has been allowed to accumulate so on that thoroughfare and now that it is paved. Some arrangement should be made for having it cleared regularly. Those who throw ashes, vegetables and refuse in the street should also be brought to the front, and given a practical lesson in cleanliness.

A MODEL WIFE.

Prof. Phillips' Picture of Her, and Some Sensible Suggestions for the Would-Be Model Husband. The lecture delivered at the Catholic church Sunday evening by Prof. Phillips, on the subject of "A Model Wife," was highly entertaining and instructive.

A great many husbands and wives love each other for a while after marriage. But it soon dies out, almost before the festivities of their wedding day is passed away. This is what I call fancy, misdirected passion, and frenzy.

Do not scold her nor talk too much about what she ought to be to you; about her reverence for you or her obedience to you. Treat her kindly. That is the best way to make a lovely wife.

The Sunday night beer-garden dances have been a great annoyance and caused much trouble, and notwithstanding the warnings, and the orders to stop, the band strikes up every Sunday night.

William Moss was the unlucky young man who lost one of Mr. Wheeler's livery horses, as stated in yesterday's BEE. He and a young lady were out riding, and when near the paper mill where the creek had overflowed its banks, the horses became a little nervous in the mire.

may say things, but if she is a model wife, she will bear it in silence. There is a power in silence greater than in antagonism. The lightning rod outside of the house does not thunder, or make a noise, but it has power to carry away the electric fluid that is attended with noise.

PERSONALS.

George Keeline is reported as seriously ill. Dr. White has gone to Chicago on a brief trip. H. S. Gulick, of Denison, was at Bechtel's yesterday.

Real Estate Transfers.
