MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's new fall stock of cloth. The traveling men begin flocking in to-day.

The Episcopal ladies give a social in Ben's hall this evening.

See that you are properly registered. The board is now in session.

Hans and Jacob Seich, of Minden, were made citizens in the superior court Saturday.

Marshall Guanella and his deputy, Ed Bates, found Sunday so quiet that they went duck shooting.

George Donaldson is now in jail at Clarinda for thirty days for robbing Frank Britner of $7 and a watch.

The artesian well at the institution for the deaf and dumb has already been sunk eighty-five feet, and is going downward rapidly.

The Council Bluffs district conference of the Methodist churches meets in Sidney to-morrow, and will continue its session through Thursday.

The dummy train will run Tuesday evening, that those from this city who desire to attend Miss Stevens' concert can return the same night.

The city council was to have had a session Saturday, but no quorum was secured. The next regular meeting is on Monday evening of next week.

The Congregational church at Hastings was opened yesterday, it having been closed for several weeks while extensive improvements have been made.

Howard Crawford got his hand crushed in volunteering to couple cars at Henderson last Tuesday. Another warning to the boys who play around the tracks.

Rev. Mr. Stone, of Omaha, preached in the Congregational church here yesterday. In the morning he gave an excellent exhortation to young Christians.

A rowing machine complete in every particular has been added to the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. All persons desiring can see it by calling around at the rooms.

Officer O'Brien has traced up and recovered the silver watch stolen from Mr. Hull, of Red Oak, while the latter was attending the democratic pow-wow here.

William Sears, the attorney who has been prosecuting some of the liquor cases, has commenced suit against some of the leading prohibitionists for $80 attorney fees.

The republicans who desire to attend the rally at Red Oak Tuesday night should meet at headquarters at 4:30, and on Thursday night there will be another rally at Avoca.

Next Wednesday, Oct. 29, at the fair grounds, will take place the great sale of short horns by L. C. Baldwin & Son. Many farmers and stockmen are expected to be present.

The ladies of the Catholic church are preparing to give a festival in Ben's hall Wednesday and Thursday. On the first evening there will be a concert and on Thursday evening a ball.

The mock congress to be held at Ben's hall on Tuesday night promises to be a most enjoyable affair. All persons should make arrangements to attend. Free to all and both ladies and gentlemen are invited.

The sale of Dr. Archibald's trotters which was to have taken place Saturday, has been postponed until Wednesday, to then take place at the driving park, at the same time of Mr. Baldwin's big sale of short-horns.

A meeting to complete arrangements for the Y. M. C. A. mock congress will be held at room 12, North Main street, on Monday evening at 7:30. All persons to whom parts have been assigned are requested to be present.

Constable Tom McGraw brought here from Neola yesterday a man named Nealand, whom he lodged in jail here to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of larceny, the prisoner being unable to give the $500 bail required.

The man Peterson, who was arrested here on suspicion of having been the one who raped a girl in Waveland township, has been released, the girl not being able to identify him, when brought into her presence.

DIED.—At 7 o'clock a. m. Saturday, October 25, Mrs. Josephine L. Douglas, wife of Thomas H. Douglas, and eldest daughter of Robert V. and Anna L. Phillips, aged 29 years, 11 months. Funeral services from the Catholic church this morning at 10 o'clock.

Rev. Mr. Stevenson, of Shenandoah, was in the city the other day to have the remains of a bug removed from one of his ears, the insect having flown in there several weeks before and had so irritated the ear as to make it very painful. The desired relief was obtained.

The funeral of Prof. Herman Schroder was held yesterday afternoon and was largely attended, he having many friends among the Germans and the musicians. About forty of the German club of Omaha attended in a body. The Bavarian band furnished the music.

The new Methodist church just dedicated at Strahan cost $2,600. Rev. W. T. Smith preached the dedicatory sermon, and after the sermon it was announced that $849 was still due on the church. The amount was promptly raised, ten persons giving $50 each, and the balance being in smaller amounts.

The residence of M. J. Davis, about a mile and a half south of Avoca, was burned to the ground Saturday night together with all the contents. Mr. Davis has been working at the carpenter business in this city, and his wife was away from home at the time. The loss is a heavy one, as there is but little insurance.

A woman, giving her name as Anna Clark, was yesterday placed in jail for being drunk. She was the only Sunday prisoner in the lock-up. She has been there several times before, and always promised to leave the city for the city's good. It is a mystery where a woman on a Sabbath day, in a prohibition state, can get drunk enough to make her tipsy, without money and without friends. Strange!

It is not so sure a thing that Chief Skinner, of the police force, will resign on the first of the month. He has talked of doing so for some time past unless matters were adjusted satisfactorily to him. The pay is small, police force and the marshals do not get along smoothly, and there is some jealousy in the police force itself, and while "Skinner is a boss" in name, he is not in fact, and his subordinates realize this. Unless there is some change in affairs he will resign, but he evidently hopes for a change.

The Macedonian, although a republican paper, does not seem to like the sort of speeches which Scott is making. It says, in speaking of the meeting there: "We were surprised to see so many out, as the campaign, especially in this district, has proved to be little less than a mud throwing one. This kind of warfare is not appreciated here and was not what they gathered to hear. Mr. Scott evidently thought otherwise and his cutting remarks consequently fell far short of the mark intended, doing more harm than good."

AN OLD CRIME.

A Man Arrested for Stealing a Horse Seven Years Ago.

Constable Tom McGin, of Neola, arrived here yesterday with a prisoner named Nose, whom he placed in jail here for safe keeping to await the action of the next grand jury, the fellow being unable to furnish the $500 bonds required. The charge against him is that of horse stealing. It appears that seven years ago last April Nose appeared at Neola and hired a horse of Remington Bros. for a drive out into the country. He forgot to return and nothing was seen or heard of him until the other day when he appeared at West Philadelphia and was recognized by Sheriff George Rainbow, and identified by two other men. He was at once arrested and will now have to stand trial. During his absence he has been in the far west roaming about.

The Commercial Tourists.

To-day is the opening one of the gathering here of the commercial travelers, who come by invitation of the mayor to see Council Bluffs and enjoy its hospitality. The arrangements for their reception and care are about complete. There will be carriages at each hotel for the free use of the tourists, and music has been engaged. A large quantity of cut flowers, bouquets, etc., have been ordered at Caspar's for adorning the tables of the hotels on Wednesday, when from 1 o'clock to 3 o'clock. Three electric lights are to be placed along the center of Broadway, one being at the corner of Maine and Broadway. The skating rink is in the best possible condition, and it is expected that the committees already announced will serve promptly. There are already a goodly number of traveling men at the hotels, but the most will probably not reach here before to-morrow, and Wednesday is to be the great day. Whether the affair proves a great success or not, Council Bluffs is getting a good deal of free advertising out of it, and it the visitors are royally entertained they will go away with pleasant recollections of this city, and cannot but be favorably impressed with its location, growth and improvements.
