

RICHARDS & CLARKE, Proprietors. W. A. CLARKE, Superintendent.

Omaha Iron Works

U. P. RAILWAY. 7TH & 18TH STREETS

Manufacturers of and Dealers in Steam Engines, Boilers

Water Wheels, Roller Mills, Mill and Grain Elevator Machinery... Celebrated Anchor Brand Dufour Bolting Cloth...

We are prepared to furnish plans and estimates, and will contract for the erection of Flouring Mills and Grain Elevators...

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NOTICE—Special advertisements, such as Lost, Found, to Loan, For Sale, To Rent, WANTED, etc., will be inserted in this column at the rate of TEN CENTS PER LINE for the first insertion...

WANTED—Every body in Council Bluffs to take notice... WANTED—For sale at this office, at 25 cents a hundred...

Railway Time Table.

Table showing arrival and departure times for various routes including Chicago, St. Paul, and Omaha.

R. Rice M. D.

CANCERS or other tumors removed without knife or dressing of blood. CHRONIC DISEASES of kidneys a specialty...

W. R. VAUGHAN.

Justice of the Peace. Omaha and Council Bluffs.

J. J. STEWART, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Practices in Federal and State Courts, 601 Broadway, over Savings Bank. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

COUNCIL BLUFFS

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS. COUNTING THE CHICKENS.

The Democratic Ours Prove to be Roosters in the City. The Canvass of the Vote of the County.

The Error in the Fourth Ward.

The board of supervisors yesterday continued their labors of canvassing the vote of this county. In regard to the error found in the Fourth ward, the board concluded to count the vote as returned to them.

THE COUNT OF THE COUNTY

showed Cleveland's majority to have been 192. The democratic candidate for secretary of state got 252 majority. Judge Aylesworth got 280 majority over Looftbourough; Jackson, 205 over Connor for the circuit court.

THE COUNTY COURT.

The official canvass showed that in the county there were 8781 votes cast. Cleveland's majority is 55. On secretary of state the democratic majority is 91.

AYLESWORTH ELECTED.

It appears from the reports received from the other counties in the judicial district that Judge Aylesworth, the democratic candidate for judge of the district court, has been elected, the following being the returns:

Majorities for Aylesworth—Carroll 556, Pottawatomie 193, Fremont 159, Total 908.

Majorities for Looftbourough—Green 549, Crawford 61, Mills 18, Shelby 20, Audubon 26, Cass 187, Total 861.

This gives Judge Aylesworth a majority of 47.

It is conceded that the republicans have elected Mr. Conner to the circuit bench and Mr. Thornell as district attorney.

PUSHING THE PAVING.

Enough More Bonds Sold to go on With the Work.

The State of the Affairs Explained by the Letters.

As will be seen by the following letters the work of paving which came to a standstill Monday is to go right along.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

Office over American Express. COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Practice in State and Federal Courts. Collections promptly attended to. Room 16, Shugart's Building, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

DR. C. C. HAZEN

DENTIST. 100 MAIN STREET, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

Dr. W. H. Sherraden

DENTIST, Masonic Temple, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Lamps

Lamps, BIG DRIVE. HOMER'S.

Lamps

Lamps, BIG DRIVE. HOMER'S. AT HOMER'S.

Broadway paving as per your earnest request yesterday. Respectfully yours, J. C. REGAN.

TOWA ITEMS.

St. John had nine disciples in Creston on election day.

Cherokee county voted down the new court house proposition.

The Rock Island has dispensed with dining cars in the state.

Algebra Congregationalists are discussing plans for a new church.

Johnnie Telfair, an Ottumwa boy, was instantly killed while playing around the cars on the 6th inst.

Counterfeit silver dollars are circulating in Burlington. A well dressed woman seems to control the mint.

The fire in the little town of Lennox, last Friday, was disastrous. Thirty-six houses and contents were destroyed, aggregating a loss of $100,000, with less than half insurance.

The good people of Jefferson did a most creditable act lately, when they bought a house and lot and presented the property to Mrs. Rebecca Osburn, a poor widow with a family of little children.

