

THE DAILY BEE.

Monday Morning, July 28

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Ben Connor, of Riley & Dillon's store, was relieved of a $30 watch and chain by a sneak thief Saturday morning.

—In police court Saturday morning one disturber of the peace was fined $5 and cost and a second one was held for trial.

—Abraham Davis showed the fiend that was in him Saturday, bytestifying his mother, whom he cut severely in the face.

—Callahan & Keenan have secured the contract for grading California street from Twenty-third to Twenty-sixth streets, at 18 cents per yard.

—There will be a special meeting of Government Degree Lodge at Odd Fellows' hall Thursday evening, July 28, at 8 p. m., by order of the degree master.

—News from Hawkins states that M. Dallas St. Clair, formerly in the employ of the Equitable insurance company of this city, is still in jail at the former place for leading a board bill.

—The ladies of the First Presbyterian church, Dodge street, which has been remodelled, will give a reception at the church next Thursday evening. The main auditorium will be opened for services next Sunday.

—Clack, of Albany, Mo., who is matched to run against Duffy, of this city, has completed arrangements for a contest August 16th with Clarke Gibson, of the Council Bluffs horse company. The distance will be 150 yards and the stake $500.

—The Chinese puzzle at the corner of Fifteenth and Farnam streets has been solved. After a night of prayer over the plans the workmen repaired to the scene Saturday and by the help of civil engineers, succeeded in putting the pieces where they belong.

—J. W. Morse is back from Denver, where he went to assist in rearranging the old Colorado pool. He says one of the most important agreements of the recent meeting was to issue no more passes on account of freight. How long this will remain in force remains to be seen.

—Rumor has it that Mr. E. A. Touzalin will offer the presidency of the Mexican Central, in place of Mr. Thomas Nickerson, who resigns on account of old age. Mr. Touzalin's competitor for the position is Mr. Levi O. Wade, present vice-president of the road.

—The building of a sewer in the West Farnam street district and three lines of alley sewers between Webster and Izard streets have been ordered by the board of public works to be advertised. The grading of Capitol avenue from Thirtieth to Eighteenth streets, has also been ordered advertised.

—A writ of attachment has been taken out against the stock of J. M. Wyrant, the tailor who is reported as having absconded a few days ago. It is said Wyrant not only abandoned his sick wife, leaving her without a cent, but owes a number of creditors who had tried to find him.

—The herb doctor was arrested Saturday evening on complaint of several local physicians, for "selling drugs," and obstructing the street. He had a license from City Clerk Jewett, so the last charge fell to the ground and he was held on the first in $100 bail, which he furnished and went to selling again.

—Henry Gremer, a young man who has been employed until recently in the Commercial National bank, has taken to writing checks upon that bank for small amounts, and his friends thinking it all right, would cash them, but upon presenting them at the bank found them all wrong. Look out for checks signed by him as they are no good.

—Friday afternoon Theo. Murphy was arrested upon complaint of Mrs. S. M. Sonies. The lady claimed that Murphy went through two trunks belonging to her and stole a pair of shoes, a pair of slippers and a breast pin. In police court Saturday Murphy pleaded not guilty and was held for examination.

—Until August 1st we will offer a large lot of FURNITURE at greatly reduced prices to close out patterns. Will include in this sale many desirable goods in every department of our business. 50 styles chamber sets, 25 styles of parlor sets. A large number of easy chairs, patent rockers, odd pieces, &c., &c. CHARLES SHREVE, 1200, 1208 & 1210, Farnam st. mksaucr —Saturday Corner Meal was called upon to avenge the habeas corpus papers in the Nell Austin case, upon Sheriff Miller. Upon examination it was discovered that there was a flaw in the papers and they were of no account, whereupon Corner Meal told the parties that he didn't care anything for the habeas but if they had any corpus to send it right along as he was anxious for all such that could be found.

