

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Wednesday Morning November 5.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier... Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's new fall stock of cloth. The city council meets to-night or will try to.

Swan Bros.' packing house has been made, by paint, to shine as new. Ex-Marshall Jackson has raised a squash weighing 127 pounds and has it on exhibition at Ticker's meat market.

The new fire department supply wagon is finished and on the street, and was ready to be used as a patrol wagon for the police.

The concert to be given by the Methodist church choir in Masonic hall next Friday evening will evidently draw a crowd.

County Superintendent Matthews now drives a pair of greys, and is well equipped for skipping over the roads and visiting the country schools.

At last the lamp post at the corner of Sixth avenue and Eighth street has been raised so that the gas lighter does not have to dig away the dirt to find the gas jet.

G. W. Knote wrote to his old home in Kansas for his organ to be shipped here and yesterday received a new one in place of the one he sent for.

One young man, who was to serve as special policeman yesterday, took his whisky straight but couldn't carry it straight, and so the appointment was rescinded before he had a chance to serve.

Among those who limped up to the polls yesterday was Jim Anderson, who had hurt his knee by running against a hydrant, J. O. Bennett, the city livery man, who was kicked by a horse yesterday morning.

The boys at the transfer, who vote in the city, came up in sections, one half voting in the morning, the other half in the afternoon. The Omaha boys who work on this side went over in a body on the 3:30 dummy.

A brakeman named Spandenberg, at Misouri Valley, Saturday, got caught between two cars of lumber and had his head smashed so badly that there is little chance for his recovery.

Many in the city will be saddened at learning of the death of little Jackie, the son of J. T. Stewart, which occurred at an early hour yesterday morning.

Order hard wood of P. Overton. L. C. Arbuthnot's millinery opening takes place on Friday and Saturday, November 7th and 8th.

PERSONAL. R. H. Beecroft and Miss Bell Conn were married on Monday, and are receiving many congratulations.

H. L. Miller, the roller skate man, left last evening for a trip in Nebraska. H. A. Logan was a Bostonian at the Ogden yesterday.

E. A. Quessel, of St. Louis, spent election day at the Ogden. John A. Curry, of Philadelphia, tarried at the Ogden yesterday.

Chicago was represented at the Ogden yesterday by L. Eisenbach, M. Levy, E. S. Swift and Chas. Conner. T. A. Williams and wife, of Wilwaukee, were at the Ogden yesterday.

BUSY WITH BALLOTS. No Blood Running Down the Streets and No Great Slaughter.

A Few Arrests for Illegal Voting But Good Order Prevails. The Democrats Capture the City By Several Hundred.

The Returns From Outside. Those who were so loud in predicting that Council Bluffs would be a scene of riot and bloodshed on election day should heartily be ashamed of themselves.

Mayor Vaughan put on the following special policemen in addition to the regular force, stationing five at each polling place making twenty in all.

Mansel Wicks has returned from Texas, where he has been building railways. He is back only for a brief visit.

Closing Out. To close the business I offer my stock of miscellaneous books, picture, fancy goods, notions, fire screens, cases, willow and cane high chairs and children's rockers, at prices never known before in the west.

Window shades at cost to close them out. P. C. Miller 13 Pearl street. POSTOFFICE AND COURT HOUSE. A sample of the stone has Arrived and Work on the Same will Shortly Begin.

Mr. G. J. King, superintendent of the new government building, has received from M. E. Bell, supervising architect of the treasury, a sample of the stone to be used on the new building.

rying it Pusey had got in that ward a majority of 32. Telegrams were received showing that in Mason township Lyman had a majority of 43, which was a gain of 104 over two years ago.

Col. Sapp, who presided, announced that in one ward and four townships Lyman had gained 283. He also announced that if anyone wanted to bet on Pusey he could be accommodated by some gentlemen in the corner.

At the opera house, which was opened as democratic headquarters, there was a vast amount of cheering and shouting, but no speeches by the prominent men, though the crowd was confident the democrats had carried everything.

Both sides seemed very confident, but the returns up to this time favored Pusey's election, as this city and county will give him a large majority.

Stewart Stoves, De Val & Wright. It will pay you to see our line of stoves before you buy. De Val & Wright, 504 Broadway.

Whistling For Living. Two Colored Men who Stow Away Many Dimes - Whistling Joe and His Imitator.

An old negro, who is very short and as fat as the traditional Alderman, put his head into the forward cabin of a Cortlandt street ferry boat in New York a day or two ago and looked warily about.

There seemed to be an immense range to it, and he went from deep bass tones to the sharp and shrill piping tones of a piccolo.

Another negro, who earns his living partly after this fashion, but who is not yet known, is very shrewd, dresses well, and has an affected manner.

His face has long been familiar to New Yorkers, both on the East River, North River and Coney Island ferries boats.
