

THE DAILY BEE.

SaturPay Morning October 11. LOCAL BREVITIES.

The cold snap was of short duration, and at midday it is again in order to wear linen dusters.

Great chunks of the asphalt paving on Douglas street have had to be cut out and new pavement laid in its place.

The eastern roads running into the train for take turns getting in late nowadays and it causes the Union Pacific train No. 3 to be a little late nearly every day.

The old street car track on Fifteenth street from Capital Avenue to Webster street has been torn up. The car track on Thirteenth is being extended further south.

Rev. Willard Scott will lecture on "Satanism, the Heretic of Florence," in the St. Mary's avenue Congregational church, to-morrow evening.

The Union Pacific engines are appropriately draped in mourning as a mark of respect for the memory of the poor fellows who were killed in the wreck at Elkhorn.

The races of the Omaha Wheel Club will take place at the Cricket and Athletic Park, Sherman avenue and have no connection with any other entertainment of to-day.

There will be a regular meeting of Ruth Bebekah degree, lodge No. 1, in Odd Fellows hall, at 8 o'clock p. m. Saturday evening October 11th, 1885. A full attendance is requested.

Lewis Cassidy, a lad who lives in this city, went up to Calhoun a short time since on a visit. While there he stole two revolvers and was sent to jail for thirty days. He broke out of jail and returned to this city where an officer from Calhoun captured him and took him back.

The remains of George Sheldon, the fire man killed at Elkhorn, will be taken this morning to Jefferson City, Iowa, for interment. The funeral will be held in this city at 7 o'clock a. m. Members of the brotherhood of locomotive firemen will accompany the remains.

On Saturday last Dr. Ralph's wife presented him with a boy baby. They have been married for thirteen years and during all that time they have not been blessed with a child until now. Dr. Ralph is highly elated over the climate of Nebraska and says he wishes he had moved here long ago.

The many friends of Mr. John P. Schminke of Woods' Loan agency will be pleased to learn that he left Thursday for Hamburg, Iowa, to be married to a most estimable young lady, Miss Ella Baker, of St. Joseph, Mo. We wish you a long life and hope that you may never regret the step you have taken.

Acting Police Judge Weiss has evidently forgotten that it is customary to hold a morning session in police court. He gets around any time from 10 to 12 o'clock, and not only keeps the prisoners behind the bars a good deal longer than is necessary but it is also a great inconvenience to reporters who are obliged to attend the session.

The proprietors of the Union elevator have purchased three watchman clocks and placed them in different parts of the elevator building. The night watchman is now compelled to pull a spring upon the clocks every hour and each time the spring is pulled a needle makes a mark upon a paper dial and registers the time. Any attempt to open the clock or monkey with it in any way is easily detected, as the needle then makes a mark outside of a given circle within which it marks when worked properly.

A party of young people assembled at the house of Mr. Edmundson on Wednesday evening to trip the "light fantastic" and in other amusements to enjoy themselves. Following are some of the names: Misses E. and L. Tooser, C. and L. Thane, Mabel and Minnie Woodard, Lytton, Logan, Barnum, Ryan, Kelley, Krutzer, Jackson and Shannon, and Deane, Fozzer, Jackson, Lytton, Walter, Steman, Kelley, H. and W. Krutzer, Edmundson, Shannon, Curtis, Brewer, and Lloyd. Good music and supper.

Any stove or range bearing the name of "Garland" is warranted to be the best that can be made. The "Garland" stoves and ranges are so well known to need any endorsement from us, and we only need to call the attention of our readers to their reputation and advise them to examine into their merits.

Mr. James G. Clark, associate editor of the Minneapolis Saturday Spectator and Millard Monthly, is in Omaha and called at the office yesterday morning. We were out at the time but Mr. Clark left his card and also a note stating that he would sing at Lincoln on Monday evening. Call again Brother Clark when folks are at home.

During his stay in this city he has met many warm friends, and is a favorite generally with the boys. He makes the Paxton his headquarters.

Pierce L. Jarvis, the avant courier of Bartlett Campbell's "White Slave" is in the city arranging for their appearance here in a few days from now. Mr. Jarvis is one of the most popular advance agents on the road and one of the most genial gentlemen to be met with. He had the honor of being one of the members of the Isaac S. Hayes "Arctic exploring expedition" and says he will go up in the cold regions again before he dies. He is sold for Cleveland, but in other respects he is a first-class, good fellow. He will be at the Millard until Sunday.

A SPECIAL SESSION.

The Council Meets to Pass the Appropriation Ordinance.

The Contract Awarded to Fox Re-committed to the Board of Public Works.