—Hans Thompson, a farmer living about ten miles west of this city, came in about 2 o'clock p. m. Saturday and reported to Corner Meal that a man in his employ died about 10 o'clock Friday night from the effects of a sunstroke received that day. As the man had been in his employ but a few days he could not give his name. The coroner did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest.

—Messrs. Walker, Golden, Rhodes, Wm. and Henry Kremer, Welling, Smith, St. John, and the Messrs. Walker, Golden, Wollford, Grady, Magie and Nellie Thompson, Vickroy, Walters, and Wren, are the names of a party of young people who gathered at the residence of A. B. Walker, 2121 Clark street, Friday evening, to enjoy themselves in dancing, etc., which they did fully, till long past midnight.

—Friday the mayor of Lincoln refused to allow Forepaugh's circus parade to pass through the streets of that city without the payment of $100. Forepaugh has had trouble in Lincoln before and was sharp enough to pitch his tents outside the city limits. He offered to donate $100 to any charitable cause but would not pay it to the city. A large number of country people, too poor to go to the show, were in town to see the parade and went to their homes disappointed.

—The state fair baby show is already beginning to attract attention, especially from dotting mammae, every one of whom in Nebraska has each the prettiest baby in the state. There are to be two of the Grenfell prizes, one for the best boy baby and the other for the best girl baby, the conditions being that they are Nebraska born and under 2 years of age; and the prize for each a barrel of fine apples from Mr. Grenfell's famous orchards at Fort Calhoun.

—Steve Hogan is the name given by a tonie to the officers Saturday evening, arrested for taking liberties with a little five year old girl named Peters, the act taking place while the fellow lay on a bench in front of the city jail. The cries of the child, who made desperate efforts to get out of his clutches, attracted the attention of Deputy Marshal Gorman, who sent an officer to see what occasioned the little one's distress. Hogan was too intoxicated at the time to explain his conduct.

—Saturday was a dull day in the district court, the only case on trial being that of young John Shannon, convicted by Judge Benke of slugging an inoffensive man, and sentenced to thirty days in jail. Shannon's father, the well-known Barney, appealed the case for his boy, but on the persuasion of District Attorney G. W. Smith, the judge remanded the youngster to jail, to be sentenced with the other prisoners at the end of the term.

—A very pleasing lawn sociable and stereoscopic entertainment was held Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stevens, Twenty-fifth and Davenport streets. The stereoscopic views were exhibited by Mr. Will Stevens for the benefit of the first M. E. Church. A large number of gentlemen were present, and the evening was spent in a building upon which the scenes were thrown. The views consisted of scenes in France, Italy and comic scenes. Ice cream and cake was afterward served by the young people of the church. Over two hundred people were present and all were well pleased with the evening's entertainment. Much credit is due to Mr. Will Stevens for furnishing so brilliant and instructive an entertainment. By the request of all present Mr. Stevens will repeat his entertainment in the near future in the church. Due notice will be given in the daily papers.

—Engineer Smead has solved the Chinese puzzle at the intersection of Farnam and Fifteenth for the street car people. It appears the rails were made at Chicago, from measurements furnished by the company, the outfit consisting of double curved tracks for both the St. Mary's avenue and Fifteenth street lines. The pieces were not numbered, and in laying them the workmen got them transposed so that they would not match. The company's men worked at them for several days, aided by every spectator who came along, but could not place them according to the plans. Mr. Smead in a few hours solved the puzzle. After getting the true center of the street intersection, he laid off the proper position of the track with chalk lines and working by them soon had the rails in place. One piece was found to be about six inches short and a new one will have to be made before the job can be completed.

—The Evansville Beaten Saturday by a Score of 11 to 7.

And Return the Compliment Yesterday by Shutting the U. P. Out.

Saturday's Game.

