

THE DAILY BEE.

Thursday Morning, July 24

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A circus wagon was stuck at the corner of Fifteenth and Farnam streets yesterday and a large crowd gathered to see it start.

Yesterday an engine struck one of Forepaugh's teams at the Tenth street crossing but luckily the horses were not seriously injured.

The Sunday school and society of the First Congregational church will picnic at Hancock park to-day. Cars leave the church at 10 o'clock.

Last night the Maennerchor society of this city gave the proprietors of the Tivoli gardens a pleasant little surprise. They were out in a body and under the leadership of H. Raven rendered some excellent choral performances.

The game of ball at the Athletic park yesterday afternoon, between the Red Stockings and Torments, resulted in the defeat of the first named club by a score of 11 to 5. It was a hotly contested game and was very exciting.

Yesterday as Forepaugh's elephants were passing up Sixteenth street a horse belonging to Helmsdorf, the grocery man, broke loose and ran away, damaging the wagon to the extent of $15. Mr. Helmsdorf will hold Mr. Forepaugh responsible for the damages.

The B. & M. appraisers have filed twenty-nine reports, amounting to $35,000, for right of way for the new line from the depot to the stock yards. The company has purchased the largest part of the necessary land by private contract, and the appraisements are only on disputed points.

Until August 1st we will offer a large lot of furniture at greatly reduced prices to close out patterns. Will include in this sale many desirable goods in every department of the business. 50 style chamber sets, 25 styles of parlor sets. A large number of easy chairs, patent rockers, odd pieces, etc., etc. CHARLES SHIVERICK, 1206, 1208 & 1210, Farnam st. m.k.aug1

Articles of agreement have been entered into between P. M. Duffy, of Omaha, and Dick Black, of Missouri, to run a foot race of 100 yards, on Saturday, August 23, at the driving park, for $200 a side, the start to be 12 feet, scratch start. Duffy is a member of the Thurston hose team, and is being backed by himself and the firemen. He recently beat Archie McComb of San Francisco. Considerable money will probably change hands.

A jury was empaneled in the district court Wednesday morning for the trial of Geo Davis on an indictment for robbery. All was ready for the trial, when Davis took a survey of the jury box, appeared discouraged, and through his counsel, Mr. Baldwin, announced his readiness to plead guilty to grand larceny, if the court would allow it. The court accepted, and thus the trial set for the day was ended. No session was held in the afternoon, and owing to the extreme heat, the lawyers and litigants were extremely grateful therefor.

Little Basie and Bulah Leavitt, daughters of County Clerk Leavitt, gave a birthday party yesterday afternoon to about twenty of their little friends. They were entertained by the young Misses Leavitt from 3 till 6 in a queenly manner. Mrs. Leavitt had not forgotten to prepare some excellent refreshments for the little ones which they partook of with a keen relish. Numerous presents were presented by the guests, among which were a number of beautiful bouquets. When the little ones took their departure they all wished Basie and Bulah many happy returns of the day which they had just celebrated.

T. J. Grainger and wife, of Plattsmouth, are registered at the Metropolitan.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Ambrose left yesterday afternoon for a two weeks visit to Boston and other eastern cities.

Miss Zerlina Freedman of Detroit Mich., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Morris H. Sloman, 2312 Capital avenue.

Gen. Colvin and family left yesterday for Spirit Lake, Iowa, to be gone for a few days on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. Samuel Burns left yesterday morning for a month's sojourn in Colorado, taking in the scenery of Denver, Leadville, Manitou, etc.

Miss Ella Freeman, who has been on quite an extended trip to the Rocky mountains, returned from Plattsmouth last evening after having had a pleasant time. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Schlegel, of Plattsmouth with whom she was visiting in that town.

William Fowler, Jr., son of William Fowler, captain of the XIII club of New York City, arrived in Omaha yesterday and while here is the guest of his friend, Dr. H. L. Rossmoore.

Mr. Fowler is in the west on a pleasure trip, and will make Denver his headquarters, from which he will return home.

