

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning August 6.

Subscription Rates. By Carrier... Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's summer styles. Two drunks were disposed of in police court yesterday.

Permit to marry has been given Daniel A. Loomis and Elvira Hill, both of this city.

Justice Abbott yesterday married F. R. Stowell, of Avoca, and Louisa Fraser, of Walnut.

Speedy steeds are arriving daily at the driving park and going into training for the fall races.

The U. P. trains from the west arrived all on schedule time yesterday, it being the first time for over a week.

The case against William Boehning for selling liquor to a minor is to be heard by Justice Abbott next Monday.

The Bee is in receipt of the premium list of the Mills county, to be held at Glenwood September 10, 11 and 12.

John Madden, for taking one of his vacations, without permit, has been released from duty at the Rescues house.

Lon Westfall, who tried to commit suicide by taking morphine about a week ago, is very low and it is doubtful whether he can recover.

Justice Schurz seems to be a favorite with the Omaha folk. Yesterday he married another couple from there, Austin W. Daily and Dora Pielhog.

John Nelson, who was complained of for selling liquor to Phillips' son, has compromised the matter with the parties most aggrieved and the case has been dismissed.

Mr. Dohany is preparing to make some improvements in the interior of his opera house. He has engaged Mr. Miller to fresco the entrance, and also to paint some more scenery.

It is said that the report about the mayor and some of the aldermen having gone east is a canard, set afloat to conceal the fact that the council is holding another secret meeting.

The Presbyterian ladies are to give an exposition, opening September 29, to continue one week. It will include an art exhibition, bazaar, fruits and flowers, and entertainments each evening.

The Oakland primary class of the republicans have selected W. T. Wilcox, W. W. Belger, and W. H. Freeman as delegates, and while uninterested they freely express a preference for Manning.

It is talked that some of the members of the bar are anxious that an attorney should be placed in the office of the justice of the peace, and William Sears' name is being mentioned favorably, on condition that he could be prevailed on to accept the nomination.

The opening of Max Moan's hotel, the Creston house, a description of which hotel was given in yesterday's Bee, occurred last night, and was a happy affair, and largely attended. The Bohemian band gave fine music, dancing, a fine spread, and other needfuls were provided.

Prof. John Ogden who has served as one of the ministers of the normal institute, gives a dime lecture this evening at the Bloomer building, in which he will give his personal experiences in southern prisons, his escape and recapture.

One of the dear old grandmother's own family declared that her scrap-book would yesterday morning contain an editorial on the Fourth ward caucus which would tear the town wide open. It failed to appear.

Probably the timid old dame got a little nervous and was afraid to read it to the children.

The Union stock yards have been thoroughly disinfected, and as they have had no Texas fever there since last May there is no danger whatever of the disease showing itself. The yards are now prepared to receive the heavy shipments expected soon. Everything is in good repair, and the yards are stocked with plenty of No. 1 hay.

Ed Tatro was before the police court yesterday on the charge of assaulting Charles Larson. It appears that they got to quarreling about a dog, and Tatro went for Larson with a board, and the police coming up arrested both. Judge Abbott, who presides in Judge Aylesworth's absence, discharged Larson, and fined Tatro $5 and costs, committing him until paid.

The official request of Mayor Vaughan in regard to the commercial men's gathering here September 15, 16 and 17, has been printed in such shape that merchants can catch it in letters to houses with which they are dealing. Copies can be had at the mayor's office, and each merchant should provide himself with a supply. The only way in which the affair can be made a success is for the merchants and business men of the city to take hold of it in earnest.

Some of those doing business on lower Broadway say that there was much disorderliness, fighting, jawing and throwing of brick-bats, from about 11 o'clock Tuesday night to 2 o'clock in the morning, and no policeman seemed to interfere. Officer Morse is on that beat, or supposed to be on it, and as his old beat was quite quiet under his oversight, it is probable that he was called elsewhere by other duties.

The report reaches here that a young man from this city, who has been rusticated at one of the popular summer resorts with a lady friend, came near meeting his death as the result of a lover's quarrel, in which the woman shot at him, the ball just grazing him, but inflicting no wound. It is to be hoped, for the sake of the young man's family at least, that there is no truth in the report, but if true it may wake him up to the fact that he ought to be carrying himself far different from what he has during the past year or so.

Messrs. P. Jones and P. Landsidel, West Side saloonists, are in trouble. Their stocks of liquors were seized last Friday by the town authorities. Numerous kegs of beer and bottles that smelled like the "biggest distillery on earth" were found. A portion of the contraband goods is thought to be the property of private citizens, who bought the liquor for "medicinal and culinary purposes." It is a cold day when a West Sider gets left on a snake bite, or has no beer to put into his apple pie. The merit of the case will be tried August 9th.—Crawford Co. Bulletin.

