

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Thursday Morning November 6.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier 50 cents per week; By Mail 1.00 per week.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See J. Reiter's new fall stock of cloth. Officer Dunn yesterday arrested Ed McCauley for assault.

Policeman J. T. Hurley is confined to his home with a severe cold.

J. J. Shen was in the city yesterday looking after the returns for himself.

The Congregational church has not fully settled yet on the calling of a pastor.

The London Christy minstrel company is to appear in "Chips" at the opera house this evening.

The funeral of little Johnny Stewart will be held at the family residence this morning at 10 o'clock.

The funeral of John T. Mowery, who died suddenly at his home on Pierce street Monday, was held yesterday afternoon.

The case of John Osborn, arrested for illegal voting, is to be tried before the United States commissioner, George T. Wright, today.

The two contestants for county supervisor, Jones and Underwood, met at the court house yesterday and shook hands over the returns.

There are some honest decent citizens in Council Bluffs who know how to behave on election day, notwithstanding the howls of the Nonpareil.

If the republicans here succeeded as they seem to have done in electing Jones as a county supervisor they still lack one vote of having a majority of the board.

The new Presbyterian church is fast being roofed, and will soon be in condition so that if cold weather comes on work can be continued on the interior.

To-morrow evening the Methodist church choir promise the public an enjoyable concert in the Masonic hall, the proceeds to be for the benefit of the church.

The returns concerning the judicial election comes in very indefinitely and unsatisfactory. Judge Aylsworth is not "down in the dumps" yet, and still has the hope of beating Loufbourou.

The defeat of two years ago and the fearful struggle this year, ought to teach the republicans of this district that they must, hereafter, in choosing a candidate for congress, get one whose record does not have to be defended and apologized for.

The ladies of the Harmony mission society return thanks for the liberality shown them at their oyster supper, also for private donations. Their next dinner will be held this evening at the residence of Mrs. C. Dawson, on Franklin avenue, one block south of H. H. Field. All are cordially invited.

The Bee was in such a demand in Council Bluffs yesterday that despite the extra edition it was impossible to furnish enough papers. The next attempt to give more, rather than to simply give what favors one particular side, seems to take big. The Bee is appreciated.

Col. Sapp is about the happiest man in town over the returns of the congressional district. He has fought for Lyman like a tiger, and to him more than any other man Lyman owes his election. Even those who wished Lyman had been snowed under, concede that as a campaign manager Sapp is hard to beat.

The dear old grandmother has taken it all back and admits that she was too nervous about this city, and that there was really no occasion for her snivelling demand for an army of specials to protect the polls. It is true she has done what she could to give Council Bluffs the reputation of being a city of roughs and thugs, but as she is sorry now, and as many do not see her scrap-book anyway, the public will generously forgive her.

There has probably been no election on the result of which more money has been had than on this one. A great deal was staked on the congressional race. One young man who had $900 bet on Pusey was very anxious Tuesday night to make it $1,000, and finding a Lyman pot of $500, he emptied his pockets of $180 and took that much of it even, after the returns began coming in, making $1,080 that he alone had on Pusey. A number of other well known residents had from $500 to $2,000 on Pusey.

Stewart Stover, De Vol & Wright.

Marriage Licenses.

Application was made at the county clerk's office yesterday for marriage license and granted to the following persons: Andrew Kansen to Annie Swaenen, both of Council Bluffs; R. F. Kloke to Amelia Rosenthal, both of Cumming county, Neb.; E. F. Wagoner to E. D. Wheeler, both of Council Bluffs; J. B. Durrie, of Norfolk county, to Alice E. Palmer, of Oakland county.

It will pay you to see our line of stoves before you buy. DE VOL & WRIGHT, 504 Broadway.

Closing Out.

To close the business I offer my stock of miscellaneous books, picture, fancy goods, notions, fire screens, easels, willow and cane high chairs and children's rockers, at prices never known before in the west. H. E. Seaman, paper, books and stationery, 604 Broadway, Council Bluffs.

Widow's shades at cost to close them out. F. C. Miller 13 Pearl street.

FIGURES AND FACTS.

Pusey Rolls Up a Big Home majority But Still Needs More.

The Republicans Capture Most of the County Offices.

The Democrats Take the Town Offices.

