BLEEDING THE CANDIDATES

In this era of civil service reform it seems rather remarkable that the republican state central committee should levy upon federal office-holders and state candidates an assessment beyond all reasonable estimates of legitimate campaign expenses.

This is what we call bleeding the candidates with a vengeance, and we question whether they will submit to it. The state officers receive rather slim pay, and if they are obliged to give up half of their salary as a bonus for their offices, they will be sorely tempted to steal more than enough to make up after they are elected.

Each county will be entitled to one delegate for every thousand population. The central committee from the various counties are urged to call conventions for the election of delegates.

It is a very dull day when the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia do not furnish a startling sensation either of a blood-curdling or mysterious character. It is suspected that some of these sensations are manufactured to order.

HONEST LEGISLATORS WANTED

Although we have nominated the presidential, congressional and state candidates, a large portion of the people of Nebraska have yet to perform the most important work of the campaign.

Mr. PATRICK EGAN, president of the Irish national league, is being severely criticized on account of his efforts to make the organization a factor in American politics.

The New York Star is sadly deficient in its geography. By locating Atchison in Nebraska it has cast an undeserved but unintentional reflection upon Nebraska justice in the publication of the following:

The Nebraska idea of justice has always been an impressive, not to say remarkable, institution, and an incident reported the other day shows it has lost none of its primitive freshness and originality.

LABOR AND LABORERS

Matters of Interest to Employers and Employed. There is no apparent diminution in the number of strikes nor in the number of workmen engaged in them.

The bricklayers and stone-masons of Buffalo failed after a seven-week strike to establish wages at $3.50 per day through the importation of workmen from Canada.

A great many daily papers were in error in assuming that the authority of the Associated Press, that a considerable number of Cincinnati moulders had renounced their allegiance to the union.

The embarrassment of the Gladstone ministry arising from the Egyptian question is accentuated by the outspoken position of the commercial and financial interests of Great Britain.

The spirit of unionism is abroad in Louisville, but the leading papers there stand out boldly against union control. Nearly all of the manufacturing establishments are run by union labor.

The Baltimore unionists are canvassing all of the industrial establishments of that city in an endeavor to attract the laborers into the union. The building contractors have an association, and an effort is being made to cripple the union.

The seventh annual session of the grand divisions of railway conductors will meet in Boston October 21. The association is extending rapidly all over the United States.

The troubles of Peru did not cease with the establishment of peace with Chili. General Iglesias, the new president of the republic, has been obliged to maintain himself by force of arms against General Casca, one of the partisan leaders in the recent war.

The latest dispatches from China are not the official reports of Admiral Cuoquet to Minister Ferry, and therefore they let in a good deal more light on the actual situation. Instead of destroying a considerable portion of the Chinese fleet at Foo Chow, the French sank two war vessels only.

No appointment yet made by the Gladstone administration has been so cordially approved by all shades of political opinion as that of Lord Dufferin to the viceroynship of India.

The rumors that France has offered the hand of Korea to Japan, as a compensation for the assistance she would be openly declared, are assuming such
