

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Tuesday Morning September 16. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: 50 cents per week in Advance; 1.00 per month; 10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Next Broadway. MINOR MENTION.

The supreme court meets today. See Reiter's new fall stock of clothing. Roller skating at the rink Wednesday night.

The United States court meets here next week. The Episcopal rectory is being raised by W. P. Aylesworth.

The council is waiting for a good chance to hold a meeting—some time when the reporters are not around.

The Carson delegation arrived yesterday to attend the convention to-day, and other delegates gathered in last evening.

Arthur Cowles, of Harlo, Haas & Co., found himself a million dollars richer yesterday, and his face shone like an electric light.

It is claimed that, at the First ward republican primary, there were several attempts to stuff the ballot box, in one case as many as four ballots being put in at once.

The building of the Bancroft street sewer will probably be completed to-day as far as Willow avenue, and will then be turned into Willow avenue and run up the hill.

Two single-barreled pistols were found yesterday secreted under the safe in the police headquarters. Just who owns them or how they came there is a mystery as yet unsolved.

Metcalf Bros. have in one of their show windows a very attractive "Jumbo" made of clothing and gents furnishing goods, a very novel representation, which excites much attention and comment.

Fifteen suits on delinquent poll taxes have been commenced before Justice Abbott. Collector Jerman has sharpened his stick, and is punching up those who have not paid.

The lamp posts in the filled portion of the city still need raising. Letter carriers have to get on their knees to get the mail out of the boxes, and small boys have little stretching to do to put out lights at night and to light them by day.

Mr. Tillotson, who is connected with the C. B. & Q. office, and who is well known among the railway employes in both cities, now carries one hand in a sling. He was examining a loaded revolver, and caught the hot ball in one finger.

The republican county convention meets at the court house at 11 o'clock to-day to select nineteen delegates to the judicial convention which meets here Thursday and also to nominate a candidate for clerk of the courts, a candidate for county recorder, and for member of the board of supervisors.

L. N. Bookhoff, the boy who was recently bitten by a rattlesnake, is reported now out of danger and recovering rapidly. He has suffered greatly, his leg being swollen to enormous size, and for a time it was spotted very much like a snake. The boy was given great quantities of whisky, without making him drunk.

Justice Schurz yesterday tied the bond matrimonial by which J. M. McElroy and Teresa Dolan were made happy as husband and wife. The ceremony was performed in the presence of friends gathered at the residence of the bride's sister, corner of Tenth avenue and Fifteenth street.

Clayton Turney, the traveling man who was robbed of $40 and a gold watch, by some sneak who entered his room at the Bechtel house, was yesterday on the busy hunt for some clue. The watch belonged to a friend of his in Red Oak, and on that account he is even more anxious to recover it than if it was his own.

The recent exposure, made by THE BEE, of a man and woman who were trying to play the married, blackmailing act here, caused that cunning couple to leave the city the next day. They evidently did not enjoy staying in a city where they were so quietly known and pointed out, and have sought more verdant fields of operation.

By a twist of the types THE BEE was made to say yesterday that twenty-eight out of the twenty-nine delegates, chosen at the republican primaries favored Jacob Sims for circuit judge. It should have read eighteen out of twenty-nine. The figure was altogether 2 too much. On the other hand Captain Hight's friends claim that the majority of the delegates can be counted in his favor.

A number of the new counterfeit silver dollars, about which so much has been said, have appeared here, and have been passed quite readily. They are so well executed that they are quite apt to deceive. They are lighter weight than the originals, the color is a little dull, and when broken they appear to have pulverized glass in their composition, possibly to give the coin the needed ring.

Dr. Bellinger has relieved Miss Maggie Johnson, who lives on Third street, of a tumor weighing twelve pounds, and from which she has suffered for six years past. The operation was a delicate one, requiring much skill, but it was performed successfully, and Miss Johnson was yesterday feeling so well that her speedy and complete recovery is expected. Dr. Jackson, of Omaha, and Dr. Emmond assisted in the operation.

The first frost of the season appeared yesterday morning before Judge Aylesworth. The fellow insisted that his name was John Frost, or Jack for short, and he frankly pleaded guilty to being drunk. He had only a little money, about $5 and he was given credit for that amount. His says he had about $100 and a splendid rifle, but he was trying it on the river bank on the Omaha side, and got acquainted with some pleasant young fellows. When he came to he was on this side of the river, with four whiskey bottles, three of them empty, and $97 of his money gone.

