

THE DAILY BEE.

Friday Morning Sept. 26.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Barnum's circus will be located on Sherman avenue, opposite the athletic park.

—A couple of prostitutes were arrested yesterday afternoon for disturbing the peace on Eleventh street.

—Camellian Woodworth has been released under $500 bonds to appear for examination on Monday at 11 o'clock a. m.

—The auction sale of the Creighton house furniture will continue today, commencing at 10 a. m. There were big bargains given yesterday.

—The Ogden pair of train No. 2, on the Union Pacific road, did not arrive yesterday on account of the falling of a snow shed morning on this road.

—Ninety-five prostitutes have paid a monthly tax during this month. Thirty-five delinquent ones are still upon the list, and an order has been issued for their arrest.

—Wednesday night sneak thief stole a coat valued at $15 from the store of M. J. Quistgaard. He would like the person that took it to call and get the pants and vest to match it.

—Calherine A. Flynn, sister of Officer Wm. Flynn, of the police force, arrived in the city yesterday from Boston, and will hereafter make her home in the family of her brother.

—The excellent weather which we are now enjoying is helping the pavers out in great shape. A few weeks more of this kind and all the contracts now let will be completed in gold shape.

—The remains of E. W. Morgan will arrive this morning at 8 o'clock. The funeral procession will form at the depot, and from thence move to Holy Family church, interment at Holy Sepulcher cemetery, September 28, 1884.

—Mr. Ed. W. Morgan, son of Mr. C. Morgan, met with a violent death at Lafayette, Indiana, on Monday night last. He fell from a window in the third story of a building and struck upon his head in such a manner as to break his neck, and causing instant death.

—A sleeping car at the B. & M. depot was "kicked" down yesterday toward the platform and the brake being of no account the train was unable to hold it and the car smashed into the platform badly demolishing the platform and wrecking the car somewhat.

—At Missouri Valley yesterday morning a man named John Garner died very suddenly of heart disease. He was a resident of California and had just come into town on horse back. He was talking with some friends when he suddenly fell to the sidewalk and expired in a very few minutes. He was about twenty-five years of age.

—Mr. Sam King, in company with one of the members of the Western Detective agency, who is thoroughly acquainted with all the joints and dives of the city, called at The Bee last night to deny the imputations cast by a morning paper on the character of the saloon at the corner of Eleventh and Capitol avenue. Mr. King, who appears to be a very gentlemanly young man, has recently purchased the saloon and has been straining every effort to redeem it from the bad reputation it earned under the proprietorship of Gus Schultz, and whereas he has courted the patronage of the neighborhood, he seriously regrets the scurrilous reflections of the aforementioned morning paper. Mr. King invites investigation from the authorities into the management of his place.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Grand Council of the Northwestern Legion of Honor, convenes in this city.

The annual session of the Grand Council of the Northwestern Legion of Honor was held at the Paxton hotel Wednesday afternoon. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Grand Commander—E. D. Titus, Omaha.
Vice-Commander—C. W. Smith, Muscatine, Iowa.

Grand Past Commander—F. J. McShane, Omaha.

Grand Secretary—D. M. Rowland, Marengo, Iowa.

Medical Examiner in Chief—P. S. Loisenring, Omaha.

Grand Treasurer—E. E. Alverson, Marengo.

Grand Orator—Sol Prince, Omaha.

Grand Chaplain—Rev. G. H. Power, Albia, Iowa.

Grand Guide—S. McNair, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Grand Warden—S. W. Lewis, Burlington, Iowa.

Trustees—M. Toft, Omaha; G. G. Carstens, Davenport, Iowa; S. McNair, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Finance Committee—J. S. Gann, Marengo, Iowa; M. Toft, Omaha; S. W. Lewis, Burlington, Iowa.

The N. W. L. of H. is becoming one of the most popular institutions in the northwest. This is due to the fact that they have incorporated into their institution many improvements over other kindred societies. Among others they confine their territory to Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Minnesota and Dakota, which is comparatively free from epidemics, such as yellow fever, cholera, etc. They also have established a reserve fund to guarantee the payment of all death losses in case the order should ever run down.

A local council now being organized in this city have now some eighty-three charter members enrolled upon their list with a prospect of 150 or more within a few days.

At the meeting Wednesday representatives from Kansas City (Kan.) Minneapolis, St. Paul, Cedar Rapids, Muscatine, and Marengo were present.

A SOUTH OMAHA BLAZE.

Mr. Ebert's Residence in South Omaha Partially Destroyed by Fire.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock an alarm of fire was turned in from box 8. It was found to be in the residence of Mr. Andrew Ebert on Fourteenth street between Ellis and Pierce. Owing to its long distance from the engine house the department was some time in reaching the burning building, whose roof was wrapped in flames when it arrived. The fire was soon extinguished but not until the roof was entirely destroyed and also considerable furniture.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have originated in the bed room where the flames were first discovered. The loss to Mr. Ebert is not known, but he places it at nearly $300. The building and furniture were insured for $1,100.

