

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Monday Morning August 18.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier... By Mail...

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's summer goods. The circuit court meets to-day. The Pacific house had, Saturday, enough arrivals to fill two and a half pages of the big register.

The seven-months-old daughter of William Richmond, who died on Friday, was buried Saturday at 2 p. m.

Wm. Jones, a colored man arrested for stealing a mirror and gossamer from Jennie Cuppy, was discharged on Saturday.

A number of friends gathered Saturday evening to witness the opening of a night blooming cereus belonging to Mrs. Gilbert Taylor.

Rev. Mr. Bisell, of Grinnell, preached two excellent sermons in the Congregational church yesterday. He is off on a vacation, a part of which he has been spending in Nebraska.

On September first the express business of the K. C. road will be done by the American Express company, and the United States express will do the business of the B. C. R. & N. road. This is simply an exchange between the two companies.

The rain Saturday caused a great deal of flooding here and considerable damage. A break was made in the dummy track so that the trains could go up to Broadway depot. It is time that something was done with the creek besides making surveys, and holding indignation meetings.

The dear old grandmother did all in her power, in her quiet, sleepy way, last spring to defeat the republican candidate for mayor, Mr. Flickinger, and elect W. R. Vaughan. Now she turns about, finding that there is such a storm of indignation against Vaughan, and tries to get on the other side.

The G. A. R. held a meeting Saturday evening to complete arrangements for the fair to be held in September, the proceeds of which are to go to the needy orphans and widows of the veterans. The committee, consisting of Dr. A. J. Cook, J. W. Kilgore and V. L. Keller, met to-night to complete arrangements.

The "Council Bluffs Serranaders" promise shortly to give another concert in Baylis park. The members of the club and the instruments they play are as follows: E. T. Stephens, guitar; H. W. Smith, guitar; W. H. Palmer, banjo; F. Darrab, banjo; Jacob Herb, harp; F. E. Barney, harp and bones, and Eugene Shaw, harp.

John Phillips, who was wanted in Hazel Dell township for committing an indecent assault on a young girl there, has been arrested in Beatrice, Neb., by the marshal of Neola, who has been on his track. Phillips was brought here on Saturday night and will be taken to Neola to-day. A reward of $100 was offered for his capture. Phillips has taught school for a number of years, and the alleged victim of his brutal passions was a pupil in his school.

Several years ago Mr. Henry Faul, who was the coroner, was called upon to hold an inquest upon a Frenchman who died suddenly at the Emigrant house. The man had in a belt about his person several hundred dollars of gold, and when Faul went out of office the gold was turned over by him. Since then Faul has drawn on the fund for sufficient to put up a marble monument over the grave of the stranger. The monument was put in place Saturday.

The Commercial Gathering. The president of the water-works company thus writes to the mayor concerning the traveling men's gathering: DEAR SIR: I have read with a good deal of pleasure your invitation to the traveling commercial men of the United States to meet in Council Bluffs on September 15th, 16th and 17th of this year.

I am glad to see something done to let the commercial world know that such a city as Council Bluffs exists, and I trust all the leading business houses of the United States will be properly represented in Council Bluffs on the dates mentioned.

I heartily approve of the scheme, and this company will heartily contribute her share toward defraying the expenses of the gathering.

You richly deserve and should receive the thanks of the people of the city for the push and energy you have displayed in bringing forward Council Bluffs as one of the liveliest cities of the West.

Yours Very Truly, S. W. Hopkins, Pres. To Hon. W. R. Vaughan, mayor of the city of Council Bluffs, Astor House, New York.

Real Estate Transfers. The following transfers were filed in the county clerk's office yesterday and reported for THE BEE by P. J. McMahon: W. W. Murphy to A. F. St. Clair, $1,975.31; $2,500.00.

C. B. & Q. R. R. Co. to Stephen A. Brown, $1,500.00; $2,734.89. J. M. Palmer to C. C. Sherraden, lot 8, block 55, railroad add., $50.00.

F. H. Hancock to Thomas Beck et al, part lots 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, block 1, Hancock, $150.00. C. R. I. & P. R. R. Co., to James A. Taylor, lot 8, block 11, Carey, $70.00.

W. S. Brown to J. B. Carson, nw 1/4 12-77-44, $5,120.00. Andrew Martin to William F. Grange, sw 1/4 16-75-38, $5,600.00.

Total sales, $15,810.00.

