so weak that others may manipulate him it is called wire working. Said the essayist in conclusion "may the wires bring you many glad tidings of joy."

The audience showed its appreciation of the young lady's effort, frequently bursting into applause. There came a chorus in two parts, "The Larks" and "Shepherd of the Valley," two short gems of music well received by the audience.

Next came the essay of MAUD KENDALL, whose theme has been the theme of many, "Queen Elizabeth."

The people were ready for any change. The Republicans of this city held a meeting last evening in Fireman's hall. The object of the meeting was to organize a Blaine and Logan club in Omaha. H. D. Estabrook reported back from the committee previously appointed to draft a constitution for the club, that it had performed its work, and submitted a constitution, which was read and adopted. Its officers are to be president, secretary and treasurer, twelve vice-presidents, two from each ward in the city, and an executive committee of nine, the latter to be appointed by the president. After the adoption of the constitution all present signed it and became members of the club. John Kish was elected president by acclamation, A. C. Troup, secretary and Henry Boltz, treasurer. The election of vice presidents was deferred until next meeting. A resolution was adopted directing the president to call a meeting of republicans for next Wednesday evening, at which time the organization will be perfected.

Headquarters for fireworks and flags at Max Meyer & Co., m-104, 117.

LAUNCHED FOR LIFE.

Omaha's High School Drops Ten Pupils From Its Number.

Interesting Graduating Exercises at the Opera House Last Evening.

Omaha's Citizens Fill the Boyd to Overflowing.

When the curtain rose at the Boyd last evening two seas of faces greeted one another and a burst of applause from the one in the front followed. Upon the stage were seated three hundred of Omaha's school children. Directly in front of them sat the ten graduates whose public school life in Omaha was just expiring. To the right of them were seated Superintendent James and H. P. Lewis, principal of the high school.

The commencement exercises last evening called out as great a number as ever witnessed this pleasing event at any one time in the history of Omaha. The seating capacity of this large house was completely taken up from the gallery to the pit, and the audience showed its appreciation of the exercises by frequent applause.

"A Mighty Fortress"—A chorus was the first exercise of the evening, in which all the children on the stage joined in singing. This chorus was most acceptably rendered and the children evinced the great care which their teacher had taken to make their effort a success.

The first speaker of the evening was ANSON H. BIGELOW.

The theme of whose oration was "The position of Ireland and Gladstone toward Ireland." He subsequently turned to the Scotch covenant and succeeded, "said the orator. "The British parliament was at a dead lock with the king." A Stuart's blood atoned for a Stuart's shame. The time had come for Ireland to strike, but the excesses which she resorted to caused Cromwell to land in Dublin, and the blood which covered the ruins of Drogheda and Wexford bore witness of his avenging power. As was his conquest so was his will, a policy sustained by the sword.

Two centuries pass by and O'Connell's eloquence demands justice and not mercy and awakes the Irish question to-day. Now comes Gladstone with his disestablishment of church policy. Then came the land agitation, followed by the land bill. Gladstone's policy always looked toward the welfare of England.

The oration was a good one, well spoken and well received.

MISS LIZZIE HURBURT, had for her subject "Dante and the Divine Comedy." He began his straightforward way when he was eight years old, at which time he saw Beatrice, to whom in his youth he was continually making sonnets. He subsequently went into public life and was banished by a branch of his own party, and while in banishment he composed this great work. His love of Beatrice, political disappointment and banishment from Florence were enough to lead him to the creation of the Divine Comedy. He used a style of language in advance of his time. His poem is the history of his country, his life, and every sentiment was drawn from the innermost recesses of his soul.

This grand subject the essayist did ample justice, and a thorough knowledge of it could have enabled its writer to do so. Dante and his work.

The last essayist, MISS LIZZIE HURBURT, had for her subject "Dante and the Divine Comedy." He began his straightforward way when he was eight years old, at which time he saw Beatrice, to whom in his youth he was continually making sonnets. He subsequently went into public life and was banished by a branch of his own party, and while in banishment he composed this great work. His love of Beatrice, political disappointment and banishment from Florence were enough to lead him to the creation of the Divine Comedy. He used a style of language in advance of his time. His poem is the history of his country, his life, and every sentiment was drawn from the innermost recesses of his soul.

