MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's summer goods.
 The rain yesterday caused the creek to overflow its banks.
 The genuine Cleveland hats will be on sale at Metcal Bros. by the 25th.
 The Pottawattomie county normal institute opens at the Bloomer school building next week.
 The Sunday school of St. Paul's Episcopal church is preparing for a basket picnic next Tuesday.
 Regular meeting of Fidelity Council No. 156, R. A., this (Friday) evening. A full attendance is desired.
 The sewer diggers find much trouble with water, and the rain yesterday was not very favorable to the work.
 "Shuster," the shoemaker arrested for getting full and kicking up a row in the beer garden, was fined yesterday.
 The Pacific Junction Gazette has suspended publication. Mr. Althouse finding it did not pay expenses, a good excuse for quitting.
 The moonlight picnic arranged by Gus Coval, Harry Ward and Frank Withersall to be held in Fairmount park last evening was indefinitely postponed.
 William Cullen and Mattie E. Mitchell, of Omaha, yesterday were granted the necessary matrimonial papers here, and Justice Abbott was called on to tie the knot.
 The Vaughan hose team is preparing to take the sweepstakes prize in the Nebraska state firemen's tournament, which opens at Omaha next Tuesday. Nicholson and Walters will enter in the coupling contest.
 The Street Railway company is making ready to do away with its conductors, and use boxes instead, into which the passengers can drop their own fare. The boxes have already been put into some of the cars and in a day or two the conductors will be relieved.
 Judge Aylesworth on being asked by a Ben man yesterday what he would do if a man wanted to file in his court an information against a saloon-keeper, laughingly said: "Well, I guess I would put his name in the warrant." Then he said soberly that he had not seen or read the new law yet.
 Harry Birkinbine, the engineer of the Council Bluffs waterworks, is in lively demand. Lincoln has secured him to make its plans for waterworks, and at the opening of bids for material Strang, of Omaha, proves the lowest. Chamberlain, Dakota, has secured Harry Birkinbine to prepare plans for waterworks there.
 Charles Brown was arrested yesterday as a suspicious character. He was trying to sell some new school books at such low prices that it was thought he must have stolen them. He was also peddling a mixture by which letters and ornamentalations could be made on knife blades. After being questioned by the court he was allowed to skip.
 John Lindt and E. J. Abbott are receiving the names of those who intend to go to the national encampment at Minneapolis, which begins July 22, and lasts four days. The trains will leave the C. B. & Q. depot at 4 o'clock Sunday night, and the Lincoln Post, G. A. R., which has charge of the arrangement, has secured reduced fare for veterans and their friends.
 One of the police force says he is through serving papers in state cases. When he first went on the force he served a lot of such papers, and expected to get extra pay, but the county board would not allow the bills. Since then he has been serving such papers under the name of one of the constables. The county board allows the constable's fees, and then the two divide up.
 The hail storm which visited Malvern last Friday seems to have been from two to three miles wide, and the bombardment lasted probably three minutes. The largest stones measured from seven to ten inches in circumference. The damage was confined to the breaking of windows, and the total loss in Malvern will foot up several hundred dollars. The crops were not badly injured.
 It is a chilly day when "the Carter Harrison of the Missouri slope" gets left out. A little job was put up at the meeting of the democracy at the opera-house, it being the intention of some of the anti-Vaughan democrats to snub him by not asking him to take a seat on the stage, but he brought to the opera-house a framed picture of Cleveland, and putting it upon the stage with his own hands, the anti-Vaughan's could not very well tell him to leave. To wind up, he captured the band, and after the meeting had a serenade at his house.
 Yesterday THE BEE investigator took a peep at Beardley & Paulson's new commercial college in Shugart's block, and was surprised to find the institution apparently so prosperous, and running so smoothly, it having been opened less than a month ago. The rooms are large, airy and light, the assembly room being one of the best of any school in the land, it being 45 by 75 feet, with windows on three sides opening onto streets. The recitation rooms, office, etc., are also very convenient and very nicely furnished.

Yesterday a new cabinet organ was added, and other improvements are to come. Despite the hot weather, and the fact that that institution is a new one, there are already thirty pupils enrolled, and a number of others are to commence next Monday. Particular stress is being placed on the business course and the teacher's course. The institution gives abundant promise of becoming one of the enterprises of which Council Bluffs may feel proud. Letters of inquiry are being daily received from all parts of the west, and it will not be long before students from all points of the compass will begin flocking in.

