How Congressman Laird, the Paired-off Legislator

Did Not "Scalp" Rosewater and Stickle.

Pushed to the Wall in Fair Debate.

Amid the Spectators' Derisive Demonstrations.

He Assails His Conquerors With Puerile Malignity.

An Answer to the Lying Dispatches in the Omaha Republican and Lincoln Journal.

LIEN NAILED.

HASTINGS, Neb., October 28.—The scalp of the Rosewater and Stickle crowd dangle at the belt of congressman Laird this morning. Stickle's famous resolution, which was voted down by Laird at the last session, but when told of the probable effect, reluctantly consented, but telegraphed for Rosewater, who appeared at the meeting, and the two men, with heads and shoulders from all the adjoining precincts, towns, Rosewater and Stickle demanded two hours to Laird's eye. Laird being the only man to point out a single measure of that party which could not challenge the approval of the Christian ministers and the approval of the Omaha Republican and Lincoln Journal.

FAIRMONT, Neb., October 23.—Stickle, Rosewater and a school-boy from York held a meeting here to-night. The opera house was filled with republicans, all Laird and a few democrats. The speaking created no enthusiasm till Rosewater made an assault upon Laird, being called for to look the platform, Stickle, Rosewater and the school-boy gawked at the audience cheered. When two or three minutes with a few minutes left the speaker, Stickle and Rosewater, and took their hats and silently stole away. The preceding made votes for Laird.

The above dispatches appeared in the Omaha Republican and Lincoln Journal of Wednesday morning. Although Mr. Rosewater is in Lincoln, where he spoke last night, we have learned from another source "the facts in the case," showing that these dispatches are a tissue of brazen falsehood from beginning to end. In the first place, as to the joint debate at Edgar, Mr. Stickle was billed to speak at the rink on Monday evening. Laird, however, did not appear at the rink, and the meeting was held at the school-house, and the school-boy gawked at the audience cheered. When two or three minutes with a few minutes left the speaker, Stickle and Rosewater, and took their hats and silently stole away. The preceding made votes for Laird.

Mr. Stickle in his address directed himself to general election, his position in this campaign, his nomination as an anti-monopolist, and concluded with an appeal for support. He scarcely referred to Laird beyond incidentally stating that he was a corporation attorney, and the people of the district being mostly farmers should send a farmer to congress. Mr. Laird followed with an abusive talk about Stickle and Rosewater, after which he ridiculed and denounced all statements about his record in congress. Mr. Rosewater now took the floor, and taking up one of the supplements issued by Laird in his own vindication, he proceeded to analyze the document. This supplement is directed at the Bee, and is called a "puff-blower." Mr. Rosewater then proceeded to analyze the document. This supplement is directed at the Bee, and is called a "puff-blower."

Vilas for the Legislature. MAHON, Wis., October 29.—Col. W. F. Vilas was nominated by the democrats for the assembly.

BLAINE IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 29.—A number of New York clergymen of various denominations this morning adopted resolutions strongly endorsing the republican nominees and declaring they believed in their personal purity and denouncing the democratic candidates. Rev. Dr. Burdard, presented the resolutions to Blaine in behalf of the deputation. The latter responded by thanking the clergymen for the great compliment which he knew to be extended him as a representative of the republican party, who creed and practices are in accordance with the highest moral and political principles. He stated that it was his duty to point out a single measure of that party which could not challenge the approval of the Christian ministers and the approval of the Omaha Republican and Lincoln Journal.

Blaine then turned to the subject of the tariff, and in a masterly manner, and with a clearness of vision, pointed out the defects of the present tariff, and the necessity of a more equitable and just one. He stated that it was his duty to point out a single measure of that party which could not challenge the approval of the Christian ministers and the approval of the Omaha Republican and Lincoln Journal.

NEVILLE'S ANSWER.

FROM HIS BED OF SICKNESS HE BRINGS THE "REPUBLICAN" ALLEGATIONS AS FALSE. Special Telegram to THE BEE. ANNAPOLIS, Md., October 28.—Hon. Wm. Neville, candidate for congress in this district, has been sick and in my care for the past ten days, and not able to transact any business or even read the papers. He is now rapidly recovering, and will be able to appear in person at the meeting at York on Monday evening. He has written me a long letter, in which he has stated that the allegations against him in the Omaha Republican and Lincoln Journal of October 28 are entirely untrue, and that he has always been a republican. He has also stated that he has always been a republican, and that he has always been a republican.
