LOCAL BREVITIES.

The cleanings at the clearing house, yesterday, amounted to $874,573.76.
The evening class in chemistry will be resumed in Creighton college Monday, the 9th, at 7:30 p. m.
The list of prostitutes for this month contains 120 names, one of the largest lists ever prepared in this city.
Wanted to buy a bar and fixtures from 16 to 18 feet long. Apply at Casfield house before 2 p. m. today.
There will be a regular meeting of Ruth Rebekah degree, lodge No. 1, in Odd Fellow's hall, at 7:30 Saturday evening, November 8, 1884. A full attendance is requested.
The boarders of the Duran house and their friends spent last evening very pleasantly at their hotel. Dancing was the principal amusement of the evening and was kept up to an early hour this morning.
John Erick, the Sixteenth street hardware man, is erecting a fine brick block upon the ground where his old frame building formerly stood. The new place will be a great convenience to Mr. Erick and an ornament to Sixteenth street.
It is not our custom to make any mention of articles advertised in our columns, but we do not hesitate to speak in high terms of the "Garland Stove and Ranges." The manufacturer aims to produce the very best that can possibly be made, which accounts for the high reputation which they have obtained as the best in the world.

Omaha Zither Club.

Yesterday evening the above club organized at St. George's hall. The following members were present:
Miss Tillie Kessler Geo. Aschenbach
Miss Ada Schoonmaker Ernest Schaefer
Miss Fanny Snowden Chas. F. Schmidt
Miss Adèle Festner John J. Herold
Miss Annie Koster H. C. Voss
Miss Anna King Geo. Lieberknecht
Miss A. Marscher Geo. Henneman
Miss Mary Gauster Geo. L. Schwartz
Ernest Burk Gus Ackermann
Max Lemmer Geo. J. Koster
Wm. C. Kuhn Byron J. Kuehn
Konrad Ruder Julius T. Festner
The club will meet at the above hall once a week for practice and sociability. Julius Festner was chosen president, pro tem., and Prof. Walter F. Harding secretary, pro tem., for the term of one month. At the first meeting in December permanent officers will be elected for one year.
At the next meeting, Wednesday, November 12th, Mr. Festner will form two classes and give instructions to those who are not so far advanced as the majority of the members. It is expected the membership of the club will reach fifty before the holidays, embracing zither, guitar, banjo, and a violin zither and flute.

POLICE COURT.

A Number of Pugnacious Individuals Interviewed by the Judge.

Thursday's bulletins were too much for some of the excitable ones and their enthusiasm ran in a pugilistic strain, the consequence being a number of fights and several arrests.
R. McGee, Herman Fielding and Wm. Daily were all charged with fighting, and pleaded guilty without a murmur and were called upon to deposit $5 each and costs.
Martin Reap was charged with fighting with Peter Smith. He said he was walking along Thirtieth street with a friend when they met Smith. Smith hurrahed for Blaine and Reap's companion let out a yell for Cleveland, whereupon Smith challenged Reap to fight. Both took off their coats and Smith was knocked out the first round. The judge, on the ground that "as ye sow, so shall ye reap," fined Reap $5 and costs.
A. L. Atwood was charged with drunkenness. Last night he was in Othoff's room, on Sixteenth street, and getting drunk, pulled a murderous looking dirk from his boot and drove the crowd into a corner. Officer Whitman arrested him. He told the judge that he was hunting and had the knife for that purpose. The judge told him that there was no game in Omaha to hunt with that kind of a knife, fined him $5 and costs and confiscated the knife.
Peter Johnson and Martin Johnson were arrested Thursday evening in front of the Herald office for cruelty to animals. They had a sick horse which was unable to stand upon its feet and were beating it in a shameful manner. Mr. Henry Gibson, of the Herald office, demonstrated with them when one of them struck him with the whip, whereupon he had them arrested. Mr. Gibson and two other gentlemen appeared against them in police court this morning and they were fined $10 each and costs.

THE FIRST MEETING.

The Y. M. C. A. Meeting Thursday Night in the Presbyterian Church.
The Y. M. C. A. convention met in the First Presbyterian church, on Dodge street Thursday night.
Dr. Leisnering presided and the following delegates were present: L. M. Campbell, C. W. Shaw, Geo. F. Work, Hastings; Roy Coddling, State University; B. L. Payne, H. P. Marefelding, J. A. Dammitt, W. R. Williams, H. L. Andrews, Frank Harmon, Lincoln; E. B. Stephenson, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Geo. C. Reed, Thomas Ball, Fred Reed, C. Ashly, Mark Dean, J. C. Wiewell, E. Atwood, S. D. Fitchy, E. E. Eliason, Weeping Water; J. W. Hanael, St. Joe, C. J. Baldwin, Daniel Doane, C. G. Baldwin, Des Moines, Ia.; W. H. Dobbs, R. T. Chipperfield, A. W. Clark, J. W. Miller, York; Geo. F. Coxhead, Kansas City, Mo.; Henry Curtis, Council Bluffs, and Robert Weidensall, Chicago.

The opening address was made by Mr. Robert Weidensall and was replete to the Messrs. George T. Coxhead, state secretary of Missouri, and C. G. Baldwin, state secretary of Iowa.

After a hymn was sung by the congregation Rev. J. S. Detweiler, of the English Lutheran church, delivered an address upon the subject of "The Bible as a Study."

The meeting was a very pleasant and instructive one and are followed by others of the same kind to-day, to-day and Sunday. Everybody is invited to attend these meetings.

Ladies! Physicians and chemists have analyzed Pozzoni's medicated complexion powder and recommend its use to their wives and lady friends. What better could be said of it.

Captain Jack's Place.

John O'Donohue has fitted up a fine saloon at the corner of Sixteenth street and Capitol avenue, and will give a formal opening to-night. Captain O'Donohue is as well known as any man in Omaha, having had charge of the police force here for several years. He has fitted up an elegant place, and doubtless will receive a large patronage. Mr. Brown, formerly with Callan and with Blake, on Tenth street, will officiate as bar-tender. A fine line of wines, liquors and cigars will be kept, and Captain O'Donohue invites his many friends to call and sample them.