STATE FIREMEN.

A Two Days Performance at the State Fair Grounds To-day.

The John M. Thurston's Barred from the State Race by the Board of Control.

Yesterday was unpropitious for the tournament. The different companies went out to the grounds in the forenoon but finding the track very heavy and muddy returned to the city. In the afternoon they again went out in the hope that the forenoon sun and wind had put the track in a condition such that it could be used, but were disappointed. The regular programme of the day was accordingly postponed until to-day.

THE HITCHING CONTEST.

The hitching contest of the three Omaha companies was the only thing on yesterday's programme carried out. This competition was simply an exhibition of the Omaha fire department to determine the best possible time the three companies could make in running by the fire alarm from their respective houses to box 42 corner of Thirteenth and Douglas. Company 2 made the distance and threw water from the pipe in the remarkable short time of one minute and forty-seven seconds; No. 3's time was two minutes and seven seconds and No. 1, whose house is distant from this box over a mile, made the distance in four minutes and seven seconds. The exhibition was a most satisfactory one and caused the celebrity and discipline of the Omaha department to be the principal topic of conversation among old firemen last evening.

After the exhibition had ended many members of the Omaha department and the visiting firemen repaired to Firemen's hall, where a most social time was had. Those in attendance were entertained by music and speeches from various firemen present, and the parading threat of the Iowa firemen was occasionally allayed by a foaming tankard of beer drawn from a keg on the platform.

THE JOHN M. THURSTONS.

Ever since the tournament began verbal protests have been made against the John M. Thurston hose company, of this city, competing in the state championship race which is down upon the programme for to-day. It is claimed that this company does not come within the rules as laid down by the State association.

The general committee also held a meeting, and one of its members says it was agreed to give no prizes unless it was allowed to compete in this race.

Yesterday's race and those on the programme for to-day, with the exception of the free-for-all which has been put down for to-morrow at 2 p.m., will come off to-day.

A SECOND DEFEAT.

The Evansville Beaten by the Score of 10 to 3 by the Union Pacific.

The Evansville and the Union Pacific yesterday afternoon crossed bats for the third time and an overwhelming defeat resulted to the visiting team. The home nine kept the Hoosiers hunting leather a great share of the time, hitting Crowell, the regular pitcher, for thirteen safe hits. The home team presented Salisbury as pitcher, who never did more effective work in an Omaha diamond. He was supported by Cavanaugh behind the bat who played a remarkable game and taught the visitors they could not make second by theft, cutting off the only two who furtively attempted to make it.

Finkhouseer played an unusual game in center field, missing a high fly from Jameson's bat, an instance so rare as to be remarkable.

Crowell was supported behind the bat by Veach who caught the two previous games and played his position almost faultlessly. Jameson, the released catcher of the Union Pacific played second for the visitors, Hagan holding down first.

The home team won the toss for the third time. McKelvey led off with a two base, made third on Bandel's put out at first, and came home on Sneed's single to right field, making an earned run. The visitors were allowed to score in the fifth inning when Hagan hit the sphere from one base and was allowed to make second on an ineffectual attempt to cut Crowell, the batter, off at first. After Sowerd went out on a pop up to Salisbury Thompson made a fine drive to right center for three bases and made home on McKelvey's poor throw to cut him off at third. The home team added four more in the sixth and five in the eighth to that of McKelvey's in the first, defeating the visitors by the score of ten to three.

The ground was very muddy and its condition greatly retarded the game. Strook, the old catcher of the Bluffs team, who umpired Wednesday's game, and was cheered by the crowd when he appeared. The attendance was about 1,000.

Following is the score.

THE DURANTS.

The members of the Durant engine company feel justly proud of their display in the parade of Wednesday. They turned out thirty strong. The "old Durant" was bunched up and glistened in the sunlight while flowers and streamers added to the lustre of the "Maheen." The company, through its secretary, Frank Schmitt, desire to thank Supt. Congdon and Master Mechanic McConnell, for their aid in decorating the engine, and to Mrs. and Miss McConnell and Mrs. Midgely for their generous gift of bouquets. These ladies halted the company in front of their residences on Cass street and pinned bouquets on all the members. The boys are confident they will receive the premium for the best display in the parade.

