TEXAS CATTLE FEVER,

This Disease Making Its Appearance in this County.

Word was brought to this city yesterday by a veterinary surgeon that the Texas cattle feyer had broken out in this county. The Fruens, who are large cattle dealers in the west, drove a herd, numbering 300, from some point near the Dakota line, through Valentine and into Douglas county, near Waterloo. Since their arrival there about fifty head have become infected by this southern disease and nineteen have died. The presence of this fever is it, et roughly removed what proved to be a

The Freeman's Journal is rejoicing at the prespect that Palestrina's supurb mass of Pope Marcellus is to be sung at the opening of the Plenary council in Baltimore. It is hailed as a good omen for church music in the United States. Thousands, it is said, will undertake long journeys to hear it. The Freeman sees indications that "the screeches of the soprano and the howls of the tenor will not always distract worshipers at their prayers and interrupt the priest at the sacrifice of the mass. It is time," it adds, "to be done with senseless trills and troulades."

His Wife Was Good to Him

Pittsburg Chronicle.

He had failed for half a million and his assets would not pay two cents on the dollar. He gave up everything he had to satisfy his creditors, not even reserving the watch in his pocket. And yet they growled. An old friend called to see him. He met him at the depot with a $5,000 span of horses and conveyed him to a $200,000 residence, where he dined and wind him like a prince on the first of the produced.