A number of Council Bluffs citizens have been subpoenaed to go to Winter set to testify in the case of Harvey Lewis, who killed a room-mate in Des Moines. It is supposed that the purpose of having these witnesses from here is to establish Lewis' good reputation and peaceable character. Most of the witnesses left last night. Among them are H. H. Field, Thos. Gavin, Bill Rain, J. L. Forman, R. T. Bryant, A. J. Bump, W. R. Vaughan and John W. Chapman. Mayor Vaughan is not here to join the party.

There have been so many changes in the police force lately that the chief himself hardly knows who are on duty. The force as now constituted consists of Chief Skinner, and officers, O'Brien, Towns, Austin, Smullen, Liebold, Dunn, who are on night duty, and officers Brooks, Cusick and Kirk, who are on day duty.

Sometime ago Mollie Wallace came in to headquarters with a face black with rage and insisted that the officers should find and arrest one Jim Johnson who had abused her. Yesterday the police got Jim but Mollie had got over her mad, and wouldn't prosecute.

Two farmers, living about ten miles out of the city, were yesterday in police court on charge of being drunk and of fast driving. They were allowed to go back home on the promise of returning Wednesday and settling the bills.

A young man was arrested here last evening on suspicion of being wanted at York, Neb., as he seemed to answer the description given on a postal, received from there, offering $50 reward, but not stating the offense.

A young girl named Belle Lewis, aged 15, died yesterday morning, and was buried from the residence of her parents, corner Washington avenue and Seventh street, yesterday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Fisk officiated.

The paving of Broadway is being pushed right along, and it is predicted that forty good working days will see it completed.

A CRAZED CRIMINAL. Tom Dorsey Becomes a Lunatic in an Eastern Penitentiary.

Many here, especially among the railway boys, will remember one, Tom Dorsey, who was at work here about a year ago, being employed in some capacity in the yards of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. He got into some scrape here, and was charged with robbing an old man of his valise, but succeeded in getting off with a fine, and having money was sent to jail. Some of the railway boys had their sympathy aroused, and more trying to raise the money to get him out, when THE BEE exposed Dorsey's real character and previous record, which was very crooked. Soon after leaving here he robbed an old man of about $200 and was sentenced to several years in the Wisconsin penitentiary. Word now comes that Dorsey's mind is breaking down and that there is no "sham" about it, and it is predicted by the physicians that he will soon become a raving maniac and probably permanently insane. His confinement, though not new for him, seems to have told on him greatly, and he is said to be in such miserable physical condition that hardly any of his old friends or acquaintances could recognize him.

BLACK LEGS. They Couldn't Run Fast Enough To Keep Their Owner Out Of Jail.

The colored fellow who stole a pair of pantaloons at John Beno & Co.'s store Saturday evening, and who gave Officer Kirk such a long hard chase, was brought into court yesterday morning. His head was still sore from the gentle tapping of the officer's billy, but otherwise he seemed husky and ready for another run.

The prisoner gave the name as Henry Evans, and was sentenced to thirty days in jail. The officers recognized in the swarthy features, those of Frank Owens, who a short time ago had a lively tussle with officer O'Brien. At that time the coach had a revolver, and was "sized up" by the police as a hard case, but by some technicality got out of their toils and was released. It is with some satisfaction that the police know they will not be troubled with him for thirty days at least.

PERSONAL. C. L. Felt is laid up with malaria. J. C. Leland, of West Point, is at the Ogden. Mrs. A. Fassel has returned from Nebraska. George P. Knowles, of Fond du Lac, Wis., is at the Pacific. Mrs. W. F. Sapp has gone to Chicago on a week's visit to friends there. P. C. Miller has recovered from his sickness so as to be able to attend to business again. John D. Nicholson, now of the Omaha stock yards, was greeting his friends here yesterday, accompanied by John A. Freyhan. Fred R. Davis, formerly connected with Singart, Walt & Weis, is now connected with the land department of the U. P., and is selling land on the K. C. division of the U. P.

SNATCHING A SNEAK. A Lively Capture at Richie Bro's Lumber Yard.

Yesterday afternoon while B. J. Fulton, the manager of Richie Bro's lumber business was out in the yard two fellows sneaked into the office, and while one was going through the desks the other was searching the pockets of some clothing hanging in the office. Mr. Fulton entered. The fellow at the clothing got away with a revolver, while Mr. Fulton collared the other one. There was a lively struggle and Fulton had to pound the fellow up pretty well before he would surrender. He was then taken to the police station by Officer Cusick, where he gave his name as Ike Davidson. No plunder was found on his person, and nothing was missing from the lumber office, except the revolver, which was evidently taken away by the fellow who escaped.
