

THE DAILY BEE.

Tuesday Morning, July 22.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Barber Asphalt company yesterday laid its pavement in front of the Corzans hotel. Sunday afternoon the Little Shamrocks beat the Nail Workers nine by a score of 8 to 7. The fire department of Seward will come to the tournament with eighty men and will be headed by a brass band. A telegram was received yesterday stating that eighty firemen would come from Fremont to attend the tournament. The high board fence around the base ball ground was again wrecked by the storm Sunday night. The boys are certainly out of luck with that fence. In the game of ball played Sunday forenoon between the Sherman avenues and the Platanth club, the score stood 7 to 1 in favor of the former club. V. Landegren, J. W. Taylor and B. C. K. Westerland yesterday received their appointments as permanent postal clerks with an increase of salary of $300 per annum. The street car company superintendent says that all the work of the company on Farmington street will be completed this week. This is joyful news to business men on that thoroughfare. Sunday near the Nail Works the Red Stockings defeated the Torments in a game of ball, by a score of 13 to 8. On Wednesday these two clubs will play at the Athletic Park. J. J. Gorman is having a lot of dirt filled in around the city jail to prevent the water from running in and drowning the occupants. This will do away with the life preserving scheme. The contractors on Farmington street yesterday put men at work to bail the water out of the "Dismal Swamp," corner of Fifteenth and Farmington, stating that the burlesque had been carried far enough. Several toughs engaged in a racket on Douglas street Saturday night. No arrests were made, as the police did not arrive until after all the principals in the fight had taken their departure. If the absent minded gentlemen who took an umbrella from the news editor's room in this office, will return it between two days, he will be amply rewarded with a half column puff and a cigar. By a clipping from the "Denver News" in another column, it will be seen that Mr. Wilbur Huges has been acquitted of stealing government cattle. This will be joyful news to his many friends in this city. A woman dropped upon the sidewalk at the corner of Fifteenth and Douglas streets about 12:30 yesterday. She was carried into a doctor's office and it was pronounced a fit of heart disease. She was soon revived. In police court yesterday, there were seven cases for disturbance of the peace. Six of those were fined $5 each and costs. Three paid and three were committed. The case against the seventh was continued. Coroner Maul, in speaking of the three shooting scrapes Sunday, with tears in his eyes, in the words of Col. Ingersoll, remarked: "What marksmanship! Three shooting matches and out of all of them not a single case for the coroner. A pocketbook containing a small amount of money has been found, and the owner can have the same by calling upon County Clerk Leavitt. If it is not called for in a few days the amount will be donated to the child's hospital. Mr. O. D. Woodworth, of this city, has purchased and leased nearly 6,000 acres of land in the North Loup country which will be used for cattle ranch. He is now engaged in the erection of sheds and corrals for the accommodation of 1,500 head of cattle. Another Nebraska zephyr struck this city Sunday night. It was a "howling" in every sense of the word, and old chimneys which had been quiet for years sang all the minor strains imaginable. It was one of those weird, ghostly storms which is decidedly unwelcome. A letter from North Platte states that two games of ball were played at that place on the 19th inst. between the sides won on North Platte clubs. Both games were won by the latter named club as follows: First game stood 14 to 3; last game score stood 25 to 3. A writ of habeas corpus was yesterday issued on the application of William Fisher to recover possession of Lillie May Clarke, his sister's child. The child's mother is dead and the applicant alleges his father is neither fit, able or willing to support it. The little girl was taken into custody by the sheriff and the case continued until Thursday morning. The list of prostitutes in this city, as prepared at police headquarters, now contains 120 names. This is about double what is usually on the list. The increase is caused by the emigration from Iowa to this city. As fast as they arrive they are called upon by the police for a monthly fine. The management of the Tournament hereby called upon the business men and residents of the city to decorate their places of business and residences along the line of march Wednesday morning. In another column will be found the line of march, and it would be a good idea for business men generally to decorate. Wm. Webb and George Steele, of the Thurston loan team, will compete in the cupping contest at the Academy of Music Wednesday night. A Bee reporter saw the boys make a few coupings yesterday and if they do as well Wednesday night the Decatur boys will be left far behind. Look out for Webb and Steele, for they are swift ones. Messrs. F. E. and J. Wheeler, under the firm name of Wheeler Bros., will open one of the new stores in Bushman's block, in a few days with a full line of book and stationery. These gentlemen come well recommended, and as they thoroughly understand their business will carry a large stock at popular prices, they will no doubt be well patronized from the first. A lady driving in a buggy on St. Mary's avenue, near Park's drug store, met with an accident yesterday. As she attempted to drive across the cross-roads at that point, the wheels of the buggy became fastened and two of them were broken, leaving the buggy drop down on the side and striking the lady to the ground. Fortunately she was not hurt. GRAND EXCURSION To St. Paul & Minneapolis via Sioux City. To parties wishing to attend the G. A. R. reunion at Minneapolis, the S. O. & Pacific railroad will sell round trip tickets at $12.65 from July 20th to 23rd; good to return until August 15. Attention—made.

