

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Saturday Morning, July 19. SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - 30 cents per week. By Mail - $10.00 per year.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's summer goods. The water works company already has 452 consumers. One drunk and one vagrant in police court yesterday.

Falls City, Nebr., sends two pacers to be trained on the track here. George Gordon, a cigar maker, was yesterday fined for being drunk.

Max Mohr expects to open the Creston house anew on the fifth of August. The city seems just as orderly as before the prohibitory law went into force.

The city can't get on to be compelled to grade the streets of the Fourth ward. Policeman Austin's cellar was flooded day before yesterday, and some damage done.

It is said that the houses of prostitution will soon open up here as before the new law. The young democrats to meet at the council chamber Saturday night to organize a club.

C. Haldane, the attorney, is about to build a fine barn back of his residence, Market street. There is talk of organizing another Blaine and Logan Club, besides the two already formed.

There was a little row on Main street yesterday. Officer Dunn made one arrest, but the fellow proved to be the wrong man. With the unfinished street grading in the Fourth ward there are more frog ponds than can be found in any like area in any city.

The Round Table is planning for a farewell reception to Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, next Tuesday evening at the home of the Misses Beebe. A gentleman who arrived here from Kansas yesterday, says that 163 saloons opened up there on that day.

J. B. Cogshall while coupling cars Thursday got his hand caught between the drawers. The amputation of a portion of three fingers was necessary. John Tompleton yesterday received word that his brother-in-law, Campbell, who was so badly injured at Missouri Valley, was getting along very nicely indeed.

The city won't move the scales from the junction of Main and Pearl streets right away. Judge Loufbourro has issued an injunction to restrain them from doing so. Fannie Walters is now expected to explain before Justice Abbott the circumstances which have caused Melvina Waldon to accuse her of threatening to kill her with a sardion and a hammer.

to the gospel service to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the same rooms. The saloon men seem to think as little of the council's "pop ordinance" as do the prohibitionists, and few of them will take out the required license authorizing them to sell pop to everybody but drunkards and minors.

A merchant was yesterday having his teeth polished by a dentist, when the instrument which does the polishing and is worked by a pedal, was mis-directed. It touched the upper lip of the merchant, and in an instant pulled out part of his mustache, which will now have to be taken off entirely.

The sleeper has been put on the Sioux City route running through Council Bluffs to Spirit Lake, leaving the city on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 3:40 p. m., and returning will leave Spirit Lake Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, arriving in this city at 9 o'clock a. m. The fare for the round trip is $9.00. Dogs, guns, fishing tackle, etc., are carried free.

The residents in the vicinity of Park's mill, are somewhat alarmed about what appears to be an outbreak of cholera. A few days since a grandchild of R. C. Harris was taken ill and died soon after, another child was taken ill on Wednesday and died yesterday morning. Two others have been taken ill, and several others, including Mr. Harris and wife have been taken ill, all suffering as with cholera.

Mr. German, the poll tax collector, has so far collected about as much cash, and in fact a little more than was collected last year, and has made very little fuss or flurry about it. He says he is about discouraged, however, in some thirty or forty cases, and has about decided to commence suit against these delinquents, in which case it will cost them considerable more. The delinquents would do well to interview him at once.

The complaint against Mrs. Amy for putting up a frame building on north Main street, being inside the fire limits, was heard yesterday, and dismissed by Judge Aylesworth, it appearing that though on her ground, yet she had leased the ground to Mr. Brown, and lent him $300 with which to build. Proceedings will now be commenced against Mr. Brown, and against him and Mrs. Amy jointly.

The great democratic flag, strung across Broadway, has been not only drenched with the rain, but blown by the winds, so that it looks like a rag, and is caught in the limbs of the tree, by Foster's drug store. One citizen remarked, on seeing the names of Cleveland and Hendricks twisted in the foliage, that "the democrats are not out of the woods." Another added that he didn't believe they would ever get out. A third suggested "The democrats having their flag up before the election, and the republicans after election."

The sewerage work just now interferes with travel at the corner of Main and Broadway, and the block of teams at that principal street intersection, together with the gang of workmen and crowd of lookers-on, make a lively sight. There was much wondering yesterday at the way the sewer for storm water was being put down. The water is supposed to come down Broadway to Main, then turn on Main and go to the creek. The sewer on Main street near Broadway, however, was toward Broadway instead of toward the creek, making a sort of trap. Whether dirt and rubbish will not accumulate there and cause trouble was the query asked by many yesterday. The trap seemed necessary in order to get under the water mains at that point. This being about the first important sewerage done here it is naturally watched and commented upon just as was the case with the first paving.

