

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning September 11.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - 20 cents per week. By Mail - $10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See Reiter's new fall stock of clothing. The circuit court was not in session yesterday.

Brix vs. McLean will occupy the attention of the circuit court this morning.

The patriotic citizens of Dennison are taking steps to organize a militia company.

George W. Metzger and Amanda Linder were issued a marriage license yesterday.

The Carleton Opera Company performed to a fair sized audience at Dohany's last night.

The Bandmann Baudet company are booked for Dohany's Friday and Saturday evening next.

The corn crop of this part of Iowa is reported by the farmers to be beyond danger from the frost.

Emil Palmer and Alma Peterson, both of Plattsmouth, Neb., were yesterday given permission to wed.

The Crawford county fair is in progress at Dennison this week, and large numbers are in attendance.

Barnum's bill posters were yesterday busily engaged in posting up bills at convenient places all over the city.

The case of Marquel vs. Doerflinger occupied the attention of the supreme court the greater part of yesterday.

The Bluff City steamer was yesterday stowed away in the ware-rooms of Bowman Rohrer & Co., where it will probably remain until it is disposed of.

A gang of men are at work near the city jail, in bundling up willows, which are being used in rip-rapping Indian Creek, near the Bryant street bridge.

Hose cart No. 4 is now temporarily quartered at the Rescue engine house, until suitable quarters can be erected at some convenient point on Main street.

The waterworks were running more direct pressure yesterday, while the reservoir was being cleaned out. Water will be supplied from the reservoir this morning as usual.

Twenty pounds of grapes, carefully packed in a clean new basket, can now be bought on the streets of Council Bluffs for 70 cents. They will doubtless be cheaper still as the crop is enormous.

The Shenandoah fair is in progress this week, commencing Tuesday last. The attendance yesterday was good, and the present prospects are good for the financial success of the association.

The Western Union telegraph company are removing the poles of their line on Broadway and replacing them with larger and taller ones, set inside the curbing as directed by the city council.

The electric belt business of Messrs. Judd & Smith has so increased that they have found it necessary to remove their factory to No. 30 Bancroft street. Their office still remains at No. 319 Broadway.

Billy Smith the baggage man, has made several contracts lately with the show people who are coming here. He contracts to take the baggage and all the members of the troops to and from the depots.

The paving on Upper Broadway is progressing satisfactorily, and it is expected the work will be completed as far as the Ogden house by Saturday night - if Vaughan can place the rest of the city securities.

In the divorce case of Bargee vs. Bargee the bonds of matrimony were legally severed as prayed for in the petition of the plaintiff. Mrs. Bargee failed to secure the desired alimony, but was given the custody of the child.

The city bastille was completely deserted yesterday, save two victims who are "serving their time." Not a disturber of the peace, confidence man or even a common drunk could be found to dispel the loneliness that surrounded the city cooler.

A. B. Walker is not by any means a light weight, but he is not quite so heavy as he imagines. He thinks he weighs a ton. This remarkable hallucination is caused by the fact that a new son has arisen to rule the day, also the night at his house. His name is William.

A good sized team of horses were stuck on a crossing in front of the Pacific house yesterday with a load of dirt. The horses were unhooked and a small, insignificant looking pair of mules attached thereto, and the wagon immediately came out of that ditch.

At the democratic congressional convention held at Atlantic yesterday, Hon. W. H. M. Pusey, of this city, was nominated for re-election on the first ballot. Full proceedings of the convention will be found elsewhere in the columns of The Bee this morning.

The case of Williams vs. Atkins, which was to have been tried before Justice Abbott yesterday, was continued one week, owing to the indisposition of the court. Mr. Abbott has not been feeling able to transact business for the past few days, and matters before him will probably remain untried until he feels able to resume.

The delegates from this place to the democratic congressional convention at Atlantic yesterday were joined by delegates from surrounding towns in the morning, and proceeded to the Rock Island depot en masse, headed by the Bavarian band. There was nearly a street car full of delegates and musicians.

Yesterday morning John and Thomas Maloney returned from their sad mission to Warsaw, Indiana, where on Saturday last they laid to rest the remains of their aged father. Their many friends in Council Bluffs extend their sincere sympathy to the Maloney brothers, who are well known to our citizens. Billy remains in Warsaw a few days to settle up the business affairs of his father.

The letter carriers' ball last evening was the event of the season. The evening was a perfect one, and the crowd large. Everybody was in the best of spirits, and all enjoyed themselves. The Bavarian band furnished the music for those who chased the fleeting hours with flying feet, while for the pleasure of those who preferred to sit and listen, the colored glass club and the serenaders discoursed harmonious sounds.

