Water cornet band, Jones' Battery band and the Springfield club. The oration by Rev. J. W. Shank was a masterly effort, delighting the large audience which listened with rapt attention...

The oration in German by Mr. Schneke, of Omaha, was equally prized by those who could understand the German language. One of the most interesting features of the occasion was the barbecue...

The sports in the afternoon were greatly enjoyed, notwithstanding the extreme heat. The fireworks in the evening were first-class and quite extensive.

The committee who managed the whole affair acquitted themselves nobly, and all agree that this has been the finest celebration ever held in Sarpy county.

Further Particulars of the Diamond Robbery at Buffalo Perpetrated on Omaha Parties.

From the Buffalo Times. Diamond robberies are few and far between in Buffalo, and never before has a woman been arrested for a crime of this description here. Miss Margaret Taylor, a prettily serving maid at the Mansion house, is now in jail charged with the offense of grand larceny, having been arrested yesterday afternoon by private detectives, and held to await further investigation of the case.

The story of the crime as learned last night with much difficulty by a Times reporter is very interesting, and shows how easily a young woman, whom hardly any one would suspect of being concerned in such a deed, can hide her appetitions quite well. It appears from what the reporter was able to learn, notwithstanding the reticence of the hotel people and the detectives, that Dr. Charles E. Strasberger and his invalid wife came to Buffalo from their homes in Omaha, Neb., on going to the Mansion house, were assigned to room 107.

THE STRASBERGERS is a portly man, weighing about 225 pounds, of excellent personal appearance and pleasing manners. He wears eye-glasses, talks fluently and is a splendid German scholar. His wife is an estimable lady, who has been an invalid for fourteen years. Her ailment has thus far baffled medical skill, and she is almost wholly unable to eat any food. How she has been able to exist is a wonder to her husband and friends.

When the station of Darien was soon reached and Dr. Strasberger sent a message to Manager Stafford, of the Mansion house, telling him of the loss and where the diamonds had been left. He looked at the place indicated, but the bag had been removed. Meanwhile the doctor went on to Avon with his wife and saw her safely carried for a party which she returned to Buffalo on the first train. He was disappointed when he was told at the hotel that the missing gem had been found.