A special meeting of the council, called to approve to disapprove the paving contract awarded to James Fox by the board of public works, to pass the regular appropriation ordinance for September, other special appropriation ordinances, and one for levying a tax for curbing and guttering, was held last evening. The roll was called, members Anderson, Bechel, Behm, Ford, Leeder, Redfield, Thrane, Woodworth and Murphy present. The contract awarded to James Fox by the board of public works for paving certain streets in this city with Colorado sandstone, on a foundation of broken stone, with a covering of sand, was first considered. Upon investigation it was learned that abutting property owners on streets to be paved under this contract had petitioned for a sand foundation. The council therefore deemed it best to re-commit the contract to the board with request to award it to the lowest present bidder on sand foundation according to petition of property owners. Mr. Fox will be awarded the contract under the present request, as he is the lowest bidder on said foundation; also, Mr. Fox and his sureties presented their written consent to a change to the desired foundation, but the acceptance was deemed by the council to be an invasion of the province of the board of public works, and the offer was rejected.

Mr. Leeder, upon consent of the council, was allowed to make a few remarks concerning some alleged irregularities in the fire department, which, he said, was becoming like the police force. Steels, a member of No. 3, had been removed without apparent just cause, and Leeder asked that he be allowed to make his statement to the council, but the request was not granted.

As the committee to which the appropriation ordinance had been referred was not present, Mr. Redfield introduced a resolution that all sums due officials and employees, and all sums due from special funds be retained in this ordinance. The resolution was adopted and the ordinance as amended by it was passed.

An ordinance appropriating $595.94 out of the paving bond fund, and $8,260.50 out of the district paving fund bond fund of district No. 14 in favor of the Barber Asphalt Co. was passed.

A communication from the acting mayor vetoing an ordinance levying a special tax for curbing and guttering on certain portions of Tenth, Douglas and Dodge streets for the reason that the title was not correct. The veto was sustained.

The same ordinance with an amended title was passed by the council. The council then adjourned.

DISTRICT COURT.

Berthold vs. Guy Still on Trial--More Indictments Returned.

The attention of Judge Wakeley in the district court was occupied yesterday in the trial of Berthold against Guy without reaching a conclusion. The case will probably be given to the jury this afternoon.

In the afternoon the grand jury again came into open court and made the following presentations.

A joint indictment against George Miller and Robert Smith for grand larceny, the offense being the stealing of a shot gun the property of Nelson E. Cowles on the 9th day of June last.

An indictment against William Davis charging him with shooting with intent to kill Henry V. Flowers on the 10th day of August last.

One against Charles H. Kendall for the larceny of a promissory note for $55 and wearing apparel from Thomas Hotz on July 16th.

One against Fred Eckwall for grand larceny, the stealing of a lot of clothes from John Moody on September 10th.

The above named indicted parties are all in jail at the present time, having been held by the examining magistrates. Mrs. Dolly Chick, the woman indicted on Wednesday for criminal libel, gave bail in the sum of $500 on the same day for her appearance the remainder of the term. On yesterday her bondsman, J. P. Bay, came into court and surrendered her into the custody of the sheriff. On suggestion of the grand jury she was released on her own recognizance.

A Fighting Hackman.

Thursday evening Tom O'Brien, a hack driver for Mayne & Barker, went into S. Jonason's jewelry store corner of Thirteenth and Harney streets, and got into some kind of an altercation with the clerk, Gustave Oleson. Words led to blows and the two men got to fighting. When the fight was at its worst, Jonason entered and tried to part the two men, when O'Brien struck him just below the eye, cutting a bad gash. During the row O'Brien struck Oleson over the head with the butt of a heavily loaded whip.

O'Brien was arrested and locked up in jail but was released upon bail. This morning, two complaints were filed against him, one for assault and battery, and the other for assault with intent to commit murder. Both cases were continued until Monday, and O'Brien is out upon bail.

The Congregationalists.

The directors of Nebraska home missionary society held their monthly meeting in Omaha, Thursday. There were present Rev. A. F. Sherrill and Rev. Willard Scott, of Omaha, Rev. H. Bross, of Norfolk, Rev. C. W. Merrill and Mr. Charles West, of Lincoln. Applications from various churches were set upon. It was announced that the Rev. J. L. Maille, late Sunday school superintendent for the state of Missouri had been elected to succeed the Rev. C. W. Merrill as superintendent of Missouri for Nebraska. He will begin work in the state on October 18th.

The General Association of Nebraska will convene in Norfolk on Wednesday evening, Oct. 22, and will continue in session through the following Sunday. There will be present at this meeting Secretaries Barrows, of New York, Humphrey of Chicago, and Dunning of Boston, Rev. S. Gilbert, and Rev. C. H. Tainter of Chicago, Rev. C. Y. Clapp of Yankton, and Rev. G. E. Albrecht of Davenport. The churches of the state will also be represented by pastor and two delegates.

Secretary Dunning will lecture in Omaha on Tuesday evening, October 21st, in the interests of the Nebraska Sunday school assembly, of which he is conductor for this year.