LYMAN WILL ACCEPT.

Result of a Conference of the Republican Leaders.

Jacob Sims Apparently Their Choice for the Judicial Honor.

At a conference of prominent republicans held in this city Saturday evening, the uncertainty, which has existed in the public mind at least, as to whether Major Lyman would accept the congressional nomination or not, was finally and fully settled. It was a perplexing question for Major Lyman to decide, he having already received at the hands of the party a unanimous nomination for continuance on the circuit bench, and having the assurance of an easy election to that position. To accept the new honors was to throw aside this, necessarily, and this he did not care to do hastily or ill-advisedly. Calling about him representatives of the different factions and elements of the party, and consulting with them, he was assured that he would have not merely the united party in his support for congress, but would also have such an enthusiastic support, that a victory in this, natural republican district seemed certain. As a result of this consultation he has decided to accept the congressional nomination. There remained the question as to whether he should lay aside his present duties, and engage in an active campaign, or not. His friends advised him to continue his judicial duties, deeming that the campaign could be safely trusted to their hands, and this being more to his own taste and his own idea of the dignity becoming the judiciary, he has concluded to continue on the bench until his successor shall take his place.

This being thus arranged it therefore becomes necessary to nominate for the circuit bench some other man. A new judicial convention is to be called at an early date, probably about the middle of September, and a new nomination made for circuit judge. This has naturally started numerous conjectures as to who will secure this nomination. A number of names have already been whispered, but thus far but one seems to have called forth almost unanimous approval, that being the name of Jacob Sims, Esq., of the well-known firm of Sims & Cadwell, of this city. The bar, as indicated by the expressions of the most prominent members, seems not only unanimous, but enthusiastically so, in his favor. Mr. Sims, personally, is a young man of fine culture and thoroughly classical education, and his profession has been so clear a student and he has no large and varied practice that there is no question of his fitness for the position. Aside from this there are party considerations which are strongly in his favor.

During the seven years he has been in this city he has worked early and late for the republican party, and did effectual service, and has not asked nor been given any reward, position or honor at the hands of the party. For these, and other reasons, it seems that a number of prominent republicans have decided to push him to the front, and place him upon the circuit bench, for in this case, nomination means no less than election. W. S. Mayne's name has also been named for the position, as it has been before. He has many friends, and justly so.

George Carson has also been named by some as a possible candidate, but so far as we are advised, his friends are not trying to push his claims to any extent. Captain Hight, whose name was mentioned when the vacancy occurred by Judge Lounsbury's transfer to the district bench, is understood not to be considered, he having an eye to the position of county clerk.

J. P. Conner, the district attorney, has been barely mentioned as a possible candidate, but his friends say that he would not allow his name to be used, much less would he accept a nomination, as judicial honors are not along the line of his tastes and ambitions. It is said that some of the friends of H. C. Watkins, of Glenwood, would like to have his name considered, but it is too early yet for him to have gathered up any special strength, and there seems to be a feeling that the nomination should be left somewhat to this county, the district judge being from the eastern end of the state.

CAGED A BURGLAR.

Officer Hurley Captured Another Prize.

Saturday night Officer J. T. Hurley arrested a coon on the charge of burglarizing J. H. Ball's house at Missouri Valley. Ball had just sold out his lively stable and had about $600 in his pants locket, and an elegant gold watch and neck chain in his vest pocket. On going to bed Thursday night he threw down his clothes as usual without secreting his wealth, and during the night some one entered the room and got away with the money, watch and chain. The darkey whom Hurley arrested here gave his name as Charlie Clark. He had been off and on here for several days, and appeared here Friday quite flush, which excited suspicion and led to his arrest. He had on him the stolen watch, but not the chain, and only $14 of money. He had purchased some new clothes, a pair of gold sleeve-buttons, a $10 ring, a chain and some other articles of lesser value. He claimed that he had bought the watch Friday at the Northwestern depot, a white man, a stranger to him, selling it for $20. He admitted having spent Thursday night in Missouri Valley, but says he slept all night at a coal shed near the depot. A reward of $50 was offered for the capture of the burglar, and as this seems to be without doubt the fellow, Hurley stands a good show of getting the reward. How many will want "a divide" is not yet apparent.

The Pastor's Tribute.

