REDEEM NEBRASKA.

The republicans of Nebraska who do not make a living out of politics are confronted with a grave problem. They believe in the cardinal principles of the republican party, and are not yet ready to hand over the affairs of the nation to the democratic party.

They are ready to cast their votes for Blaine and Logan, but they are not prepared to have Nebraska represented in congress by unprincipled railroad capers nominated in packed conventions against the known wishes of the party.

They are not ready for the sake of their party to elect men to congress who have shown a reckless disregard for the material welfare of the producers. Can they conscientiously vote for the republican ticket when they know that the convention was under the control of John M. Thurston, the political boss of the Union Pacific, and Captain Phillips, the political boss of the Burlington & Missouri?

Can they support Wm. Leese for Ed. Roggen for secretary of state when they know that he was an active associate of Glen Kendall in the school land robberies? Can they support Wm. Leese for attorney general when they know that he was nominated by fraud--when they know that Frank Ransom, a very competent man, was counted out because he is a pronounced anti monopolist and friend of Senator Van Wyck while Leese is a briefless lawyer who never had a case before the supreme court.

Mr. Fred Metz was in the state senate thirteen years ago, he voted for the impeachment and conviction of the school money thieves and opposed all manner of jobs and corruption. He is a man whom nobody can buy or bulldoze, and, if elected, will represent Omaha with credit.

Mr. Harry Clark, who is running for floor speaker from Douglas and Sarpy counties, is a bright, active and industrious young man, and if he did not lack the legislative experience which every candidate for the state senate ought to have we should cheerfully recommend him.

It now turns out that the extortionate assessment upon the republican candidates was made to pay for Governor Daves' school land explanation in about two hundred papers. Most of these papers were furnished with Daves' supplement by the Omaha Republican, and this explains why Caspar E. Yost, chairman of the republican state central committee, was so anxious for a heavy assessment.

Capt. Stickle, who is running against Laird in the 2d congressional district, earned his honored title in the rebel army. He makes a strong point against Laird that he voted to renege the John Porter, but neglects to say how he would have voted. Vote the straight republican ticket.--Nauvoo County Journal.

Which requires him to publish the registration list four days before election in some paper designated by the city council. It was the duty of Captain Woods to ascertain what paper had been designated. As a matter of fact Captain Woods was duly notified under an order passed by the city council some two months ago whereby The Bee was designated as the paper in which all official advertising is to be done at the rates offered by the publishers in their bid for printing in July last.

While we have nothing to say against most of the candidates of the so-called workingmen's ticket, we do say that the ticket was gotten up by a gang of political blackmailers, who bleed candidates of all parties at every election. The honest workingmen of Omaha take no stock in such sell-outs, and their only safety is in voting the anti-monopoly ticket.
