MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's summer goods. The property owners on Market street want paving now.

Work on the new Stutman street school is progressing well.

What has become of the city hospital scheme? It will soon be needed.

M. B. Brown has a sprained ankle as the result of trying to catch a fly.

The only stock shipments yesterday were 25 cars cattle, 520 head, to Chicago, via the C. & N. R.

Enough money has easily been raised for the purchase of a large sheet banner for the Blaine and Logan club.

The Lincoln officials yesterday rather snubbed the Council Bluffs mayor. They did not even let him know they were in the city.

The G. A. R. are requested to meet at their hall this morning at 8 o'clock, to attend the funeral of their late member, Orson Lee.

One of the boarders at Stewart's on Main street, complains that his room mate has skipped out with his watch and some clothing.

The creek has cut into the bank behind the new opera house, so that it looks as if some further protection would soon be needed there.

There was a lively row at the Phoenix saloon last night. Three fellows were badly clubbed and bruised and were landed in the cooler.

The spiritualists did not have their social and dance Saturday night, it being postponed on account of bad weather, until next Saturday evening.

Complaint is made that straw and refuse is thrown into the creek back of Mace Wise's and other stables, and being washed down fill up the bed of the creek.

Cocks & Morgan are preparing to soon move out of the new opera house building now used by Laing. The change will be made about the first of the month.

The man Marshall, charged with beating his wife, is to have a hearing before Justice Schurz at 2 o'clock this afternoon, he having taken a change of venue from Vaughan.

In the police court yesterday Nick Hammerman and George Fisher were each fined for being drunk, and Frank Phillips and James Regan each fined for disturbing the peace.

Those who want to sign the muster roll of the Blaine and Logan club, can find lists at THE BEE office, Nonpareil, and the Herald offices. All republicans should enroll themselves promptly.

Mayor Vaughan, by the consent of attorneys Mynster and James, set Mr. Hatherell with ten men at work on Indian creek yesterday to give temporary protection to the citizens from overflow.

Dr. L. D. McKinlay, of Neola, writes to democrats in this city for some sort of a record of M. G. Griffin, so that he can meet the latter's appeal to Irishmen to vote for Blaine. Rather small business all around.

The man arrested here to-day on the charge of having abducted a child from Sioux City, will probably be discharged, it appearing that the parents let him have the girl on his promise to educate her and support her as his own daughter.

Charles E. Taylor since being tossed around by the lightning, has become so large that his house is not big enough to hold him, consequently Mr. T. is having an addition of two rooms put on his house on Sixth street and Ninth avenue.

The alley in the rear of Kiel's hotel and running south is in a horrible condition and has been so some time. The contract for paving the alley was let a month or more ago, and still nothing is done about it. It needs cleanliness before it needs paving stones.

Mike Nolan, who is running a temperance saloon, has been complained of for not taking out a license under the council's famous or infamous "pop" ordinance, requiring $400 for the privilege of selling temperance drinks, and a bond not to sell lemonade to minors or drunks. The case is to come up this morning.

De Vol & Wright's basement was flooded Saturday night. Holes had been left in the street, where the sewerage gang had been at work, and the promise was given that they would be filled up Saturday. It was not done, and as a consequence water run in, compelling the firm to move all the stores they had stored in the basement.

Yesterday morning a party of gentlemen from Lincoln arrived in the city to make an examination of the waterworks. They were shown the works by Birkinbine, and all expressed themselves highly pleased. The party consisted of Mayor R. E. Moore, W. J. Cooper, Chas. Lyne, Chas. West, J. R. Webster and H. P. Law, members of the Lincoln council; C. B. Beach, the chief of police; Ed. S. Royce, engineer; L. W. Wheaton, of the State Journal, and A. L. Strang, of Omaha.

DOWNING A DESPERADO. The Exciting Capture of a Man Charged With Shooting a Sheriff.

A Flourish of Revolvers and a Lively Chase.

