MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's summer styles.

There were three plain drunks fined yesterday.

The defective fire alarm continues to cause trouble.

The Bavarian band play at Milliard, Neb., to-morrow night.

The Council Bluffs district conference of the M. E. churches will be held in Missouri Valley August 13.

D. A. Loomis and Elvira Hill, both of this city, were married Thursday evening by Justice Schurz, at his office.

E. W. Ticknor has an apple tree in his yard on Fifth avenue which is now in blossom, the second blooming this year.

The newly painted delivery wagon of the McClurg cracker factory is one of the handsomest wagons of the kind in the city.

S. H. Craver has bought out the livery stable of S. S. Wagner on Bancroft street and Mr. Wagner has gone to Hot Springs.

W. P. Aylsworth has contracted to raise another brick house. This time one belonging to a Mr. Jones on Washington avenue.

Wm. H. Russell and Mrs. Alice Gragg, both of this city, yesterday obtained leave to wed; also H. Haack, of Holstein, Ida county, and Augusta Roman, of this city.

Spiritual circles to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and evening at 8 o'clock, in Shugart & Beno's block. Entrance on Main and Pearl streets, two doors south of post office.

The Cleveland and Hendricks glee club as formed consists of E. A. Becker, C. W. Cree, C. A. Riley, F. A. Darrah, J. W. Adolph, B. T. Connor, J. A. Murphy and Carl Williams.

The dear old grandmother's guardian did not show up in the convention yesterday. He probably has not got up yet after being knocked down in his own ward the other night by 161 to 16.

The Blaine and Logan clubs have opened at their headquarters the rooms under the Citizens' bank in Shugart's block, and are fitting them up in a very attractive and convenient manner.

Templeton & Lamb have placed in their show window a very novel sort of an attraction, it being a plantation scene, the cabin being made out of cigars, and the surroundings being skillfully wrought in tobacco.

The Rev. J. Fink will preach at the United Brethren church on Sunday, August 10th, 1884, at 11 o'clock, the funeral sermon of the two babes deserted by their mother. All friends to humanity are respectfully invited.

J. A. Bede, who made such a lively fight against Anderson two years ago, now issues from Taber the first number of his campaign paper, "The Hatchet." It is red-hot republican, and shows that his pencil has been sharpened afresh for another three months' contest.

Colonel O. F. Parsons has begun putting his patent fire and water-proof paint on Neumayer's hotel, which will give the public a still better chance to see what it really is, and what its merits are. If it proves as represented, it seems that a factory could easily be started here.

The row, in which Sadonaki and the Ferro brothers indulged, the other night at the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul's yards, was to have been examined into by Justice Abbot yesterday, but the parties concerned had made up and the cases were dropped. It seems to be quite the rage now for men to club each other until too much weakened by blood to fight any longer, and then when it gets into court the transaction is shown up as simply a little misunderstanding or a friendly scuffle.

Chew May Queen. It's boss. Best in town. Opera house cigar store.

Dividing the Divy. Sheriff Dan Farrell, of Glenwood, was here yesterday looking after the division of the $1,000 reward for the capture of Reynolds. The railway men who claimed a part of the reward for giving the officers the first pointers, were given $250, and received it in cash. They apparently intended to give the conductor the slip, who was to have one-third of what they got, but Officer Hurley by one of his quiet, quick moves prevented any such move, and the conductor got his share. Out of $250, the attorney who looked after the railway men's claims, got $50, and the remaining $200 was divided between the two men and the railway conductor. The remaining $750 of the $1,000, is to be given to the Officers Hurley and Towns, who divide it equally, leaving Mayor Vaughan, the chief of police, the marshal and all others out in the cold unless the officers want to donate something.

May Queen Fine Out Cheating Tobacco at Opera House Cigar Store. Try it.

John H. Aggon to L. E. S. Mitchell, $100, block 13, Oakland, $100.

Thomas Kearney to C. L. Roberts, lot 4, block 13, Oakland, $100.

MANNING THE MAN.

So Says the Pottawattamie County Convention Unanimously.

The Delegates Instructed to Support Him for Congress.

