On Saturday last seven convicts were whipped at New Castle, Delaware, in the presence of four hundred people. It is a matter of surprise that the state of Delaware continues to maintain the whipping post.

A Great many people suppose that the christian name of Weller, the green-back congressman of Iowa, is Calamity. This is a mistake, as it is simply a nickname.

It is consoling to the people of the United States who have been deploring the decay of our once glorious navy to know that England is in the same boat with us.

Mr. Keely on Saturday last gave an exhibition of his mysterious motor in the presence of a large number of stockholders in the motor company. The test was made at Sandy Hook by means of a small cannon, the motor form taking the place of gunpowder.

"I am not a Monopolist or an Anti-Monopolist; I shall attempt to represent our people to the best of my ability, and care for their interests, if I go to Lincoln."

Those who are not with us are against us. The man who straddles the leading local issue in the present campaign cannot be safely trusted with a seat in the state senate.

The iron rule of monopoly is well illustrated by the condition of affairs in the coal regions of Pennsylvania. According to the Philadelphia Record the producers of anthracite coal have agreed to combine on the out-put and prices.

HANSON park, the pride of the city, has for some little time been shamefully neglected. Who ever the superintendent may be the question arises whether he properly takes care of the park.

A COMPETITOR OF AMERICAN OIL.

Twenty-five years ago the first petroleum discovery was made near Titusville, Pennsylvania, and since that time the Pennsylvania oil regions have supplied the principal markets of the world with coal oil.

It has long been known that petroleum existed near Baku, which is a city of some 40,000 or 50,000 people. The Baku oil field was for some years after the American discovery controlled by one man, and there was much complaint of the monopoly which he exercised.

It is now the principal owner of the Baku oil wells, although there are other operators, who, however, continue to work the wells in the primitive style. The exact area of the oil field has not been ascertained.

Some few of the country papers are objecting to the permanent location of the state fair at Omaha. They want it moved from town to town like a circus.

It never burred a dear gazelle To play me with its soft black eye, But when it came to know me well And love me, it was sure to die.

Stump speakers are in danger of getting their teeth splintered. Maine didn't go hell bent. She went heaven bent, by 20,165.

It is said that Mrs. Beva Lockwood has a striking resemblance to the late Mrs. Lydia Pinkham. The Worcester Gazette thinks this must be a campaign slogan.

VOICED OF THE STATE PRESS.

Outing the Ticket. Blue Springs Motor (Rep.) A great many republicans have stated to us that to cut a part of the state ticket would injure the success of the national ticket.

Attorney General. Mr. Montgomery, the democratic nominee for attorney general, is a man fully qualified to fill that important office.

Editor Lincoln Journal. Certain newspapers claiming that I first voted against striking out the exacting clause in the Morrison bill, and at the request of Hon. E. K. Valentine changed my vote.

Blair Republican. Parks Godwin has been re-nominated for district attorney by the democrats. They could not have placed a stronger man on the ticket.

A Study of Nebraska Politics. Special to the Chicago Daily News. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 19.—A study of politics in Nebraska reveals an interesting state of affairs.
