

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Saturday Morning September 20. SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - - - - - 10 cents per week. By Mail - - - - - $1.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's new fall stock of cloth. Senator Allison to-night at Masonic hall.

The pavers only got in a half day yesterday. Judge Lyman is to hold court in Carroll Monday.

Republican oratory at the Masonic temple this evening. Two drunks and a poor vagrant constipated yesterday's business in the superior court.

The funeral of the late Frank Keeline is to take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Contractor Regan says the paving of Broadway will be completed in about sixty days.

The heavy rain caused several holes in the new laid pavement, which is being repaired.

Permit to marry was given yesterday to G. W. Blakely and Rebecca Edwards, both of this city.

In the circuit court yesterday, Judge Lyman listened to arguments in the case of Brix vs McLain and Bayliss.

Lewis Wehrhorn brightened the table of THE BEE man yesterday with a beautiful bouquet.

The law offices of Lindt & Hunt are being improved greatly in appearance and convenience, new floors, fresh paper and paint being among the changes.

A man, in trying to drive across the street car track on Broadway, near the Pacific house, yesterday, was thrown out of his seat, and had a narrow escape from being run over.

The Boys in Blue, the colored Blaine & Logan club, and the other republican clubs are all expected to meet at their respective headquarters at 7 o'clock this evening.

Two Mrs. Johnson, both colored, will now become mother-in-law and daughter-in-law in fact. They were arrested last evening for a row on Pierce street, in which both threw bricks.

S. Neilson, a Swede, was arrested yesterday. He tried in several places to obtain a small loan by offering to leave his collar or some other valuable article as security, and not being successful, would ask for ten cents to buy a drink.

Chief Skinner says that Mr. Butler, of Denison, an account of whose robbery in Omaha, was given in Yesterday's BEE, was pretty full of Iowa water when he went from here across the river, which may account in part for the loss of his money.

"A Song of Praise" is the subject to be considered at the young men's bible study, held at room No. 12, North Main street, this evening at 8 o'clock. Young men are heartily invited. Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, the gospel services for all, both ladies and gentlemen, will be held.

There was nothing very new about the mayor, the bonds, paving, etc., yesterday, the whole being as stated in yesterday's BEE, that the mayor reports all the paving bonds sold except $52,000, though not netting the city par. The sewerage bonds are not yet executed, much less sold, and if some steps are not taken promptly that part of the work will be in the same sort of a stand still fix as the paving was.

The Home Academy has now been in operation successfully for two weeks. The number of pupils is gradually increasing in all departments, and good work is being done. A German class will be started next week. The kindergarten has been delayed on account of material not being on hand. This has now come and the kindergarten will open on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Any one desiring any further information about this or any other department of this work is invited to call at the chapel of the Baptist church any morning during next week.

The re-union of the Southwest Iowa and Northwestern Missouri Veteran Association will take place at Creston on the 30th of September and the 1st and 2d of October. Eminent speakers will be present, Generals Logan, Cockrell, Rosencrans and Butler being among those who are expected to be present and address the veterans. Fryer's military band, of St. Joseph, has been engaged and good quarters, with cooked rations, will be furnished. A grand street parade will take place on the second day of the reunion. To old soldiers the railroad fare will be one fare for the round trip; to others, one and one-third fare.

Henry Curtis, the secretary of the Y. M. C. A., hands the following clipping to THE BEE, indicating somewhat the importance of a work which enlists the sympathy and co-operation of such distinguished men as those named: "The tenth annual conference of the Young Men's Christian associations of the world convened at Berlin, August 20. The opening exercises lasted two hours, after which Count A. Bernstorff, president of the Berlin committee Y. M. C. A., delivered the address of welcome. The Emperor William wrote the conference expressing sympathy with its objects; regretting his health prohibited his meeting with the conference as a delegate,

PROHIBITION IN COURT. Two Injunction Cases Started Against Saloon Men.

PUTTING UP THE BARS.

Attorneys Must Now Jump a Little Higher to get Admitted to Practice.

The last legislature passed an important law, concerning the admission of attorneys to practice in the courts of the state. Although the new law was passed months ago, and went into effect July 1, there seems to be few, even of the members of the bar, who are aware of its existence. Under the old law any of the courts could admit applicants to practice, but under the new law this power is vested exclusively in the supreme court.

Every applicant must not only be examined, but must present proofs of where and how long he has studied, and as to his moral character, age, residence, etc. Even attorneys who have been admitted in other states must file like proof with the supreme court instead of simply being admitted on a certificate as heretofore.

Under this new law the supreme court has adopted at its session here, rules governing the matter in detail, these rules going into effect at once. The following gentlemen were examined and admitted at this term, they being the first under the new order of things: J. A. Fraver of Danlap, L. T. Geunung of Hastings, Henry S. Slaughter and D. H. Patrick of Sioux City, Arthur L. Preston of Grinnell. The following is the substance of the rules:

Examinations of applicants for admission to the bar shall be had at the September term at Council Bluffs, the October term at Dubuque, the April term at Davenport and at all regular terms at Des Moines on the mornings of the first days in which the court shall be in actual session.

Each applicant for admission shall before the first day of the term file a written request for examination in his own handwriting, together with proofs of his qualification as to age, residence, character and time and place of study, as required by the new law.

