

THE DAILY BEE.

Wednesday Morning, July 2.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

During the wind storm Monday evening a large pile of granite piled upon the sidewalk on Farnam street was blown over. In police court yesterday, J. Bropley and F. Schneider were each sentenced to ten days in the county jail on bread and water for vagrancy. A very heavy wind-storm prevailed Monday evening about 7 o'clock. For thirty minutes the wind blew a gale and a number of fences and trees were blown down. A man boarding at the California house last night lost a note for $200 and $105 in cash. The above amounts were stolen from his trunk. No complaint has been entered. A young man was confined out of $35 at the Union Pacific depot yesterday. He hired out to two men and they returned $35 of him, giving him as security a check for $1,500. Coroner Maul has received a letter from Mr. Oaks, brother of the man who was taken from the river a week since. He lives in Pennsylvania, and says he will come on after his brother's body. The American Vesper in the name of an Italian paper published in New York, the first number of which has just been laid on our desk. It is the only Italian paper published in the United States. It was rumored yesterday that the large brick warehouse being built at the corner of Thirtieth and Leavenworth streets had been blown down by the heavy wind last evening. Investigation proved the rumor without foundation. An alarm was turned in from box 51 about 12:30 yesterday. The fire was in a small frame dwelling at the corner of Tenth and Davenport streets, owned by a Mr. Van Orman. The fire originated in the trunk of a boarder. The damage is estimated at $50. Mr. S. Katz having purchased the grocery house formerly owned by A. H. Gladstone, in view of his customers to call in and see the fine stock now on hand. It is the intention of Mr. Katz to keep up the reputation of the house, and as he is a gentleman and a good business man he will certainly succeed. John Hactor, the unfortunate man who was killed at Waterloo, will be taken to his home at Ambury, Ill., by two brothers who have been working at the stock yards south of this city. They will start this morning at 8 o'clock. The brothers express their thanks to the citizens of Waterloo for their kindness in caring for the unfortunate man. Ouster Post, G. A. R., will celebrate the Fourth of July at Glenwood, Iowa. The Iowa boys furnish refreshments. Members desiring to go will report to the commander, so that ample transportation may be secured. Round trip $1.10. Train starts from B. & M. depot at 8:45 a. m. Members will assemble at the hall on the morning of the Fourth, at 8 o'clock and march to the depot. S. Bloom, commander. Archie McComb, formerly of San Francisco, but now of the Revere hose team, of Council Bluffs, and P. M. Duffy, of the Thurston's, of this city, will run a race of 100 yards for $250 a side, at the base ball park next Sunday. A forfeit of $50 each already in the hands of Mr. J. A. Wood and the remainder of the money will be put up next Friday. Both men are considered the fastest runners in their respective teams, and a spirited contest is looked for. More care should be exercised by the drivers of vehicles at time of fire. The drivers of the hose carts and of the hook and ladder truck are very careful, and keep their gangs sounding by fire warning to all and yet some drivers will insist on stopping their teams in the middle of the street, and there sit with mouths wide open until the fire department is just upon them, and then they try to get out of the way. One wagon narrowly escaped demoralism on Douglas street yesterday. Give the fire-boys a chance as a great deal depends upon their getting to the scene of the fire speedily, and this they cannot do if they are hindered by incompetent or careless drivers. The fire-boys always give proper warning of their approach. Heed it. Notice to Colored Voters. There will be a mass meeting of colored citizens, held at Lytle's hall, on Farnam street, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, Wednesday evening, July 2nd, at 8 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of organizing a Blaine and Logan campaign club. We hope to see all that are interested in our political welfare present. By order of the committee of the call: W. A. Vanbursee, U. S. Porter, W. H. G. Stephens, C. Price Sanders, E. R. Overall, William Butler, A. W. Parker. Real Estate Transfers. The following transfers were filed for record in the county clerk's office June 30, and reported for the Bex by Ames' real estate agency. Hult Presbyterian church to Frank A. Hultman wd, lot 2, block 45, Omaha, $3,000. Geo. H. Boggs et al Atossa S. Hall wd, lot 10, block 6, Omaha, value $350. Fred Nye and wife to S. C. There was a large attendance at the floral concert given on Sunday evening last at the Union Sunday school. The programme was well carried out, the floral decorations were excellent. The speakers platform was rally decked with an abundance of choice flowers, very artistically arranged. Owing to the postponement of the concert in consequence of bad weather, the Rev. A. F. Sherrill was unable to be present on Sunday and his place was kindly filled by Rev. Geo. Peiton who delivered a very interesting and appropriate address. MARRIED. BOBOSKIE-BIRD--On June 25, Mr. Louis Boboskie and Miss Missouri E. Bird were united in holy matrimony at the bride's childhood's home, 19 miles southwest of Omaha. THE BRIBERY CASE.

