

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning, July 10.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier... By Mail...

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's spring goods. The Missouri river is on the fall. There were two drunks yesterday.

The young son of Mr. Lewis Jones is very sick. The Glen picnic last evening proved quite a success.

A number of Council Bluffites went to Omaha last evening to hear Pope Bob. Scofield & Cavin are to have their store illuminated by the electric light.

The Nonpareil and Globe are shouting for some one to start a bath house. They need one.

What is going to be done about the street-walkers? They are getting too thick for decency.

J. Perry's old building having been removed, excavating for the new one began yesterday.

A broken down horse power occupies the middle of Sixth street between Eighth and Ninth avenues.

The annual spasm in favor of closing the retail stores at an early hour in the evening has again seized the city.

There is still a great demand for houses in Council Bluffs, although many new ones have been put up this season.

Callender's minstrels drew a light house here. Weather too hot for even the funny end men to raise a smile.

What has become of the hydrophobia among the dogs? They don't seem to get mad so easy as a little while ago.

Workmen in the brick-yards commence work these heated days at 3 a. m. so as to lay off during the middle of the day.

J. Morgan & Co., are making preparations to shortly open a restaurant next to their present place of business on Main street.

One of the leading hotel men says that if prohibition is carried into force in Council Bluffs, three of the largest hotels here will close their doors.

Two children of the Olsen family residing on South First street, have scarlet fever, and two or three more are reported as having symptoms of the same.

Permits to wed were yesterday given to James Torely and Hattie Thayer, both of Taylor Station; also to George Cross and Nancy M. Davis, both of Oakland.

If one-half of the penalty is to go to the fellow who informs on the liquor dealer, how will it be if the liquor dealer gets two years in the penitentiary? Will the informer have to take one year?

A driver of a city delivery wagon who only a few days ago delivered lager beer yesterday told a BEE man he now delivers butter milk. What a change! The same driver, team, wagon and kegs, but no beer.

Philena Williams, aged 20 years, 10 months and 2 days, died at 3 p. m. yesterday. The funeral services will take place at the family residence, 820 Avenue D, at 4 p. m. to-day. Friends are invited.

James McArgle, while at work unloading rails in the Union Pacific yards here yesterday, had one of his feet badly smashed by a rail falling upon it. He was taken over to Omaha for surgical treatment.

The Vaughan hose team will enter the sweepstakes contest at the Nebraska state firemen's tournament and will have a chance there to again meet their old rivals, the Walkers of Waterloo, and the Thurstons of Omaha.

A gentleman yesterday, told one of THE BEE men that he had resided here thirty years, but could remember no foot-bridge ever crossing Broadway where the oak timbers in such a good state of preservation were found by the men in building the sewer.

Paving is progressing well on lower Main street. It has been a little slow by the railway crossings, but this could not be avoided on account of the many natural difficulties there, but even there the work progressed more rapidly than was to be expected.

The new opera house at Walnut had a narrow escape of being burned the other day. A tinner at work on the roof dropped some coals into a pile of shavings on the ground, and they blazing up caught one end of the building. The fire was put out speedily, and the damage was light.

Samuel Colburn, the well-known horseman, has received from James B. Prather, of Maryville, Wis., the thoroughbred stallion Jester, who promises to become a speedy trotter, and who will at once be put in training. Although seven years old Jester has never been given any work. He is by Almont, dam by Messenger Duroc.

That angel who is supposed to preside over the fountain at Broadway and Bancroft streets, looks as if she was just rising from an old coffin. The wooden structure at the base of the fountain may be a protection to the fountain, but certainly adds nothing to its beauty. Perhaps when the paving is done a more pleasing protection can be devised.

A private letter received from Sioux City describes the treatment received there by "an informer" as very rough. The informer was a stranger who appeared there a few days ago and began to

PERSONAL.

P. Gannode has returned from Creston. J. W. Butler, of Neola, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. F. A. Sackett has left the city on a short visit. George H. Ferguson has gone out to his Peris farm.

Dr. T. W. Wood, a druggist of McGregor, is in the city. K. D. Clark and wife of McPaul, Iowa, were at the Pacific yesterday.

F. A. Jones and E. Ramsey, of Sidney, dined at the Pacific yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Runyan, of Cincinnati, are visiting their nephew John Bennett.

The names of E. Dowling and J. Porterfield appear on the Palmer house register in Chicago. Steve McAtee, of Fox & McAtee, has gone to Colfax Springs with Rev. Father McMonomy.

Mrs. J. W. Smith, of First street and Graham avenue, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering. Robt. Kuntz, left yesterday evening for the east. It is his intention to visit Chicago and New York while on the trip.

S. T. Smith, of the electric belt firm of Judd & Smith, returned yesterday from a prosperous business trip on the road. Joseph Grason has returned from the Siloam mineral springs, greatly improved in health. The waters have done marvels for Mr. Grason.

Mrs. Belle Templeton, who has been so very ill for some time, has so far recovered that she is able to be out, and yesterday went to Missouri Valley on a brief visit. George Stockert, who got his fingers pinched a few days since while feeding a job press in THE BEE printing office in this city, is getting along nicely and will be able to try it on again in a few days.

Mr. Charles Harmon left his bride last evening for the first time, on a business trip, and says he expects to be away from home until September 1st. Mr. H. no doubt over-estimates though, as home now has more attractions than heretofore when he was on the road.

W. C. James, W. R. Vaughan, W. R. Vaughan, Jr., Pat Lucy and Wm. Galvin, are registered in the Continental in Chicago as being from "Iowa," the city of Council Bluffs evidently being too thin for the blood of those democratic delegates of national reputation. Such a crowd must be hard on the Continental.

All hats at cost from this day, J. J. Auwerda & Co.