The last of the course of five games between the Evansville and Union Pacifics was played Saturday afternoon, and was won by the home team by the score of 11 to 7. The visitors put in Veach and Decker for their batteries, and Salisbury and Cavanaugh for the home nine played similar positions. The disastrous defeat of Friday caused the friends of the home team to entertain grave doubts of its ability to come off victorious in this series of games, but the boys were equal to the occasion and carried off the palm. In the eighth inning after the Union Pacifics had hit Veach for twelve safe hits, he was retired by Manager Lord, and Crowell substituted in his stead. Veach was suspected by Mr. Lord of having sold the game, and after it was played he was put on the "aub" list where he will remain for some time before playing another game. It is said by many that his arm had not recovered from the previous day's game and that he protested against pitching in Saturday's contest, but having proved almost invincible to the Union Pacifics in this position he was compelled by his manager to play it. The fine features of the game was the effective playing of Cavanaugh behind the bat, and also of Decker, who caught all of the four previous games, and the work of Walsh as shortstop, and Funkhouser at center field, are also worthy of mention. Attendance 839, the largest crowd present during the whole week.

Yesterday's Game.

As Manager Ford expressed his willingness to play another game yesterday afternoon, it was arranged to cross bats for the sixth time at Cricket park. The game was called at 4 p. m., with nearly 400 people in attendance. Salisbury and Cavanaugh for the home team, and Crowell and Decker for the visitors, wore the batteries. The lovers of the national game were given as fine an exhibition in this contest of ball playing as was ever witnessed in this city. No pitcher who ever filled the box in an Omaha game did as effective work as Salisbury, only one base hit being made off him, and that by one whose batting record stands nearly at the foot of the list. Crowell, for the visitors, also pitched an admirable game, and held the Union Pacifics down to four singles and one double. The work of the Evansville in the field was also good, only three errors being made by them, the Union Pacifics making four.

In the fourth innings Decker after two men were out struck a hot grounder directly to Walsh, who allowed it to pass him, the batter reaching base. Decker made second by theft and came home on an unsuccessful attempt to cut off Hagan at first. The Union Pacifics succeeded in reaching third twice where they died.

A HEAVY BLOW.

A Wheelbarrow Falls From the Top of a Four Story Building.

Striking Charley Stevens Upon the Head.

About 11 o'clock a. m. Saturday a serious accident occurred at the new building of the Tribune Printing company, corner of Tenth and Douglas streets.

An elevator is used for the purpose of hauling brick and mortar upon to the roof, the building being four stories in height. Charley Stevens, a carpenter employed in the building, was engaged in carrying in lumber from the street on to the first floor. He passed beneath the wheelbarrow which had just been hauled up to the fourth floor, when all at once the hook holding the barrow became unfastened and the barrow fell, striking Stevens upon the side of the head.

It is possible to imagine how heavy a blow it was when it is known that the handle of the wheelbarrow was broken by coming in contact with the man's head.

Mr. Stevens was picked up in an insensible condition, placed in a carriage and taken to his home, No. 812, Marcy street. It is to be hoped that the blow will not prove serious as the injured man was a great favorite with all the men employed in the building and one and all sincerely hope he may soon be about again.

SHOT IN THE WILLOWS.

An Omaha Man Accidentally Shoots His Fellow Workman.

United States Deputy Marshal Allen returned last evening from Covington, in state, where he had been on official business, and reported the particulars of an accident in which an Omaha man is concerned.

Mr. Nichols, of this city, is the conductor of a train on the Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Omaha road running between Omaha and Covington and a Mr. Murphy whose first name could not be learned is a brakeman under him. It appears that the train arrived in Covington early Saturday afternoon.

The conductor went to the Union hotel where he met several of his comrades to whom he was telling the good qualities of his rifle. To show them his marksmanship and the effectiveness of his rifle he took aim from the back door of the hotel at a stump, directly beyond which was a clump of willows along the road.

A cry was heard immediately afterward and a search was instituted for the cause which resulted in finding Murphy who directly in the front base of the neck just above the collar bone. He was found as

THE TOURNAMENT'S END.

A Successful Week of Athletic Amusements by Visitors and Omaha Sportsmen.

The Omaha Ball Team Wins and Loses a Game With the Hoosters.