The Case of the State vs. Roger C. Guthrie Resumed This Morning.

The Interest Somewhat on the Decline --The Proceedings up to the Noon Adjournment.

When the district court opened at half past nine this forenoon before Judge Neville, his counsel and Defendant Guthrie, looking somewhat pale from his recent illness, being present, the court immediately took up his case, adjourned yesterday morning. Mr. Baldwin requested the right to ask Smith, the last witness on the stand for the state, a few questions on cross-examination before the prosecution rested its case. His request was granted. WILLIAM ROBERSTROM was the next witness called. Witness had lived in Omaha one year during which time he was running a gambling house. He first run it private and later opened it to the public. He had a conversation with Guthrie about his right to open before he did so, it took place on Farnam street. There was considerable opposition to his opening was why he saw Guthrie. Guthrie said if the others run he would be entitled to the same right. The next time he saw the defendant in his office, witness had been troubled by policemen making nightly visits to his rooms and breaking up his game. He asked defendant if he could not do something for him. He stated to defendant that his business was poor, but when it got better he would "DO SOMETHING."

The same as others had done. Guthrie told witness it would be all right. He told Guthrie he was ready to do as he promised and asked how it should be paid. He objected to receiving the money at that place as defendant said, "witness was too sharp for him." He later in the same day sent Guthrie through the mails $100. For about four weeks he ran unmolested. He was soon thereafter disturbed frequently. He was sent for by the marshal who ordered him to open his doors as the other houses did. He refused to do so, and his house "WAS RAIDED NIGHTLY." One night they came up without a warrant but did not gain entrance. Next night they came with a warrant and entered his house. On the first of November he threw his doors open. At that time he sent Guthrie through the mail $50 more. He was not molested up to the 15th of December from which time to the 15th of May he sent the marshal through the mails $50 per month. Had a talk with Branch who said they wanted $100 from each house, afterward raised it to $100 per month, then wanted $100 for two months after which each house was to pay $50 per month. Also had a talk with Smith, in his club room. Witness had paid all this time monthly fines into the police court. CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. GREEN. Witness came from Lincoln to Omaha to open a private club room. He did not throw open his doors from choice, but because the police interfered with him. He did not know that Guthrie interfered with him. He talked with Guthrie about running a respectable house, and was told by him that he would be allowed to run the same as the others. It was understood in the conversation with Guthrie on Fifteenth and Farnam that the marshal was to receive something. He sent the money to Guthrie to keep from being arrested in his business, or to be allowed to run his house open. He had given the money to Guthrie to purchase freedom from arrest. At twelve o'clock Mr. Baldwin, after cross-examining the witness for nearly an hour, stated he had just begun, and the court thereupon adjourned to two p. m.