A report of these exercises would be incomplete if mention were not made of Miss Edith James, the pianist, who performed so well the part allotted to her in the entertainment.

Dr. Tanner, the noted specialist, has fitted up elegant apartments in the Crouse block, 16th street and Capitol avenue. See card in another column.

Pat Means, of Lincoln, stopping at the Metropolitan.

Geo. T. Woods, of Dakota City, Neb., is at the Metropolitan.

Rev. H. R. Miller, of Florence, is stopping at the Metropolitan.

A. D. Muss, of Grand Island, is sojourning at the Metropolitan.

Chas. Blodgett, of Brock, Neb., is registered at the Metropolitan.

C. P. Ames and wife, of Astor, Ia., are stopping at the Metropolitan.

W. A. Keithley and wife, of Weeping Water, is at the Metropolitan.

F. W. Wheeler and wife, of Defiance, Ia., are the guests of the Metropolitan.

Joseph Wallace, editor of the Star, Union, Iowa, made a call at this office last evening.

C. H. Willard, Auburn; D. W. Leman, Wahoo, and A. S. Tibbels, Lincoln, were guests of the Tuxton yesterday.

Mr. Jack Donnelly, secretary of the new Omaha stock yards, returned from Chicago yesterday, where he has been spending two or three weeks.

Bishop Fos, who is presiding over the judicial conference of the northwest, which is being held at the First M. E. Church in this city, is the guest of Mr. C. H. Dewey.

C. L. Lamb, Stanton; J. Williams and W. H. Anderson, Grand Island; W. W. McKenry, Tekamah; Claudius Jones, Seward; D. B. Daniel, Norfolk, and Thomas B. Stocker and wife, Howe, were guests of the Metoyer yesterday.

Al. Richards, who has for years been connected with Cole's circus, passed through the city yesterday to join the outfit in Montana. He has been called there to help Cole out of his trouble, arising from the fraudulent money-changing tricks of his employees. If any one is able to help the old man out, that person is Al. Richards, who is one of the cleverest gentlemen ever traveled with a circus.

Rev. Charles Ashton, Guthrie Centre, Iowa, and Rev. Charles W. Blodgett, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Des Moines, were in the city yesterday, and left for home this morning. These gentlemen have been the counsel for Rev. Geo. F. Brand, now deceased, but falsely accused during his life and expelled from the Methodist ministry and church. Since his decease they have, with an intense belief in his innocence, persistently carried the case through the general conference and now through a judicial conference, whose proceedings were reported in another column, and at last achieved a complete and clean vindication of all criminality. They certainly deserve great credit and praise for their tireless and unceasing work.

MASONIC MATTERS.

The Closing Session of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska, A. F. & A. M.

The Grand Lodge of Nebraska, A. F. & A. M., concluded its labors on Wednesday at Lincoln, after three interesting sessions, and adjourned to meet at Omaha in June next subject to the call of the most worshipful Grand Master.

During the morning session a handsome oil portrait of Robert C. Jordan, the first Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska, executed by Mrs. Edwin Davis, of Omaha, was presented to the Grand Lodge by Past Grand Master Geo. W. Lininger, with appropriate remarks.

Reply was made by the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Samuel W. Hayes, of Norfolk, in fitting words, after which the Grand Lodge extended thanks to Mrs. Davis.

The following is a list of the officers elected: Most Worshipful Grand Master, John J. Wemple, of Hastings. Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master, M. B. Reese, of Wahoo. Right Worshipful Grand Senior Warden, Chas. K. Constant, of Omaha. Right Worshipful Grand Junior Warden, M. J. Hull, of Edgar. Right Worshipful Grand Treasurer, Christian Hartman, of Omaha. Right Worshipful Grand Secretary, Wm. R. Bowen, of Omaha.

