

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Saturday Morning October 4.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier... By Mail...

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's new fall stock of clothes. The city council meets Monday night.

The Cleveland guards are drilling in their new uniforms. They drill again next Tuesday evening.

The paving of Broadway seems to be giving good satisfaction—at least there are no kickers heard from.

A buggy belonging to Mr. H. G. Hennessy was badly wrecked in a runaway near the Rock Island depot yesterday.

Mr. Wille Cook and J. K. Cooper have formed a partnership for dealing in wood, coal, feed, etc., and are to be located on Broadway.

Mrs. Dorlan, who keeps a boarding house on Vine street, made a misstep and fell down a flight of stairs Thursday night, injuring herself quite badly.

John E. Ahies will address the Germans at Missouri Valley October 11. One thing is certain, his address will be interesting, even to those who do not coincide with his political views.

The exposition at the rink closes to night. The ladies have done nobly, and it is to be hoped that the financial result will be so satisfactory as to cause them to feel that their labor has not been in vain.

Pete Fletcher and his brother Andy, both colored, were arrested yesterday on complaint of Charles Austin, also a tint, who claims they assaulted him. The case is to be heard in Justice Abbott's court Monday afternoon.

Jim Maher insisted on sitting in the opera house at an entertainment the other evening with his hat on. A little trouble resulted, and Maher was arrested, but was yesterday let off by Judge Aylesworth.

The ladies of the Harmony mission return their sincere thanks for the kind donation from Dr. Judd and Mr. Ernest Smith; also for the sympathy they show in attending our prayer meetings and socials.

The postoffice box rent is now advanced to $2 a quarter, or $8 a year, to all who live in districts where the letter carriers go. The purpose of this is to force all to have their mail delivered by carriers.

"There is no death; the great material change but lets the prisoned spirit free." Spiritual circle to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon and evening in Spiritual hall, at 2 and 7:30 o'clock. Entrance, stairs on Main and Pearl streets, two doors south of postoffice.

Ed. Britton who was injured by a fall at the fire Thursday morning is confined to his bed, and suffering considerably from an old fracture of the ribs, which he received some time ago in a railway accident, this later accident rebreaking one of the same ribs.

Ed. Cameron hailing from Plattsburgh, Neb., was before the police court a few days ago for being drunk but he begged so pitiously, and promised so strongly that he was let off on the agreement to go to Nebraska at once. Instead of doing so he renewed his drunk, and was yesterday given a double dose, $14.00.

All young men are most heartily invited to attend the young men's meeting and Bible study at Y. M. C. A., No. 12 North Main street this evening at 8 o'clock. The advantage of having a workers' training will be presented. The meeting will be one of great interest and should be well attended.

It is difficult to see yet where the streets, what have been filled up, have been greatly improved. In the Fourth ward alone over $125,000 has been spent in street filling, and there never was a time when a heavy rain would leave so many mud-puddles and bottomless pits as now. The streets of the Fourth ward are horrible.

The alderman who inspected Indian Creek are pretty well satisfied that it needs improvement. The carryall got stuck in a slough, one of the springs broke, and the aldermanic legs had to wade in order to get the council out. Ald. Siedentop lost his hat in the mud, which led him to regret that he ever made the motion to take this trip. Altogether it was a damp, poor trip.

Mr. Lynchard, the new local of the Council Bluffs Herald, is fast getting posted at the opera house. Thursday evening he had his pocket picked of $13, and he has the coolness to remark that he lost his "loose change." By the time he gets thoroughly broken in he will find that $13 for a newspaper man is a little fortune, and he won't be carrying it around in his pocket.

There are only three inmates at the poor house now. Complaint has been made of late that the food given them was not such as it should be, but Supervisor Hardin who has been looking into the matter finds no grounds for complaint. Inquiry of the three paupers there revealed nothing, only one of the three being willing to say anything about it, and she simply remarking that she had plenty of food such as it was.

The city clerk reports the total receipts of his office for September as $976.50.

of which $714.90 was for licenses, $230.00 for city criminal cases, $15.50 for civil cases, $5 for state case and $3 for naturalization papers. A glance at the receipts does not show that the receipts from state and civil cases are as heavy as one would expect from the fact that it is a superior court, with a $2,000 judge and $1,200 clerk. It is difficult to see where as a financial investment is any improvement on an ordinary police court.

The Globe has been trying to stir up a sensation by charging that there has been inhuman whipping of scholars in public schools but on investigation it appears that is nothing of it, and the paper admits "the boy received no more than was deserved, and that at the parents' refusal." The public scholars deserve better treatment at the hands of the press than this reckless way of working things only to take them back again, and the ladies who serve as teachers are certainly entitled to more encouragement than to have their names flippantly tossed before the public in connection with groundless charges of cruel floggings.

BETRAYED HIS BONDSMAN.

One of Uncle Sam's Prisoners Jumps His Bail, But is Captured and Locked Up.

A young man named Southworth, who was indicted by the United States grand jury in 1882, has been at large since then on bail of $500, Mr. Milner, of Atlantic, being on his bond. The case was to come on for trial at the term of the United States court which has just closed here, but Southworth was missing. The bond was to be forfeited, but leave was given for the bondsman to get his man in.

