BOARD OF TRADE.

A New Organization to Grow Out of the Old One.

Monday, in pursuance to a call issued by the president, N. B. Falconer, the board of trade met at their rooms in Redick's block. It was the first meeting of the board since July 8th at which a quorum was present. After the meeting was called to order, the proceedings of several preceding meetings were read, and it was found that on November 4th the board had on hand cash to the amount of $7,209, and $200 in the savings bank. The proceedings of the board of directors were approved. Announcement was then made by the secretary that the board of directors had reported favorably upon certain articles of incorporation which would enable the board to hold real estate. The articles of incorporation were read and approved. The object of the corporation shall be to promote the commercial, manufacturing and general interests of the city of Omaha, and establish commercial and financial exchanges therein, and to do all such things as may be necessary and convenient to that end, including the power to acquire and hold real estate.

The authorized capital stock of the corporation is fixed at $100,000, divided into membership shares of $125 each, etc.

The existence of the corporation shall begin on January 1, 1885, and continue until dissolved by its own act or by the operation of law.

The business of the corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors, seven in number, to be elected by the stockholders; such election to take place on the first Monday in January.

The officers of the corporation are to be a president, first, second, third and fourth vice president, secretary and treasurer, to be elected by the board of directors and hold office for one year. The secretary need not be a member of the board of directors, nor a stockholder.

The amount of indebtedness is not to exceed two-thirds of the capital stock at any one time.

The names of the old board of trade whose successor this corporation is designed to be, shall be in part members of this corporation.

The full paid membership shares of the capital stock shall be assessable to the amount not exceeding $100 per share for the purchase of real estate and the erection of buildings, but such assessments shall only be made upon a vote of a majority of the stockholders.

These articles are signed by N. B. Falconer, C. F. Goodman, John Evans, G. C. Ames, John A. Wakefield, Chas. F. Dreissell and W. W. Bingham and will be filed with the county clerk in a few days, and have been approved after a full discussion of the same.

These articles are designed so as to permit the board to purchase real estate and in due course of time build a chamber of commerce.

After some other minor business had been transacted the board adjourned for one month.

Night school.

Last winter the board of education started a night school in this city for the benefit of those who were unable to attend during the day, and yet are desirous of obtaining an education. Last winter's school was so well attended that the board has decided to reopen it this winter. One of the best rooms in the Dodge street public school building will be used for pupils in the central part of the city, and will be far superior to the rooms used on Douglas street last year. Mr. George L. Fisher, who was in charge of the Douglas street night school last year, and gave great satisfaction, has been engaged to take charge of the Dodge street night school. It was opened last evening, and will afford boys and girls who are employed during the day a chance for educational advantages, as free of charge as in the day schools.

Another school was also opened last evening on Pacific street, between Twentieth and Fourteenth.

A Card of Thanks.

The ladies of the First Baptist church desire to extend their sincere thanks to Messrs. Perkins & Loan, Mrs. Joslyn, of Metropolitan hotel, L. B. Williams & Son, and W. B. CIVIL AND CRIMINAL.

Chase's Trial to Begin To-day With Guthrie a State's Witness.

An Application for an Important Restraining Order to be Made in the U. S. Court.

In the United States court yesterday, circuit judge Brewer set aside, district judge Dundy being unable to be present. The time of the court was occupied in the hearing of motions and demurrers. Judge Dundy will be in attendance upon court this afternoon and will empanel the grand jury.

This morning John C. Orrick, of the firm of Noble and Orrick, St. Louis, for his client the Pacific Express Co., will make application to the court for a temporary restraining order against the Hannibal & St. Joe railway, now owned by the C. B. & Q., which has been carrying the business of the Pacific Express Co. for some time past. A short time ago notice was served upon the Express Company by the railway officials that the Hannibal & St. Joe company would no longer carry its business after Nov. 15th. To prevent the enforcement of this notice the application is made, the express company by its attorney taking the view that the defendants is a common carrier, and as such is bound under the law to do their business upon the payment of a reasonable compensation for such services. The principle involved in this case has been decided in the Southern express and Adams express companies' cases, by Justice Miller, when it was held they could be compelled to carry the business of the express companies. As has been said, the application for the restraining order will be made here, and should it be granted the petition will be filed immediately in the circuit court of the eastern district of Missouri, where it will be tried upon its merits.