Word was received here yesterday that a daughter of C. G. Smith, residing at Clarinda, had run away from home. The following is the description given of her: Blue eyes; blonde; had a suit of light blue, white straw hat trimmed with white lace; a string of black beads were around her neck, and she carried a red leather pocket-book. Her anxious parents will be glad to receive any tidings of her whereabouts.

An old woman, apparently on the shady side of 60, and who was too full for utterance or navigation, was picked up late yesterday afternoon at the Broadway dummy depot. She had with her a small child, but her explanation as to who it belonged to could hardly be relied upon, owing to her beastly state of intoxication.

The child was turned over to the care of officer Hurley until the facts can be ascertained. She gave her name as Shary.

The board of directors of the state agricultural society of Iowa have appointed a committee to wait upon Governor Sherman and urge upon him the necessity of immediate action to prevent the introduction of pleuro-pneumonia among Iowa cattle.

Shipments of cattle and calves from Illinois, where the herds are known to be infected with the disease, are being made daily into Iowa, thereby hazarding the great stock interests of this state.

The board of directors recommend the most stringent measures, even to the scheduling of states where the disease is known to exist, and immediate action will probably be taken by the governor, who is usually very prompt in such emergencies.

VAUGHAN'S CARD.

That Has Created So Much Talk.

Since the democratic convention in Chicago there has been considerable talk about the card that Mayor Vaughan has been presenting to his newly made acquaintances in the east.

During the convention several parties heard of or saw this wonderful card, and it has created so much comment and especially since the mayor has been trying to sell the bonds in New York, Philadelphia and Boston, that THE BEE has concluded to give its numerous readers in this city the contents of this wonderful piece of cardboard in full.

THE CARD contains on one side the following: Population in 1870, 10,000. Population in 1881, 33,000. COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

W. R. VAUGHAN, MAYOR. Second term of office expires March 17, 1884. Noble Grand Arch of Iowa, U. A. O. D., Past Grand Prelate K. of P., Representative to U. S. Grand Lodge, Representative to Iowa Grand Lodge.

ON THE REVERSE SIDE IS PRINTED A Virginian by Birth. A Resident of Alabama up to 1866. For further particulars call at Fryor's Box printing office, No. 7 Pearl street, where the above referred to cards were printed.

Self-Destruction. The Crawford County Bulletin of this week contains the following particulars of the suicide of Matt Cook:

Last Wednesday afternoon the body of Matt Cook of Jackson township, was found cold in death in a cornfield near his house. The body lay upon its side, while a gun, over the trigger of which were the times of a pitchfork, indicated the manner of death. The charge entered just below the left eye, tearing off the entire top of the head, a portion of the brains and skull being scattered a distance of fifteen feet. Cook had evidently placed the gun in position, and fired it by pushing the trigger with his pitchfork. He was working with a threshing machine and told his friends that he was going over to the cornfield to kill a badger. His body was found about eighty rods from the machine, by his wife, who went in search for him. While the evidence at the inquest was not of a character to justify a verdict of suicide, as there seemed to be no motive, there is little if any doubt but that it was a case of self-destruction. Mr. Cook was but 25 years old and had been married three months on the day of his death. He was a man of quiet, exemplary habits, a hard worker and an honest, conscientious fellow, above the average in talent and popular with his friends. It is alleged that he had engaged in some stock trades that worried him and preyed upon his mind.

Shipments of Stock. The following were the shipments of stock from the union stock yards:

Snow Cattle company, 280 head, to Chicago, via Northwestern. J. W. Wiggins, one car of hogs, 70 head, to Chicago, via Rock Island. H. J. Loggins & Co., two cars of hogs, 173 head, to Chicago, via Rock Island. F. Kropp, one car of hogs, 61 head, to Chicago, via Rock Island.

Our Mayor Still Lives.

The following telegram was received by Thomas Bowman Tuesday night: "New York, September 9.-Clayton and I have just sold $50,000 worth of bonds and placed the cash to the credit of Council Bluffs in the Park National bank. We will be home soon. I feel that it is important that the bonds be sold regardless of home and eastern opposition." W. R. VAUGHAN.

What the securities sold for, according to their value, the dispatch does not state, but the amount sold will not more than pay for the improvements already made, and it will therefore be necessary for Vaughan to put in the balance of the fall selling the remainder of the securities, unless his 'early prospects' soon materialize.
