OMAHA DAILY BEE . THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13

rateful nothers. Mothers' milk contains r tarch. HORLICKS' FOOD FOR INFANTS (fro from starch) requires no cooking. The best food in insiste or sickness for INFANTS. The best diet for DVSPEPTICS and INVALIDS. Highly beneficial

The set of the transmission of the set of t

Will be sent 1 * mail on receipt of price in stamps. HORLIC 198 FOOD CO., Encine, Wis. & "Usd Hort wears Dr." Extinate of MALT"63

Science of Life Only $1 00 BY MAIL POSTPAID.

may be the thief, but who might turn up in court as claiment in a suit for $50,-SHOP LIFTING IN NEW YORK. 000 damagea. Professional Counter Thieves and ODD ELECTION BETS. Kleptomaniacs. Samples of the Novel Wagers Laid on the Presidential Contest, Devices for Concealment and the it. Louis Globe Democrat. Methods of Detection.

New York Heraid. Few persons realise to what a great ex-tent shoplifting as a trade is carried on in this city. The wholesale storekeepers who suffer from these petty thefts and the police or private detectives who are employed to catch offenders of this kind are perhaps the only one who probably estimate the large number of people that make a practice of robbing the counters. There is a splendid field for the shop-There is a splendid field for the shop- course bet on Blaine's success. Whether lifters' operations in the immense stores the drummer is for the plumed knight is and Celia Thaxter, together with interof the metropolis. On a busy day the not known, still he takes his chances on amount of petty larceny committed is cleveland. The bet is this: If Blaine wins, the lady is to give the gentleman the and confusion, the shop girl with more customers than she can attend to and a score of other things, all aid in the young lady with a sealekin sacque. This successful pilfering of small articles. bet is genuine.

Louis Napoleon's Last Years.

mere moved. His quiet and calm dig-nity and absence of all nervousness and stoic could have imagined. I felt overpowered by the position. All the past rushed to my memory; our youth together at Rome in 1829, his dreams of power at that time; his subsequent desperate attempts to obtain it; his prisons,

where I found him still sanguine and unchanged; his wonderful escape from Ham, and his residence in London, where, in the riots of 1848, he acted the special constable like any Englishman. His election as President by millions in France in 1850; his further one by millions to the Imperial Crown; the part I early dreams; the glory of his reign of 22 years over France, which he had enriched beyond belief and adorned beyond all

Memoirs of the Earl of Malmesburg.

Shoplifting is a crime to which women are particularly addicted. It is very selof the state, has agreed with the presidom that a male shoplifter is arrested. Perhaps this is due to the fact that dent of the Elm Grove Motor line as folwomen are more given to shoplifting, and lows: If Cleveland is elected the former therefore a female thief can carry on her is to tap one thousand kegs of beer to all comers; in case of his defeat the Motor work with less fear of suspicien and deline is to haul all persons free to Homtection than a man.

Quite often women who are relatives brook park any day Schmulbach directs. go out together in their shoplifting tours. The most curious wager is one wired A women was not long ago arrested in the Register from Charleston, this state. Alf Burnett, chief of the Eureka detecthis city for taking a pair of stockings from the counter and concealing them in tive agency, bets D. B. Goshorn, a local her pocket. She had a younger women democratic politician, that Blaine will be elected by a larger majority in the with her who she admitted was her electoral college than Garfield had, If daughter-in-law. When searched the Burnett wins Goshorn, is to ride a blind shoplifter was found to have in her possession not only the stockings, but also a mule through the streets of Charleston, Perhaps in his stern and sweet life he comb, a pair of kid gloves and a pocket book containing $60. The younger woman was next searched, and two to swim the Kanawha river from bank to pocketbooks containing $600 were found bank during the same hours, the bet to be paid as soon as the result is known.

A saleswomen in a Bowery store suspected two young women of shoplifting. Watching them closely, she saw one of them stuff a dress into a large pocket, other girl pretended to be respectable countenance, he shock me heartily by and said that she had met the thief in the hand. I confess that I was never bill of the winter is passed in Boston; a share in old age I can rest and let my days go carried under her dress skirt, where it the street. She had accompanied her to the store to see her buy a silk dress. They were both sent to the penitentiary.

