

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Mornins. July 31. SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - 30 cents per week. By Mail - $10.00 per year.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's summer styles. Philip Phillips is to sing at the Methodist church to-night. Judge Lyman opens circuit court in Denison next Monday.

S. S. Curtis has nearly completed a new dwelling on Avenue D. A new iron fence now graces the front of Dr. White's home on Willow avenue.

Work on the lower Broadway sewer is progressing well, but what good will be a sewer without an outlet? Justice Abbott has brought back some fine photographs of Minneapolis as it appeared during the reunion.

Stewart C. Smiley, of Lincoln, and Norman Stamp, of Ithaca, N. Y., were yesterday given permit bonds. Col. Wood's dime museum company is at the opera house this week, afternoons and evenings, and drawing well.

It is said that Cooke & Morgan will hereafter be Cooke, Morgan & Co., and report says that J. W. Laing will be the "Co." The signs "keep of the grass" formerly used in Bayliss park are being repainted to read "keep out of the mud. No bottom."

Charles Coppack, who runs the fruit stand at the Union Pacific depot, has had a new suit of clothes stolen from his room. Enrollment lists of the Blaine and Logan club are at THE BEE office, where further signatures will be welcomed.

Kimball & Champ have commenced suit against the Council Bluffs waterworks, for $2,000, for time tickets which they have cashed for the employees of the waterworks.

J. B. Hurd appeared before Justice Abbott yesterday on a charge of abusing his wife, and gave $100 bonds to appear again August 24, and promises in the meantime to keep the peace.

Six or seven suits have already been commenced against those who have not paid their toll tax, and about twenty others are being prepared. Those who are still behind had better hurry to the front.

The family of Charles Duncan, who was sent to jail for sixty days for stealing a pair of pantaloons from Beno's store, were yesterday endeavoring to get him released, begging piteously that they needed his comfort and support.

Word has been received that Jimmie Purdy, a young man who recently left Denison for Nebraska, died suddenly near Coolidge, in that state. He was about 21 years of age, and was a stepson of Mr. N. Richards, of Dow City.

her sister Mrs. G. A. Robinson in this city. There will be a brief service at the house this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the remains will be taken to Dixon, for interment. Mrs. Stiles was aged about 55 years, and has been in failing health for some time, largely due to the burden of sorrow which has fallen upon her by the death of her husband, and then by the tragic killing of her son Charles Stiles, in Chicago. She was an estimable lady, and had many friends in her old home.

It is understood that the reward offered for the capture of the desperado Reynolds is to be divided between Officers Hurley and Towns. This is as it should be. These officers showed pluck and shrewdness enough to almost alone for whatever errors the whole police force has ever committed. A great deal of fault has been found with the new police force, but certainly Hurley and Towns have shown themselves men of mettle, and they deserve much praise besides the reward. Hurley, especially, had good grit to down the man as he did for the fellow had a revolver pointed full at him, when the officer tripped and then threw him. He took greater chances than most men want to take even for big money.

The residence of Mr. C. J. Johnson in Kiron was destroyed by fire last Wednesday afternoon, together with nearly all his furniture, personal effects, family clothing, etc. Mr. Johnson was in the harvest field when the alarm was given, but notwithstanding the most vigorous efforts little could be saved. The fire originated in the second story from causes unknown, filling the chamber with smoke and cutting off ingress. There were no defective flues and Mr. Johnson has no theory as to the probable cause of the fire. The loss is about $2,000, probably one-third of which is covered by insurance. Mr. Johnson is one of the active members of our county board and will receive the sympathies of many friends in his misfortune, which at this season of the year will fall especially heavy as it involves a loss of time from the saving of his crops.—Crawford County Bulletin.

The proprietor of Siloam Spring will enter into written contract to cure your catarrh, or forfeit all claims to pay for treatment. See advt. in another column. Write for particulars.

HOME CULTURE. An Academy and Industrial School to be Established in Connection With the Home of the Friendless.

The work and growth of the Home of the Friendless is quite familiar to most of the citizens and to many residents of other places. It will be of special interest to the many friends of the Home here and throughout the west to learn that an important enlargement of plans and work has been decided upon. It is nothing less than the establishment of what will be known as the Home Academy and Industrial school, to be conducted in connection with the Home.