Gene Loper and Will Biniger, formerly of Cherokee, but recently of Quasson, were arrested at Cherokee a few days ago by the sheriff of Buchanan county on a charge of stealing $800 from a Quasson merchant.

According to the Hawkeye, the great question agitating the minds of Burlington tax-payers is, "How will the city be able to pay its bills until the close of the year with the general fund overdrawn to the amount of $20,000?"

At the village of Elwood, Clinton county, on Sunday last a farmer named Car Whitmore attempted to drive across the railroad track in advance of a freight train. His team balked and the locomotive struck and smashed the wagon, killing Mrs. Whitmore and two children, and seriously if not fatally injuring Mr. Whitmore and another child.

Willis L. Fowler, late of Kosuth county, is wanted for bigamy and robbery, and $300 is offered for his arrest. He deserted his wife, went to Connecticut, where he married a young lady, and soon afterwards knocked down and robbed of $300 the grandmother of his bride.

Fowler's relatives in Kosuth county are spoken of as being highly respectable people.

THIEVES WHO HOARD NOT.

Some Well-Known Crooks Who Have Been Wealthy Now in Poverty.

Of the many well-known thieves who claim Philadelphia as their birthplace or their home, and who have made fortunes by their crimes, says the Philadelphia Times, few are now living who are worth a dollar.

Victims of gambling houses, they have lost their money and are now in poverty. One of the most notorious of these is the late William Comely, alias Buffalo Bill, a well-known hotel thief, who was rich at one time. He is now nearly seventy years of age. He left Philadelphia for the south yesterday, having just been released from the Moyamensing prison, where he was sent for robbing the French legation on the Continental hotel.

Bank Thieves—The most notorious gang of pickpockets ever known in this country, belonged here. He has often bragged that he stole $1,000,000, but it never did him any good. Hanchiah Corson, alias "Peanuts," was a noted pickpocket. He was sent to the Eastern penitentiary for picking an old man pocket at Fourth and Market streets and died in prison and was buried in potter's field. He was once Rich Charley Mack, alias "Curly Mack," who lives up town, has been a successful thief since he was 8 years old, and is known as a "day worker." He has a brother who is also a thief.

Not a Beggar.

Detroit Free Press. "Gentlemen," he began in a smooth, molasses sort of voice, "I am dead broke but no beggar. I want to catch about $3, but I shall do it in a legitimate manner. Now, then, let me ask you to inspect this."

He took from his pocket a piece of iron chain as large as his thumb and containing six links and passed it around. After it had carefully been inspected by each of the party he continued:

"I want to buy over $1,000, which is certainly worth $10, against $3 in cash that none of you can separate one link from the others."

The piece of chain was passed around again to be more closely scrutinized, and finally one of the party, who was a machinist, returned it with the remark:

"And I want to put up that sum that you can't do it yourself."

"Done!" said the stranger as he pulled off his coat.

Cost and cash were put up in the hands of a stakeholder, and the stranger asked the group to follow him. He walked across the street and into a blacksmith shop, and picking up a hammer and cold-chisel he deliberately set to work. The crowd stood around like so many pumpkins at a country fair, but when the stranger held up the link and claimed the stakes the machinist recovered his wit sufficiently to exclaim:

"Sold by a professional dead beat! The money is yours old fellow, but in exactly thirty seconds after you receive it I shall begin to kick, and you had better be twenty rods off."

"Thanks—glad to have met you—good day!" replied the stranger, and he was off in eight or ten seconds.

One of the Coming "Re-forms."

Pat's Sun. The act of disguising patent medicine advertisements by covering them up with an interesting article is a crime, and should be punishable by law.

Men who never swore in their lives have been known to swear like troopers when they had become interested in some article, and had it end up with something like this: "Hocine is a sure cure for jimmies," or "Use Quilwood's Cream for Greasy Complexions." Such advertising dodges as these can be seen in almost every newspaper, tempting men to thrash their wives, or to kick their mothers-in-law, and still we wonder at the prevalence of crime. No, it is very wrong, and should be stopped at once.

St. Charles Hotel, LINCOLN.

Four story brick, just erected on O. street, between 16th and 17th streets. First furnished, heat and most desirable and lowest of the day. Near all depots. MISS. KATE OAKLEY, Proprietor.