(Afternoon's Session, ROBERSTROM CONTINUES. When court was called in the afternoon Roberstrom again took the stand and continued his testimony. Witness made his own arrangements and refused to go into a pool as was reported had been done. Guthrie had made a promise to witness that he would not close his place in consideration of these payments made. This was said at the second conversation, in Guthrie's office. He told Guthrie the police were raiding him every night, that he had been to a great expense in fixing up his rooming place. Mr. Guthrie (retires) would do what was right if he would keep away the police; "All right," said the marshal, "I will see you are not disturbed." Witness concluded that his agreement was for himself, and for himself alone. On the re-direct examination, the witness stated that when he went to see Guthrie the second time it was for the purpose of protecting himself from the bad people of the city, by whom it was overruled. Mr. Baldwin was next recalled by the state. He had lived in Omaha four years, and kept a saloon and sporting house at 1,306 Douglas street. For the last twelve months he had been running them. Had no talk with the defendant before the houses were closed, but afterwards he did hold a conversation with him on the corner of Twelfth and Douglas. Witness told Guthrie, who said they would be closed about three weeks, that he would do whatever the rest of the sporting men did. He went away from Omaha, and in a short time received a telegram that the houses were running again, and he came back to the city. He had a conversation with Branch who said the gambling houses would have to close or pay for keeping open, and in pursuance of this agreement he gave Morrison $50 to be given to Branch. This was in August. Again in September he gave either Brucker or Morrison $50 more. Afterward there was a quarrel among the gamblers about the receiver, and from October to April they had paid out $50 per month to Cap. Smith instead of Branch. The conversation took place with Branch a few days after they were closed up. All this time his house was paying the customary fine of $10 per month to the city. The money paid to Guthrie was for the purpose of being allowed to keep open houses. At the same time he paid for himself he

he, Smith, would do business with him. The payment of the $50 per month had no way interfered with the payment of the $10 PER MONTH TO THE POLICE COURT. This money had been paid for the purpose of keeping his business open. He was a witness before the grand jury. In the re-direct examination he said: From July 1883 to April 1884 there were some bad people in Omaha and quite a number, the witness added. MR. GEORGE DUNCAN was next called. Know Higgins and Smith. Higgins had made a couple of envelopes at his place of business. This was in the winter. Captain Smith took them away. Branch also got one. The envelope that Higgins gave him were put in the pigeon-hole of the desk and given to the parties directed. He was directed to give them to Captain Smith. Smith was told they were in the pigeon-hole and afterward they were gone. GOODLY BRUCKER RECALLED. The witness stated he had given James Smith money in pursuance of the agreement to run their houses unmolested. Stopped payment to Smith in February. He had paid several times to Mr. Baldwin. At the same time witness paid Mr. Smith for himself he also paid him for Baldwin and Kennedy. His business had not been interfered with from the time he began to pay until payment ceased. He all this time was paying a fine in the police court. He never had seen the gambling houses closed before.

CROSS EXAMINATION. Pald Smith money but did not know what he did with it. Never paid Guthrie any. Don't know that Branch or Smith were authorized by the marshal to receive it. C. S. HIGGINS RECALLED. He paid money other than the first $100 to Branch. Also paid Mr. Smith. Began to leave money at McNamara & Duncan's after he had made the second payment to Branch. He would take $50 put it in an envelope leave it with Mr. Duncan for delivery to some one who would call for it. He left it as stated for the purpose of keeping open. On being cross-examined by Mr. Baldwin. He was arrested last August for keeping his house open but he had paid his fine and never was brought before the police court. On the re-direct examination by Mr. Godwin: He never had paid a dollar to any official in any other administration than that of Chase and Guthrie. STEPHEN FELCKEL. He was in the city when the houses were closed. Mr. Guthrie had asked him before they had closed whether or not they ought to pay and if so how much. Witness told him that depended upon the size of the game. Guthrie wanted him to see the houses about it but he was called away from the city and when he returned to the city he saw Guthrie who said it had been fixed by Branch. He was here last summer for the purpose of organizing a merchants' police force but CHASE WANTED SO MUCH to swear them that the scheme fell through. On cross-examination, he said he came here and organized a merchants' police force. The men were afterwards arrested, but witness was not. The marshal had come to him last summer and asked him whether or not these houses ought not to pay. Witness told him much depended upon the size of the game. Witness said to Guthrie, on his return to the city, "You got Branch to fix it for you?" "I wanted you to do it for me," said the marshal, "but you were out of town." ONE MORE WITNESS. Godwin stated to the court that he had only one witness for the state who could not be produced until morning, and thereupon court adjourned for the day.