The action of James F. Johnson against the K. C. St. Joe & C. B. R. railway for $25,000 damages, personal injuries resulting from a railroad accident at Corning, Holt county, Missouri, was yesterday removed from the district court of Otoe county to the U. S. circuit court, on petition of the defendant railway.

DISTRICT COURT.

The jury in the case of Mount against Steele, Johnson & Co. returned a verdict last evening of $75,500 damages sustained in the payment of attorney fees.

This morning the case of the state against ex-Mayor Chase for bribery will be called up and the trial proceeded with. Many of the witnesses have not yet appeared. Yesterday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Crowell went to Lincoln and will return this morning with ex-Marshall Guthrie, who will give testimony for the state in the coming trial. It is thought much time will be consumed before any testimony will be adduced and it is expected several venues will be consumed before a full panel of jurors will be selected. Judge Neville will preside over the trial. Suit was begun by Mrs. Sarah J. Trout against the city to recover the sum of $800 damages allowed to have been sustained by her property by reason of the change of grade of Saunders street.

POLICE COURT.

The case of the city against Joe Gorman, who was provoked into assaulting a policeman in front of the Homestead bar some two weeks ago, and who called into requisition at that time the use of words forbidden to be publicly spoken, was tried by a jury, the charge being the use of obscene and profane language. The defendant was found guilty and was fined $10 and costs. Not being able to pay his indebtedness to the municipality, A. E. Coggeshall, one of the jurymen, became security for his payment.

Police Court.

In police court yesterday A. W. Warner, J. Fox and John Heller pleaded guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace and were each fined in the sum of $5 and costs.

Albert Schlessinger was the old man who was delivering the stump speech on Farnam street. He came into court with a hurrah for Cleveland, his favorite candidate, and pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness. He was fined $5 and costs by the democratic judge.

G. W. Dow, a railroad man, came up before the desk with his face in a badly bruised and cut condition. He was a sorrowful sight to behold and the judge asked him to explain how he got cut up in such an unseemly manner. He said that he was walking along Tenth street Monday and accidentally ran into two colored women who were walking with a colored man. One of the women remarked that she did not like to be insulted in that manner by white trash, whereupon he turned and asked her pardon. As soon as he had finished speaking the colored man struck him in the face. He then passed on down the street to the corner of Tenth and Douglas streets where he laid his hand upon a man's shoulder and asked him why he had struck him? It proved to be the wrong man and he turned in and gave Dow a pounding after which he (Dow) was arrested. The judge said that he had evidently been badly punished, and only fined him $1 and costs.

Gen. Howard on Egypt.

There is an excellent treat in store for the people of this city in the proposed lecture of Gen. O. O. Howard, on "Egypt." The gentleman has but recently returned from an extended tour of Europe, and while absent there paid a long visit to the land of the Pharaohs. He took notes of the customs of the people, public and private structure, system of government and other peculiarities of that distant country.

A trained observer, Gen. Howard is also a trained observer. What he shall describe, therefore, will be worth describing, and worthy of a large audience. The lecture will be delivered in the opera house on the 23rd, and the proceeds will be applied to the use of the Women's Christian association for the benefit of the poor of Omaha.

In the reading room is kept on file seven daily, thirty-six weekly, sixteen monthly and two semi-monthly newspapers and periodicals, making a total of sixty-one publications which all are free to use, and strangers are especially welcome. Scherhorn is the librarian, and has a happy faculty of making it pleasant for those who visit the rooms.

STORY'S MANY WILLS.

THE INTERESTING PROCEEDINGS ATTENDANT UPON THE UNRAILING OF THE "LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT" OF THE GREAT "TIMES" EDITOR.

Special Telegram to The Bee.