SHORT LINE.

The use of the term "the line" in connection with the corporate name of a great road conveys an idea of what is not what is desired by the traveling public.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE And St. Paul.

It now operates over 4,000 miles of other Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas lines, branches and connects with all the great business centers of the Northwest and West. It naturally answers it to a Short Line Guide. This guide is published by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, and is available at the following offices: Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Agents: Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Agents: Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Agents: Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis.

settled down on a farm. He is now one of the town councilmen. He used to grace the corner of Eighth and Sansom streets.

Jimmy Hope, now doing a seven years term in San Francisco for a bank burglary, has made hundreds of thousands of dollars, but is at present poor. His son is doing twenty years in Sing Sing for complicity in the Manhattan bank robbery. Joe Howard, alias Lester, who was murdered on the outskirts of New York recently, as a bank burglar had made a fortune, but was almost a pauper when he was killed.

Max Shimburne, the most successful burglar of his day, was a frequent visitor in this city, and, unlike his companions, knew how to keep the money he got through others. He finally went to Germany and bought an estate and a baron's title. He is now one of the German nobility. Horace Moran, alias Little Horace, was recently released from the Eastern penitentiary. He is a specialist as a bank sneak-thief. He and Buckley Taylor were captured while trying to rob the safe in Charles Joy's store on Seventh street, between 16th and Chestnut.

They are now "chumming" it through the state robbing the country postoffice. Little Horace has made a fortune, but is poor to-day.

Philip Pearson made a great deal of money, but is penniless now in prison in Toronto. Johnny Irving, who was killed by another burglar in New York not long ago, was well known in this city. He was a celebrated burglar and used to wear the largest diamonds that money could buy. He was arrested for the Portuendo robbery with Jimmy Logue and created a sensation by trying to escape from the new court house where he was being tried. Irving is said to have committed the jewelry robbery at Third and Arch streets, recently, for which Jimmy Logue was arrested.

William Comely, alias Buffalo Bill, a well-known hotel thief, who was rich at one time. He is now nearly seventy years of age. He left Philadelphia for the south yesterday, having just been released from the Moyamensing prison, where he was sent for robbing the French legation on the Continental hotel.

Bank Thieves—The most notorious gang of pickpockets ever known in this country, belonged here. He has often bragged that he stole $1,000,000, but it never did him any good. Hanchiah Corson, alias "Peanuts," was a noted pickpocket. He was sent to the Eastern penitentiary for picking an old man pocket at Fourth and Market streets and died in prison and was buried in potter's field.

He was once Rich Charley Mack, alias "Curly Mack," who lives up town, has been a successful thief since he was 8 years old, and is known as a "day worker." He has a brother who is also a thief.

Not a Beggar. "Gentlemen," he began in a smooth, molasses sort of voice, "I am dead broke but no beggar. I want to catch about $3, but I shall do it in a legitimate manner. Now, then, let me ask you to inspect this."

He took from his pocket a piece of iron chain as large as his thumb and containing six links and passed it around. After it had carefully been inspected by each of the party he continued:

"I want to buy over $1,000, which is certainly worth $10, against $3 in cash that none of you can separate one link from the others."

The piece of chain was passed around again to be more closely scrutinized, and finally one of the party, who was a machinist, returned it with the remark:

"And I want to put up that sum that you can't do it yourself."

"Done!" said the stranger as he pulled off his coat.

Cost and cash were put up in the hands of a stakeholder, and the stranger asked the group to follow him.

He walked across the street and into a blacksmith shop, and picking up a hammer and cold-chisel he deliberately set to work.

The crowd stood around like so many pumpkins at a country fair, but when the stranger held up the link and claimed the stakes the machinist recovered his wit sufficiently to exclaim:

"Sold by a professional dead beat! The money is yours old fellow, but in exactly thirty seconds after you receive it I shall begin to kick, and you had better be twenty rods off."

"Thanks—glad to have met you—good day!" replied the stranger, and he was off in eight or ten seconds.

One of the Coming "Re-forms."

Pat's Sun. The act of disguising patent medicine advertisements by covering them up with an interesting article is a crime, and should be punishable by law.

