

THE DAILY BEE

Thursday Morning August 28. LOCAL BREVIETIES.

Billings & Connor, Dentists, opp. P. O. The train from the west yesterday was a large one and dumped a army of politicians and their friends in this city.

A man whose name could not be learned had a leg broken on Harney street Tuesday. The asphalt paving along side of the car tracks on Sixteenth street is being chipped out in order to put in a row of granite blocks which were left out when the street was first paved.

It was reported yesterday that Cleveland and the democratic party were dead. This explains why the flag on the Cleveland and Heedricks pole, corner of Tenth and Pacific streets was at half mast.

City Marshal Cummings yesterday lost his pocketbook. It did not contain any money, but there were a number of papers, among which was a season pass to the state fair, and an annual pass over the Union Pacific road and all of its branches.

The fifth team of the department of the Platt, under the command of J. A. Morrison, left Tuesday for Fort Leavenworth where they will enter into competition with the teams from other departments for membership in the division team.

The fair in aid of St Joseph's Hospital, which will open in Falconer's Hall, corner Fifteenth and Douglas, on Monday evening, Sept. 1st, will possess many features of interest. Among them is the voting to the most popular conductor a beautiful lantern, and to the most popular engineer a valuable clock.

Tenth street seems to be gaining an unrivaled notoriety of late. Last night Mr. William Jackson, late of Cuming county, was suddenly commanded to halt as he reached Preece street, and was requested to hand over what he had.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The Proceedings of the Judicial Convention Yesterday.

Mr. Estelle the Nominee—Other Business of the Convention. The republican judicial convention of this district met in the council chambers at 6 p. m. yesterday, to nominate a candidate for district attorney. The convention was called to order by H. D. Estabrook, chairman of the central judicial district committee.

The committee reported the following named delegates as entitled to seats in the convention. Sarpy county—Henry Ely, John Hoover, Henry Gosch, A. U. Hancock and William Smith.

On motion of Sahler the temporary organization was made permanent. A motion was made to proceed to an informal ballot for district attorney. An amendment was proposed by Clark that the roll be called by counties.

The convention then proceeded to a formal ballot, resulting as follows: Hancock 5, Estabrook 5, Estelle 17, Estelle 21. No election.

Mr. Estelle, having received a majority of the votes cast, was declared the nominee of the convention by the chair. On motion of G. M. Hitchcock the nomination of Estelle was made unanimous by the convention.

At the beginning of his remarks he spoke in a tone inaudible to many in the room, when cries of "louder," "louder," were heard. Mr. Estelle said he would talk loud enough to be heard in November, and if Mr. Godwin didn't wear out a horse or two during the campaign he would be left. He said he expected to wear out the soles of his shoes this fall in tramping through his district, but when the election was over he would be found on his knees.

Mr. Estabrook was next called for, who addressed the convention in a manner that would do credit to any republican, reassuring his loyalty to his party and expressing a determination to use all legitimate means to elect his successful opponent.

The convention then adjourned, sine die. An Explanation. To the Editor of The Bee: A recent issue of The Bee noted the arrival of "Mr. E. J. Bussey and bride, of Omaha," at the Windsor hotel, Denver.

Bussey in an extremely embarrassing situation. I should be happy to make any reparations to Mr. Bussey that lies within my power, and should take pleasure in giving additional particulars, to any of his friends who will take the trouble to enquire at THE BEE office for my name and address.
