Sanannau, Ga., November 7.—Intense ex-ctiement prevails in this city; such scenes are unknow here since 1860. The city wore the appearance of a holiday. People gathered in groups discussing the great event in the elec-tion of Cleveland. Business men and clerks are all on the streets. In many instances the stores are closed. The people are wild with jey.

THE PITTSBURG PLAN.

Pirrisbung, Pa., November 7 .- A proclamation, was issued to day by Chief of Police Braum forbidding posting of election bulle-tins and blowing of tin horns on the streets. This had the effect of reducing the crowds materially. The best order prevails. The materially. The best order prevails. The pool-rooms are also closed until after the presidential contest is settled, by order of Mayor Fulton, a betting calculates to keep up the excitament of partisan feeling.

PORKOPOLITAN PAGRANTRY. CINCINNATI, November 7 .- Street demonstrations here have been uniformly good natured, though very noisy with tin horns, etc.
The tendency has been to grotesque and carnival-like demonstrations. The Commercial-Gazette announced that it would issue no more bulletins, and advised the people to go home and await the regular mode of receiving news. The advice seems to be taken. The streets are comparatively quiet to-night.

A CLERICAL ASS.

OBERLIN, November 7.—After learning the report last night that Blaine was elected, some college students attempted a mock serenade to Rev. Mr. Mills, a senior in the college and an ordained minister, who has been a conspicuous prohibitionist. The moment the charivari began in front of his house, Mills from the from the revolver into the fired four shots from his revolver into the crowd, one of which slightly wounded a student named Mitchell Mill was arrested and put under $100 bail for trial to merrow. The feeling against him is strong.

Indianapolis, November 7.—Sixty-sight counties show a net republican gain of 4,214. Cleveland's plurality, 4,338. The state will probably give Cleveland 3,000 plurality.

WHT HENDRICKS SAYS. Indianarous, November 7.—Hendricks has received a great many congratulatory telgrams to-day and has been busily engaged in receiving and entertaining callers, among whom were many republicans, personal friends. An Associat d press reparter found him this evenately ts the popular vote fusion victory would give leveland 10, Butler 2, and Blaine 1, by default. The state republican committee does them. He was in an apparently happy not allow the claims of the fusionlets, but still frame of n ind. expressing hymself as satisfied that the democratic candidates have been elected. He had nothing, he said, to add to what had already been expressed by him for the past day or two respecting the election. The excitement of the past three nights is beginning t tell on the people, and the crowd on the street to night is much smaller and less demonstrative. No bulletins are displayed anywhere and affairs are beginning to resume eir normal condition. THE WESTERN UNION'S DEFENSE-Ingianapolis, November 7.-Superintendent Wallick, of the Western Union Telegraph company, publishes a card in the Jour-nal to-morrow in answer to the strictures of Mr. Hendricks on the manner in which the election returns were collected in this state. The first returns showed considerable republican gains, and Mr. Hendricks claimed the facts had been intentionally misrepresented by Mr. Wallick. The reason for this, Mr. Wal-lick said, that the precincts in which these gains were, were reported first. A samples, he shows that of 245 democratic precincts only 30 were reported during Tuesday night and Wednesday, while of 261 republican preincts 205 were reported. ALABAMA.