The court is to appoint a committee of not less than three members of the bar to assist in the examination. The justices of the court will prepare not less than thirty questions to be submitted to said applicant which he shall answer in writing, the applicant having no access to books or have communication with any one during the examination.

The proofs of the qualifications of the applicant as to age, character, place of residence, and time and place of study shall be by affidavit. The proof of the applicant's good moral character, residence in the state and age shall be by the affidavits of at least two witnesses, and the applicant shall also make affidavit of his age and place of residence.

The proof of his term of study shall be by the affidavit of the member of the bar with whom he pursued his studies, and where he has studied at a law school, such fact and his term of study there shall be shown by the affidavit of one or more of the professors of such school.

An attorney admitted to practice in another state before admission here, shall furnish proofs of good moral character, that he is twenty-one years of age, is a resident of this state, and has practiced law regularly for not less than one year in the state wherein he was admitted, by like affidavits as provided for in other cases. Such attorney shall file a copy of the record of the court showing his admission to the bar.

The graduates of the law department of the state university may be orally examined at Iowa City by a committee of not less than three members of the bar, appointed by the court. They shall also answer written or printed questions prepared by the justices of this court. Upon a certificate of the committee, and upon presentation of the diploma of the applicant, together with his answers to the written questions, the court shall determine the question of admission.

The proofs of qualification, as to age, good moral character, residence in the state, being required by the statute in cases of students of the law department of the state university, must in all instances be presented by them before application for admission.

In estimating the time of study a school year of thirty-six weeks spent in a reputable law school in the United States, shall be equivalent to a full year spent in an office.

PERSONALS.

Janiter Schantz is back from Chicago and again at his post.

Mrs. M. A. Moore is slowly recovering from the fall she had several days ago.

N. P. Rockwood, a Milwaukee cigar man, was at the Pacific yesterday.

W. T. Wilcox, the attorney at Oakland, was at the Pacific yesterday.

Captain L. B. Hart, the attorney, now of Minnesota, is here for a few days' visit.

Lee Johnson has returned from a trip eastward in the interest of Burnham, Tolley & Co.

Charles L. Lowe and wife, of Chicago, out on their wedding trip, arrived at the Pacific yesterday.

L. B. Sibley, the better packer, has returned from his extended trip to Boston and the east.

Miss J. J. Anweria will leave this morning for the east to buy a supply of goods for the coming season.

A. T. Flickinger and family have returned from Independence, where they have been visiting for about ten days.

Mr. Leonard, who was formerly the city editor of the Nonpartisan, is now on the staff of the Iowa City Republican.

H. N. McCrewe, who has enough enterprise and activity to keep pace with almost any other two insurance men, was shaking hands with his old friends here yesterday.

E. S. Baker, special traveling correspondent of the San Francisco Journal of Commerce, was here yesterday gathering fresh information concerning Council Bluffs and its prosperity.

J. T. Hurley, of the police force, has returned with his family from their eastern trip. During their absence they visited Chicago, Joliet, South Bend, Ind., and several places in Michigan.

E. St. John, general ticket and passenger agent, and G. L. Rhodes, Chicago local passenger agent of the Rock Island, arrived in this city yesterday morning and left last evening, after spending the day looking after the interests of the R. I.

PROHIBITION IN COURT. Two Injunction Cases Started Against Saloon Men.

Two cases have been started before Judge Lyman to test the prohibitory law in the courts. Capt. A. Overton has signed the papers asking for an injunction against Wm. Lathrop, claiming that by reason of selling liquor, he is maintaining a nuisance, the action being brought under section 1543 of the code. A like case has been brought by the same party against Kuhn, of the Colorado house. Wm. Sears appears as attorney for the plaintiff and Geo. A. Holmes for the defendants. The arguments were made before Judge Lyman yesterday, and the decision is looked forward to with interest.

Waking Warm. The congressional contest is getting sultry and slushy. When Congressman Pusey got down into the mire in order to throw mud at Judge Lyman, it caused many unfavorable comments even from his democratic friends and supporters. The hand-bills which the republicans scattered about yesterday, indicated, however, their willingness to get down and indulge in slush and mire. The hand-bills read as follows: "Come and hear the Record! 'It is Public Property.'"

The protege of the Bill English, W. M. Pusey, and his democratic friend are especially invited to attend. Colonel Sapp, General McPherson and Colonel Scott will hold the mirror so the non-paying corner banker can see himself as others see him.

Closed its Labors. The supreme court closed here yesterday, and will meet next in Lavenport.

The following decisions were rendered yesterday:

A P Hupp vs B F Crenshaw, appellant, from Iowa circuit court, dismissed.

John S Wolf & Son vs The Des Moines & Ft. Dodge Railway company, appellant, from Polk circuit court, affirmed.

William Jamison, appellant, vs Samuel F. Miller, from Monroe circuit court, reversed.

John P. McAllister vs The Burlington & Northwestern Railway company, from Des Moines district court, reversed.

In the matter of the settlement of B P Mills, guardian of Ch. Bland, from Appanoose circuit court, affirmed.

Alber. Hook vs W S Gray, appellant, from Appanoose circuit court, affirmed.
