there are a score or more of booths where beer, whiskey and refreshments of a nore substantial nature are sold. These booths line both sides of the streets and extend half a mile south of the grounds, A dance hall on the side of the hill east of the fair grounds is extensively patronfor good order. At night there is considerable discord in camp, and no doubt there will be more or less trouble before he week is over. Yesterday the principal feature of interest, excepting General Butler's appearance, was

THE RACES which were called for 1:30 o'clock but necessarily delayed until a later hour. The first of these was a running race, won by Rosalind in two heats. Time 1.47 and 1.47 . Ella Rowett came in second. Fleming was distanced and Master Mulloy was drawn.

The half-mile race for three year olds was won by Red Bird. Time 1.28 and 264. Jennie Cobb came in second and obb, Jr., and Gail McMahon. The chariot race was won by the gray