Yesterday was mainly devoted to talking over the battle, and figuring on the number of slain and wounded. Every news center was crowded with eager inquirers, and hundreds of pencils were busy figuring out the reasons and the results. Much interest was manifested in the telegraphic reports from the country at large, and yet the congressional, town and county contests received no little attention. It appeared from the returns that came in from the district yesterday that Lyman had been elected by a majority of between 500 and 700. Pusey went out of this county with over 500 majority.

All the precincts in the county were not heard from yesterday, but it appeared clear that the democrats elected J. J. Shea, of Neola, for clerk of the courts, his majority being not far from 50. For county recorder it seems that the republicans have elected Chambers, the contest between him and Brodbeck being quite close, however.

For supervisor the republican candidate, Mr. Jones, seems to have run way ahead, the east end of the county seeming rather than mere partisanship.

The entire township ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 150 to 250.

The following are the majorities of the different candidates so far as returns have been received from the county: FOR CONGRESSMAN. Pusey, democratic, majorities—Council Bluffs, First ward 105, Second ward 139, Third ward 45, Fourth ward 103; total in city 388; Boomer 195, Crescent 68, Garner 44, Hazel Dell 20, Lincoln 23, Minden 8, Neola 48, Norwalk 24, York 11, Lyman, republican, majority—Belknap 80, Carson 57, Center 102, Hardin 17, Knox 5, Lewis 1, Silver Creek 38, Wright 72.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. Street, republican, majority—Belknap 98, Carson 69, Center 95, Hardin 21, Jones 27, Silver Creek 42, Valley 56, Washington 15, Wright 73. Shea, democratic, majority—Council Bluffs 196, Crescent 67, Garner 42, Hazel Dell 7, Keg Creek 48, Knox 2, Lincoln 29, Lewis 11, Minden 87, Neola 33, Norwalk 31, Pleasant 35, Rockford 20, York 24.

FOR RECORDER. Chambers, republican, majorities—Belknap 98, Carson 70, Center 100, Hardin 20, Knox 51, Lewis 9, Silver Creek 41, Wright 97. Brodbeck, democratic, majorities—Council Bluffs 250, Crescent 51, Garner 25, Lincoln 20, Minden 76, Neola 29, Norwalk 21, York 13.

FOR SUPERVISOR. Jones, republican, majorities—Belknap 128, Carson 152, Center 101, Hardin 20, Knox 34, Lewis 26, Silver Creek 37, Wright 103. Underwood, democratic majorities—Council Bluffs, 536; Crescent, 81; Garner, 25; Lincoln, 14; Minden, 72; Norwalk, 9; York, 11.

The city returns are as follows: CONGRESSMAN. Lyman, First ward, 244; Second ward, 309; Third ward, 295; Fourth ward, 435. Pusey, First ward, 349; Second ward, 508; Third ward, 330; Fourth ward, 512.

DISTRICT JUDGE. Loufbourou, First ward, 247; Second ward, 382; Fourth ward, 483. Aylsworth, First ward, 358; Second ward, 491; Fourth ward, 483. DISTRICT ATTORNEY. A. B. Thornell, First ward, 258; Second ward, 388; Fourth ward, 472. P. E. C. Lally, First ward, 346; Second ward, 483; Fourth ward, 504.

CIRCUIT JUDGE. J. P. Connor, First ward, 256; Second ward, 389; Third ward, 312; Fourth ward, 477. C. H. Jackson, First ward, 449; Second ward, 480; Third ward, 303; Fourth ward, 506. CLERK. S. D. Street, First ward, 270; Second ward, 367; Third ward, 323; Fourth ward, 469. J. J. Shea, First ward, 335; Second ward, 485; Third ward, 296; Fourth ward, 518.

RECORDEE. H. J. Chambers, First ward, 254; Second ward, 396; Third ward, 304; Fourth ward, 460. J. F. Brodbeck, First ward, 347; Second ward, 494; Third ward, 315; Fourth ward, 518. MEMBER BOARD OF SUPERVISORS. Robert T. Jones, First ward, 238; Second ward, 369; Third ward, 277; Fourth ward, 385. Samuel G. Underwood, First ward, 306; Second ward, 506; Third ward, 341; Fourth ward, 591.

