

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Monday Morning November 10. SUBSCRIPTION RATES. By Carrier - - - - - 20 cents per week. By Mail - - - - - $1.00 per year.

MINOR MENTION. The council meet next Friday night. See J. Reiter's new stock of cloths. Council Bluffs has sixty electric lights. The county board meet to canvass the vote to-day.

The saloons in the city were running quite open yesterday, notwithstanding its being Sunday. The fine weather yesterday caused a large number of citizens to visit Fairmount park.

The police force was changed about yesterday. Officers Cusick and Brooks now going on duty. Thos. Burke and Margaret O'Neill, both of Avoca, have now got passports into the state of matrimony.

A number of the bicycle club took advantage of the clear skies and good roads, and exercised themselves yesterday. John Hawthorne has opened a flour and feed store on Pearl street in the Churchill pump company's old place.

Lyman Johnson, who has been playing the deaf and dumb in begging, has been ordered to leave the city for the city's good. Her. Mr. McClellan, of Tabor, one of the professors in the college, occupied the pulpit of the Congregational church here yesterday.

Two fellows who had arranged for a prize fight, to take place in the Bluffs yesterday, had their sport spoiled by officer Cusick yesterday. Sheriff Hamilton, of Council county, was here yesterday after six prisoners who have been kept in jail here awaiting trial before the district court which opens there to-day.

The little mayor is fast getting to be a miniature representative of Carter Harrison. He now has an eagle, just as Carter has. The bird has been sent to him from friends in Cheyenne. Daisy Durfee, white, and Mary Paine, black, got to fighting over a ten cent handkerchief. They found on reaching the police court that such a mode of settlement cost each of them $7.60.

Saturday night a son of E. Huntington was hit over the head with a torch while watching the democratic parade. Such ruffianism ought to be so severely punished as to prevent any repetition. The court house is still settling and cracking, and the doors again need cutting off so they will open and shut. Now that election is over will the board of health condemn it as a nuisance, and pronounce it unsafe for occupancy?

The family of Peter Jensen on Vaughn avenue are suffering from the effects of canned beef, supposed to be poisoned. By calling medical aid promptly fatal results were avoided, but it was a close call, even then, for two of the children. The women are getting into politics. Two women got into such a heated discussion on Saturday night in front of L. F. Bockhoff's cigar store, on Main street, as to draw even the crowd from the parade.

and Rogers was fined for carrying concealed weapons. This was so disheartening that they left the city. Saturday morning the mayor requested the newspapers to issue no more exciting bulletins, and urged citizens to quietly stay at their homes and places of business until the result of the election was fully determined. There was nothing in Saturday's news to change the situation, but the mayor, disregarding his own proclamation, proceeded personally to work up a democratic demonstration for Saturday evening. As the Nonpareil used to say—excusing Major Anderson's queer actions, "He's a child of impulses"—evidently so.

It being reported that a gang of darkies had planned to throw brickbats at the democratic procession as it moved up Broadway, some of the shot-gun brigade put some shells loaded with buckshot determined in such an event to use them to scatter any such attackers. Had a brick been thrown bloodshed would have followed. It appears from this that the feverish state of the public mind, which caused the mayor to issue his proclamation, had not subsided much, when the mayor himself joined in getting up the democratic demonstration.

Order hard wood of P. Overton. On the Drives. No city has prettier drives than Council Bluffs. Yesterday was an almost perfect one, so far as weather and roads were concerned, and many took an advantage of it, to indulge in a drive. Among those who were out yesterday afternoon were:

Hon. W. F. Sapp, A. R. Houghton and lady, F. J. Day, A. J. Crittenden and lady, A. C. Graham, Mrs. and Miss Louis, E. V. Cory and wife, Peter Bechtel, C. L. Copeland.

Wrought Iron Ranges at reduced prices, De Vol & Wright, 504 Broadway. Picked Up By Police. A young fellow known as "Cute" was arrested Saturday for kicking up a row in Wagner's saloon. Jeff Green got in limbo Saturday night for being drunk and assaulting Officer Towns. Charles Matthews and William Graff were pulled for being drunk and disorderly, but afterwards let out again. Jim Taylor was arrested for having too much fight in him. Frank Writter was nipped for being drunk and shattering the peace. Charles Allen was booked for being beastly drunk—an insult to the beast. Gibson stands booked as being drunk and disorderly. Albert Schliener, arrested for being drunk, had a valise and a lot of red paint and insisted on doing the town, but the police prevented him. Ed. Jeffries was led in for disturbing the peace. Frank Jackson, who was arrested a few days ago for stealing a coat, and then discharged, was arrested again Saturday for stealing a clock from Jennings stable, a bridle and some other articles. John Quan is under arrest on suspicion of being one of the three who robbed the Red Oak man of $100 and a watch last Friday night. He had $55 in his pocket. Thos. M. V. Dawson was arrested for carrying concealed weapons, but let go on payment of costs.

Window shades at cost to close them out. P. C. Miller 13 Pearl street. Stock Shipments. The following were the shipments at the Union stock yards, Thursday, October 30th: H. H. McFarland, Hastings, via Union Pacific.

Platte Overton is selling screened Centerville coal for $4.50 per ton and throws in a bundle of kindling. Score of the Seeds. Some time ago Templeton & Lamb offered prizes to those who guessed most nearly the number of seeds in a big pumpkin, weighing 100 pounds, which they had on exhibition at their cigar store. Yesterday the pumpkin was carved and the seeds counted by a committee consisting of M. B. Brown, B. P. Wickham, George Hill and R. N. Whittlesby. There were found to be 457 seeds. Joe Palmer won the first prize, a mechanical pipe, his guess being exactly 457. Harry Frank got the second prize, he having guessed 461. The third prize was won by Matthew Blackmer, who guessed 462. C. J. Best, of the Omaha Herald, R. N. Whittlesby, of the Globe, tied on fourth prize, each guessing 463, and Harry Hunter, of the Nonpareil, came within one of gaining in the tie, he guessing 464. There were in all 580 guesses, the lowest being by the Council Bluffs Herald, who must have been indulging in a Sunday musing, and not thinking very intently on pumpkins when he guessed 3.

PERSONAL. Samuel Haas has left for Chicago on a business trip. Sheriff Dan Farrell, of Glenwood, was at the Pacific yesterday. Herbert Brown, city editor of the Ottumwa Democrat, was in the city Saturday. T. N. Bray, of Atlantic, was in the city Saturday, looking after his boot and shoe store here. H. J. Chambers, the republican capturer of the recorder's office, was here Saturday, and being congratulated. Miss Kate Pusey and Miss Mollie Larimer have come to Des Moines, where Miss Pusey will visit friends, while Miss Larimer will proceed to her home in the east. Miss Ida Veis has returned from Rockford, where she has been attending school. She is suffering from a severely sprained ankle, which will keep her confined to the house for some time. A. S. Clough, who was formerly on the police force, is back from Columbus, Neb., where he has been for the past two months in the stock business. He expects to return to Columbus this week. Judge Leebrow was in the city yesterday and is to open district court in Carroll county to-day. He is confident that he has been elected, although the majority is small, and the returns are so meagre that it is only a conjecture at the best. Tom McCue, who was formerly of THE BEE here, returned Saturday night from Chicago, where he has been for some months past. He, father and family, who live about five miles out of the city, are preparing to move into Johnson county, Neb. Stewart Stoves, De Vol & Wright.