Mr. J. E. Shevelick, whose grocery store is next door north of Mr. Ebert's residence, suffered a small loss from the removal of goods from his store, and the wrecking of his stock remaining in the building.

THE OTHER SIDE.

Mrs. Chick Tells Her Side of the Wright-Chick Story.

To the Editor of THE BEE.

In your estimable paper of the 22nd inst., appears a distorted and highly colored pen picture of one Mrs. Augusta Wright, Parkes nee Augusta Wright, in connection with a case of mine. The facts are that in early spring my husband and I went to board with Augusta Wright. When we left in June she was and still is owing me for services rendered her, an amount largely in excess of the board bill claimed by her. She refused to pay, or allow my claim, and to avoid a fair and legal investigation in the merits of the case, she takes my trunk and by the assistance of some of her hangers-on, she seizes it, so that an officer by writ of replevin cannot find it. The first replevin in case spoken of was voluntarily dismissed rather than go on and take a worthless judgment, as one against her would be. The second case was held to be beyond the jurisdiction of the justice, by reason of the fact that the case first started had not been dismissed at the time of issuing summons in the second case, in which other parties had been added as defendants.

It may be honorable to steal a trunk and run it off beyond the reach of an officer, and thus prevent a fair trial on the merits of the case, and again it may not. If her claim to the trunk is just why has she not sold it to pay the debt? She knows her claim will be more than offset by mine in a fair trial, and this she avoids.

I have been trying to get hold of the trunk since June last, and propose to keep up the hunt until found and my rights fully vindicated.

It may not be inappropriate to say that a part of my services rendered Mrs. Wright was for attendance at the birth of a child and the burial thereof for her.

Mrs. Wright's last act caps the climax. It was heralded by the widow to all her numerous creditors that now she had a husband who would pay all her claims, a valiant protector and the valiant knight rushes into print to defend his quashing bride, and then, after his bragadoocio regarding his honesty and the brilliancy of his record he takes his bride in the early gloaming of Tuesday evening and with bag and baggage and trap they seek to skip the town, and leave numerous creditors in the lurch, but the same so-called "irresponsible" better designated as the "irrepressible" constable appeared and attached their effects, a new bridegroom, and we were told relieved his bride with mighty oaths and avowed that the honey moon will doubtless be totally eclipsed.

Mrs. D. CHICK.

The Barnum Street Parade.

No show has ever attempted to equal the glorious and brilliant innovations of the famous Barnum and London Shows' matchless procession, one of which will occur here this morning.

Like the performance itself, which marks the most conspicuous era in acrobatic amusements, it is without a rival. The Chicago Daily Mail of September 1 says of the parade:

The Barnum-London Show excited high admiration by its street parade in Chicago to-day. It was the opening of a week's season on the lake front. The parade was unique and curious in beauty and extravagance, and attracted great crowds of people in the streets through which the march was made.

The parade was unique and curious in beauty and extravagance, and attracted great crowds of people in the streets through which the march was made.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers were filed in the county clerk's office yesterday and reported for THE BEE by Ames' real estate agency, September 24:

H. O. Jones and wife to E. Gibney, w. d. lot 6, block 6, Elkhorn, $75.

J. E. Johnson et al. to J. A. Horbach, w. d. lot 4, block 11 and 12, Parker's add, $230.

J. Malony et al. to M. Coady, w. d. lot 1 in McEustus add, $75.

Eighteenth Street M. E. church to Sweden M. E. church, w. d. part lot 4, block 22, $3000.

A. McCaffrey et al. to J. L. McCague, w. d. lot 1 in block 10, E. V. Smith's add, $5.

U. P. Railway company to A. Mc Gleneghan, w. d. parcel sec 45, 16, 9, $900.

E. G. Cochran to W. Cochran, w. d. parcel sec 21, 15, 13, $2650.

C. Applton and wife to P. Lindblad, w. d. part lot 13, block 4, Improvement Association's add, $250.

Young Men Take Notice.

Young men eligible to draw desiring to join the Republican Blaine and Logan military company will be present at the next meeting, Saturday, at 7:30 p. m. at Blaine and Logan club rooms, 1310 Douglas street.

Information can be obtained at club rooms or from the officials at any time.

Clinton Powell President; C. O. Howard secretary and treasurer; R. C. Walker assistant secretary and treasurer.

Ordination to the Priesthood.

The right Reverend C. F. Robertson, D. D., bishop of the diocese of Missouri, officiated yesterday at Trinity cathedral in the ordination of two deacons to the priesthood.

There were present eight clergymen from this diocese. Morning prayer having been said at 9 o'clock, the ordination services began with a hymn, afterwards the bishop delivered a most pertinent address to the candidates in regard to the duties of the pastoral office, ending with a special address to the candidates that they take great heed to be wholesome patrons to their flock and that they neither offend nor be the occasion that others offend. They have need to pray earnestly for his holy spirit, assuring that they cannot in any other way accomplish the end they have in view.

