

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Tuesday Morning October 14.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - 30 cents per week. By Mail - $10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

The holidays will soon be here. Bargains at Seaman's closing out sale. See J. Reiter's new fall stock of cloths. The Metropolitan hotel is having a new sidewalk laid.

A. Friedman's new cloak and suit store 341 Broadway, now open. L. Kirsh's store is having its interior remodelled and improved.

The Broadway sewer will probably be connected at First street by to-day noon. The concert to-night at the opera house will be the musical event of the season.

A move is on foot to have the pay of the policemen increased from $60 to $70 a month. The fire committee of the council has decided to get a new hose wagon for the department.

Mrs. Gibson, of the K. C. house had a fall Sunday night by which her right ankle was broken. About seventy-five ladies availed themselves of the first opportunity to skate yesterday at the rink.

McAtee & Fox are to start in the grocery business again at the junction of Main and Pearl streets. The Detective Association whose office is in the Masonic building, is starting in with plenty of business.

Justice Abbott yesterday tied the knot matrimonial binding E. J. Ferguson and Jennie Hans, both of Omaha. Pat Hanifan yesterday filed a complaint before Justice Abbott charging Wm. Farrell, of Weston, with assault.

All should improve the opportunity presented this evening to hear Miss Neally Stevens, the wonderful pianist. It is a puzzle to many why there is so much delay in getting the city sewerage bonds ready to be placed on the market.

The old herdic barn is undergoing some changes, so that the sidewalk at that point on Broadway can be brought up to grade. The front view of the new St. Paul's Episcopal church, as it will appear when finished, is now exhibited in one of Seaman's show windows.

The chief of the fire department wants the fellows who have a brass lantern belonging to No. 3, and a silver-plated lantern belonging to No. 4, to return the same at once. The council tried to get a quorum for a meeting yesterday, but too many of the aldermen were out of the city.

The Christian Home, the paper published in the interests of the Home of the Friendless, has provided itself with a half-medium Gordon press, and now has a nice little office, costing about $800. The usual weekly entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. will be given to-night at 8 o'clock.

Mathies Kuhl fell off the wagon and was run over. His knee cap was somewhat injured and both bones of the right wrist were broken.

Dr. F. C. Brosina, of Omaha, was in the city yesterday working up the interest of the Knights and Ladies of Honor, in social and neutral insurance organization which has become very popular and prosperous elsewhere.

Billy Galvin, the city weighmaster, is acting as alderman on the Fourth ward pro tem. Alderman Jones' resignation is still pending, and he is not now acting as alderman, and Alderman McMahon finds his time so occupied as alderman-at-large, that he has called on Galvin to look after the matters.

John Epeneter has found his cornice manufacturing business increasing so rapidly and demanding so much attention that he has sold his other business, hardware, house furnishing, mantels, etc., to E. L. Cook and Wm. Lauterwasser, who will continue it at the old stand.

Some new appointments were made yesterday on the police force to fill the vacancies. John H. Wheeler, the old engineer of the Rescue steamer, who has just returned from Ohio, has been put on, one of the purposes being to keep a man in the city employ, who is a thorough machinist and engineer.

It is said that at the Council meeting to-day a resolution will be passed to help brace up the city warrants. It is proposed that the city shall receive these warrants in payment of all amounts due the city, license, and everything.

The opening of the skating rink last evening was a great success and largely attended, there being as many on skates as the floor would permit. The hall was nicely decorated and excellent music was furnished by the Bavarian band.

Rev. Dr. McCreary Appointed to the Broadway Methodist Church. The resignation of Rev. J. Z. Armstrong as pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, and his removal to the east, has left a vacancy in the pastorate which as predicted by THE BEE has been filled by the appointment of Rev. E. D. McCreary, Ph. D., of Meadville, Penna.

The case of Captain Hayes against Pat Lacy was continued yesterday indefinitely. The captain did not seem to relish this, and was hunting about last evening for an officer to serve another warrant on the same charge. At the Mormon conference and camp meeting, held in Harrison county, one old lady, Mrs. Dorothea Fry, died on the grounds Sunday. She was eighty-four years of age, and had been ill in her tent for four days.

Instructions in gymnastics will be given at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium to all holding tickets after this week. It is hoped that the class will be large and enthusiastic. Persons wishing to take instructions should call or address the secretary at 12 North Main street for particulars, etc. The frequent charge that the old soldiers who gather at reunions are inclined to indulge freely in the bowl, is pretty well refuted by the fact that, at the recent reunion at Creston there were of the 102d Illinois regiment twenty old soldiers present who never touched a drop, and were active, practical temperance men.

Detectives Thompson and Poland, from Omaha, were here yesterday looking after a $75 dolman recently stolen there. An intercepted letter showed that the man who took the dolman pawned it here, and he has gone to Des Moines. The officers were unable to find the garment here, and will now go to Des Moines after the man himself. The treat offered at the opera house this evening should be improved by all. It will be the last chance of seeing Miss Neally Stevens before she departs for the east where she is to hereafter reside.

Little needs be said of her wonderful skill as a pianist as her brilliant career is familiar to her many friends here. She will be ably assisted in this concert by Miss Calderwood and Mr. Cahm. Mr. Kuhl, a farmer in Keg Creek township, was coming to the city yesterday together with his son, they having a load of flour, and when near the institution for the deaf and dumb, the son,

OFFICIAL REQUEST.

First United States Commercial Gathering at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Recognizing the fact that Council Bluffs, Iowa, is a great railroad commercial center, and there are over two hundred active cities and towns within a radius of one hundred miles, and believing that the great boom and improvement now going on in our city, such as the completion of the splendid system of waterworks, at a cost of over $600,000, thus giving the manufacturers cheap water power, and the city pure water; the laying of $500,000 of granite stone and cedar block paving, and a splendid system of sewerage, as well as the public, private and co-operation buildings now being erected should be seen and talked of by all.

Carriages, buggies, saddle-horses and bands for a daily parade, that the liveliest city in Iowa may be fully seen by all, will be tendered the visitors. Sample rooms at our six or eight leading hotels, and the large and beautiful brick skating rink, size 75x75, will be at the free disposal of the commercial men to exhibit their samples, and our daily newspapers will publish a daily statement of the eastern firms who were enterprising enough to be represented to this first and grand commercial men's gathering known, and the press will also give the name of the "runner," his business, and city sales while here.

From 1 to 1:30 a. m. of each day will be devoted to the parade. I earnestly request that the names of agents, and line of business to be represented, may be sent to me that sample table or rooms may be secured for the same. Remember the dates, October 27, 28 and 29. W. R. VAUGHAN, Mayor.

Closing Out. To close the business I offer my stock of miscellaneous books, picture, fancy goods, notions, fire screens, easels, willow and cane high chairs and children's rockers, at prices never known before in the west. H. E. Seaman, paper, books and stationery, 504 Broadway, Council Bluffs.
