

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Wednesday Morning October 8. SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - 30 cents per week. By Mail - $10.00 per year.

MINOR MENTION. See J. Reiter's new fall stock of cloths. There was a little strike among the tailors here yesterday.

Call at H. Friedman's new cloak rooms, 341 Broadway. The boys in blue and other republicans are expected to be present at the court house this evening.

Ladies, you can save 25 per cent on cloaks by calling at the new cloak store of H. Friedman, 341 Broadway.

Six fine chandeliers and other pleasing fixtures are being placed in Ben's new hall. The hall will soon be completed.

There were no cases in the police court yesterday morning. This will serve as an excuse for cutting down the police force and reducing the pay.

Michael Hennigan and Miss Hannah O'Connell, both of Weston, were yesterday married at the Creston house parlors in this city by Rev. Father McMenomy.

Report reached here yesterday of an accident on the Wabash, an engine going through a bridge and one man being killed, Harvey Cornish, whose home is in Strauburg, Mo., and who while in this city boarded at Mrs. Durgan's.

Mr. A. F. Schanck who is to manage the roller skating rink this season for H. H. Martens has arrived. The formal opening will not take place until next Monday evening, October 13th, instead of to-morrow evening as previously advertised.

An amateur toll-road has been established near Park's mills. The creek has overflowed so badly that the regular road can not be travelled. As a result the teams are obliged to turn out and cross through a meadow, the owner of which stands at the entrance and collects fifteen cents toll.

The council says to Alderman James: "You can either own up that you have lied, or go out of this body with a cloud resting on you." That is very considerable. It is like a man telling another, "My dear sir, I am about to black one of your eyes, but I will kindly give you the choice, which shall it be?"

The subscription concert to be given by Miss Neally Stevens at the opera house is to take place next Tuesday evening, October 14. Miss Calderwood, the favorite Omaha soprano, and Mr. Martin Osh will assist. The subscription list will remain open at Bushnell's until Friday morning, and the first choice of seats will be given to subscribers.

The F. M. Paul post G. A. R. was instituted at Plum Hollow Monday evening by E. J. Abbott, the post starting out with thirty charter member. The following are the officers: H. F. Reel, post commander; Joseph Woods, S. V. commander; J. S. Jones, J. V. commander; John Hamilton, adjutant; Geo. Gould, quartermaster; Rev. J. C. Wainick, chaplain; Hamilton, guard.

Ald Jones says there has not been enough work done in the Fourth ward. It's a serious question whether too much has not been done. The trouble in the city council briefly stated, is that old Jones offered his resignation because the other alderman would not give the Fourth ward any improvement. The other alderman says this is not true, and that this charge is an insult to them, and that he must take back before the 9th inst. or they will accept the resignation. James says accept it and be —. They will probably do both.

The new pound lately built on Myrtle street seems to have been forgotten by the city officials. It is empty and the boards are being stolen and used for kindling wood. In the meantime the cattle are allowed to run at large, and shrubbery and street parking are being greatly damaged. The property owners who have complied with the order of the council, and parked in front of their houses, are entitled to some protection to their property. The city ordinance provides that anyone allowing his stock to run at large, is not only liable to have the stock impounded, but is himself liable to be fined in a sum not exceeding $25. There is law enough to remedy the many complaints, but there seems to be a lack of execution.

PERSONALS. J. E. Consigney, of Avoca, was in the city yesterday.

J. B. Blake, of Avoca, was at the Pacific yesterday.

G. G. Rice who has been very ill is now slightly improving.

Rev. Mr. McMeekin, of Shenandoah, was in the city yesterday.

A. Wheeler, left for Chicago yesterday, expecting to be absent about two weeks.

W. C. Walt formerly of L. C. Williams & Son of Omaha is now engaged with Cocks & Morgan.

Capt. Overton left yesterday for Galveston, Texas, on business connected with his lumber interests.

W. B. Keffler, of Des Moines, was here yesterday with his family en route for California expecting to spend the winter in San Jose and San Francisco.

Merritt Judd, and his daughter in law Mrs. M. H. Judd, leave to-day for Illinois on a visit to friends, and will stop over at St. Louis to take in the exposition.

WEEDING OUT. The Council Consider Ald. James' Resignation an Insult. They Give Him Two Days to Retract or Step Out. Other Business Transacted.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held yesterday afternoon, at which all were present, except Alderman James.

A large number of bills, amounting to $2,000 or more, were allowed, without reading, the statement being made that they had been privately examined and approved by aldermen.

Michael Kilfeather presented a bill for 200 bushels of potatoes, destroyed in his field by overflow of creek. Referred.

A petition of property owners on Broadway, near First street, was presented asking that a portion of the paving be paid for by the city, as the street is wider there than elsewhere. They felt that they should only be assessed for the usual width. Referred.

Property owners on upper Broadway petitioned for five more lamp-posts between Younkerman's garden and Wickham's brick-yards. The council concluded to grant three.

A petition was presented asking that the water-works company be asked to lay a main along Sixth street between Myrtle street and Indian creek.

A petition was presented asking for the grading of lower Broadway from Streetsville to the water-works reservoir. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

Wm. Engle petitioned that the grading and paving in front of his Main street property shall be made right before he made to pay for it. Rejected.