FIGHTING FOR LIFE.

Edward Henry on Trial for Murder in the First Degree.

The Defense of Unintentional Shooting Set Up.

The Arguments to be Made this Morning.

THE KILLING OF MARTIN PIGGOTT.

In the district court before Judge Neville yesterday the case of the state against Edmund Henry indicted for murder in the first degree for the killing of Martin Piggott, on May 20th, near the Union stock yards, was taken up early in the forenoon. The jury in this case was secured on Saturday after exhausting several special venire. District Attorney Godwin for the state, stated his case to the jury and was followed by N. J. Burnham for the defense. The court room was well filled by the usual crowd which loves to listen to such tales as were related during the progress of the trial. The defendant sat beside his counsel all day and watched closely every witness as he gave his testimony and occasionally volunteered a remark to Mr. Burnham his attorney. The first witness for the state was THOMAS RYAN.

Witness saw Piggott the day of shooting. At 12 o'clock witness came back from work and went into Henry's boarding house. Piggott was sleeping on a lower bunk in the shed attached to the main house. Witness put his coat on the bunk and went to the well. Then came back and saw Henry, who asked witness if he slept up stairs. Henry said he did not care (referring to a nuisance committed up stairs.) Defendant was talking with a partner of the deceased, whom Henry charged with the offense. The young man said his partner (Piggott) did not do it. After dinner witness went out to the shed and sat on a box; saw Henry come in and go to the bunk upon which Piggott was lying and say to him "get up, get up." Defendant told him to get out and he would get his board bill, saying, "I want no such dirty man in my house." Piggott then called Henry a name. The defendant here POINTED A PISTOL AT PIGGOTT, which he had brought into the shed concealed under his apron. The accused said "I will shoot." Witness then looked up and saw Henry pressing the revolver against the deceased's stomach and the revolver was discharged.

Witness said to Henry he ought not to have done this. "Well," said the defendant, "I could not help it." Witness heard Piggott say "My God, he has shot me." Henry then went into the kitchen door with his pistol by his side in his hand. The deceased had been drinking. Two other witnesses named Carlson and Smith next testified and their evidence was substantially as that of Ryan. Thomas Berry testified: He remembered the time of shooting on the twentieth of May. He went to Henry's well for water that morning and saw the dead man talking with Henry near the well and heard Piggott say "I did not do it, you know I did not." (A pistol was here handed the witness which he recognized as the one handed by his clerk to Henry the morning of the murder.)

William Sanford testified: He slept at Henry's. He came home to dinner on the 20th of May and heard a dispute between Piggott and Henry near the house. Henry charged Piggott with having committed a nuisance and told him to leave the premises. Piggott asked for his board bill and Henry told him he would not give it to him. Defendant told Piggott to get another weapon, and at the same time drew his revolver. Piggott said "YOU WOULD NOT SHOOT ME, WOULD YOU?" Henry said "I will." The two men then engaged in a scuffle. Piggott was holding Henry with both hands when the defendant pressed the pistol down on the deceased's left side. The revolver then went off and Piggott said "O, God! I'm shot."

This closed the testimony for the state. The evidence was peculiar in one respect. He the cross-examination by Mr. Burnham being unable to shake the defendant's statements in any particular whatever. Note a single contradiction escaped the lips of any one of the witnesses. MORLAND SCHUTT TESTIFIED. A gunsmith, the first witness called for the defense, was given the pistol which the prosecution had introduced in evidence. Witness said the pistol was discharged very easily. FRANK C. MULLER TESTIFIED. Witness was clerk and book-keeper for the defendant. Saw Henry at 6 o'clock a. m. on the 20th of May, at McPherson's saloon. Gave him a pistol there. Witness had been out the night before and did not go to his work on the morning of the 20th. Henry came over to the saloon and said he wanted all the papers and things which had belonged to defendant. He then gave witness a 32 calibre revolver which he had taken from a house a couple of nights before. Some boarder had pawned it for board some time before. When Muller had concluded his evidence Attorney Burnham called Edmund Henry, the defendant and a man apparently 40 years of age with a long black and almost matted beard.