CHICAGO, November 11.—In the probate court room this morning, the heirs of the Story estate and their lawyers and the judge and auditors, were all treated to a surprise.

In answer to an order from the court, and after a struggle by both sides, put on file a will dated August 16, 1879, not only identical with the will of 1881, except that one clause was favorable to the widow, but also in its provisions, now on the Washington Republican, at that time the city editor of the Chicago Times, and now the editor of the Boston Traveller, at that time managing editor of the Times, and John Strickland, then, as now, cashier of the Times. It is the only copy of the will now in existence, and written upon paper not calendared and not ruled, such as is used in a newspaper's editorial rooms for copy papers, and the will is the only copy of the will now in existence.

At that hour there were on hand A. L. Patterson, the conservator, Anson Story, the deceased's brother and the lawyers, W. C. Steady, Mr. C. E. M. Tracy, Judge Lyman Trumbull, Leonard Sweet and Mr. Robbins. There were, besides, a good many auditors. The judge ordered the copy, as requested by Judge Trumbull if Mrs. Story was in court. The judge answered that she was not. "Let the attachment be set aside," said Judge Trumbull, rather taken off his feet by the suddenness and severity of the order, protested, and while claiming that he could not do so, he ordered the copy to be put on file. "There is no question as to the probating of this will," continued the clerk, "and in order to properly set this court in motion it is necessary that the petition be filed here and sworn to by the petitioner, and in his opinion, the last testament of the deceased, I wish also to ask that the court be notified of the fact that the will is in my possession." After long argument, Judge Trumbull said he had another will in his possession; that he was willing to present it to the court but would like to go on to his office. He said, in answer to the court, that he had the document in his office. The court directed Judge Trumbull to produce it, which he did, and it was placed on file. So soon as the document was handed to the clerk, Mr. Tracy hurried behind the door and began reading it. The judge ordered that it be read aloud, and a certified copy taken of it. This the court ordered. Upon the filing of the will the court ordered the case over until Friday morning at 10 a. m. There was the utmost anxiety on the part of the heirs, their lawyers and Mr. Patterson, the conservator, to see the will filed by Judge Trumbull. True was the first to hurry around and read it. Then Mr. Tracy and Mr. Patterson called for it, and without reading it turned hastily to see who the witnesses were.

A Bonanza for the Politicians Last Night.

While politicians everywhere were quarreling Tuesday, October 14, 1884, the 173rd grand monthly Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery came off. M. A. Dr. F. Sponovius, who has been engaged in studying and measuring the glaciers in Norway for the past few years, reports that there are about a hundred streams in Sweden, but they are very small, covering in all an area not above six Swedish square miles.

PLANNING FOR PLUNDER.

Legislative Manipulations Already Under Way at Lincoln.

The House Plan for Packing Committees Fully Matured.

The Land Ring Fortifying Itself Against Investigation.

A Lively Review of Political Schemes and Schemers.

Special to The Bee.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 11.—The election is scarcely over when the scheming begins. The election of Dawes by the majority of 10,000 has thus far been the state surprise no one, unless it be Dawes himself, who has pretended to believe that he would explain the whole matter of the school land fraud to the people in a convincing manner. He would be as clear as failure in the world produced; but now that the legislature is elected the ringsters will begin to schemer. Church Howe must be chairman of the senate.

In order to put up committees for the railroads and the land ring. In the house the same gang will put forward Allen G. Field, of this county for speaker. Field is an unscrupulous politician as ever God gave flesh to. The house committee declares that the district is certainly epidemic in this respect. One family is reported as having lost 10 children out of 7 in the last two weeks through the disease.

DIPHTHERIA.

SAVAGES OF THIS TERRIBLE DISEASE AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, November 11.—Diphtheria has broken out among the pupils of one of the public schools, and several fatal cases are already reported. The health department officials are considering the advisability of closing the school. The health commissioner declares that the disease is certainly epidemic in this respect. One family is reported as having lost 10 children out of 7 in the last two weeks through the disease.

Fat Stock Show.