Very Worshipful Grand Chaplain, Henry T. Davis, of Lincoln. Worshipful Grand Orator, Wm. Leese, of Seward. Worshipful Grand Custodian, B. F. Rawalt, of Hastings.

The corner stone of the capital will be laid July 15, at 4 o'clock, by Most Worshipful Grand Master John J. Wemple, assisted by the grand officers and Grand Lodge of Nebraska.

Past Grand Master Lininger presented his credentials as representative of the grand lodge of England, and was received with the honors. He addressed the craft on the characteristics of the fraternity in England, especially its extensive charities.

At the evening session the officers of the grand lodge were installed by Past Grand Master George W. Lininger, assisted by Past Grand Master Robert W. Furnas, after which Grand Orator Benj. S. Baker, of Fairbury, delivered an address.

NEBRASKA STATE GAZETTEER & BUSINESS DIRECTORY to be issued in July, 1884, price $4.50. J. M. Wolfe, publisher 120 S. 14th St., Omaha.

THE LATEST NOOSE.

Cupid Captures Several Pairs of Hearts.

Richard S. Hall, of the well known law firm of Thurston & Hall, of this city, and Miss Florence Ware, eldest daughter of J. A. Ware, of Nebraska City, were married at the residence of the bride's parents on Wednesday morning, the Rev. H. G. Burgess officiating. Mr. Hall is one of Omaha's brightest and most successful young lawyers, and his bride is a charming and accomplished young lady. She is a graduate of Brown hall. Upon their return from the east, where they will visit for two months, they will make their home at Mr. Hall's beautiful residence on upper Farnam street, which he recently built in anticipation of this happy event.

Saxe-Tillotson. Arthur W. Saxe, of the auditor's office of the B. & M. railway, and Miss Marie Tillotson, a niece of Mrs. Archie Powell, were married on Wednesday in the Episcopal church at Marshall, Michigan. They have gone on a trip of two weeks, when they will return to Omaha, and be at home at the corner of Seventeenth and Cass streets.

Nash-Barney. On Wednesday evening Sam. Nash and Miss Laura Barney were married at the residence of the bride's mother on Nineteenth street.

If your complaint is want of appetite, try a little wine-glass of Angostura Bitters half an hour before dinner. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

W. H. Price, of Lyons, Neb., is at the Metropolitan.

Pat Means, of Lincoln, stopping at the Metropolitan.

Geo. T. Woods, of Dakota City, Neb., is at the Metropolitan.

Rev. H. R. Miller, of Florence, is stopping at the Metropolitan.

A. D. Muss, of Grand Island, is sojourning at the Metropolitan.

Chas. Blodgett, of Brock, Neb., is registered at the Metropolitan.

C. P. Ames and wife, of Astor, Ia., are stopping at the Metropolitan.

W. A. Keithley and wife, of Weeping Water, is at the Metropolitan.

F. W. Wheeler and wife, of Defiance, Ia., are the guests of the Metropolitan.

Joseph Wallace, editor of the Star, Union, Iowa, made a call at this office last evening.

C. H. Willard, Auburn; D. W. Leman, Wahoo, and A. S. Tibbels, Lincoln, were guests of the Tuxton yesterday.

Mr. Jack Donnelly, secretary of the new Omaha stock yards, returned from Chicago yesterday, where he has been spending two or three weeks.

Bishop Fos, who is presiding over the judicial conference of the northwest, which is being held at the First M. E. Church in this city, is the guest of Mr. C. H. Dewey.

C. L. Lamb, Stanton; J. Williams and W. H. Anderson, Grand Island; W. W. McKenry, Tekamah; Claudius Jones, Seward; D. B. Daniel, Norfolk, and Thomas B. Stocker and wife, Howe, were guests of the Metoyer yesterday.

Al. Richards, who has for years been connected with Cole's circus, passed through the city yesterday to join the outfit in Montana. He has been called there to help Cole out of his trouble, arising from the fraudulent money-changing tricks of his employees. If any one is able to help the old man out, that person is Al. Richards, who is one of the cleverest gentlemen ever traveled with a circus.