FILED. Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times the urine is cloudy, and is very common attendant. YESTERDAY'S INQUEST.

Coroner Maul Holds an Inquest Upon the Remains of John Hactor Killed at Waterloo.

Coroner Maul went to Waterloo yesterday and held an inquest upon the remains of John Hactor who was killed near there by falling beneath a moving freight train. The testimony of the witnesses before the jury was conflicting, some stating he was pushed off the train, others that he fell off after the brakeman had ordered him off. Thos. Hactor, a cousin of the deceased, says the deceased was not drunk when the accident occurred--in fact he had drank none at all that day. He went from Waterloo to Elkhorn on the 2 o'clock train, remained about the station there until the 6 o'clock freight came along. He boarded the train and stood on the bumpers, three or four cars from the caboose. After the train started, the brakeman, who saw him getting on, came up and ordered him off. Hactor replied that he was only going to Waterloo, where he worked, and that he could not get off while the train was moving because he was a cripple. The brakeman then told him to get on top of the cars, and it is possible that in so doing he slipped and fell under the wheels. The remains were picked up by the section gang an hour after the accident. The left leg was cut in three places and the right through the thigh. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by being run over by the cars and that they were unable to ascertain whether he fell under or was pushed der.

The Voice of the People.

The people, as a whole, seldom make mistakes, and the unanimous voice of praise which comes from those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, fully justifies the claims of the proprietors of this great medicine. Indeed, these very claims are based entirely on what the people say Hood's Sarsaparilla has done. Send for Hood's Sarsaparilla to J. C. Leavelle, Mass., for book containing statements of many cures.

Ladies should reflect before using any preparation that is applied to so delicate a surface as the skin. Any cosmetic will at first impart a beautifying effect and not apparently injure the skin, but in a very short time little blotches and discolorations appear on the face which conclusively show the poisonous drugs in that composition. It can be safely said the more than two thirds of the face powder contain these injurious ingredients. For so-called medicinal complexion powders are not only absolutely free from all deleterious matter, but its principal ingredient is an active curative for all diseases of the skin. It has stood the test of years. Sold by all druggists. me-05d

FACTS FROM FREMONT. To the Omaha BEE. FREMONT, Neb., June 30. The hot days and nights have not caused any perceptible stagnation in business. The town is on the increase. T. Huette & Son's fine business block has reached the second story. Merritt & East, a new drug firm from Denver, have opened a neat store on 6th street. The telephone company is extending its wires in the city so as to reach many new subscribers. A great deal of merited praise has been bestowed upon our opera house. The decorations are certainly very artistic. Since its opening there has been a spirited demand for its occupancy. Our home talent will present "Fanchon, the Cricketer," on July 24, with a well selected cast and Mrs. Frank Smith as the Cricketer. Mrs. Smith has a host of friends among theatre-going people, which speaks volumes for her dramatic ability. In her present character of Fanchon we predict a most interesting presentation. Bon.

Michigan State College

I have several times examined baking powders in the market to determine their purity, raising power and influence on the health of those using them. I have uniformly found DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER the best in all these respects. I have just made another examination of the "Royal," "Andrews' Pearl" and "Dr. Price's Cream," and the results are the same as formerly. DR. PRICE'S CREAM is free from AMMONIA, while the "Royal," and "Andrews' Pearl" both contain Ammonia. The final reaction of "Dr. PRICE'S CREAM" is acid, while the "Royal" and "Pearl" give an ALKALINE reaction, which LEADS TO DYSPEPSIA. Prices is a pure, clean and elegant proportion of Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda, and there does "in no wise enter into it anything that defleth neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie." In raising power "price's stands at the head. The relative amount of Carbonic Acid Gas given off by the same weight (10 grammes of these powders, heated in the same way is as follows: Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder - 650 cubic centimeters The Royal - 600 cubic centimeters Andrews' Pearl - 543 cubic centimeters I have used PRICE'S in my family for years. "Even if the price is higher PRICE'S is always the best. PROF. R. C. KEDZIE. Lansing, June 3, 1884. []
