A POPULAR CLUB.

Reorganization of the House Circle Club for the Season 1884-85

One of the most popular social clubs WILLIAMS'BLOCK of about sixty young gentlemen, who with their ladies met five or six times oughly enjoyable times. The club is very appropriately named as the parties are very home-like and everybody who attends is made to feel perfectly free and first-class time.

> The club has been reorganized for 1884-85 and handsome lithographed invitations have been sent out, and those who have received them may well congratulate themselves upon their good fortune. The first party will be held in Falconer's hall Friday evening, October 24. The invitation bears the names of W. H. Latey, J. W. Gannon, F. W. Pickens, B. F. Redman, F. E. Bailey, William Brown J. A. White, L. S. Mote, J. H. Con, Later and ard, Louis Littlefield, H. A. Copley and G. A. Bailey, who are the charter members of the club, and announces the dates for the dances, to be held in Falconer's hall, as follows: Oct. 24th, Nov. 21st, Dec. 19th, Jan. 23d and Feb. 20th. The executive committee of the club consists of Wm. Brown, Louis Littlefield Donavan went to the place and took and J. Conrad; floor directors, Wm. Whichten to the city is ill where he Brown, with the following aids: F. W. Pickens, W. H. Latey, B. F. Redman and Louis Littlefield. The whole club serves as a reception committee.

From the present outlook this season of the "Home Circle" club will be more successful than last, and it will prove one of the most popular social clubs in thecity

AN UNKNOWN FORGER.

He Succeeds in Getting $100 by the Use of 8, C, Sample & Co.'s Name,

About two weeks age a draft for $50, drawn on S. C. Sample & Co., of this city, came to the Nebraska National bank for collection. It was made payable at over to Sample & Co. to see if it was all left alone he began to tear his own cloththe paper a forgery and the draft was returned to Sheldon, Iowa, where it was drawn and cashed.

On Saturday last another draft for $50 Pattersonville, Iowa, came to the bank in this city for collection. This was also pronounced a forgery and returned to the bank where it had been cashed.

Sample & Co. at once telegraphed both banks that their name had been forged, and told them to arrest the man. man who drew the drafts signed his name as R. S. Keith, and doubtless represented twice and unless he is caught will doubtless try it again.

Sample & Co. do not lose anything by the transaction, but some one is out $100 lots 10, 11 and 12, block 2, in Hillside, and the forcer is doubtless flying high $1700.

A RANTING PRISONER.

Man Confined in the ECity Jail Tears His Ciothing to Shreds,

One of the liveliest prisoners that has United States hotel, named John Wrighter, had been upon a spree for several days and last night became so violent and noisy that it was necessary north of Kartoum and have thrown broken for the proprietor of the house to send for a policeman. Officers Sigwart and Wrighter to the city jail where he was confined in a cell. In the cell in which Wrighter was placed was Nick Wallace, a colored man, who spends most of his time in jail. Nick was sleeping off a big dose of budge and was unconcious of having company until all at once Wrighter fell upon him and began to dance a clog upon his frame. This wakened the little nigger and as he attempted to get up the now infuriated man grabbed hold of him and proceeded to mop the floor and brush the cobwebs from the ceiling with him. The coon set up a fearful yell and Jailor Gorman rushed in to see what was the matter. Upon seeing what was going on he hastily unlocked the cell door and rescued the dusky gentleman from the wild man, for such he now was. In getting the negro out of the cell Gorman had his shirt partially torn off the Omaha National bank and when it and his other articles of wearing apparel was taken to that institution it was sent sadly disarranged. When Wighte wasr ing and in a very few minutes was in a right. Sample & Co. at once pronounced perfectly nude condition. He was prevented from doing injury to himself and t took the united efforts of several policemen to subdue him.

Yesterday morning he was a little more quiet but was still crazy and was sent up signed by S. C. Sample & Co., drawn at ty the county jail until he can be dis-'jim-jama" and that he imagined all the imps from the lower world were after him and doubtless he took little Nick for the genuine "Old Nick" and hence tried to do away with him.
