COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning September 4.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier 30 cents per week, By Mail $10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's fall goods. The city council meets tomorrow night.

The jury in the superior court have been excused until next Saturday. The Episcopalians are to have a social this evening at the residence of John N. Baldwin.

In the police court A. W. Walker and James Riley were each fined $7.00 for being drunk.

Water was struck at Geises' artesian well yesterday the flow being five to eight gallons a minute.

The Jellison murder case came up in the Crawford county court the other day, and was continued until the next term.

The Ladies' Harmony mission prayer meeting will be held this (Thursday) evening at the residence of Mr. Fair, 227 Harmony street.

Tomorrow the board of supervisors will open bids from physicians for attending all cases of paupers in the city, also in Gainer and Lewis townships.

James McGloin, who was arrested for pulling off his coat and threatening to whip his boss, was discharged on a hearing before Judge Aylesworth yesterday morning, the judge warning him not to pull off his coat so quickly next time.

The paste brigade of Barnum's circus was here, and made headquarters at the Pacific. Yesterday Connell's undertaking wagon was used to take several of the men down Main street, and this gave rise to the rumor that a coroner's jury had gone down to sit on the body of a man who had been killed by the cars.

Mr. H. S. Boyle is reported as still suffering from the clubbing which he received at the hands of Officer Austin at the races. Nothing has been done toward an investigation yet, and probably there will be nothing done until Mr. Boyle's health is in such a condition that he can attend to it.

The pacer Elkhorn, and the fast trotter Blazewood were yesterday shot by Nash Bros., 719 Broadway, before being shipped away. Blazewood's shoes only weighed four ounces, a very light weight. Nash Bros. are much sought after by horsemen, for they seem to have rare skill in this line.

This evening the Methodists have a social at the residence of Rev. Joseph Knotta. If the weather is favorable there will be a very large attendance, and favorable or not there will be without doubt a most enjoyable time, in which all friends of the church or family are invited to participate.

The wooden building on Broadway near the blue barn, is being removed to make way for a new brick building, 20x60 feet, two stories high. Mr. Bohn, who owns the property, has let the contract to Wickham Bros., and the proposed building is already spoken for, to be used as a carriage factory by a new firm.

The street car track on Broadway was recently thrown over to one side to be temporarily used while the street improvements were going on, but it seems now that there will be no immediate chance to lay the new and permanent track. The old track is being repaired, new rails being put in the place of those most worn.

George Ferguson's fine family horse "Dunlock" died yesterday after being sick for about a week. The loss is a heavy one, not merely because of the market value of the animal but because of his being just the kind of a horse that was needed by the family, and because they had driven him for several years and became attached to him.

There was a lively time at Boken's parlour on Main street at a late hour on Tuesday night. A man named Harmon Tinsman was sleeping in a chair, when the hour of midnight came, and the proprietor wishing to close up, went to him and shook him up. Tinsman claims that he was struck and kicked, and used roughly, which is denied by others. But anyway, he was roaring mad, and as he went out he choked up a beer keg and threw it into the saloon, striking and breaking the screen. Another keg he threw through the window, smashing the glass. There was a general row now then, and a call for the police. Tinsman was run in and yesterday was fined $15.00. He couldn't pay, and went to jail.

The move on the part of the barbers to have all the shops closed on Sunday seems to have but few opposers. It is claimed that if all the shops joined in the move, there would be as much money made as running seven days and that the men who do the work need one day a week at least. A large number have joined in signing a petition asking the council to pass an ordinance with a penalty of $10 to $25 for each and every violation, the petitioners promising to not only obey it but help to enforce it. It is understood that the proprietors of one or two of the hotel shops object as they want a chance to accommodate the transients who come in to spend Sunday.

The Unhappy Car. WARREN, September 3.—The arrival of the car was postponed till September 3. Five hundred more policemen have arrived. Officers circles positively announce that the three engines will meet at Shiras's.

POLITICAL PRATTLE.

Some of the Republican Attorneys Express Their Preference for Judge—Conjectures Concerning the Democracy.

Yesterday afternoon there was a meeting of some of the republican members of the bar to consider the question as to whom they would favor as nominee for the circuit bench in place of Judge Lyman, who laid down the republican judicial nomination to enter the congressional contest. There were eighteen members of the bar present, some of whom held proxies, so that the total vote was 25. To get an expression of those present, a vote was taken, of which Captain B. W. Hight received 13 and Charles M. Harle 12, thus giving Captain Hight a majority of one. A motion was then passed unanimously favoring Captain Hight for the nomination. In connection with the judicial contest, Mr. Jacob Sims' name has been mentioned, and his candidacy has met with great favor, but he and his friends took no part in the bar caucus yesterday.