Rev. Charles Ashton, Guthrie Centre, Iowa, and Rev. Charles W. Blodgett, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Des Moines, were in the city yesterday, and left for home this morning. These gentlemen have been the counsel for Rev. Geo. F. Brand, now deceased, but falsely accused during his life and expelled from the Methodist ministry and church. Since his decease they have, with an intense belief in his innocence, persistently carried the case through the general conference and now through a judicial conference, whose proceedings were reported in another column, and at last achieved a complete and clean vindication of all criminality. They certainly deserve great credit and praise for their tireless and unceasing work.

Rev. Charles Ashton, Guthrie Centre, Iowa, and Rev. Charles W. Blodgett, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Des Moines, were in the city yesterday, and left for home this morning. These gentlemen have been the counsel for Rev. Geo. F. Brand, now deceased, but falsely accused during his life and expelled from the Methodist ministry and church. Since his decease they have, with an intense belief in his innocence, persistently carried the case through the general conference and now through a judicial conference, whose proceedings were reported in another column, and at last achieved a complete and clean vindication of all criminality. They certainly deserve great credit and praise for their tireless and unceasing work.

Rev. Charles Ashton, Guthrie Centre, Iowa, and Rev. Charles W. Blodgett, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Des Moines, were in the city yesterday, and left for home this morning. These gentlemen have been the counsel for Rev. Geo. F. Brand, now deceased, but falsely accused during his life and expelled from the Methodist ministry and church. Since his decease they have, with an intense belief in his innocence, persistently carried the case through the general conference and now through a judicial conference, whose proceedings were reported in another column, and at last achieved a complete and clean vindication of all criminality. They certainly deserve great credit and praise for their tireless and unceasing work.

MASONIC MATTERS.

The Closing Session of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska, A. F. & A. M.

The Grand Lodge of Nebraska, A. F. & A. M., concluded its labors on Wednesday at Lincoln, after three interesting sessions, and adjourned to meet at Omaha in June next subject to the call of the most worshipful Grand Master.

During the morning session a handsome oil portrait of Robert C. Jordan, the first Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska, executed by Mrs. Edwin Davis, of Omaha, was presented to the Grand Lodge by Past Grand Master Geo. W. Lininger, with appropriate remarks.

Reply was made by the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Samuel W. Hayes, of Norfolk, in fitting words, after which the Grand Lodge extended thanks to Mrs. Davis.

The following is a list of the officers elected: Most Worshipful Grand Master, John J. Wemple, of Hastings. Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master, M. B. Reese, of Wahoo. Right Worshipful Grand Senior Warden, Chas. K. Constant, of Omaha. Right Worshipful Grand Junior Warden, M. J. Hull, of Edgar. Right Worshipful Grand Treasurer, Christian Hartman, of Omaha. Right Worshipful Grand Secretary, Wm. R. Bowen, of Omaha.

Very Worshipful Grand Chaplain, Henry T. Davis, of Lincoln. Worshipful Grand Orator, Wm. Leese, of Seward. Worshipful Grand Custodian, B. F. Rawalt, of Hastings.

The corner stone of the capital will be laid July 15, at 4 o'clock, by Most Worshipful Grand Master John J. Wemple, assisted by the grand officers and Grand Lodge of Nebraska.

Past Grand Master Lininger presented his credentials as representative of the grand lodge of England, and was received with the honors. He addressed the craft on the characteristics of the fraternity in England, especially its extensive charities.

At the evening session the officers of the grand lodge were installed by Past Grand Master George W. Lininger, assisted by Past Grand Master Robert W. Furnas, after which Grand Orator Benj. S. Baker, of Fairbury, delivered an address.

NEBRASKA STATE GAZETTEER & BUSINESS DIRECTORY to be issued in July, 1884, price $4.50. J. M. Wolfe, publisher 120 S. 14th St., Omaha.

THE LATEST NOOSE.

Cupid Captures Several Pairs of Hearts.

