THE MISSION WORK.

Report of Mission Work to June 28th, by Mrs. H. B. Fuller.

Received for services, from Congregational church, $13.00; Presbyterian church, $13.00; U. P. church, $1.50.

Have been able to visit but little, and have received fewer calls than usual, but have of necessity written many letters.

A few weeks ago an old lady, entirely deaf, called to ask for garden seeds and an outfit to canvas for goods which she had sold before.

Some comforting letters come from those whom I have tried to help. One poor girl, who a year ago, felt that all peace and hope had slipped forever from her grasp, writes a letter full of thanks.