CHICAGO, November 11.—The annual fat stock show opened in the exposition building here to-night and will continue until a week from to-morrow. The show was inaugurated with an address by Mayor Harrison. The attendance at the opening quadrupled that of any former show, and the exhibition is much larger and finer than ever before. It is especially noticeable in the presence of good representation from Angus and Holstein cattle, which have not heretofore appeared in these competitions. Short horn Herefords are up to the former standard, and there is a good show of heavy draft horse, heps, and sheep.

Arrested for Fraud.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., November 11.—John M. Mastison was arrested last evening on the charge of fraud, perpetrated against Charles Hendricks, who deposited with him a check for $1,000, receiving from him a check when he was about to aspen and knew himself to be insolvent. He was examined before a justice of the peace and appealed the case to the county court, which will meet December 1, when the matter will be held before the grand jury. Mastison was held to bail in $500. Other charges are expected to be made against him to-day.

Boycotting the Old Man.

NEW YORK, November 11.—Joseph Wright, Jr., of Babylon, L. I., is an enthusiastic democrat, while his father, who is over 60 years old, is a republican. On election day Joe locked his worthy progenitor in the room of his house and thus prevented him from voting. A committee of republicans called with a coach to convey the old gentleman to the polls when Joe forbade the committee in his own language to enter the house. The committee went away and now say they will have Joe arrested for intimidating a voter.

The Vote of Illinois.

CHICAGO, November 11.—The news has the official returns on the vote for president in this state for all counties except Cook, which is outside Chicago with a close estimate on the vote in Cook. The result is as follows: Blaine 337,475, Cleveland 312,341, Tilden 311,466, St. John 11,731. Blaine's plurality 25,134. The official canvass of the vote of Cook county was begun to-day, and will not be completed for several days.

McCallough's Sad Flight.

CHICAGO, November 11.—Daily News, St. Louis: John McCallough arrived at the Southern hotel, this city, this evening, and if rumor is to be credited, his mental condition is pitiable in the extreme. He came here with the intention of opening in the "Chicago Theater," but the proposition is so absurd that the management of the Olympic theatre have closed the house rather than make an act of the morality of the city. The utmost secrecy concerning him is maintained by those in charge of him, and nothing can be learned at the hotel.

The Oregon Advertiser.

SEATTLE, Washington Territory, November 11.—The election is still doubtful in this territory. Choices favor Voorhees, democrat, for delegate to congress. The only issue between the two parties was that of railroad. The democrat and disunionist republicans demanded the forfeiture of the land grants which lapsed over seven years ago. They have probably won their fight. Voorhees' unopposed majority is about 3,000.

Pennsylvania Figures.

PHILADELPHIA, November 11.—Official returns from all counties of the state except Sullivan, which is estimated at 250,000 for Cleveland give Blaine a plurality of 89,553. The republicans will have a majority of 12 in the senate and 81 in the house, a majority on the part of ballot of 93. The congress delegation is 20 republicans and 8 democrats, a republican gain of 4.

A Close Run for Congress.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 11.—The additional returns from the mountain districts of Modoc county, California, put Henley, democrat for congress in first district 20 ahead. Full returns from Del Norte are still missing. It is expected they will give Henley a small majority, if so that will place the candidates about even.

The Lone Pacific Democrat.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 11.—The corrected returns from counties in the First congressional district of California give Henley, democrat, 59 majority over the republicans concede his majority but will insist on a recount. Henley will be the sole representative of the democracy on the entire Pacific coast.

The First Iowa.

BURLINGTON, Ia., November 11.—The official canvass of each county in the First congressional district, completed at noon, give Hall, democrat, a majority of seventy over Woolson.

A Bargain in Copper Lots.

It is what most men desire, to keep from filling a grave in a cemetery lot over half your days are numbered, always keep a supply of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" by you. When the first symptoms of consumption appear lose no time in putting yourself under the treatment of this invaluable medicine. It cures when nothing else will. It purifies and enriches the blood, strengthens the system, cures blotches, pimples, eruptions and other humors. By druggists.