Men who never swore in their lives have been known to swear like troopers when they had become interested in some article, and had it end up with something like this: "Hocine is a sure cure for jimmies," or "Use Quilwood's Cream for Greasy Complexions." Such advertising dodges as these can be seen in almost every newspaper, tempting men to thrash their wives, or to kick their mothers-in-law, and still we wonder at the prevalence of crime. No, it is very wrong, and should be stopped at once.

St. Charles Hotel, LINCOLN.

Four story brick, just erected on O. street, between 16th and 17th streets. First furnished, heat and most desirable and lowest of the day. Near all depots. MISS. KATE OAKLEY, Proprietor.

SHORT LINE.

The use of the term "the line" in connection with the corporate name of a great road conveys an idea of what is not what is desired by the traveling public.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE And St. Paul.

It now operates over 4,000 miles of other Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas lines, branches and connects with all the great business centers of the Northwest and West. It naturally answers it to a Short Line Guide. This guide is published by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, and is available at the following offices: Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Agents: Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Agents: Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Agents: Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis.

CRICKERING PIANOS

They Are Without A Rival. -AND- EQUALLED NONE

Have been Awarded One Hundred and eighteen Prize Medals at all the prominent expositions of the World for the Last Fifty Years.

Endorsed by the Greatest Living Pianists -AS THE- Most Perfect Piano

-IN- TONE, TOUCH AND MECHANISM

An examination of these magnificent Pianos is politely requested before purchasing any other instrument.

MAX MEYER & BRO., General Western Representatives.

P. S.—Also Gen'l Ag'ts for KNABE, VOSE & SONS, BEER BROS., and ARION PIANOS, and SHONINGER OYMBELLA and CLOUGH & WARREN ORGANS.

SOUTH OMAHA,

THAT IS THE NAME OF THE TOWN WHERE

Fine Healthy Homes.

FOR ALL ARE FOUND!

Where They Can Enjoy Pure Air & Water!

BEAUTIFUL SCENERY

And all of the good and pleasant things that go to make up a complete and happy existence.

The town of South Omaha is situated south of the city of Omaha on the line of the U. P. Railway, and it is less than 3 1/2 miles from the Omaha post office to the north line of the town site.

South Omaha is nearly 1 1/2 miles north and south by 3/4 east and west, and covers an area of nearly four square miles. The stock yards are at the extreme southern limit.

Nearly 150 lots have been sold and the demand is on the increase. The yards are being rapidly pushed to completion.

The $60,000 beef packing house is progressing finely. The $30,000 Water Works are finished and furnish an abundant supply of PURE SPRING WATER.

The B. & M. and Belt Line Railways have a large force of men at work and will, in connection with the U. P. Railway, have a union depot near the park at the north end of the town. Suitable grounds will be furnished for Church and School purposes.

Now is the time to buy lots in this growing city. They will never be cheaper than they are to-day.

Apply at the Company's office, at the Union Stocks Yards.

M. A. UPTON, Assistant Secretary,

W.M. SNYDER

Manufacturer of strictly first-class Carriages, Buggies, Road Wagons and Two Wheel Carts. 1215 and 1230 Harvey Street and 4. 12th Street, Omaha, Neb.

Dr. CONNAUGHTON,

409 BRADY ST., DAVENPORT, IOWA, U. S. A. Established 1878—Catarrh, Diphtheria, Lung and Nervous Diseases Speedily and Permanently Cured. Patented in 1884 and 1885. Write for "THE MEDICAL MISSIONARY" for the People.

Consultation and Correspondence Gratis. P. O. Box 292. Telephone No. 26. HON. EDWARD RUSSELL, Postmaster, Davenport, says: "Physician of the Ability and Marked Success." CONGRESSMAN MURPHY, Davenport, says: "An honorable Man. Fine Success. Wonderful Cures."—Horns 6 to 8.

GERMAN D. WYATT, LUMBER MERCHANT

LUMBER, LATH, SHINGLES, SASH, DOORS, BEAMS, MOULDINGS, PLASTER, PAINT, HAIR, CEMENT. CUMINGS AND 20TH STS., OMAHA, NEB