A MOUNTAIN TRAGEDY.

Violent Death of William B. Goodwin, an Omaha Boy, in Utah.

The Cause of His Death a Mystery-Finding of the Body-The Funeral in Omaha, glean from the Salt Lake Tribune, was ward in this city and has a large number of relatives still resident here, among them being Messrs. Staley; Pigman, in Utah. Both father and son started a gentile paper in the city and for years waged relentless and uncompromising war on polygamy and the debasing methods of the Mormon church. A short time ago the father sold the paper and of the Salt Lake Tribune, which position he holds at present. Many extremests among the gentiles charge the death of young Goodwin on the Mormons, but the investigation of the coroner tends to show that it was suicide.

The remains arrived on the B. & 89,40 from Jim McCarty. His case was con. M. train last evening and the funeral will take place to-day from Drexel & special bouncer at the Buckingham theatre Maul's undertaking ronms. The servi-

The city was thrown into a great state of excitement and the subject of the finding of the body was the topic of conversation in all quarters of the town. Although the discovery of the remains as made shortly after 7 o'clock, it had not become generally known until as made shortly after 7 o'clock, it had not become generally known until 10 or 11 o'clock, and people naturally began to theorize as to the cause of death, some suggesting suicide and others murder. Wm. H. Ridd ran across the remains in a little gulch on the side of the hill about a mile northeast of the Warm Springs, the hill at that point bewarm Springs, the fill at that point being very precipitous and rocky and the spot being exceedingly difficult of access by a human being and absolutely inaccessible by a horse. It appeared to be like a tomb enclosed by walls on all sides saving one. There the body lay with its head to the east and its feet to the ropolitan.

EXAMINING THE BODY. Promptly at 3 o'clock Coroner Taylor appeared at Sexton Taylor's office, and after swearing in Dr. Peter Clinton, Mark McKimmins and Charles O Whittemore as jurors, to inquire into the cause of the death of the deceased, they, together with a number of citizens, of icers and reporters, adjourned to the back vard to examine the remains. The pine box containing the body was taken from the sexton's wagon, placed upon two supports and the lid removed. The sight presented was indeed a ghastly one. A THRIFTY COUNCILMAN counted for by the fact that Dawry & Arrested on a Charge of Being Int. Iested in Paying Contracts.

> teresting Disclosures for Omaha Taxpayers,

Quite a sensation was created yestehday morning in the neighborhood of the city at all in Omaha. Having become conlocal city affairs by the arrest of council- the city marshal ordered him to move the man Charles Woodworth on the charge of being directly and indirectly interested rant has been issued for his arrest, and in paving contracts with this city, in the paper is now in the hands of an offiviolation of the statutes. The com- cer. plaint was made out at the instance of Mr. E. Rosewater, editor of THE BEB. It appears that Councilman Woodworth had taken umbridge at the charges made by THEBEE that he is violating the law in being interested in paving material sold to the contractors, and this morning Mr. Woodworth upon meeting Associate Editor Sorenson, said that he proposed to make Rosewater go before the grand jury to prove the charges in THE BEE. When Mr. Rosewater heard of this he a once proceeded to the police court and swore out the complaint against Woodworth. "I propose to throw full daylight on this matter," said Mr. Rose-water, "instead of burying it in the recesses of the grand jury secret In this connection it may be well to give an outline of the peculiar transac-tions in which Councilman Woodworth has used his office for gain and profit to the detriment of the tax-payers and downright robbery of contractors. It will be remembered that Mr. Wordworth was a clerk in the Union Pacific headquarters when he was elected to the city council. THE BEE opposed his election at the time on the ground that it opposed other candidates employed by the railroad company, viz, that they were unsafe public agents wherever the interests of the city were in conflict with the designs or interests of their employers. A great many of our citizens voted for Woodworth upon his personal pledge that he was thoroughly independent and would rather throw up his onehorse clerkship in the Union Pacific headquarters than wrong his constituents.

The very first time Woodworth was put to the test he showed himself to be a more pliant and wretched tool of the railroad bosses than anybody who has ever been in the council. When the sandstone swindle was about to be perpetrated, a year ago, Woodworth was the loudest in denouncing the material as unfit to be used for paving purposes, but when his name was called by the clerk upon the sandstone ordinance, he voted aye every time, in face of the remonstrances of the taxpayers and property owners. When the midnight council meeting voted the right away to the Balt line Woodworth was one of the majority.

But these betrayals of his constituents are comparatively of little moment compared with his later attempts to make money out of his official position.

Soon after paving had begun Woodworth became the owner of some Platte river sand banks near Valley station and MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 1 through his peculiar relation with the Union Pacific he was able to get rates that were below other competitors and gave him a monopoly on Platte river sand. That material is no better than Missouri river bank sand, out he has managed to force his particular sand upon the paving contractors and has exacted from three to ten cents more per yard, than other sand could be bought for. Last spring Woodworth resigned his position as clerk in Union Pacific headquarters and became the agent for the Colorado sandstone compa-ny, in which railroad of-ficials are said to be interested. Since that time he has resorted to all sorts of schemes to foist that material upon taxpayers, and that, too, at from twenty-five to thirty cents more per yard for curbing than it was furnished last year. Out of Woodworth is said to have pocketed from $40 to $50 per day during the paving season. The utter impropriety of Wood worth's relations to the contractors and been coming to this office for months from parties who have been bulldozed and Woodworth gave out that he would rethe papers quiet. Finally THE BEE con cluded to call for Woodworth to step down and he was requested to do so or give up his sand and stone business. To this Woodworth replied that he would not resign while he was under fire and his defiance has led to the complaint in the courts.

TOMMURRAY'S PILE.

A Warrant Issued for His Arrest for Obstructing the Streets,

For years Tom Murray has had the streets at the corner of Fourteenth and Harney more or less obstructed with a pile of old truck which could be of no earthly use to anybody. Last season he began to put up a building on the land which he owns at the above location. He went so far as as to build a piece of wall upon the north side of the excavation which he had made. This riece of wall was propped street, near Park Avenue. Friends respect! up and left and doubtless will crumble away to dust before another brick is added to it.

Fourteenth and Harney streets and these have occupied half the width of both streets for a long time. Not only has the roadway been blockabed but the sidewalks on both streets have been torn up, and the streets are impassable for pedestrians. The brick which he has piled up in the streets looks totally unfit to put into any wall and he is selling it to anybody and everybody who will buy it, even in hodfull lots. A few weeks since he was arrested for tapping a sewer pipe and at that time he boiled over with indignation and said that now he would not build any building obstructions from the street. This he has failed to do and consequently a war-