This institution is to be open on the first Monday in September, or on the second Monday at the latest. Mrs. Bovell, whose husband has just taken the position of co-pastor of the Baptist church, and co-laborer with Rev. J. G. Lemen, is to take charge of a kindergarten department, and will also teach classes in French and German. She is a graduate of Shurtleiff college, the same institution of which her husband is an alumnus. Being a native German, and having lived in France several years, she is thoroughly at home in both those languages, while in teaching has had considerable experience, having conducted a kindergarten and other classes in Cincinnati for several years. The present plan is to have the forenoon devoted to kindergarten work, and the afternoon hours to classes in German, French, and also music, also being accomplished in this, too. Mr. Bovell is to teach mathematics and other studies, and other teachers will be secured as the work demands. It is the intention not to confine the school to this city, but already a number of students, among them some young ladies, from other parts of the country, have expressed their intention of coming here to attend school. A great deal of time and money has already been put into the Home to bring the work up to where it is now, and these new plans demand still further effort and greater generosity, but if pushed to a happy consummation, there is no doubt that while much good is being done, such a school of instruction will be a credit and benefit to the city, drawing here many students from elsewhere, and giving Council Bluffs a good name and fair fame. The new enterprise, added to the other work of the Home, will require additional support, but the manner in which support to previous plans has been given warrants the managers in believing that this later and greater enterprise will meet with the approval and further help of the friends of the institution, and the public at large.

Another Howard. For some days past there has been a man running about town picking up odd dimes and quarters by showing a ring trick, slipping a ring onto a cane, the ends of which are held by the owner of the ring, and then passing around the hat for pay for showing how it was done. The fellow was sized up as a crook, and the officers after spotting him, concluded to arrest him. Officers Metcalf and O'Brien pulled him and found from papers on him that he was a member of A. 4th U. S. artillery, and he owned that he was a deserter. Yesterday he was taken to Omaha and given over to the authorities. The officers got a reward of $75 for his capture. The fellow appeared to be C. N. Over-

PERSONAL.

Colonel John Lindt has returned from the reunion—happy as ever. H. J. Chambers and E. C. Babcock, Avoca attorneys, were here yesterday. Judge Nourse of Des Moines, was in the city yesterday, the guest of Judge Reed. H. Ouren of Living Springs, and daughter, are visiting Constable C. Wesley's family.

Miss Nettie Kincaid, clerk in J. R. Davidson's, is spending a few days in the country. D. M. Harris, of Missouri Valley, was here yesterday attending the democratic gathering. George Thompson, of the firm of Van Brunt Thompson & Co., returned yesterday from a short trip to Nebraska. Colonel J. S. Tam, the chairman of the democratic central committee, was here at the dyed-in-the-wool gathering yesterday.

Col. Fox is back from the Minneapolis reunion, and again serving papers just as if he had never been anything but a constable. Miss H. P. Best, of Burlington, and Miss Ellen Jones, of Ashtabula, O., are in the city on a visit to the Best newspaper men and families. Mrs. L. Kutner of Des Moines, sister of Mrs. H. Friedman, and Miss Fannie Bloomer of Chicago, a cousin of Mrs. Friedman, are visiting in this city.

Mr. Judson, formerly book-keeper for Cooper & McGee, is now occupying a similar position with the new agricultural implement house of J. W. Kleeb & Co. Mr. Jacobs, of Hamburg, is making Council Bluffs a visit. Mr. Jacobs is an old resident of this city and about fifteen years ago owned the site of the new government building.

An Ancient Ceremony. Yesterday forenoon about thirty ladies and gentlemen gathered at the residence of Phil Aaron, on Madison street, to witness the ceremony of circumcizing his infant son. By the old Mosiac law which the Jews still consider as binding upon them this rite must be performed when the child is eight days old, providing the child's health permits. Even in this land of reading and general information many have an idea that this rite is of the past, and will be surprised to learn that it has been frequently observed in this city, and few there are outside of the Hebrew circles who have any idea of what the ceremony consists of. At this gathering Rev. J. Cherniss officiated as he has had several previous occasions of the kind here. He is a Hungarian, who served in this capacity in the old country. The first part of the service consisted of reading in the Hebrew, of course, passages of the old scriptures and Mosiac law. Then followed the ceremony of blessing the child, and the circumcision, the whole service taking about ten minutes. After this a feast was spread, of which the guests partook, and congratulations expressed.

Pity the Fallen. To the Editor of THE BEE: I notice that your columns are quite free for voicing their misfortunes and grievances of those who feel that they have been abused. I am one of these. For years I have been a resident of the Fourth ward, and have been serving the public without getting a cent, so have I come here holding a light - a benefit of those who were trying to find their way home. I have often felt some weary wayfarer lean on me until rested enough to go on his way. While thus standing on my corner several months ago, a lot of horrid dirt wagons came along, and dumped their contents about my feet, before I could get out of the way, and before I could move was buried to my shoulders, and the dirt packed about me so tightly that I was not able to get out. I appealed in vain. I was brought to this place by the president of the gas company, but he says now that he is no longer my adopted father, but that I belong to the city, because I have been in its employ so long. The city says that it has nothing to do with me, so have I stand still nearly buried. The neighbors all around here have been in the habit of giving me letters and papers to hold for them until the carrier shall come for them, but now I am so deep in the mud that these get soiled. Dogs come along and besmear my glasses even. Small boys blow out my light at night, and touch matches to it even in the daytime when it is not needed. Citizens instead of blessing me stumble over me and curse me. Runaway horses are liable at any time to break me all up. Is there no way for me to get up in the world again?