DOINGS IN THE COURTS.

The Steamboat Cases Finally Disposed of—Cooper Found Guilty of Burglary—Police Court Briefs.

THE UNITED STATES COURTS.

The opinion of the United States circuit judge in the libel case of J. H. McLain et al against the steamboats Gen. Mead, Nellie Peck, and Gen. Terry, was received and filed in the United States clerk's office yesterday. Judge Brewer overruled the exceptions to Judge Savage's report, dismissing the case at the cost of the libellants. It is the opinion of the judge that the claim for which these boats were libeled is against the Northwestern Transportation company and not against the boats.

The General Mead passed down the river last night fearlessly on its way from Covington, where it has been tied up for some time, to St. Louis. It will be run on the lower river in the future by parties who purchased from Mrs. Nellie Peck, its former owner, who for some time past has been residing in this city.

POLICE COURT.

William Kirk, for the larceny of a coat, was given 30 days on bread and water.

A complaint was filed against a policeman by Vinnie Clinton, who claims that the guardian of society assaulted and beat her, while on duty in a state of intoxication.

The case against Joe Miller, charged with assault and battery, was continued. These protests say that it has not been in existence the requisite length of time. The board of control held a meeting yesterday and decided to bar this company from the state championship race to take place to-day.

THE DISTRICT COURT.

Thomas Cooper who was indicted for burglariously entering Bowery Hill saloon in the fore part of June last was found guilty of the crime charged, before Judge Neville yesterday. He relied upon drunkenness for his defense, but only a few moments were needed by the jury for deliberation to determine that he was accountable for his acts.

The civil suit against Policeman Hinchey for civil damages arising from false imprisonment, by Napoleon Anderson, was disposed of in favor of the defendant. The case of Knowles against Price was on trial at the adjournment of Judge Wakeley's court last evening.

District Attorney Godwin will call up this morning the case of the State against Sereiber, indicted for murder at the October term of court.

A FIELD DAY.

A Dozen Evil Deeds Before Judge Bencke Yesterday.

Yesterday was a field day in police court. A dozen evil deeds walked into the prisoners dock to plead to the various charges against them.

John Waddle, A. L. Irish and M. L. Young were charged with being suspicious persons. Irish had been working the city with a lot of brass rings and had made several sales of the same. One he sold for $2. They all pleaded not guilty and were held for examination.

Frank Neal pleaded guilty to a charge of disturbance of the peace and was fined $5 and costs.

John Chopp said that he was not drunk although a wagon had to be provided to haul his limp and almost lifeless form to the jail. He said he was sun-struck and his case was continued.

D. Grandon was a youthful fighter. He said that another boy called him names and that he slapped his mouth. The judge taxed him $3 and costs for being so handy with his hands.

J. Martin and W. Brown were going home together on a wagon when they got into a dispute and got off upon the ground to settle the matter. Both of them appeared in police court with their eyes in deep mourning. They were fined $3 each and costs.

Eod Hood and John Green were arrested for fighting but were discharged as no appeal appeared against them.

Harry Austin, colored man, was charged with being a vagrant and living in a house of prostitution. He pleaded not guilty and his case was continued.

A Mistake Inadvertently Made, Corrected.

By inadvertence in yesterday's Bee's report of the tournament the Grand Island team was mentioned as having won the third place in the race for teams that never contested. This team was not entered in this race, there being only three competitors, the Clelands of Fremont, the Nebraska City No. 1, and the Deluge Hose company of Omaha.

The Grand Island team, however, has been on the grounds, ever since the beginning of the tournament and, are here for the purpose of competing in the state championship race. This team it will be remembered, took the first prize at Lincoln last summer in the race for teams that never contested. The Grand Island's are in excellent shape, and will make it decidedly interesting for all their competitors.