Richard S. Hall, of the well known law firm of Thurston & Hall, of this city, and Miss Florence Ware, eldest daughter of J. A. Ware, of Nebraska City, were married at the residence of the bride's parents on Wednesday morning, the Rev. H. G. Burgess officiating. Mr. Hall is one of Omaha's brightest and most successful young lawyers, and his bride is a charming and accomplished young lady. She is a graduate of Brown hall. Upon their return from the east, where they will visit for two months, they will make their home at Mr. Hall's beautiful residence on upper Farnam street, which he recently built in anticipation of this happy event.

Saxe-Tillotson. Arthur W. Saxe, of the auditor's office of the B. & M. railway, and Miss Marie Tillotson, a niece of Mrs. Archie Powell, were married on Wednesday in the Episcopal church at Marshall, Michigan. They have gone on a trip of two weeks, when they will return to Omaha, and be at home at the corner of Seventeenth and Cass streets.

Nash-Barney. On Wednesday evening Sam. Nash and Miss Laura Barney were married at the residence of the bride's mother on Nineteenth street.

If your complaint is want of appetite, try a little wine-glass of Angostura Bitters half an hour before dinner. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

W. H. Price, of Lyons, Neb., is at the Metropolitan.

Pat Means, of Lincoln, stopping at the Metropolitan.

Geo. T. Woods, of Dakota City, Neb., is at the Metropolitan.

Rev. H. R. Miller, of Florence, is stopping at the Metropolitan.

A. D. Muss, of Grand Island, is sojourning at the Metropolitan.

Chas. Blodgett, of Brock, Neb., is registered at the Metropolitan.

C. P. Ames and wife, of Astor, Ia., are stopping at the Metropolitan.

W. A. Keithley and wife, of Weeping Water, is at the Metropolitan.

F. W. Wheeler and wife, of Defiance, Ia., are the guests of the Metropolitan.

Joseph Wallace, editor of the Star, Union, Iowa, made a call at this office last evening.

C. H. Willard, Auburn; D. W. Leman, Wahoo, and A. S. Tibbels, Lincoln, were guests of the Tuxton yesterday.

Mr. Jack Donnelly, secretary of the new Omaha stock yards, returned from Chicago yesterday, where he has been spending two or three weeks.

Bishop Fos, who is presiding over the judicial conference of the northwest, which is being held at the First M. E. Church in this city, is the guest of Mr. C. H. Dewey.

C. L. Lamb, Stanton; J. Williams and W. H. Anderson, Grand Island; W. W. McKenry, Tekamah; Claudius Jones, Seward; D. B. Daniel, Norfolk, and Thomas B. Stocker and wife, Howe, were guests of the Metoyer yesterday.

Al. Richards, who has for years been connected with Cole's circus, passed through the city yesterday to join the outfit in Montana. He has been called there to help Cole out of his trouble, arising from the fraudulent money-changing tricks of his employees. If any one is able to help the old man out, that person is Al. Richards, who is one of the cleverest gentlemen ever traveled with a circus.

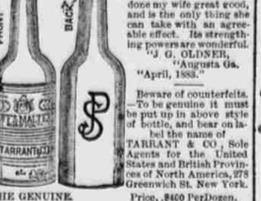

Rev. Charles Ashton, Guthrie Centre, Iowa, and Rev. Charles W. Blodgett, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Des Moines, were in the city yesterday, and left for home this morning. These gentlemen have been the counsel for Rev. Geo. F. Brand, now deceased, but falsely accused during his life and expelled from the Methodist ministry and church. Since his decease they have, with an intense belief in his innocence, persistently carried the case through the general conference and now through a judicial conference, whose proceedings were reported in another column, and at last achieved a complete and clean vindication of all criminality. They certainly deserve great credit and praise for their tireless and unceasing work.