Delegates Also Chosen to the State Convention.

The republicans of Pottawattamie county met in delegate convention at the court house yesterday afternoon to select nineteen delegates to attend the republican state convention to be held at Des Moines, Aug. 20, and nineteen delegates to attend the republican convention to be held at Atlantic, August 13.

Col. D. B. Dalley called the convention to order, and, besides stating the purposes, suggested that the county central committee be also made up, as the state committee had suggested that this be done at as early a date as possible.

Charles M. Harle was chosen as temporary chairman, on taking the chair made one of his happy little speeches, full of enthusiasm for the republican party, and calling forth much applause.

Mr. A. T. Cox, of Oakland, was selected temporary secretary.

The following committees were appointed:

On Permanent Organization—John Lindt, of city, H. S. Burnett, of James, P. P. Tregnor, of Lewis, J. B. Hake and E. A. Consigney, of Knox.

On Credentials—T. J. Evans, of city, J. Turner, of Washington, P. Ellers, of Minden, F. Benjamin, of Knox, S. B. Trum, of Pleasant.

The committee on credentials presented its report. Concurred in.

The committee on permanent organization reported in favor of E. M. Manning, of Knox, as permanent chairman, and Jacob Sims, of this city, permanent secretary. This report was concurred in unanimously.

Mr. Benjamin, on taking the chair, predicted a victory not only for the national ticket, but a victory in this county. He expressed the belief that the action of this convention would virtually decide the congressional convention at Atlantic, and that the convention at Atlantic would select a man who would carry Pottawattamie county by a majority of one thousand.

That convention would nominate a man about whom all republicans would rally, and all factions be done away with.

Mr. Consigney moved that a committee be appointed by the chair, to consist of one from each township and ward to name nineteen delegates to the state convention, and nineteen to the congressional convention.

Mr. Lawson moved to amend by having the delegates from each township name a man.

John Lindt moved to lay the amendment on the table, but on learning that it would also lay the original motion on the table, withdrew it, and moved to indefinitely postpone it.

Mr. Lawson objected to this sort of procedure.

The motion to indefinitely postpone the amendment was carried, and the original motion carried.

The chairman then named the following as such committees:

Kane—First precinct—W. McFadden, Second—J. Sims. Third—John Lindt. Fourth—Phil Armour.

Belknap—A. T. Cox. Boomer—L. S. Axtell. Carson—W. F. Pierce. Center—W. T. Davenport. Crescent—A. R. Pretiss. Grove—H. M. Saar. Hazel Dell—G. W. Groves. James—W. S. Burnett. Keg Creek—Wooster Fay. Knox—E. A. Consigney. Layton—O. M. Bruce. Lewis—L. B. Cousins. Lincoln—G. W. Woods. Macedonia—W. M. Tompkins. Minden—P. Ellers. Neola—J. A. Hamilton. Norwalk—N. W. Matson. Pleasant—S. B. Trum. Rockford—Frank Johnson. Silver Creek—Not represented. Valley—A. McKinney. Washington—Jerome Turner. W. and N. Not represented. Wright—Eli Clayton. York—Not represented.

Before the committee reported John Lindt offered a resolution instructing the delegates to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Judge Rothrock for the supreme court. Carried, a few voting no.

The committee reported the following as delegates to the state convention: H. Manning, H. A. Brown, W. F. Sapp, E. A. Consigney, Judge Peake, Eli Clayton, G. S. Lawson, W. W. Bigger, Vic Keller, J. N. Baldwin, J. B. Blake, Phil Armour, H. B. Jack, T. J. Evans, J. O. Stader, A. T. Flickinger, E. P. Brown, R. B. Wilson, L. S. Axtell.

The following were selected as delegates to the congressional convention: Fremont—Benjamin, Phil Annan, E. W. Davis, T. J. Evans, A. McKinney, John Lindt, S. B. Frum, J. K. Kinnehan, P. Ellers, Jacob Sims, W. T. Wilcox, Jerome Turner, A. W. Akwith, B. W. Hight, J. A. Hoke, L. B. Cousins, J. A. Hamilton, E. J. Abbott, Robert Jones.