JUSTICES. Hendricks, First ward, 355; Second ward, 517; Third ward, 397; Fourth ward, 476. Schurz, First ward, 359; Second ward, 496; Third ward, 316; Fourth ward, 492. Franey, First ward, 312; Second ward, 435; Third ward, 282; Fourth ward, 480. Abbott, First ward, 260; Second ward, 375; Third ward, 300; Fourth ward, 492. Rodabaugh, First ward, 255; Second ward, 366; Third ward, 295; Fourth ward, 459. Coggeshall, First ward, 249; Second ward, 375; Third ward, 310; Fourth ward, 474.

CONSTABLES. Wall McFadden, 391, 312, 463; John Fox, 285, 305, 459; M. A. Gregory, 382, 317, 471; C. Wesley, 409, 300, 482; J. J. White, 493, 309, 487; John Barbyte, 500, 308, 517. TRUSTEES. H. H. Field, 389, 311, 455; Robert Huntington, 486, 306, 510. CLERK. L. Kinnahan, 401, 310, 480; A. Gans, 470, 305, 498.

The precincts heard from as above give Pusey a majority of 457, Shea 196 Chambers 10 and Jones 73, but these will be changed somewhat by the returns from the missing townships, which will probably swell the majorities of Pusey, Chambers and Jones and cut down the majority of Shea.

The reports from the congressional district outside of this county are very unsatisfactory to all parties, being slow in coming in and meagre when they reach here. The democrats claim that Audubon county gives Pusey 93, Mills 35, Harrison 150, and the Globe insists that he is elector, but gives no reason for the faith that is within it. Col. Sapp places Lyman's majority as reaching nearly 1,000.

L. C. Arbutnot's millinery opening takes place on Friday and Saturday, November 7th and 8th.

The roller skate mostly in favor seems to be the one with the 2 1/2 inch brass-lined wheels, the largest in use. H. L. Miller, 1009 Fourth avenue, Council Bluffs, is the western agent for these skates, and is having an immense success in selling the same. He carries a large and well assorted stock of club, half-club and strap skates.

Disolution. The firm of H. H. Horne & Co., wholesale dealers in cigars and tobacco is by mutual consent dissolved, H. H. Horne retiring. The business hereafter will be conducted by Frank K. Kern.

H. H. HORNE, KERN & BRADER. Per F. K. Kern.

Special Notice. All of our old customers will find that I shall continue to deal in genuine goods and guarantee satisfaction to my new customers as I handle no cigars but those made at our own eastern factory and therefore know just what I am selling. F. K. KERN. Wholesale dealer in cigars, Opera house, Council Bluffs.

BATTERING THE BARS. The Prisoners in the County Jail Make a Break for Liberty.

The old court house and jail is in such a shaky condition that it requires special vigilance on the part of Sheriff Guittar and Jailer Shontz to prevent an outbreak of prisoners, of whom there is just now a large number, and they are an unusually hard set. While the excitement attending election was in progress, the prisoners evidently concluded that it would be a good time to make a break. They accordingly began singing songs, to drown the noise of their work, and began breaking away some of the iron protection at the rear of the hallway, hoping by making a hole there to gain an exit on the west side of the jail. Unfortunately for them, Mr. Shontz having his suspicions aroused by the universal enthusiasm which the prisoners put into the singing, and having his suspicions strengthened by hearing a peculiar clinking sound, went in one then and found that they were at work. He immediately looked all the prisoners up in their cells, and they will not be allowed the freedom of the hall for a few days.

The Cowboy Band. From the Dodge City Live Stock Journal. The cowboy band of this city met last night and reorganized. Committees were appointed to notify and call on the range during the summer, that they might at once get themselves in readiness for rehearsal, preparatory to making their trip to St. Louis during the national cattlemen's convention, which convenes on the 17th day of November next.

The band is composed of eighteen men, including drum major and color bearer. The selections which they will render are numerous, and among them are pieces by the best composers in the country. Among the members are gentlemen who, during their residence in the east, have been professors of high standing, as well as musical directors of some of the leading bands of that day, such as the 8th infantry, as well as members of Mentor's band, of Cincinnati. Others of the band have had more or less experience their whole lives, and all in all will go to St. Louis, not only as a novelty, but as a band of more than ordinary talent. Well aware of the fact that there will be professional bands in attendance much superior to them we feel confident they will fill their place creditably. The uniforms will be that of the cowboy. A large sombrero will take the place of the ordinary hat, while a blue flannel shirt will be substituted for the white bosom of that day, such as the 8th infantry, as well as members of Mentor's band, of Cincinnati.