For some time the officers have been on the look-out for one James Reynolds, who was wanted for shooting Sheriff George B. McCord, at Marshalltown, July 23, the particulars of which were given in the telegraphic columns at the time. McCord was attempting to arrest him for robbery when the shot was fired, striking the sheriff and inflicting a wound which may prove fatal, though he is still alive.

A reward of $500 was immediately offered by the sheriff's association and $500 by Marshall county, and descriptions of Reynolds scattered over the state.

Yesterday a man came in on a C. & N. W. freight train who acted suspiciously. He disposed of two silver watches on the train, and on arriving here the railway boys put the officers on his track. Officers Towns looking over the fellow concluded to arrest him as a suspicious character. Officer Hurley was also watching him, and as Towns was taking the fellow to the police station, Hurley followed behind.

In passing through the alley leading from Main street to the city building, the fellow was a little behind Officer Towns, and began reaching for a back pocket in a suspicious way, which strengthened Hurley's belief that he was about to pull a revolver. In an instant the fellow turned and ran, Towns after him. The chase was made onto Washington street, and Towns fired at the fleeing prisoner, but failed to hit him. The fellow drew his revolver as he ran, and Hurley, cutting up the alley to Market street, fell in just behind the man as he turned down that street. The man pointing his revolver over his shoulder at Officer Hurley, who was close upon him, and told him not to interfere with him, or he would kill him. Hurley in turn drew his revolver, and catching up with him tripped him as he was running. As the fellow tumbled, Hurley wrenched the revolver away from him and tossed it to one side, the hammer of the revolver catching in Hurley's pants at the knee in the scuffle tearing a hole. Hurley then covering the man with his revolver, was appalled to with: "I wouldn't shoot you, so don't shoot me." He held him there until Officer Towns came up and the fellow was taken to the station.

An examination showed he answered the description of the would be murderer of Sheriff McCord. He had on his person another silver watch and about three dollars in money.

In the chase he threw away something, and Willie Vaughan, the mayor's son, who was among those who were running after the fellow, found it. It proved to be a regular burglar's chisel, rusty but very sharp. The fellow had little or nothing to say and was locked securely in the steel cell, and the authorities at Marshalltown notified by telegraph.

The intense excitement at Marshalltown over the shooting of the sheriff has been such that it has been common talk that if Reynolds is ever brought back there he will be lynched.

FEMINE FICKLENESS. An Oskaloosa Husband Causes the Arrest of His Wife in This City.

She in Turn Complains of Him for Trying to Kill Her.

On Saturday there arrived in this city from Oskaloosa a young man named J. W. Havens, who formerly lived here, and was employed in Robie's bakery. Those who frequented the skating rink last season will remember him as the one who had a most peculiar swing as if mowing grass, and as having been costumed as "the devil" at the great masquerade. Havens came back here to hunt up his wife, a woman whose maiden name was Jennie Walters, and whose home was in Hollyville. She has gained some notoriety before, and has been under the aliases of Kittie Jackson, Kittie Holmes, Jennie Dayhuff, and Jennie Havens. It will be remembered by the readers of THE BEE that she was arrested the latter part of May by Constable Wesley for skipping out with quite a sum of money belonging to Mr. Craig, in whose bakery she was employed. At that time Mr. Craig was away from home, and the woman when she skipped went to Oskaloosa, where she met Havens, with whom she was formerly acquainted. Havens thought that she was the wife of Mr. U. Dayhuff, but on learning that she was not he married her. They have been living in Oskaloosa since, the case of the Craig money having been settled. According to Havens' statement, about two weeks ago she told him that she wanted to go on a visit to her old home in Hollyville, and he consented, but instead of going to her old home, she came to this city, and he getting track of her came after her, and was advised that she was living with her old friend Dayhuff, who keeps a temperance saloon on lower Broadway, and who lives south of Rapp's place.