Saturday afternoon the races and contests which ended the tournament took place, the free-for-all horse race, the chiefs' race and the coupling contest. A crowd of about a thousand were present, which manifested more than an ordinary interest in the result of the first two named contests.

The first contest was for the gold badge presented by the Gamewell fire alarm Co. as a prize to those who made the best time coupling. The contestants were Webb and Steele of the John M. Thurstons of this city, and Brett and Devore of Decatur, Illinois, the recognized champions of the world. Each pair had five heats, whose average was taken resulting as follows:

Brett and Devore, average, 5 4.5 seconds; quickest 5 2.5 seconds.

Webb and Steel, average, 6 4.5 seconds; quickest 5 2.5 seconds.

THE FREE-FOR-ALL.

Acting Mayor Murphy, of Omaha, Messrs. Chandler, Bruegger, Bonner, Chandler and Burin of Chicago, and Brandt, of Columbus, were judges. There were four entries whose names and running order were as follows:

Bluff City, Council Bluffs. Fitzgeralds, Lincoln. Clelands, Fremont. Thurstons, Omaha.

The time of the Bluff City team was 42 4.5. The Fitzgeralds at the finish found themselves about 30 feet of hose, only 300 instead of 300 feet having been wound on the reel. No time was announced, but it was figured at 52 seconds, which is not a fair exponent of their speed. The Clelands came next making the covering the 300 yards and making the coupling in 47 1.5 seconds. The Thurstons finished the race and their time was reported at 44 seconds. On the statement of Mayor Murphy that the Bluffs threw off the butts of their hose before the scratch was reached and which with the report that one of the timekeepers had money bet on the result of the race, the matter of the award of prizes was taken under advisement. The first prize was afterward awarded to the Thurstons and the second to the Clelands.

THE CHIEFS' RACE.

Chiefs Nabel, of Grand Island, assistant Chief Hunt, of this city, and Chief Butler, of this city, and Chief Cleland, of Fremont, were the only entries. They crossed the finish with the Grand Island chief first, Butler second, Hunt third and Cleland last. The prizes—a hat, shirt and belt—were won respectively by the first three named gentlemen. The hub and hub race was not run, the chiefs' race ending the tournament.

The board of control made the following awards:

taken back to a convenient place from which a physician was sent for. His wounds were examined and his surgeon thought there was no hope of his recovery. He was living yesterday morning, and after the second examination the doctor thought he might recover from his wound although the ball was not found. It is also said that Murphy is an Omaha man but his residence could not be learned.

No blame is attached to any one, and the affair is looked upon as one purely accidental.

THE TEUTONIC THEATER.

Miss Wassmann Adds Fresh Laurels To Her Fame as Galatea.

Despite the rainy weather which prevailed last evening quite a large audience assembled in the German theater to witness an eminently successful presentation of "The Nihilists," followed by "The Beautiful Galatea." Miss Wassmann sustained the title role in the last named piece and made a great hit. In fact she received quite an ovation. She likewise had a good opportunity to display her vocal powers, which are unquestionably of a high order. Mrs. Pul-Athl personated the character of Ganymede with signal success and was greeted with vociferous applause. The Pygmalion of Mr. Maier was excellent and Mr. Schmidhoff, as Mydus, rendered his part excellently.

The first piece "The Nihilists" was performed by a strong combination. Mr. Pechtel was assigned the character of Timothy Kranchik to which he did ample justice, and Mrs. Niemann made a very charming Elsa, Kranchik's daughter. Henry Fels, the pointer, fell to the share of Mr. Niemann, who evinced more than usual adaptability for the character. The irresistible Mr. Pula kept the audience in good humor by his imitable personification of Peter Zump, while Mr. Von Fieitz, as Frederick and Miss Pechtel as Liess acted in a very satisfactory manner.

Taken as a whole the two performances were exceedingly creditable, and those who attended were well rewarded for their courage in braving the somewhat stormy weather in order to witness the representations.