Supt. Merrill leaves his work in the state on November 1st, to become pastor of the Pilgrim church of Minneapolis, to which he has been enthusiastically called. On October 15th a Congregational church will be organized at Ogallala with the Rev. Mr. Brown as pastor, 147 miles west of the most western congregational church in the state. It is expected that Omaha pastors will assist in the establishment of this outpost of Christian endeavor.

POLICE COURT.

A Little Excitement Caused by a Report that the Nance County Murderer had Been Arrested.

In police court yesterday morning a large crowd of spectators were present to listen to the court business.

Chas. Johnson and Hans Lawson were each fined $5 and costs for pounding up each other's faces. R. P. Mack had been intoxicated and was fined $5 and costs.

This morning about quarter past five, John Sanderfund entered the city jail. He was drunk and told Officer Knight that he had just killed a man on Tenth street. He had got into a dispute with him and had struck him with his fist killing him instantly. Knight took him by the shoulder and put him into a cell to keep him from killing any one else.

On Monday a man giving his name as F. W. Balfour came over to this city from Council Bluffs, to see if the Nance county murderer had been captured. He somewhat answered the description given of Furneval, the man supposed to have committed the horrible crime, and he was at once locked up. He appeared to be perfectly familiar with the country in Nance county. He knew the murdered man and the man Furneval. Furneval had weighed 150 pounds, this man weighed the same. Furneval had freckles on his face, this man was also spotted. Furneval had an anchor tattooed on his right arm and the officers went to examine Balfour's arm. Just as they went to raise his shirt sleeve, the India ink could be seen upon his arm, and their hearts leaped up into their throats as they thought of that great big $1,200 reward which is offered for the capture of the murderer. They tightened their grasp upon Balfour and shoved up the sleeve and found upon his arm--two flags. Balfour was released and last night was arrested again for drunkenness. He was sent up to the county jail and will be held a few days as it is said that he has a valise in Council Bluffs which contains some letters and other things which looks somewhat suspicious.

THE LAST ACT.

The Sad Drama Ends With the Death of Richard Norris.

The last sad act of the Elkhorn accident was enacted yesterday morning in the death of Richard Norris, the fireman of engine No. 2, and who was brought from Elkhorn to this city immediately after the collision. It had been hoped that this young man's life might be saved and, although he would have to suffer the amputation of a limb, which would cripple him for life, yet he would be a happy and contented young bride of three weeks, a man now so suddenly and in such a sad manner bereft of her all. From the first, however, the doctors shook their heads ominously whenever asked about Norris, and it was evident that they did not rally sufficiently to admit of the amputation of his limb, and at 10:30 o'clock this morning he died. His remains were taken to the residence of Mrs. Thomas Flynn, on Dodge street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, from which place the funeral will occur to-morrow at 10 o'clock a. m., to St. Philomena's cathedral; interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

SUSPENDS BUSINESS.

The Commission House of G. D. Thayer Makes an Assignment.

Yesterday afternoon the well known house of G. D. Thayer, of this city, made a voluntary assignment to Sheriff Miller. Mr. Thayer for about one year has been engaged in the commission and storage business at 713 and 715 south Ninth street, near the U. P. depot, and was supposed to be doing a fair trade. His liabilities are supposed to be about $20,000, while his assets will not exceed $10,000. He was rated at from $10,000 to $3,000, with moderate credit.

The cause of his financial downfall is due principally, it is said, to his failure to make his country collections, and a too large business for the capital invested.

Masonic Postponement.

Chamberlain, which will take place from his late residence, corner of Ninth and Pierce streets, at 2 o'clock p. m.

WOMAN'S WORK.

An Entertaining Session of the W. C. T. U. Convention Last Evening.

Good Speakers in Attendance and More to Come--John B. Finch and Miss Willard to be Present To-Night.

Last evening's session of the W. C. T. U. opened by a beautiful selection rendered by a quartette composed of members of the First M. E. church choir. The reading of the forty-eighth Psalm by Rev. Mr. Detwiler, of the English Lutheran church was followed by a most earnest and appropriate prayer by the same. The congregation then joined with fine effect in singing "Brightly Beams our Father's Mercy."

The president of the state union announced that Mrs. Soule would give the address of welcome. This lady in behalf of the W. C. T. U., of Omaha, spoke of the gratification of the union, when one year ago, at Falls City, Omaha was selected as the place of the next annual meeting, their only misgiving being that they might not be competent to suitably entertain the state union. Mrs. Soule referred to the fact that the W. C. T. U., as the lineal descendant of the crusade obliterated denominational lines and sectional prejudices. The assurance of hearty welcome was again warmly given.