The reports were adopted.

Eli Clayton introduced the following resolution:

"The republicans of Pottawattamie county in convention assembled, being desirous of securing the election of a republican congressman in this district hereby declare that the choice of this convention for that position is Lieut. Governor O. H. Manning, of Pottawattamie county. We believe that he not only unites in himself all the elements which will contribute to republican success in this district, but the material interests of the district will be well and faithfully represented and cared for by him in the national congress.

We therefore present his name to the people of this district as our choice for the nomination, and request the people of the district to ratify our choice at the congressional convention at Atlantic on the 13th of August, and be it

Resolved, That the delegates selected to said convention from this county be directed to present the name of Lieutenant Governor Manning before that convention as a candidate and use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

The resolution was adopted unanimously and enthusiastically, and calls came for "Manning," "Manning."

While a committee was out after him the convention proceeded to select a county committee, the following being chosen:

Kane—First precinct—E. J. Abbott; second—Jacob Sims; third—John Lindt; fourth—A. J. Hart.

Belknap—W. T. Wilcox. Boomer—Pete Peters. Carson—W. F. Pierce.

Center—A. D. Button. Crescent—A. R. Pretiss. Grove—N. Gallip. Grove—J. W. Conner. Hardin—D. N. Perry. Hazel Dell—W. H. McGuinness. James—John Young. Keg Creek—J. B. McNay. Knox—J. A. Hake.

Layton—O. M. Bruce. Lewis—L. B. Cousins. Lincoln—A. H. Chase. Macedonia—T. J. Young. Minden—F. Marti. Neola—J. A. Hamilton. Norwalk—R. Graybill. Pleasant—J. E. Frum. Rockford—O. Kelsey. Silver Creek—G. A. Stevens. Valley—A. L. Field. Washington—J. K. Annis. Morland—Abel Gifford. Wright—J. B. Tye. York—E. E. Harris.

Judge Thurston, of Omaha, chancing to be present, was called out amidst applause, and put in a half-hour's talk, entertaining the convention. He touched upon the fact that there had been some discussions in the republican ranks here, but notified the democrats not to take any encouragement from these little troubles, for the republicans like a yowling at night, and seeming to be chewing each other all up, were only making more evbs. The democrats were predicting victory for their ticket. They were like the Irishman, who thought it would be no injury to rub the bull's nose in the dust, and who after getting thrown over the fence by the bull remarked that it was so fine that he had his laugh first. Judge Thurston also intimated in a most laughable manner the speech of a democratic orator, who in trying to portray the wonderful character of the democratic nominee for president, not only forgot Cleveland's name, but had to refer to notes, but also in saying that he believed God would be on that side, had also to refer to his notes to remind him of the name of the almighty.

There was much laughter, and burrah, and on his retiring, Lieutenant Governor Manning was called for. He appeared and there was another outburst of enthusiasm. He spoke briefly, confining his remarks simply to an expression of his gratitude for the honor paid him, choosing his words well and fitting them nicely together. He touched upon the incompetency shown by the democratic congress, and pointed to the evidence of this in this city, where there was only a hole waiting for a government building. He believed the democrats had left that hole to crawl into after November, and he hoped they would pull the hole in after them. He pledged himself to give his time and ability to the success of the party, whether fortune shall make him one of the standard bearers or not in this district. At the close of his speech, and more cheering, an adjournment was taken.

After the adjournment of the convention the county committee held a meeting, and chose Jacob Sims as chairman, and A. J. Hart, as secretary.

Boxing at the Y. M. C. A.

The Watchman, which is the official organ of the Y. M. C. A., at Chicago, in its last issue contains the following in its question drawer:

Q. Should boxing gloves be allowed in our Association gymnasium? A. We think not. While it is a good exercise, yet it looks rough, and in a variety of cases causes ill feeling and often worse. If it were allowed, it should be in private rooms with a competent instructor, and no spectators. Unless so guarded they should be prohibited.

Nothing in town beats the 5 cent Cheroot, at the opera house cigar store.