A GOAL BLACK AND FIERING EYE and a complexion that of an Italian, wearing a short lion coat, workingman's pants, and a pair of old and dust covered boots, rose up beside him and walked to the witness stand. He gave his testimony in very broken English, and when his attorney asked him concerning his family was the only time that he showed any emotion or apparently realized the position in which he was placed. THE DEFENDANT'S TESTIMONY. Was born in Saxony and came from Berlin to America two years and seven months ago. Had been a baker by trade and came to Nebraska in April last. Piggott came to defendant's house two days before he was killed. The deceased said he came for board. The witness not being able to speak intelligibly an interpreter was called who gave his testimony to the court and jury. Witness said Piggott came there to board and went to work on Monday morning. Witness had found notices in Piggott's room for two mornings and he told him to leave the house. "All right," said Piggott, "I will fix you."

He had no conversation with Piggott, at all in the morning, except to tell him to leave the premises. Piggott went away and came back about 10 and went up stairs. Piggott said he had gone up stairs for business. Witness went up stairs and told him to leave the house. Piggott called witness a name and told him to leave. He then told witness to shoot him. He pulled the trigger. He got a pistol and papers of his clerk at McPherson's saloon on the morning of the shooting. Henry was put under a rigid cross examination by the prosecutor, but his testimony in chief remained unshaken. The court then adjourned until half past nine this morning.

STORM SWEEP.

Reports From the Terrible Storm of Sunday Night.

The Machine Shops at Grand Island Wrecked—Crops Badly Damaged Near Central City.—Telegraph Lines in Bad Shape.

The storm of Sunday night, although but little damage was done in this immediate vicinity, did a large amount of damage between Central City and Grand Island. At the latter place the machine shops of the Union Pacific company was badly wrecked. About one half of the roof of the large building was torn off and scattered broadcast over the country. A caboose, which was in the shops for repairs, was blown out upon the track for a distance of ten rods, and was then blown from the rails and overturned in the ditch. A couple of gentlemen who came in from that section yesterday, state that for two miles on either side of Central City the crops are ruined. A heavy hail storm accompanied the wind and the hail stones were as large as walnuts. They did the small grain like a scythe and whipped the leaves from the trees, leaving many of them as bare as in winter. Great damage was done to the telegraph lines. About seventy poles were blown down and the wires badly tangled and broken. In one place, over thirty telegraph poles were blown down. The lines are now working badly and it is impossible to get full reports of the damage done but it is safe to say that it will be very large in the aggregate.

ROUSING REPUBLICANS.

An Enthusiastic Meeting of the Blaine and Logan Club Addressed by Hon. Church Howe.

The Blaine and Logan club felt extremely jubilant over the success of the democratic rally at the opera house. A committee went over to the meeting and secured the Musical Union orchestra engaged to play at the Boyd for the evening. The band came up into the club rooms and played several pieces after which it went down upon the street in front and discoursed some fine music. The meeting was called to order by the chair, A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Clarke, Blackburn and Shelley was appointed to visit the Paxton hotel and invite the Hon. Church Howe to attend the club and address the meeting. Mr. Howe appeared in a few moments accompanied by the committee. The chair announced that Mr. Rosicky had refused to serve upon the executive committee for the first ward, and Judge Stenberg was placed upon the committee in his stead. W. F. Bechel was also placed upon the committee from the Fourth ward, in place of W. J. Broatch, who will be absent from the city until September 1st.

When the band had ceased playing an audience of a couple hundred was assembled for the trial. The remainder of the day was occupied by the addresses of Messrs. Mr. J. N. Stevens opening on behalf of the government, Mr. Thomas Macon, of the firm of Wells, Smith & Macon, following with a powerful and eloquent argument on behalf of the defendant, in which he mercilessly exposed the malfeasance and general character of the government witnesses; and Mr. Braze, United States district attorney, closing on the part of the prosecution. The charge of Judge Hallett was masterly, comprehensive and lucid. At 7:45 p. m. the jury returned with their verdict and immediately afterward approached the defendant in a body shaking hands with him and congratulating him warmly, thus showing as much as by their verdict their estimate of the unworthiness of the case.

A FIRST-CLASS FIASCO.

The Democratic Rally and Ovation a Complete Failure.