Mrs. Soule was followed by Mrs. Folsom, of Gibson, corresponding secretary of the state union. Mrs. Folsom referred to the interest of the ladies of the state now and being entertained so royally in Omaha, of the growth and expansion of the metropolis of this fair state. Mrs. Folsom spoke very effectively of the grand opportunity of the women of this city to form correct public sentiment and correct the evils incident to the rapid growth of a great city.

She spoke of the work of the W. C. T. U., as that of an aroused womanhood. A The W. C. T. U. was asked to give thought to the sorrows of woman caused by drink, and then all will be moved by Christ's love to aid in all and every good work.

The temperance question is the question of the hour, if not there is no issue. The tariff is of necessary though vastly minor importance. The issue of the hour is to protect the boys and girls.

Reference just and true was made to the great crime of passing revenue and excise laws. In referring to the attitude of women upon the temperance issue the speaker illustrated by the story of the woman, who having long begged for a barn to shelter the stock from winter's storm, finally ordered a load of lumber, and went to work with a great effort at hammering, when asked if she could build the barn said, "No, but I intend to keep up such a racket that somebody will build it." The question was then asked what party policy to do with this question? Nothing. But stand firmly by principle and leave results to God. Women are not usually expected to have large capabilities for finance, or national economy, still know that one thousand wrongs do not make one right.

The speaker commended the local option laws of Arkansas as being far more effective than the famed license law of Nebraska. It is to be regretted that space forbids aught but the most abstract of this beautiful and forcible address.

Prof. J. G. Clarke, of Minnesota, then gave a beautiful solo, as only he can, which was highly appreciated by those present.

Mrs. L. O. Dod, next spoke upon "Woman's Work at the New Orleans Exposition." Reference was made to the space given to articles of woman's handiwork. The ladies were assured that articles, whether of skilled hands or heads, large or small, old or young, would be given a place at the exposition. It was also decided that the convention be photographed, and the picture be placed in the exposition.

A beautiful recitation was next given by Mrs. Luice of Fullerton, entitled "The Drunkard's Dream," which was finely rendered.

A beautiful solo was sung by Miss Edith Davis, and after announcements for Saturday's session, the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Frances E. Willard will be present this afternoon.

John B. Finch will speak at the First M. E. church this evening.

The following delegates were present at last night's session: Mrs. J. A. Fulton, Mrs. J. L. Duer, and Miss A. J. Davis, Lawrence; Mrs. A. A. McKee, Mrs. J. F. Holmes and Mrs. J. A. Dillon, Tecumseh; Mrs. Dr. Carricaden, York; Mrs. Lightfoot, Beatrice; Mrs. Alice Cooney, Lincoln; Mrs. E. E. Wilson, Lincoln; Mrs. G. E. Wilson, Sterling; Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. S. J. Woodworth and Mrs. D. H. Moore, Wahoo; Mrs. N. Fairchild, Mrs. R. Waddle, Mrs. C. M. Leitch, Mrs. G. D. King, Lincoln; Mrs. H. Brown, Mrs. S. Soule, and Mrs. B. McC. Bell, Omaha; Mrs. Hibben, Mrs. Rockwell and Mrs. Elizabeth of Blair; Mrs. Collins, Mrs. E. E. Wilson, and Miss Helen Abernethy, Fairmount; Mrs. S. H. Davis, Mrs. Fr W. Cole, Nebraska City; Mrs. Burroughs and Mrs. J. R. Criss, Springfield; Mrs. Fannie Kilday and Mrs. Charles Ford Emerson, and Mrs. W. H. Brown, Fremont; Mrs. L. Burroughs, Miss Dr. Bodeben, Mrs. Jardine, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Cooley, Mrs. J. O. Dodge, Mrs. Winslow, Vice-President Cooley, Mrs. M. A. Folsom, Miss Foss and Miss Reed, Crete.

In gathering wild flowers, autumn leaves, or picnicing in the woods, we are more or less exposed to danger from poisoning by ivy or other wild vines and shrubs. The poison is under certain circumstances readily absorbed by the blood, and painful swellings or eruptions are caused. Such affections Hood's Sarsaparilla, as really cures, as it expels all impurities from the blood. Even in cases of poisoning by Paris green, Hood's Sarsaparilla has been remarkably successful. It should be kept constantly in the house for all blood disorders. Hood's Sarsaparilla is made by C. I. Hood & Co., proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla, Lowell, Mass.

At a special meeting of Division No. 183, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the following resolutions were adopted:

BROTHERS--Again we are summoned to perform the saddest duty that falls to our lot as an organization. In the death of Brother George L. Chamberlain we are, for the first time in the history of division 183, called upon to record the death of one of our most worthy and respected brothers at his post of duty.

Resolved, That we, as well as the community at large, tender our sincere sympathies to the bereaved widow and fatherless children, thus suddenly robbed of a kind and affectionate husband and parent. We can but pray that a kind Providence will mercifully school you to resignation, in this, your saddest hour of need.