In the democratic camp there is much quiet work going on. Little or nothing appears externally about the local contests, and it does not seem clearly settled whether Congressman Pusey will enter the congressional race or not. Some of his friends declare that he will not. Others say that he will surely run. Those seem to strike it nearer the truth who avow that Mr. Pusey is a man who never lets go of his slice of bread and butter until he is sure, in his own mind at least, that it will be kept better side up, and that if he thinks he is pretty sure of winning, he will enter the race, but not otherwise. It seems conceded that he can have the democratic nomination if he wants it. There is some little whispering, however, of running Bolter. The theory is presented that if Bolter is nominated, he having always had rather a greenback tendency, there can be a fusion of greenbackers with the democracy, thus giving him 1,500 to 2,000 votes which Pusey cannot get. It is predicted by some that, if a successful fusion can be made, Bolter will be put up as Judge Lyman's opponent.

In regard to the judicial nominations, it seems conceded that Judge Aylesworth is the judicial nomination for district judge if he will take it. Mr. Phelps, of Atlantic, is named as very likely to be nominated for one of the benches, but it is said by some that he will not allow his name to be used. Robert Percival, of this city, is also very favorably spoken of. For district attorney, the name of R. Shawman, of Crawford, will doubtless now be dropped out, as Mr. Lally, of Denison, seems to have captured the convention there. Mr. Hammond, of Fremont, and G. W. Cullison, of Shelby, are also among those liable to be nominated.

FINANCES OF THE COUNTY.

The Levy Made by the County Board—A Most Excellent Ten Years' Showing.

The county board of supervisors is continuing its sessions at the court house. The most of the time yesterday was spent in considering the tax levy. It will be of interest to all tax-payers in this city to learn that the taxes for school, county and city purposes, or what is known as the general levy, will this year amount to fifty-two and one-fourth mills, or to make it plainer yet, on every $100 there will be a general levy of $5.22 1/2. The city levy is 2 1/2 mills, which includes five mills for water tax, very little of the property inside of the city limits being exempt from this. The school tax is 1 1/2 mills, and the county tax 1 1/2 mills, the making a total of 5 1/2 mills. In making this levy it is interesting to note that the valuation of the county in 1874, ten years ago, was about $8,000,000; now it is about $11,000,000. During this ten years the county has paid off bonded debts of $600,000, and on the 1st January last was entirely free from debt, and had $45,000 cash in the treasury. Notwithstanding this remarkable financial cleaning up, the levy during the ten years has been reduced from 16 mills to 5 1/2 mills. No county in the state can make a better showing, and it is doubtful if any can make so good a one. During the same ten years the total assessed valuation of the city itself has increased in about the same proportion as the county at large, but the city's indebtedness has not been diminished as has the county, it having for the last ten years been up to the full constitutional limit most of the time.

Death Of Rev. Father Mulholland.

Yesterday about the noon hour death relieved from further labor and suffering, Rev. Arthur R. Mulholland, the assistant pastor of Rev. Father McMenomy. The event was not unexpected, for it has seemed for several days that the worthy man could not long tarry among even those who were so loth to have him go, and who surrounded him with every possible attention and care to nourish and cherish his life. Still, expected as death was, it came as a sudden blow, for the illness was of but a few days' duration. Last Saturday night the worthy priest was seized with a chill, although some earlier Sunday, and hoping to soon be able to resume his duties, it was followed soon by more unfavorable symptoms, and soon hope of friends and brother priests died out, and he passed away yesterday noon as peacefully as a child falling into slumber.

Reverend Father Mulholland was born in Louisa county, Ireland, and was about forty years of age. He was educated in the old country, and was ordained in St. Louis, being a priest in that diocese until a year ago last Christmas when he came here as assistant to Rev. Father McMenomy. During his stay here he has endeared himself greatly to the people, and has many friends and admirers in all classes of the community, and his death will be sincerely mourned. His relatives live in St. Louis, and they will find that in their sorrow they will find many warm, sympathizing hearts here. His brother priests, and those who knew him best, have high words of praise for his many many qualities of head and heart, and all pay special tribute and give great prominence to that trait of life, which was so marked—charity, not only a liberality of purse, but that rarer and nobler charity, which not only caused him to have no but words of kindness, for any and all, but which led him to always present himself as a defender of any who were spoken of or treated uncharitably by others. He had a heart of rare tenderness, which led him only to acts of kindness.

Today the body will be laid in state in the church, and tomorrow, at 10 o'clock, the funeral will be held at the church.

The returns slowly coming in at a late hour this morning indicate that the republicans have an average leading margin of 10,000 in the state contest.