Deputy Sheriff Clatterback leaves today for Mt. Pleasant, where he takes Mrs. McIntyre, who has been adjudged insane. He will also transfer a number of incurables from Mt. Pleasant to the asylum at Davenport. It seems that the Mt. Pleasant institution is crowded, and as this county has its full share, it must care for some of its patients elsewhere. A plan is being talked of for caring these incurables at the poor farm, thus saving the county some expense, as the fees amount to quite a heavy sum, which might be expended at home, provided equally good care could be given the patients.

From the West Side Dispatch we glean the particulars of two distressing accidents in that locality. Last Wednesday Mr. John Campbell was thrown from the seat of a self-binder and his leg badly wrenched and knee-joint misplaced. He lay helpless in the field for two hours before his condition was discovered by friends. Opiates were necessary to relieve the pain. Three miles south of West Side, Mr. George Doerr, in the employ of Mr. Peter Arnsen, attempted to remove a bunch of weeds which clogged the self-binder and assist it to deliver the bundle, when the twine shuttle went through his hand, crushing the bones and permanently crippling that member. It was with great difficulty that he removed his hand from the machine.

THEY DON'T LIKE IT. Workingmen Who Grumble Because the City Does Not Pay Them.

How They Were Served.

When the present city administration was begging the suffrages of the people, the plea was made that it was a "workingmen's ticket," and the mayor particularly laid stress upon this, hired bands, and made speeches for workingmen's meetings—so called—and made a great hurrah. A delegation of workingmen called at the Bee office yesterday, and asked that publicity be given through their favorite organ to what they deemed the unjust and treacherous manner in which they were being treated. It will be remembered that in response to the demands and pleadings of many citizens who were suffering in purse and in health on account of stagnant water, the mayor decided to set men at work digging ditches, and clearing out the creek, so as to give at least temporary relief.

Mr. Hathaway was made foreman of the work, and it is said that his instructions were to get men at $1.75 a day, if he could, if not to pay $2, as the work must be done at once. These men say that about thirty men were thus employed, and that before going to work they were informed that they would get $1.75 per day in cash, and that they would be paid off at the end of each week. With this understanding they went at it, working in the mud and water day after day, a hard, dirty, and by no means healthy employment. No pay came, either in cash or warrants, and yesterday they were told they need work no longer. Still no pay. They were told that the city would have to pass on their bills, and that no warrants could be issued to them until Mayor Vaughan's return, and as he had gone east, and there was no telling when he would return—perhaps by the 15th—and he had left no blank warrants signed. They were told by their boarding house-keepers that they could pay their board in warrants at sixty cents on the dollar, and as he had gone east, and there was no telling when he would return—perhaps by the 15th—and he had left no blank warrants signed. They were told by their boarding house-keepers that they could pay their board in warrants at sixty cents on the dollar, and as he had gone east, and there was no telling when he would return—perhaps by the 15th—and he had left no blank warrants signed.

But what is even worse than all they cannot get even the warrants to discount. They say they want to go to St. Paul or somewhere and hunt for work as they can get no more here, and yet they cannot go elsewhere to seek work, but must wait here on expense, and as they say, be liable to be run in as vagrants. It seems as if the city ought to provide for its workingmen in some better way, and if anybody has to wait for pay, let the men of those who have means and money, advance 65 per cent of the face value of the time checks they held from the foreman and retaining five per cent for his trouble it left the men 60 cents on the dollar. The men concluded they had better take this than nothing, and so pocketed it, but they grumbled a good deal, and instead of feeling grateful, expressed themselves as thinking that when Alderman Mynster returned he would see that those who bought the checks shall get pretty near face value for them. If the city credit has sunk so that a workman can only get sixty cents on the dollar, it is time that the present administration got out from under its present heading, "Workingmen's Ticket."

CROWDING THE CITY. A Suit to Make It Pay Cash for $5,000 in City Warrants.

A suit has been commenced against the city of Council Bluffs, by Mrs. A. M. Wilson, in which $5,000 is claimed for city warrants held by her, which she has bought in from time to time. The warrants are of all dates, from 1882 up to the present year, and were issued to various parties on different accounts, the parties receiving them selling them at a discount for cash. The petition sets forth that payment has been refused by the city, and now judgment is asked with interest. It has been the avowed policy of the city to transfer cash from the police fund to the general fund, $500 at a time, to call in and pay old outstanding warrants in the order of their issuance, but it seems the city has not caught up yet, and so suit is brought.
