Butler, like a bull in a china shop, continues smashing political crockery wherever he goes.

Utica is represented by the New York Times as being a city that boasts of being the home of Roscoe Conkling and burns incense under the nose of John Kelley whenever he comes that way.

All the railroad organs in the state are harmoniously in favor of the proposed amendment creating a railroad commission.

The New York Times' traveling correspondent has discovered more doubtful states than any one had any idea of.

Congressman John F. Finerty, of Chicago, who has been a life-long democrat, is now delivering campaign speeches in Ohio for Blaine and Logan.

John Chinaman certainly has a hard road to travel in California. Hon. W. T. Walker, state superintendent of public schools, has recently decided that Chinese children cannot become pupils of the public schools.

In accordance with the Bee's suggestion, the Nebraska republican state central committee is making an effort to induce James G. Blaine to visit Omaha and address the republicans of this city and vicinity.

The Indians are beginning to learn that they have some rights which white men are bound to respect. The Fort Hall Indians have demanded compensation for the proposed right of way of the Utah Northern railroad through their reservation.

The project of a railway tunnel under the straits of Dover, connecting France and England, has long been discussed, and while Captain Eads was in England he was consulted as to its feasibility.

The result of the Ohio election depends a good deal upon the amount of axe-groove used by either party. Republican advisers from Ohio are to the effect that the democratic managers are flooding the state with money, and are determined to buy it up at any price.

CHARLES H. BROWN'S TRAVERSERS.

When the congressional campaign opened in this district, we had hoped that it would be fought out entirely on the merits and record of the candidates and without personalities.

We do not believe that the people of this district will dishonor themselves, their district and their state, by electing a man of such dissipated habits to represent them in the congress of the United States.

Now, the only possible excuse for such an article in this years ago Mr. Brown had been over-indulgent in the use of liquor. For the past three years, however, he has abstained entirely, and we venture to say that there is not a more temperate man in Nebraska today than Charles H. Brown.

It is to be hoped that the mayor and council will at once fill all the vacancies in the office of registrar, if there are any, with competent men.

A petition is now being circulated requesting the county commissioners to submit to the voters at the coming election the proposition to authorize them to sell the county poor farm, excepting about 20 acres upon which the poor house is situated.
