INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., August 30. The campaign in this state was formally opened by both parties today and a hundred speeches were delivered in towns and cities in all parts of Indiana.

The campaign on behalf of the democracy opened here tonight by a large meeting which was addressed by Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks, the democratic candidate for vice-president.

Fellow citizens—I appreciate the privilege and the honor of addressing you, and I recognize the duty of speaking frankly and with full confidence of every manly and patriotic fact or opinion.

The speaker then proceeded to describe at length the Ketch's act and the case, as compared with the McSwiney case under the republican administration.

In concluding his speech Hendricks made a personal appeal for support, saying: "I have no personal interest in this election. I desire the vote of Indiana."

"VOODOOED" IN INSANITY.

The Fate of A Young Girl, Victim To The Negro Voodoo Superstition.

Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

LETTER ROCK, Arkansas, August 31.—Owing to the results of "voodooing" which is practiced to a great extent among a certain class of negroes in the south, Miss Keziah, a healthy and good looking mulatto girl, is now a ravishing maniac.

Two weeks ago she became suddenly ill, at the place where she was employed as a servant.

A relative, an old colored woman named Aunt Malindy, imagined she was "voodooed" and with the advice of the surrounding colored community, had her removed to her home in Phillips county for conjuration.

The treatment, or "voodooing" as it is termed by the numerous believers of the colored race, administered with as much ceremony as the ultimate appearance of the old ship Zion or the coming of the golden chariot is viewed from their superstitious standpoint.

The Voodoo manipulator of this process, as in this case, is always an aged colored woman who has gained a reputation by stories of previous successes.

After the girl had been placed in her room, Aunt Malindy proceeded to mix the ingredients, a piece of an old shoe, rusty nails and spikes, old hair, razors, handles, bedstead, medicine and rabbit's foot, also opium and chloroform.

The concoction was then boiled in a charned caldron. The conjurer then locked herself in the apartment, and administered the full of this concoction, first by external manipulation, then internally in large doses.

The girl became very ill, and in a mixture of insanity and delirium, she refused to eat or drink. The conjurer then proceeded to mix the ingredients, a piece of an old shoe, rusty nails and spikes, old hair, razors, handles, bedstead, medicine and rabbit's foot, also opium and chloroform.

LOUISIANA.

Murder of an Iowa Chief by Two Winnebagoes.

Special to THE BEE.

ATKINSON, Kas., August 31.—The particulars of the murder of the Iowa chief Koshingway on the reservation in Brown county have just been received.

It appears that Koshingway solicited some of the Winnebagoes to come and live on the Iowa reservation, promising to secure for them an allotment of land and annuities there.

Two camps of Winnebagoes came, but did not secure their allotment of land and annuities.

In the evening of the day the Iowa chief received their last payment, a number of Indians had collected at the camp of Frank Dupue, who is married to a daughter of South Wind, a Winnebago.

Koshingway and South Wind were present and fight occurred. The whole crowd was drunk.

Koshingway was stabbed in the back by South Wind, and Dupue's wife, the woman it is said striking the first blow. Dupue was lying on the floor drunk.

The Winnebagoes stood several hundred yards from the Omaha river. South Wind and Dupue's wife carried the body and threw it into the river.

The perpetrators are now in custody at Fall City, Neb., and will be tried for the crime at an early day.

The Indians on the reservation are greatly excited over the murder, and would have made short work of the murderers if the authorities had not removed them.

PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.

Agricultural Men to Investigate for Themselves.

NEW YORK, August 30.—A conference between the officers of the American Agricultural association and the International Dairy and Fair association and leading cattle breeders of the country was held here to-day to consider means to be taken to allay the alarm created by sensational reports on the subject of pleuro-pneumonia among cattle.

An address was adopted, which says: "When we consider the great harm done and the good accomplished by spreading these sensational reports, certain indications in behalf of men who hold certain offices, we are irresistibly led to grave suspicion of their good faith."

Feeling this Bureau of Animal Industry may do the cattle industry of the country great and irreparable harm, a thorough investigation should be made by the American Agricultural association, and do all in their power to forestall this subject to the bottom.

A Riot in the Hocking Valley.

COLEMAN, Aug. 31.—Reports come from the Hocking valley that the miners at Snake Hollow made an attack on the guards at two o'clock this morning and that one guard was killed and two wounded; also that there were 3000 miners in number, who made an attack, having come in from the surrounding country.

The telegraph lines are all cut. LATRO, Sheriff McCarthy, of Athens county, sends the following to Governor Hoodly from Buchtel, which is in the neighborhood where the riot occurred last night: "A shooting commenced by rioters about two o'clock this morning and continued about an hour. About seven hundred shots were fired. One guard was shot dead and two wounded."

The Columbus guards returned fire but cannot say whether any person was killed or wounded. A Nelsonville special says: At three a. m. the guards on duty at No. 7 mine were suddenly surrounded by a lot of armed men. In this meantime the coal hoppers were discovered on fire. The men had in their faces blacked the telegraph wires and in several places through the wire. A State Journal representative was surrounded and ordered to leave town or suffer the consequences.

COLEMAN, Ohio, August 31.—The name of the man who shot during the rioting at Snake Hollow is William Hove, an elderly man, and a guard residing at Logan. Jacob Liss, also of Logan, was shot in the leg, and another guard in the hand.

The striking miners are concentrating to-night at Murray City, and the deputy sheriff charges there has asked the sheriff for aid. It is thought that the troops will be called before morning. At all other points in the valley everything is reported quiet. Murray City is about five miles from Snake Hollow, and is so well guarded.

COLEMAN, August 31.—The rioters are firing on the guards at Sand River and Long Creek mines and both places have been helped and the militia at New Lexington have been ordered to be in readiness for marching orders. Owing to the cutting of wire telegraph lines everything is difficult. Governor Hoodly has applied the sheriffs of Athens, Hocking and Perry counties: "All means in your power should be exhausted to suppress riotous proceedings, and protect life and property before the aid of the aid of the state is called for."

COLEMAN, Aug. 31.—The sheriff of Hocking county has just sent a telegram asking for troops. The governor arrived at midnight and the Columbus battalion of the sixth regiment has been called to headquarters and will leave on a special train for the mining district as soon as the train can be secured. Communication by telegraph with that point has been cut off for the past hour.

How a Sandwich Caused a Murder.

NEW YORK, August 31.—The Empire laundry association started this morning from the foot of West Eleventh street on the barge Union for Linden Grove near Elm Park, Staten Island. On the trip one of the excursionists attempted to steal sandwiches from the bar.

When the barkeeper struck him with a club. The man then returned to the bar, and beating him to death with a glass, placed his hands and whatever else he could lay hands on. The bark was brought to a standstill and the police were called.

The police, however, took no action and the barge returned to New York. After killing the barkeeper, the party gutted the bar and it was reported by a man who came ashore that the lower part of the large locker like a slaughter pen, as a man was fighting terribly.

LATRO.—John Paban has been arrested as the murderer of Koshingway. Many of the laundrymen are said to have learned their business "doing time" in states prison.

They Will Steal No More.

ST. LOUIS, August 31.—While a sheriff and posse were attempting to arrest thieves near Colterville, Mo., last night they were fired upon by two thieves. The sheriff's party returned fire, killed one thief and the other escaped. The men were strangers and had been through the greater part of the country with a two horse wagon and had robbed quite a number of farmers. Considerable stolen property was found in their wagon.

The burglar secured one thousand dollars in stamps, a small sum in cash and a large number of registered letters, value unknown. There is no clue to the robbers.