The rain of the past few days has made the unfinished streets of the fourth ward in a terrible condition, and some of them are impassable. It is high time that something was done. Some of the streets were filled in bumps, leaving great mud holes and frog ponds. Some of the lot owners have neglected or refused to fill in front of their places, while their next-door neighbors have filled up to grade. The city does not seem to be able to get contractors to fill up these holes on account of the doubt of getting their pay without suits. It has been proposed that the streets be scraped level so as to do away with the present ups and downs, but the city does not dare to do this, as the high dirt, which it is proposed to scrape down, into the holes belongs to private parties, having either been paid for by them, or assessed against their property. The council is alone to blame for getting the city into this sort of a scrape. In the meantime the health and lives of the citizens are being jeopardized, and the streets are in such a condition that they are not only a disgrace, but they give a chance for bad accidents, for which the city may have to pay heavy damages.

PERSONAL.

A. D. King, of Sidney, was in the city yesterday.
 W. E. Phelps, of Sioux City, was here yesterday.
 F. E. Pike, of Perry, Iowa, visited the Bluffs yesterday.
 E. E. Harkness and family are enjoying a trip through Colorado.
 Chas. A. Davis, of St. Louis, arrived at the Ogden yesterday.
 Wm. Draper and wife, of Schuyler, Neb., dined at the Pacific yesterday.
 A. B. Thornell, of Sidney, the nominee for district attorney, was in the city yesterday.
 Hon. Aron Shaw, of Olney, Ill., father-in-law of Judge Lyman, is not expected to live.
 T. S. Couch and family have returned from their eastern trip, his father and mother returning with them.
 Harry Hatch has had another attack of his old trouble, and it has developed into evident softening of the brain. There seems little chance for him to live, and yesterday he had lost speech and consciousness.

Here's a Straw,
 J. Mueller, the music man, in writing to a prominent business man of Chicago, an Irishman and a democrat, offered to bet a hat on Blaine's election. In reply the Chicago man says:
 "Now as to your query about my political leaning I would say that I'm for the democratic nominees, but I'm too sore yet over the defeat of my favorite, Thurman, to feel enthusiastic. Therefore I don't feel like 'hooraying' or betting on the ticket at present. However, I'm too good a man to bolt and if I can get to feel warmer over Cleveland by and by, you'll hear from me on the hat question. However, the race has opened and we who are not politicians must step out side and let the 'bosses' run. It will affect us but little anyhow."

Bushnell sells railroad tickets cheap to all points.
 Why Not Publish It?
 On the first of this month the city council presented an ordinance, of great importance, affecting the interests of all property owners and especially contractors. It was intended especially as a drive at the contractor who filled Eighth street, and was to the effect that no contractor could dispose of his assessment certificates at less than par. That the substance of the ordinance may be given from the officials own standpoint, the following which appeared in "the official organ" is quoted:
 "An ordinance was passed in regard to assessment certificates issued to contractors for work to be charged up to abutting property, it provides that before a certificate is issued the contractor must make an affidavit that he has made no arrangement or agreement with any property owner or other person to dispose of the certificate for less than the amount named therein."
 Why has not this ordinance been officially published? Is it true that the city council held a curbside meeting after leaving the council chamber, and seeing the ridiculousness of such an ordinance, had it smothered? Is this a sample of the city legislation? Well, rather.

WAS HE ROBBED?
 A Marshalltown Man Claims to Have Been Held Up or Knocked Down.
 A man named Hall, hailing from Marshalltown, arrived in this city a day or two ago. Coming here at the suggestion of some citizen who had brick buildings to raise, he bearing the reputation of being experienced in the business and having the necessary apparatus. Yesterday he was telling a pitiful story about his being robbed. He claimed that in going up North Main street, just off from Broadway, he was assaulted by two men, who robbed him of his watch and $50 in money. He had marks on his face, as though some one had struck him, and this somewhat corroborated the statement, but the police took no stock in the story of the robbery, claiming on the other hand that he was "out with the boys," and that the watch was put up as security, and the money went the way of most money when a criminal crowd gets in front of a bar.