A petition was presented asking that South Grand street be hereafter known as Park avenue. Referred to the committee on parks, instead of the committee on streets and alleys, the name "Park avenue," causing it to seem more appropriate.

Judge James at this stage of the proceedings came in and took his seat. The notice of the suit of J. W. Damon against the city was read. Damon claiming $2,000 damage on account of overflow on Bancroft street.

Notice of garnishment of Regan Bros. & McGorick and the city on a claim of Wirt & Duquette against C. W. Hubbard, was read and referred to the city attorney.

A sidewalk was petitioned for on east side of sixth street, between Broadway and Washington avenue. Referred.

The chief of the fire department, in a communication recommended the purchase of 500 feet of hose, a new hose wagon for company No. 1, and the starting of a new fire alarm system as soon as possible.

The chairman of the fire committee was authorized to purchase hose cart and hose if he deemed it best.

A protest was presented against the passing of an ordinance closing the barber shops on Sunday. Referred to the city attorney.

The city attorney reported in favor of granting the petition for narrowing of Avenue E from Oakland to Market street, to fifty feet. Alderman Siedentopf objected to granting the petition. The report was concurred in and petition granted.

The city treasurer's report was presented showing general fund overdrawn $2,182.82; police fund, cash on hand, $1,838.46; total cash in the treasury, $16,773.34. Of this balance there is deposited in New York to pay October 1 coupons, leaving a net balance of $13,985.37.

Alderman Siedentopf moved that $1,800 be transferred from the police fund to the general fund. Mayor Vaughan called attention to the fact that the police force being kept drained, the policemen were only getting script, at seventy-five cents on the dollar. He threatened to veto any motion that would keep the policemen from getting dollar for dollar. Judge James laughed at the idea of Vaughan vetoing any such resolution. There was a lively wrangle about the affair. Alderman Siedentopf favored the raising of the wages of the police rather than do anything different about the transfer of the funds. The resolution was adopted.

A communication was received from Judge Dillon, of New York, inclosing a bill for $250 for his opinion in the matter of the legality of the city bonds. The bill was allowed.

Mrs. M. A. Robinson presented a petition asking $1500 for damages to her property by defective culverts. Referred.

A resolution was presented ordering the paving with Sioux Falls granite which is known as "Presbyterian" alley, running south of Empire block, from Main street to Pearl street. Carried.

The committee on sewerage reported on the matter of Indian creek improvement, giving M. Vincent the contract for sections A to G, at 20 cents, sections 1 to I at 25 cents, and sections 12 to 23 at 24 cents, and giving to M. A. Moore the contract for sections 5 to 14 at 17 cents. The report was received and placed on file.

An ordinance was presented providing for the issuing of $30,000 of sewerage bonds for the purpose of the Indian creek improvement, the bonds to run twenty years, at five per cent. The ordinance was passed.

The award of damages in regard to the Key property on Broadway was reported as being $450. Referred to financial committee.

Alderman James called attention to the neglect in enforcing the stock ordinance, and after some discussion the council instructed the marshal to employ a man at $2.50 for two weeks to run in cows, and keep them wherever he could find a place.

The city clerk was instructed to re-advertise for filling Sixth and Seventh streets from Main to Ninth streets, and Fifth avenue from Ninth street to the bridge.

The city engineer was instructed to prepare plans for parking the streets about Baylis park.

The city attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance providing that plumbers shall give bonds to protect the city from damage caused by their work.

Ald. Siedentopf reported upon the preferred resignation of Ald. James. The reason given for the resignation was that he could not get any work done in his ward. The committee made statements that showed the fallacy of this, and closed the report by stating that they considered the resignation an insult to the council and unless it was recalled and a written apology filed by the 9th of October, the committee would favor the acceptance of the resignation.

Ald. James said that he would not apologize, and that he would just as soon have the resignation accepted as not.

Ald. Siedentopf said James Madden had thrown the statement in his face that Ald. James had said that he—James—could get nothing for his ward because Siedentopf objected. Madden was called up to prove that James had said so, and Siedentopf denied that he ever opposed improvements in the Fourth ward. There was a lively little conversation.

Then Ald. James denounced the report as unfair and one-sided. He had got tired of being blamed for the lack of work in the Fourth ward. The charge made by him was true, and he would take nothing back. He could get nothing done in his ward. He insisted on resigning in view of such a report.

Ald. Siedentopf claimed that hundreds of dollars had been spent in the Fourth ward.

Ald. James said the work was for the carrying off of debris from Ald. Siedentopf's ward.

Ald. Mynster paid a tribute to Ald. James' ability and experience, but thought he ought not to give away to pettishness.

Ald. Siedentopf thought it was foolish for a man to shrink responsibility by resigning.

Ald. James said that all he had in mind was to see the city advance, and he had no apology to offer.

Ald. Siedentopf moved that the report of the committee be concurred in. Ald. James seconded it. The report was concurred in virtually accepting the resignation, whereupon Ald. James left the room.

The report giving Ald. James until Oct. 9, to apologize. It is probable that peace may be restored in some way by that date.