A letter has been received from the adjutant general of the state militia, stating that there is now no company A, of the Fifth regiment and suggesting that Council Bluffs should raise a company to fill the vacancy. This city had an independent company two years or so ago, but it fell to pieces. By being a part of the state militia they would receive more financial encouragement and catch more enthusiasm, so that it would doubtless live and thrive. A first-class military company would be a great addition to Council Bluffs. Not only would it excite local interest, but if it took pride enough to get well drilled, it would prove a great credit for the town. The exercise of military drill is a healthy one, and for these and other reasons, it is not unlikely that such an organization may be perfected here. Col. Maynard has the papers and those interested in such an organization should consult him.

PERSONAL. W. H. Huston, of Cincinnati, is stopping at the Ogden. Ed Olmstead, of Chicago, is at the Ogden with his samples. Major Vaughan is in Des Moines, and is expected home to-night.

E. J. Hums, of Boston, was among those at the Pacific yesterday. F. C. Allen, of Sioux Falls, D. T., registered at the Pacific yesterday. E. A. Nash, general agent of the St. Paul, was over this side yesterday.

W. R. Marshall, of Des Moines, was here yesterday showing up dental goods. J. R. Potter and F. A. Jay, of Missouri Valley, were in the city yesterday. C. O. Gates, a commercial tourist from Brooklyn, was at the Pacific yesterday.

Mrs. John Dohany and daughter, Mrs. Maurer and Miss Doll Dohany, are visiting relatives in Minnesota. Mr. and Mrs. Wornly, who have been visiting Mrs. T. A. Clark, on Harrison street, returned to their home yesterday afternoon.

J. N. Brown, of the banking house of Gilman, Son & Co., of New York, is spending a few days in the city with Colonel L. W. Tully. Fred Keller yesterday returned from Dakota and Colorado, where he has been the past ten days, looking after his land and mining interests.

H. J. Chambers, of Avoca, was here yesterday. He says the saloons are closed up there and not a smell of whisky, except a little on the sly, perhaps. J. P. Beach, A. H. Danforth, J. M. Waterman, Samuel Holmes, C. W. Swigert, and O. Findley, of Hamburg, were here yesterday on local business.

N. C. Taggart, of the plumbing establishment of Lewis & Gilbert, left yesterday for Chicago, where he will meet his wife and little boy, who have been visiting in the east. They will all return to-morrow. S. J. Gallagher, who recently was graduated at West Point, yesterday received his commission as second lieutenant in the Sixth U. S. Cavalry, with orders so report at Ft. Bayard, New Mexico, by Sept. 20th.

C. W. Strook, who has been catching for the Peorias, has returned after a six weeks trip with the club, and again takes his place with J. Y. Fuller, the grain man. Strook has made good record in the field, but prefers other business. B. Sillaway, of Cedar Rapids, is here for a few days looking after his interest in the Ogden house. He reports that all the bars in Cedar Rapids were closed tight, and the local sentiment seems to be so strongly in favor of prohibition that no one dares to run a saloon openly.

Harry Hunter, the city editor of the Non-Paradisi, is just like to get out again, and looks poorly, but is on the gain. Harry had had bad luck. He was just getting at home in his new position, when the malaria fever seized him, and now after wrestling with it for several weeks, he is just convalescing. It is to be hoped that he may gain rapidly now, and soon be able to give the public the benefit of his skill as a newspaperer.

The genuine Cleveland hats will be on sale at Metcalf Bros.' by the 25th. Congressional Whispers. The prominence which has been given to Lieutenant-Governor Manning's name in connection with the congressional contest in this district has called forth some opposition, it being hinted that Manning will not be able to capture even the delegates of the county, on account of the fact that he is a new-comer here, and not a permanent resident. It is alleged that he is "a carpet-bagger" here, and that one of the purposes in removing to Council Bluffs was to capture this nomination.

The opposition also hints that his previous record will be sprung upon him, and that it will show up against him, and already letters have been sent to his old home and intimates not a foot there to get something which may hinder him in the race. On the other hand, Manning's friends are preparing to meet and explain any or all such matters, and they claim to court the fairest inquiry. It is said by some of Pusey's intimate friends that he will not accept a renomination, and that his personal and business interests are such that he will positively decline to run again. Others of the knowing ones say that this will depend altogether on whom the republicans nominate; if a weak man is up, and Mr. Pusey is satisfied that he has a walk-away, he will accept, but that he does not care enough for the position to make a strong fight for it, or to run any risk of the chair of defeat.

Now is the time to go to St. Paul and Minneapolis. Round trip tickets on sale at the union office, 507 Broadway, at $12.65, from July 20 to 25, and good to return till August 18. G. A. H. certificates will not be required. J. L. DeBoise, Ag't. Independent - In His Mind. "Papa, are you a democrat or a republican?" asked a small boy of a hen-pecked husband. "I'm neither, my son; I'm an independent," he replied, standing erect and throwing back his shoulders with pride. "John Henry!" screamed a shrill voice from the other room; "if you don't come here right away and rock this baby I'll hit you!" As the fond parent made a bolt for the baby the small boy muttered to himself, "Well, if that's what pa calls independence I don't want any of it."