Hafke Again.

The man Chas. Hafke, who was arrested a few weeks since for attempting to brain a man with an ax, was again arrested Wednesday for carrying an old gun and threatening to shoot someone.

He is evidently crazy and his case will be taken before the board of insanity.

J. H. HENGEN & SON.

The Pioneer Boot and Shoe makers, wish to inform the public of their removal from 1221 Farnam street to No. 311 Eleventh street between Farnam and Harney. Give them a call.

FOREPAUGH IN TOWN.

An Enormous Crowd Follows the Parade Through the Streets.

A Gorgeous Display Followed by an Excellent Circus Performance.

Forepaugh's circus was in the city yesterday and as is the case when a circus, big or little, reaches this place, the streets were crowded with an anxious throng of people.

By half past nine the crowd began to gather upon the business streets, and by ten o'clock it was almost impossible for a person to pass his way along the sidewalks. Longing eyes were turned in the direction of the show ground, but for some reason the parade was late in making its appearance and it was noon before it wended its way down Sixteenth street, but when it did come all who had waited were amply repaid for their time, for a more gorgeous pageant of show property never passed through the streets of this city.

In the afternoon and evening a large crowd gathered in the streets to witness the performance. Never were exhibitions given in Omaha, the features of which can be traced so much that was novel, so much that was startling. Two rings and a raised platform were employed the major part of the time by the performers, afoot and on horseback. A troop of Arabian tumblers, whose feats were as varied as they were daring, in an innovation in acrobatic entertainment. The ring riding is only a secondary incident. This style of equestrianism is overshadowed by the steeple-chasing, hurdle riding and chariot races contested on the ellipse which run around the entire canyon space. Such dashing horsemanship by both men and women was never witnessed in this city. The races had every appearance of being decided on their merits. Certainly they were as honest as the matches seen on the great fashion courses of the country. The thoroughbreds which were ridden in the hurdle and steeple races were full of mettle.

CIRCUS NOTES.

Including the agents and bill posters there are 550 people on Mr. Forepaugh's payroll.

The weight of the snakes that the Hindoo girl wraps about her body at one time is 215 pounds.

Mr. Forepaugh is ably assisted in the management of the show by his son, A. Forepaugh, jr., and his nephew, J. A. Forepaugh.

One of the cleverest things of the performance is the impersonation of a duke by Charley Walton, of Walton and Edwards, the well-known sketch artists.

The hippodrome races are the most thrilling and sensational of any ever seen in this city. The horses are English thoroughbreds and the riders professional jockeys.

Mr. Forepaugh carries 325 head of horses, ponies and mules.

Billy Anderson, the suave and omnipresent Pinkerton detective who accompanied the show, is receiving the congratulations of his friends on the receipt of a telegram from his home in Philadelphia announcing the advent of a ten pound piece of humanity.

Samuel Watson, the amusement director, is just recovering from a severe illness.

"Dave" Watt, the lightning ticket seller, was the most expert of a good many sales of yesterday.

It requires 58 cars of extra length, all being between 40 and 60 feet long, to transport the show. In addition to this there are four advance cars, all of which are the property of Mr. Forepaugh.

Mr. Potvin's Statement.

Mr. Potvin, the contractor of the Long street and Leavenworth street school buildings, takes exception to the report of the board of education as it appeared in yesterday's issue. The Bee local has nothing to say of what is done by the board of education other than to give to its readers a correct report of the same, however.

Mr. Potvin is entitled to his say and he said at this office and denied that he called at the meeting that he would give a bond of $10,000 that the roof would not fall in, for he considers the roof first-class in every particular. He says what he did say is this: The equal undivided one-third part of one equal undivided one-half of the southeast quarter of section seven (7), in township fifteen (15) range thirteen (13), said township, if divided, being 20 acres situated in Douglas county, Nebraska.

Special Master in Chancery, W. J. CONNELL, Solicitor for Complainant.