Mr. Milner found Southworth, and the latter promised to come to Council Bluffs with him the next morning, but that night Southworth skipped out. Milner has been on the hunt after him for about a week and at last found him in Hanson county at work on a farm. He brought him into this city, and delivered him up, so that he will now probably remain safe in jail until the next term of the United States court. The charge against Southworth is that he interfered with a United States officer, while the latter was in the performance of duty. It appears that Southworth was running a lumber yard at Griswold, and a deputy United States marshal having arrested some friend of Southworth for selling liquor without the United States license, an attempt was made to help the fellow out. The deputy marshal was boarding at same hotel there, and intended simply to bring the revenue offender down to Council Bluffs and then return, but as he was taking the train with his prisoner he was himself arrested on a charge of jumping his bond bill. The deputy United States marshal was thrown into jail, and in the meantime the man whom he had arrested for violating the revenue laws was allowed to escape. It was charged that that this was a put up job to get the latter free, and that Southworth oath was in the plan to thus interfere with Uncle Sam's officer.

Death of Homer Caughey.

An event by no means unexpected, and yet no less sad, occurred yesterday morning, it being the death of Mr. Homer Caughey, who breathed his last about half-past nine o'clock, at the house of his brother-in-law, Mr. L. A. Caspar, where where he has been lying ill for some weeks. Mr. Caughey has resided here about fifteen years, and much of the time has suffered from ill-health brought upon him by exposure and service in the army, where he served most valiantly and faithfully. He leaves one daughter, aged about ten years, his wife having died about a year ago. He was for a long time the proprietor of the hotel which bears his name, but his ill health caused him to give that up. Lately he attempted to engage in business again, and opened a fruit store and restaurant on Broadway, but was compelled for a like reason to abandon that. Mr. Caughey was a man of many many qualities, and had many friends. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Stabbing a Doctor.

Last Friday a violent encounter occurred at Panama, between Justice Z. H. Graves and Dr. A. E. Gregg. It seems, that the doctor endeavored to expel from his office, the renowned justice. When the latter arrived near the door, he struck the doctor with a pocket knife. The blade glanced on the cartilage connecting the breast-bone and lower ribs. The blade was about three inches in length. Doctor Cobb, of Harlan, attended the injured man. He reports that the wound is severe, but not dangerous. The cause of the quarrel is not made public. When questioned, the doctor said that he would have no quarrel with "would let the old man's conscience kill him." Such being the fact, it is considered that the latter will never die.

The Fire Test.

The recent fire test exhibition of Quinn's fire and water proof paint given near the city building was a great success. It is indeed wonderful how any paint can preserve dry pine through such a fire as was there witnessed. Everybody who saw the test seemed satisfied that it is all that Mr. Quinn or his agent claim for it as a fire proof roof paint. It not only makes a fire proof roof but preserves it for years and adds greatly to the general appearance of a house. All who have leaky roofs, either iron or shingle will do well to see F. E. Slayton, the agent at the Revere house, who guarantees to make an old roof as good as new at reasonable cost.

Chinese baby at the exposition.

Good music all day and evening.

A Hearty, Hinging Laugh!

That is something out of your line, sir, if you have dyspepsia. You sit sullen and sour at the table, looking as if you had lost all your friends and expected to be sent to the poor-house. Get well, and cheer up! How? Brown's Iron Bitters will do it! This principle of tonics has cured the most grievous cases, and will cure you. Mrs. W. Turpin, 317 Chambers Street, St. Louis, writes, "My husband used Brown's Iron Bitters for headache and dyspepsia, with good results."

The Sabio Failure.

St. Paul, October 3.—J. C. Ogorman, receiver for the firm of Seymour, Sabio & Co., states that the liabilities of the firm are $1,731,766. Total assets $1,147,578.

THE DEADLY ASSAULT.

McGulligan Still Unconscious and His Assaultant at Large.

The Bee yesterday morning gave the details, so far as they could be learned, concerning the murderous assault made upon a man named McGulligan, of Harrison county. Little additional could be learned yesterday. The man did not recover consciousness sufficiently to give any information as to the affair. He took a little nourishment, and muttered incoherently, but nothing could be gained from questioning him. In addition to the blow on the head, his right arm is found to be badly hurt, and he is unable to raise it. It appears that he must have been struck another terrible blow on the forearm. A telegram was sent to Woodbine summoning his wife here. McGulligan has been cared for by the city physician and police as well as possible under the circumstances, but the need is very apparent for a good hospital where such cases could be put.

The chances of his recovery seem rather slim, and yet he may possibly pull through. The assault, whoever he is, is still at large, and the police seem unable to get hold of any clues to work on.

Children's day at the exposition. Admission 10c; doors open at 1 o'clock.

Feast of the Veterans.

COON RAPIDS, IA., October 2.—Yesterday was a red letter day in the history of G. A. R. post of this place, being the occasion of a camp fire and barbecue. The forenoon was wet and disagreeable but in the afternoon the clouds broke away and the weather became more favorable. At 3 o'clock a grand parade was had, after which the fine ox which had been barbecued for the occasion was discussed together with a fine supper prepared by the ladies of the post. In the evening S. J. L. Sheaffer delivered an address on the "Deeds of the Veterans," at Harris hall, after which Cook's hall was filled with the votaries of the dance. Altogether it was a successful affair; the attendance being very large and the hospitality of the post lavish. It is well to have such things for they are well calculated to keep alive the spirit of patriotism among the people. "MORE ANON."

A carnival for children today at the exposition. Come and see the Chinese baby.

Attention Veterans.

The old veteran soldiers and members of the G. A. R., are requested to meet at head quarters of Abe Lincoln Post No. 29 G. A. R., at 1 p. m. Oct. 4, 1884, to attend the funeral of our late brother soldier, Homer Caughey. Attest: JOHN LINDT, Com. Abe Lincoln Post.

JOHN KEATLY, Pres. Nat. Association. E. J. ARBITT, Adjutant.

The exposition closes to-night. Every body come. Many things will be sold off at rational prices.