Rev. Charles Ashton, Guthrie Centre, Iowa, and Rev. Charles W. Blodgett, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Des Moines, were in the city yesterday, and left for home this morning. These gentlemen have been the counsel for Rev. Geo. F. Brand, now deceased, but falsely accused during his life and expelled from the Methodist ministry and church. Since his decease they have, with an intense belief in his innocence, persistently carried the case through the general conference and now through a judicial conference, whose proceedings were reported in another column, and at last achieved a complete and clean vindication of all criminality. They certainly deserve great credit and praise for their tireless and unceasing work.

Rev. Charles Ashton, Guthrie Centre, Iowa, and Rev. Charles W. Blodgett, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Des Moines, were in the city yesterday, and left for home this morning. These gentlemen have been the counsel for Rev. Geo. F. Brand, now deceased, but falsely accused during his life and expelled from the Methodist ministry and church. Since his decease they have, with an intense belief in his innocence, persistently carried the case through the general conference and now through a judicial conference, whose proceedings were reported in another column, and at last achieved a complete and clean vindication of all criminality. They certainly deserve great credit and praise for their tireless and unceasing work.

JOH. HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT

Cures Diseases by Building up the System. Front. Back.

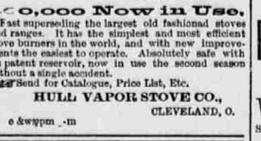

"Ship another dozen of your Malt Extract Hoff's, as before. It has done my wife great good, and is the only thing she can take with an agreeable effect. Her strength is returning, and she is feeling wonderful." G. OLDFIELD, "Augustus Ga." "April, 1883."

Beware of counterfeits. To be genuine it must be put up in above style of bottle, and bear on label the name of JOHN HOFF & CO. Sole Agents for the United States and British Provinces North America, 275 Greenwich St. N. York. Price, $4.00 Per Dozen.

THE HULL VAPOR COOK STOVE

The Pioneer and Still Ahead.

Now in Use. Fast superseding the largest old fashioned stoves and ranges in the world, and with new improvements the easiest to operate. Absolutely safe with its patent reservoir, now in use the second season without a single accident. Price List, etc. HULL VAPOR STOVE CO., CLEVELAND, O.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WANTED-A set of books to keep evening. Good experience. Address "D. E." Bee office. 128-39p

WANTED-Four day boarders at 3000 Cass St. 189-1p

WANTED-An eight to nine room house, with bath, city water, gas, if possible. Within ten minutes walk of the postoffice. Please address "D. E." Bee office. 113-1f

WANTED-Boarders to know the St. Charles Hotel on Harvey St., between 12th and 13th will set up the best table board for $4.00 per week of any house in the city at a corresponding price. 284-1f

FOR RENT-A cottage 2 1/2 story, one square north St. Mary's ave. 3 rooms and summer kitchen $12.50 a month. Warren Switzer. 141-4f

FOR RENT-Furnished, a large comfortable room. 322 S. 16th St., corner of Harvey. 307-4f

FOR RENT-House 6 rooms good repair. Nice yard, water, etc. Rent $25 per month. 1111 Park St. Apply to Mrs. W. Bell Druggist 10th St. 185-1f

FOR RENT-House 6 rooms, corner Poppleton and Sheridan Sts. $16.00 per month. Barker and Myers, 15th and Farnam. 157-1f

FOR RENT-With board, an elegant furnished parlor bed room. 2909 Cass St. 192-1p

FOR RENT-Furnished rooms with board, 1512 South 17th street. 130-1p

FOR RENT-3 rooms, 3 closets, city water, at 908 N. 13th Street. 104-7p

FOR RENT-Furnished front rooms with board, 814 South 19th St. 174-7p

FOR RENT-Furnished rooms for house-keeping, 628 North 19th St. 157-1p

FOR RENT-House corner of 10th and Pacific, one block from B. & M. Depot. O. W. H. 192-2p

FOR RENT-To gentleman and wife, suite of two very desirable furnished rooms, all conveniences, 24 hours, Lorenzen's building, 12th and Howard. Inquire room 28, Omaha National Bank Building. 187-1p

FOR RENT-A furnished room at 1813 Jackson St. 154-30p