The service proceeded with the litany, in which there is a special suffrage for those who are admitted to the priesthood, and after the singing of another hymn by the cathedral choir, who volunteered for the occasion, the holy communion was proceeded with. The candidates who were advanced to the priesthood were the Rev. Thomas Stafford, of Ashland, Neb., a graduate of Seabury divinity school, in Fairbault, Minn., and the Rev. N. S. DeMaton, of Schuyler, Neb., both of which gentlemen have done efficient work in Ashland and Schuyler respectively.

During the ceremony the bishop and all the ministers laid their hands upon the heads of the candidates, and at the conclusion the bishop presented each of them with a copy of the holy bible and invested them with the stole, also gave them authority to go forth and minister to the people, so framing their lives that their works might prove acceptable unto God.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS.

A Meeting of the Blaine and Logan Military Club Last Evening.

The first meeting of the republican Blaine and Logan military company was held Wednesday evening at Blaine and Logan club rooms, and the following officers were elected:

Clinton Powell, president; J. C. Howard, vice president; C. O. Howard, secretary and treasurer; R. C. Walker, assistant secretary and treasurer.

The following members were appointed by the president to recruiting officers to enlist members for the above company: David Lowe, J. B. Crawford, J. C. Howard, I. M. Knott, R. C. Walker, C. O. Howard, Wm. Stokes and Samuel Crawford.

The next meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m., Saturday, September 27, at the Blaine and Logan club rooms, 1310 Douglas street.

Any young man eligible to vote, who desires to join the organization can apply to any of the above committee or be present at the next meeting. The object of this company will be to form a well drilled organization, intending to introduce novel features in the line of marching in the republican parade.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST!

NO ONE NEED SUFFER.

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electricity do more harm than good. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment about the time it lays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed) acts as a poultice, gives instant relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used several of the Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. For sale by all druggists and mailed on receipt of price, 50c and $1. Sold at retail by Kuhn & Co., C. F. GOODMAN, Wholesale Agent."

A Card.

Forbearance, once in a great while, ceases to be a virtue. This is true in my case at this moment. For three days I have withstood a running fire of newspaper articles very malignant in their nature, and very devoid of truth.

First, the Dispatch devotes the greater part of a column of its valuable space to my humble life, an ingenious mass of falsehoods from beginning to end, instigated in a great measure by a party who has one foot in the penitentiary and the other headed that way, and partly by the fertile imagination of a youthful but probably well-meaning scribe. The Republican and Bee follow in succession with articles written by the same person, evidently, as they are the same, word for word, which led me at first to suppose that the two papers had become economic and land only had one hired man between them, and to sum up the entire mess I find that I am guilty first, of attaching some property of one Mollie Gibson for rent due me; second, I rent a large number of houses for purposes of prostitution; third, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS.

A Meeting of the Blaine and Logan Military Club Last Evening.

The first meeting of the republican Blaine and Logan military company was held Wednesday evening at Blaine and Logan club rooms, and the following officers were elected:

Clinton Powell, president; J. C. Howard, vice president; C. O. Howard, secretary and treasurer; R. C. Walker, assistant secretary and treasurer.

The following members were appointed by the president to recruiting officers to enlist members for the above company: David Lowe, J. B. Crawford, J. C. Howard, I. M. Knott, R. C. Walker, C. O. Howard, Wm. Stokes and Samuel Crawford.

The next meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m., Saturday, September 27, at the Blaine and Logan club rooms, 1310 Douglas street.

Any young man eligible to vote, who desires to join the organization can apply to any of the above committee or be present at the next meeting. The object of this company will be to form a well drilled organization, intending to introduce novel features in the line of marching in the republican parade.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST!

NO ONE NEED SUFFER.

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electricity do more harm than good. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment about the time it lays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed) acts as a poultice, gives instant relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used several of the Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. For sale by all druggists and mailed on receipt of price, 50c and $1. Sold at retail by Kuhn & Co., C. F. GOODMAN, Wholesale Agent."

Forbearance, once in a great while, ceases to be a virtue. This is true in my case at this moment. For three days I have withstood a running fire of newspaper articles very malignant in their nature, and very devoid of truth.

First, the Dispatch devotes the greater part of a column of its valuable space to my humble life, an ingenious mass of falsehoods from beginning to end, instigated in a great measure by a party who has one foot in the penitentiary and the other headed that way, and partly by the fertile imagination of a youthful but probably well-meaning scribe. The Republican and Bee follow in succession with articles written by the same person, evidently, as they are the same, word for word, which led me at first to suppose that the two papers had become economic and land only had one hired man between them, and to sum up the entire mess I find that I am guilty first, of attaching some property of one Mollie Gibson for rent due me; second, I rent a large number of houses for purposes of prostitution; third, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her, I extort exorbitant rent from the tenants of said houses; fourth, I have been fleeing these tenants wherever opportunity offers, and fifth, I am a hard man generally.

In answer, I say first, I did rent a house to one Mollie Gibson and after two weeks or more of occupancy of the house rented by her,