DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS. Friday Morning October 31.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES, 20 cents per week

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's new fall stock of cloth. Cook & Cooper have had a telephone put in their office.

Lutz & Lange have just had an electric light put in their store. A concrete walk is being laid on the west side of the new opera house. George Adams was run in yesterday for sleeping off a drunk in the park.

Six special policemen were put on crowd.

H. R. Stewart, the crayon artist, is now at work on a large portrait of Frank has been recovered, the thieves having Keeline.

At all the street crossings of the dummy track there has been placed notices to "Look out for the cars." Jailer Schontz is having so many poarders that he has no need of advertising. Thirty-eight prisoners in all. W. P. Aylesworth has successfully raised Wm. Wash's brick residence corner of Sixth avenue and Eleventh Mrs. Francis Buckner got out a warrant in Justice Vaughan's court yesterday charging her husband, Thomas Buckner, with adultery. The Nonpareil says that John N. Baldwin is helping rather than hurting Lyman, and yet the dear old grandmother keeps begging John to let up.

The man Ryan, who has been having trouble with Detective Fero, was arrested yesterday on a charge of vagrancy. The case was continued until to-day, and Ryan let go on his own surety.

When Mr. Dickey, the groceryman, awoke yesterday morning he found that thieves had been through his house during the night and stolen an overcoat and about $3 in money. No clue.

The Clifton restaurant had a narrow escape Thursday night. A chanderlier it being suspended by a rope which became burnt. An explosion and a blaze were by prompt action prevented.

The members of the police force are arranging to have a grand ball on the evening of November 20th in Masonic hall. They should have a liberal support, and will surely have a good time.

Mr. Jesse Smith is having the gutters and culverts on Fourth street from Ninth to Tenth avenues cleaned out at his own expense, he having become tired of seeing the water remain in the streets thereabouts.

The dear old grandmother has at last found out that the bridge bill has already passed congress, long ago, and has quit sniveling about Pusey and Baldwin scheming to get the bill through congress at the next session.

At the eleventh hour city marshal F. H. Guapella issued an order requesting obstructions to be removed from the sidewalks on account of the great crowd of visitors, and had the same published in last evening's paper.

The Blaine and Logan clubs at a recent meeting passed resolutions asking the business men of the city to close their stores and offices on election day, and turn out to the polls and see that there is fair play on both sides.

"There is more twixt Heaven and earth than is dreamt of in our phylosophy." Spiritual circle to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon and evening at 2 and 7:30 o'clock in Spiritual hall, Entrance via. stairs on Main and Pearl streets, two doors south of postoffice.

There was not only the largest crowd here yesterday ever seen in Council Bluffs, but there was the largest amount of life insurance ever written up by one man in one day, B. B. Mann, the agent of the Mutual Reserves Fund Life association, of New York, having written up

A. T. Cox has started a little acorn daily at Oakland, to run until the electo returns are in. It is printed in red ink so no one can say it is not read all through. It says "The woods are full of Lyman men." They may have a hard time getting out of the woods.

Mrs. F. Hugh and her brother, F. Goodwin, of Hazel Dell township, came to this city yesterday for the remains of their father, who they heard was dead, but upon arrival found the dead man not their father but a man of the same name.

P. J. Ewing, one of Neola's leading merchants, was here at the Catholic festival. He was urged to buy a ticket on the chair and was finally persuaded to invest. It proved a lucky investment for his number, 693, drew the chair-an elegant one. Mr. Ewing is to be congratu lated. The little family of readers of the old lady's scrap book are getting very tired of her accounts of the political gather ings. All the republican rallies seem to be wonderfully, grandly successful, and all republican speakers, orators, while the democratic demonstrations are without exception flat failures and their speakers were dougheads and clowns. The charge made by the democratic organ against county clerk Street coming as late as it does, has but little effect. The facts are being very thoroughly examined, and it is too old a dodge to spring a charge on the eve of election. 200 Upper Br adway, . . . Council Bluffs

The friends of Mr. Street do not admit | SPECIAL NOTICES. the truth of the charge by any means, out it leaves them little time to fight it, or to offer the explanations which would it been raised earlier in the campaign, the motive might seem different.

Mr. Jacob Sims certainly merits specia praise for the part he has taken in the campaign in helping along the republican ticket. He has labored hard, spoken almost every evening and with good effect, he being one of the best republican speakers in Iowa. Although hardly treated fairly by some of his own party, the nomination for judge, but has pulled off his coat and worked with a will. He off his coat and worked with a will. He has shown a good spirit, as well as FORSALFORRENT—The Orvis Packing in and machinery, Acated in this city. Cap 150 hogs per day. Odell & Day. ability, and the republicans should appreciate it.

Sheriff Hamilton, of Carroll county, has brought to this city and lodged in jail here five hard looking tramps charged with having burglarized Mayor Barbee's house at Carroll, of nearly $1,000 worth duty last night on account of the big of diamonds and jewelry last Thursday afternoon. The stolen property, together with some gold pens and other valuables them in a bundle, which they tried to secrete when captured. They will be held here until the next term of the dist trict court which opens in Carroll county November 10.

> United States Marshal Root, of Keokuk, arrived here yesterday in response to letters received by him from some excited republicans here, claiming that there was going to be a great deal of trouble here and it would be necessary to have deputy marshals appointed to keep order and preserve the rights of voters. Col. Root was surprised at the receipt of such tidings and came on here in haste. He did not know that Council Bluffs was such a riotous place. The democratic mayor, who advertised this city in the east as being the only one in Iowa that defied the state prohibitory law, and the republican zealots who are loudly predicting bloodshed here, do not certainly help the city by such a course, and such actions hasten rather than hinder trouble.
