

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning October 2.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - - - - - 30 cents per week By Mail - - - - - $10.00 per year

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's new fall stock of cloths - The city council yesterday went down the creek on a tour of inspection.

Prof. Slattery has started up his book-keeping classes at St. Joseph's academy.

The entertainment at the opera house last evening was excellent, but the orchestra.

A telephone was yesterday put into the house of Hose Co. No. 4 on Main street. It is No. 53.

The man McEtraine, who lately lost a leg in the C., B. & Q. yards, is still at Lower's hotel and is doing nicely.

In the case of Wm. Brix vs. McLean et al, Judge Lyman yesterday rendered a decision in favor of the plaintiff.

See the cloak department of Harkness Bros. It is now complete with choice garments for fall and winter service.

It is reported that Tom Skinner is soon to resign the chiefmanship of police, and that some of the officers will soon quit.

A regular meeting of the Fidelity Council No. 156, R. A., this (Friday) evening. A full attendance is required.

The only man who didn't remark yesterday "Warm for October, eh?" was too drunk to say it, and the police took him in.

A. M. Weir, manager of the board of underwriters, fell Wednesday and hurt himself so badly that he will be unable to get out for several days.

The two women who had such a fight in the vicinity of Eighth street and Avenue A yesterday had their cases disposed of, it costing each about $10.

The following have been chosen officers of the Ladies' Guild society of the Episcopal church: D. C. Bloomer, president, S. D. Street, treasurer, Fred N. Loomis, secretary.

T. D. King & Co. have placed over the entrance to their cigar store an attractive sign in the form of a six-foot cigar. The cigar is large enough to merit a great "pull."

Permits to marry have given Michael Hanifan and Hannah O'Connell, both of Norwalk township, also Simon Harris, of Carroll, and Martha M. Rinehart, of Guthrie.

The first number of the "Christian Home," a paper devoted to the interests of the Home of the Friendless, is just from the press. It contains much information concerning the work being done, and the needs to meet which the philanthropic readers are appealed to. The paper is a neat, readable one.

Wanted—Local and district agents for the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association, New York. The leading life association of America. One hundred millions business, 55,000 members, $700,000 paid in losses, $100,000 deposited with insurance commission of New York. Insurance at less than one-half the rates charged by so-called "old line" companies. Address B. B. Mann, Department Manager, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

A circular has been printed and is being circulated "strictly confidential," calling upon those interested in the brewing and distilling business to join forces in an attempt to defeat the republicans in Ohio, on account of the temperance issue there. A meeting is to be held at Cincinnati a few days before the Ohio election, and this circular is intended to make up strength and "a hand" to give the sinews of war to that conference. Strange to say the names of a number of the democratic officials of this city appear attached to the circular.

The trouble between Betty Lewis and Charlie Allen has been pretty thoroughly aired in the courts, and it appears there was a little bad feeling between them. Allen came for him with a sling shot, whereupon Lewis downed him, got the sling shot away, and pounded him more severely than was necessary perhaps. Allen has been fined $5.00 and costs for carrying concealed weapons, and the Judge intimated on acquitting Lewis from the charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm, that a charge of assault and battery would stick, and Lewis intimated that if this charge was filed against him he would plead guilty.

The announcement in yesterday's Bee of the marriage of Rev. Cyrus Hamlin to Miss Lydia Harris calls forth from their many friends here many happy expressions of well wishes and congratulations. As pastor of the Congregational church here for seven years, Mr. Hamlin not only won many friends, but very warm friends, while the worthy woman he has wedded has not only many friends, but has a large acquaintance on account of her rare musical ability and the enjoyable piano recitals which she has given in various places. Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin will make Oak Park, Ill., their home until the 1st of January, he having engaged to supply the Congregational pulpit there until that time.

100 Doses One Dollar. Is inseparably connected with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and is true of no other medicine. It is an unanswerable argument as to strength and economy, while thousands testify to its superior blood-purifying and strengthening qualities. A bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla contains 100 doses and will last a month, while others will average to last not over a week. Hence for economy, buy Hood's Sarsaparilla.

SLUGGED AND SENSELESS.

A Dunlap Man Found Nearly Murdered.

No Trace of By Whom or What He Was Hit.

About 6 o'clock yesterday morning one of the employes of the Weston house discovered in an outbuilding in the rear of the hotel a man lying insensible, his head all blood, and his clothing in a badly demoralized condition. Officer Towns got a wagon and took the man to police headquarters, where he was placed on a bed in one of the upper rooms and a physician called. After washing off the blood and dirt, it was found that the man had received a terrible blow on the head and the skull apparently fractured. He had evidently been drinking, and it was difficult to determine how much of his stupid condition was due to the blow and how much to the whisky. But as the day wore away he did not rally any, and in response to questions he gave very incoherent mutterings.

The man was identified as Mr. McCallaghan, of Dunlap, who formerly ran a saloon there, and who owns some valuable farming property near there. McCallaghan was here the day before drinking some, and in the evening was quite far gone, so that at one or two places more drinks were refused him. About 9 o'clock in the evening he was seen sitting on a piece of sewer pipe on Broadway. It is thought that some one slugged him for what money he had, for when found he had not a nickel on his person, and his watch and chain were gone. He generally carries money in his pocket, and sometimes quite large quantities, but his condition was such yesterday that no information could be gained from him.