The democratic rally and ovation, last evening, to the returning delegates from the national convention at Chicago was far from what it had promised to be. About two hundred and fifty persons impatiently waited in the opera house until half past eight. The band played several enthusiastic airs in front and afterward withdrew into the opera house where several more were discoursed. After waiting for more than a half hour after the time appointed for the speaking making to begin Mr. Constantine V. Calisher appeared upon the stage and stated by the postponing of the meeting had been indefinitely postponed, for the reason that the principal speakers of the evening, Hon. A. J. Poppleton and James W. Savage had sent word that they could not be present. These gentlemen, he said, had been detained at Chicago by the threatening weather, but at some time in the near future the meeting would be called again.

The following transfers were filed for record in the county clerk's office July 19, and reported for the Bee by Ames' real estate agency. Isabella Gottheimer to John Strom, d. n. 33 feet lot 16, and Strom, 10 1/2 feet lot 17 "Reese place," $1,300. F. H. Davis and wife to Chas. and Ann Radson, w. d. lot 21, Himebaugh place, $675. A Suit for Heavy Damages Instituted.

In district court, before Judge Wagoner, yesterday, the case of Jorgensen against Barker occupied the attention of that tribunal the whole day. W. V. Morse instituted suit against Henry and Charles Wagner to recover judgment for $1,650 on four promissory notes. A suit was instituted against Frank A. Woods and J. A. Wakefield by John Martin Hillmer, wherein the plaintiff seeks to recover $10,000 damages. It appears from the petition that Hillmer was arrested some time ago at the instance of Wakefield or his agent, on a warrant issued out of Justice Beck's court. Hillmer was charged with removing his goods to defraud his creditors. He was held in jail for nine days and afterward released on the trial of the case. Plaintiff avers he has been injured in his reputation and business to the amount stated above.

Charged With Being a Fraud.

A letter was received at the Bee Office in which the writer states that few evenings ago a woman arrived in this city bearing a letter from Sioux City reciting that the bearer is the mother of three children and the wife of a nearly blind man. The writer goes on to say that the woman referred to has worked every day between here and Sioux City very successfully and is now working Omaha; and alleges that she is a fraud, her husband being a strong, able-bodied man with excellent eyesight.

HUGUS NOT GUILTY.

The Alleged Cattle-Stealing Case in the United States Court.

Denver News. The case of the United States vs. Wilbur B. Hugas terminated last evening in a verdict of "Not Guilty." A quantity of evidence was taken in which peculiar and damaging testimony was elicited against the prosecution, including the fact that the lawyer from Rawlins who had figured so prominently in the case had himself been indicted for embezzlement in Pennsylvania, and had not awaited or returned to take his trial. The remainder of the day was occupied by the addresses of Messrs. Mr. J. N. Stevens opening on behalf of the government, Mr. Thomas Macon, of the firm of Wells, Smith & Macon, following with a powerful and eloquent argument on behalf of the defendant, in which he mercilessly exposed the malfeasance and general character of the government witnesses; and Mr. Braze, United States district attorney, closing on the part of the prosecution. The charge of Judge Hallett was masterly, comprehensive and lucid. At 7:45 p. m. the jury returned with their verdict and immediately afterward approached the defendant in a body shaking hands with him and congratulating him warmly, thus showing as much as by their verdict their estimate of the unworthiness of the case.

Ladies should reflect before using any preparation that is applied to so delicate surface as the skin. Any cosmetic will at first impart a beautifying effect and not apparently injure the skin, but in a very short time little blotches and discolorations appear on the face which conclude stately above the poisonous drugs in that composition. It can be safely said the more than two-thirds of the face powder contain these injurious ingredients. For such a medicated complexion power is not only absolutely free from all deleterious matter, but its principal ingredient is an active curative for all diseases of the skin. It has stood the test of years. Sold by all druggists. me-eodyl

POLICE PARAGRAPHS.

In the police court yesterday afternoon Charles Vaughan was fined $5 and costs for assaulting a fellow laborer. Police Judge Bencke in connection with this case states what advantages an attorney is to his client at times. Vaughan who had been commanded by the police to be present at his trial on Saturday afternoon failed to appear, but instead visited an attorney. He was advised by his counsel not to appear unless arrested. Judge Bencke sent an officer after him shortly after his case had been continued, and Vaughan languished in jail over Sunday. Flowers the man charged with shooting on Tenth street on Sunday night was placed under bonds of $500, and Dixon and Harris held as witnesses gave bail in the sum of $100 for their appearance.
