Thinking, perhaps, a few notes from our little town might not be unwelcome, I take the liberty of sending this to your valuable columns. Nature, this year, has been very lavish with her gifts to her children in southeastern Nebraska, Harvest almost over, and rye, oats, wheat and barley yield a larger acreage than ever known before; and corn, surely no one ever saw a crop of such mag-13 00 nificence. Tall and strong, of a dark green color, with waving tassels and silken ears, it certainly stands pre-eminently, king of the west. Fruit of all kinds are abundant, excepting peaches. Apples are a "drug in the market," and small fruit very plentiful. Our little town is quiet, but strong. Building is not on the boom now, but still our improvements are very notable. The wagon factory has the 24 00 machinery in nearly ready for work. The creamery still turns out its six hundred pounds of butter, daily, on the average, The new steam elevator will be a prominent feature of the town. Toledo Blade.

CONFEDRIT X ROADS, (Wich is in the State uv Kentucky), Jooly 30, 1884. -Ther are being in this world wich are constantly making trouble, and that feend, Joe Bigler, is one uv em, and the cheef. We hed called another meetin for the purpus uv ratifyin the nominashuns, wich we hed dooly announst by a notis written Issaker Gayitt, and posted up in Bascom's bar-room, to make shoor that all the Dimtoo, has the foundation laid, and will ocrats uv the Corners wood see it. I sot by it for a day and red it to em to enshoor rull attendance.

Joe Bigler happened in and red it, and sed it wuz a good ijee to hev a ratifica-shen meetin. He shoodent hisself prob-ably vote for Cleveland and Heudrix, but it wuz the proper racket to hev sich meetins to discuss the platforms and sich, to the end uv citizens votin intelligently, and he shood swell the meetin by bein present hisself. Then I knowed ther wood be trouble and I wood hev hev postponed the meeting till some time when he wuz shure to be away, if I cood. But unforchinitly I coodn't. Then I begged him not to cum, but he insisted he wood. He felt it to be a relijus dooty. "Relijus dooty!" I remarkt sarkastical-

One advantage uv bein a dimekrat a the Corners is, we don't change at all. The banners we marched under in 1861 do jist ez well for us now, for we are constantly fitin the old fite over again, and alluz will till death do us part. I assomed the chair, and Issaker Gav-