OUT ON THE PRAIRIES.

Experiences of a Council Bluffs Tourist in Kansas.

To the Editor of THE BEE. KENNETH, Kansas, October 1.—I left Council Bluffs September 19 and after three days traveling finally landed here in Kenneth, the county seat of Sheridan county, Kansas. This is in the midst of the great plains which stretch out from the Missouri river to the foot of the Rockies. Their beauty and magnificence can scarcely be described. The topography of the country is the most beautiful I ever beheld and if more rain ever blessed this section it certainly can with truth be called the garden of Eden of America. The soil is a rich black loam from two to four feet deep and for quality not excelled. The best of water is found everywhere but lies deep—say about one hundred feet. This is a great cattle, horse and sheep country. Here the famed cowboy does his business in all his frontier glory. Big white hats with leather belts around them, leather leggings, big saddles, Mexican ponies and the necessary lasso are always to be seen. The cowboy isn't half as mean a man as the pictures make him, in fact the ponies are the meaner of the two. Buffalo grass is king, though blue stem is making rapid inroads, much to the delight of the farmer but not to the herder. The phenomenon "mirage" is seen nearly every morning. Trees, towns etc., are seen distinctly, though the objects reflected are 20 to 40 miles away. It is something akin to awe when one gazes at the endless, beautiful, rolling prairies. Their sameness in their monotony, their nakedness and their nice undulations all in the aggregate at once make a picture at first dreary, but beautiful in its grand entirety. Here is where the buffalo once roamed at pleasure, their trails and the so-called buffalo wallows now being the only signs that remind us of their former overwhelming numbers. Is it possible that the maker of this great section intended it only for pastures? We hope not. The corn this year will average 40 bushels, wheat 35, rye 30 and millet three to four tons per acre. How with anxious eye each possible cloud is watched. Will it bring rain is the question. Yes! It has passed over probably to give its blessing to a more eastern section. Emigration is pouring in again; for be it remembered that five years ago every foot of this country was taken up, and good, strong hands went to tilling and planting the soil, but the drought set in and all their bright hopes were blasted. Nothing daunted, they went to work next season again, and again the same result awarded their labors. Then came the stamped back to fair Iowa, etc.

The timber culture has proved quite a failure, much to the detriment of the country. Rain, rain, rain is the prayer of a beautiful night this afternoon. Some light fleecy innocent clouds passed over our heads, and as they slowly wended their way eastward we could see them gathering their forces, their color darkened, they grew angry, the lightning flashed, and the faint rumble of thunder from afar struck our ear as if some great monster was writhing and moaning with pain. Presently we saw it rain, and as the lightning flashed and the thunder rolled, we retired to our room to wonder at the awful grandeur of creation. If any Iowa boys intend coming out here, they ought to go into stock sheep or horses, and a few ducks won't be amiss. Anyone thinking to come out can address me for full particulars. C. E. ADOLF.

A Bad Fall.

Yesterday morning when the smoke was discovered pouring out of the old rookery corner of Broadway and Scott street, Mr. Ed Britton, a well known citizen, hurried up the rickety old stairs on the outside of the building, and commenced kicking in the door. He was leaning back against the railing around the platform at the head of the stairs, and as he gave a kick the railing gave way, letting him fall backward into the street. His back was quite badly hurt, and he will be kept confined to his home for several days, and perhaps his injuries may prove even more serious.

Worthy of Special Mention.

Among the many attractive features of the exposition in progress at the skating rink is the booth in which an exhibit is made of some of the many beautiful articles to be found in Bliss' millinery establishment on Broadway. A mammoth parasol serves as a canopy, while above the tastily draped and decorated space appears in floral letters "J. J. Bliss." The goods are arranged into a charming display, and the ladies especially are to be constantly found there in groups, admiring and commenting. One special feature is an oil painting by Mrs. Bliss, of which too much cannot be said in praise. It attracts probably more attention than any other single painting in the exposition. It is a copy of a very old and valuable French piece, and those who are judges of real art find in it many special features of merit which call forth highly complimentary words. Mrs. Bliss may well feel proud of it.

Fruit in the West.

Anyone doubting the capability of the west to raise choice fruit, could have had such doubts swept away if they could have seen the fine showing of apples left at THE BEE office yesterday, from the orchard of Wm. B. Porter, about two miles from Plattsmouth. The fruit was so tempting that THE BEE force soon put much of it beyond the reach of serving as proof of what the west can produce. They are certainly as fine apples as any state could produce, and included samples of the following varieties: Missouri Pippin, Maiden Blush, Fall Pippin, Vandee Wine, Northern Spy, Belle Flower, White Winter Pearmain, Dominie, Ben Davis, Tulpabockin, Faneuse or Snow, Jonathan, Janeting, Baldwin, Wine, Sapp, Roman Stem, Golden Russet, Fall Strawberry, Fall Wine and Lowell.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers were filed in the county clerk's office yesterday and reported for THE BEE by P. J. McMahon, October 2, 1884: Michael B.