He gained an interview with her there. It was a stormy interview. Havens' statement of it is that she was grabbed a revolver and he was going to shoot him, and he took it away from her, while she claims that he was the aggressor.

Yesterday the trouble was dragged into court. She had Havens arrested for assault, while he had her and Dayhuff arrested for adultery. The cases against the woman and Dayhuff were continued until to-morrow, they giving bail of $250 each. Havens was placed under $100 bond to appear Thursday afternoon to answer to the charges of assault, and assault with intent to do great bodily harm, all the cases being tried before Justice Vaughan.

POLITICAL PRATTLE.

The republicans are not the only ones fixing up slates. Already the democrats, having settled upon renominating Congressman Pusey, are turning their attention to the smaller names on the ticket. It is talked that William F. Patton, a young man who was born here and has always lived here, will be the democratic nominee for county clerk. He has lately been serving as assistant city clerk, and has done a large portion of the work of that office.

A. P. Cramer, of Avoca, is reaching out for the county recorder's plum.

John Jay Franey has an eye out for the district attorneyship, and if he cannot get that, will probably be contented with being justice of the peace.

Judge Aylsworth is conceded to be the coming democratic nominee for district judge if he wants it. Walter I. Phelps, of Atlantic, is talked of as the one who will be groomed for a race against Judge Lyman for the head of the circuit court.

Mr. Lally, of Denison, is looked on as the probable nominee for district attorney. Justice N. Schurz, although not anxious for renomination, will doubtless yield to the pressure, and if so will get many republican voters to support him also, for that position.

Squire Briggs is also talked of as favorable for one of the justice chairs. For supervisors S. G. Underwood and Judge A. W. Nyman, both of Keg Creek, are talked of, with chances now in favor of Underwood. Mr. Hoyt, of Knox township, is also named. It is said that the anti-Cleveland democrats are to rally about M. G. Griffin for justice of the peace. W. R. Vaughan is glancing toward the nomination as one of the electors. There will be many changes in the state between now and fall, but this is part of the gossip now going the rounds in the democratic camp.

PERSONAL.

O. Lee, who travels for Lutz & Long, is reported to be quite ill.

R. J. McBride started out again last evening on a trip for Stewart Bros.

Miss Kate Freeman, one of Iowa City's belles, is visiting Mrs. J. DeBoise for a few days.

L. Ballou, editor and manager of the Harrison county News, Missouri Valley, was in the city yesterday, and favored THE BEE with a call.

Hundreds of grateful people who have been cured of Rheumatism say Siloam Springs is ahead as a specific for that disease. See advt. in another column.

CITY COUNCIL.

The city council met last night. All present except Alderman McMahon. A large number of the residents of the bottom were present, all interested in the action of the council in regard to Indian creek. Alderman Mynster offered a resolution for the condemnation of the right of way for an outlet for the creek. City Attorney Holmes thought it reflected on him and the city engineer.

Alderman Mynster thought not, and withdrew his resolution at the request of Alderman James.

A resolution was passed instructing a special committee of three aldermen to employ at least thirty men and as many teams as necessary to open all ditches to drain the flooded district west of the creek, and the engineer instructed to employ a surveyor to immediately proceed to open a series of ditches to give temporary relief to the flooded district.

Mr. Kimball, the labor organization, asked for permanent relief from the overflow of the creek.

An ordinance was passed ordering the following streets brought up to grade within ten days:

On Fifth avenue from Tenth street to Union avenue.

On Sixth avenue from Tenth street to Indian Creek.

On Seventh avenue from Tenth street to Indian Creek.

On Ninth street from Fifth avenue to Tenth street.

On Tenth street from Eighth to Twelfth streets.

On failure of the same the city clerk was authorized to advertise for bids.

The city attorney was instructed to condemn the right of way according to the Williams plan for the system of sewerage.

Several petitions were presented and referred to appropriate committees.

The city attorney advised that the claim of N. A. Moore be withheld until the Beacom case is decided.