It was hoped that Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, recently pastor of the Congregational church here, would be able to come here and officiate at the funeral of Mrs. Rice, who was a member of that church, but he was unable to do so. In a personal letter to Dr. Rice he says: "It grieves me to the heart that I cannot be with you to-morrow. Be sure were only my convenience, or the pleasurable associations here, in the way, I should come by the morning train. You doubtless remember Mrs. Rice was one of my first acquaintances in Council Bluffs. I mean one of the first with whom I became acquainted, and ever since then her face has been one of the restful, hopeful faces of the congregation, and her voice one of the pleasant voices, and now they unite as one of the pleasant memories of the Sunday congregation, and the prayer-meeting; and the strong family affection that has bound you all together has been a source of great pleasure to me. Such firm family bonds ever remind one of the great family in which we are united in Christ, when we learn through Him to love and obey God as indeed our Father. Now that He has taken the dear companion of so many years, may He give you a deeper sense of the enduringness of the unseen, and the eternal things, and the preciousness of those bonds that unite us in covenant and fellowship with our Savior, and with all the redeemed. He only can comfort you. Let not His consolation seem small to you. May you through this terrible trial learn anew of Christ, and through this experience learn yet more how to comfort those who are in any trouble. My sympathies and prayers are with you, and shall be with you all. May the everlasting arms be underneath. Affectionately your friend, CYRUS HAMLIN.

NABBED A NIPPER.

Another Confidence Man Captured By the Police.

On Saturday evening two young men named Vanness and Jennings reported to the police that they had been worked by a confidence man. Coming in on the Sioux City train, the sick one, an elderly gentleman, giving his name as Jones, represented that he was shipping some stock, and promised the young men employment. Finally he asked Vanness to change a $20 bill, and not being able to do so Vanness lent his new employer $6.50 instead, which of course caused Jones to disappear. Officers O'Brien and Metcalfe, Saturday night, found the man wanted, he being in Kuhn's saloon. He gave his name as John Williams, and had on his person a number of blank checks on Council Bluffs banks and a variety of mining stock certificates. He will have a hearing to-day.

PERSONAL.

James A. Jackson and wife are at the Ogden having returned from Chicago.

D. A. Fair and H. B. Williams of Glenwood, arrived at the Pacific Saturday.

W. E. McThadden is the father of a bouncing ten pound maiden who arrived Saturday.

The irrepressible Bob Harris of Missouri Valley, was stopped at the Pacific yesterday.

Mr. O'Connor, the Neola hotel man, was here Saturday on a brief visit to his father-in-law, Chief Skinner.

George Wickham, who is now in the stock yards at Kansas City, was here yesterday meeting many old friends.

George F. Wright and Mrs. Marshal Key returned Saturday from their sad mission to Chicago where they took the late Marshal Key.

J. W. Perego yesterday started for Quincy, Ill., Pat Lacy for Ottumwa and Tom Bowman for Knoxville, in the interest of the driving park.

J. M. Wetland, president of the Hooper Drill company, of Richmond, Ind., is at the Ogden, a guest of the "Hooper" general western agent, O. D. Reeves.

P. S. Suffer, of Plattsmouth, Neb., has returned home. He left an order for seven tons of the "Hooper" drills with O. D. Reeves before leaving, this being probably Mr. Reeve's last order to receive, as he is making an settlement with his home prior to devoting his whole attention to the sale of the roller skates made by the Richmond Roller Skate and Caster company, of which he is secretary and treasurer and a one-third owner.

Hundreds of grateful people who have been cured of rheumatism, say that Siloam Springs, Mo., is ahead as a specific for that disease.

One of the most novel and attractive sights is the new glass refrigerator at Louis & Metzger's restaurant at Nos. 525 and 527 Broadway. Nothing of this kind has ever been seen in this part of the world before. It enables them to make a tempting display of fresh lobsters, codfish, shrimps, mackerel, halibut, blue fish, soft shell crabs, clams and oysters in shell, and game of all sorts, attracting the attention of all passers-by, while the interior of this glass refrigerator is freezing cold, and everything inside is kept perfect.

The Hardman Piano. The manufacturers of the Hardman piano have been remarkably fortunate in their representations throughout the country, and their agents are enthusiastic in praise of the Hardman. It is of course to be expected that a dealer will speak well of the goods he sells, but when, as we have found it so many cases, he puts the Hardman piano ahead of other instruments he may have in stock, we must recognize the justice of the claim of the makers, that most of Mr. Hardman's pianos consist of their mainstay.