HIDING THE BOOTY. In all sorts of ways the shoplifter tries to escape detection. Even when she is seen taking articles from the counters the stolen things may not be found upon her unless she is thoroughly searched. Near-ly every shoplifter has a false pocket, where she secretes what is not here by purchase or by right. Besides this, she does the trick of putting small articles in the folds of her shawl or dress. A detective suspecting a women of shoplifting in a shoe store on Sixth avenue arrested her after she had left the place and took her back. The storekeeper said that he did not have any reason to suspect the priso. in that event, which had realized all his ner. The detective insisted upon her being searched by the storekeeper's wife. A pair of shoes were found hanging to a hook attached to the woman's garter.

other countries and capitals; his liberation With some women shoplifting is a maof Italy-all these memories crowded nia. Although comfortably off they will upon me as the man stood before me whose race had been so successful and ro- when he sawsteal as often as they get an opportunity. The storekeepers do not arrest women of this class because they have ways of re-covering the value of the stolen articles. The husband is made sware of the facts The husband is made aware of the facts own, except the house he hired in an English village. I must have And make or mar the common weal." shown, for I could not conceal what I What a life he has to look back upon as in the case and he always makes good the loss. ASHAMED OF THEIR CRIME. The most pitiful cases are these in which the woman, otherwise respectable, is caught in her first offense. She cannot tell why she was guilty of the crime; all that she can say is that she was tempted and in a woment of weakness committed misled as to the force and preparation of cerned. It is certain that no one else his army, but without mentioning names; could find it. the act. When these women are arraigned in court for trial they are overcome with shame. This feeling of dis, grace at being publicly arraigned as thieves is so intense that the court, appreciating the fact, generally lets them off with a day or two's imprisonment. Some of these women resolutely refuse to give their own names. Not long since one of them was arrested in a store in Sixth avenue, near Nineteenth street. crosswise pocket, concealed in the folds of her dress, was found filled with stolen goods. She said that she dared not She confessed her guilt, and a large bring disgrace upon her family by letting her friends know of her arrest. She had ample means, she added, and was tempted to steal upon the spur of the moment. Another case was that of an old woman dressed in black, who was armies, appeared to him the very acme arrested in an Eighth avenue dry goods of humiliation and of national infamy. store. She was accompanied by her On January 9, 1873, he died, in the daughter, who was also arrested. Two presence of the empress, who never left manly young men called at the prison him, released from the storms of a fitful and said they were her sons. They had existence, from intense physical sufferbeen looking for her and her daughter ing, and saved from knowing the loss of all night. In the possession of the prishis only son, whose fate she was soon oners were found eight pair of gloves and destined to deplore alone. three handkerchiefs, identified by the storekeeper by a private mark. The A Nibble Not Always a Rite, women had given and assumed name and New York Graphic, "What's them green-looking things?" wrong address. OMAHA. Poverty sometimes makes shoplifters said a rural and elderly party to an outout of otherwise honest women. A wo-man was tried in the court of special ses-sions a short time ago for stealing a piece "Them's sacred fish from the Holy of cloth from a Grand street store. She Land. Never seen 'em before?" was quiet and respectable in appearance, "Never sot eyes on 'em out in Colorbut her face was pinched as if from hunger. She cried bitterly upon her trial. She pleaded guilty, but said it was "You bet! The Crusaders discovered trial. She pleaded guilty, but said it was her first offense. Her husband, a book em in Jerusalem and used to wear the publisher, had committed suicide. At shells in their army caps and play 'em one time he was wealthy, but at his death left her destitute. In a moment of off for white chips," "The Hades you say!"

WHITTIER'S HOME.

The Poets Dwelling and Surroundings - His Personal Appearance.

The Critic. Mr. Whittier's dwelling in Amesbury is exceedingly simple and exquisitely happy. As soon as he got a chance at neat, the exterior of a pale cream color, one of the stations he jumped upon a neat, the exterior of a pale cream color, Of novel bets there are quite a number recorded. William Eilis bets Chris with many trees and shrubs about it, freight train, and from that out was Miller that Cleveland will be elected and while within one room opens into another colors by Harry Fenn and Lucy Larcom esting prints, hang on the other walls, rivalled it may be, by the window that looks down a sunny little orchard, and this enticing place! Garrison and Phillips and Higginson and Wasson and Henry Schmulbach, the leading brewer his condition, and did not wish my mine Emerson and Fields and Bayard Taylor and Alice and Phoebe Cary and Gai to dwell on it. I say the sight provoked sadness in me, and so it did. Not because I think Hamilton and Anna Dickinson are only a few of the names that one first rememthe occupation of a traveling salesman or bers, to say nothing of countless sweet souls, unknown to any other roll of fame drummer is in any way degrading, for it than heaven's, who have found the at, is an honest and legitimate calling, in than heaven's, who have found the atwhich no one need be ashamed to engage. mosphere there kindred to their own. The people of Amesbury and of the ad-joining villages and towns feel a peculiar any sacrifice of dignity on the part of Governor Bishop in engaging in it. It was creditable to him that he should have ownership of their poet; there is scarcely a legend of all the region round which he gone to work for himself rather than fold has not woven into his song, and the his hands and become a charge upon neighborhood feel not only as if Whittier others, and I honored him for it. were their poet, but in some way the But still I was sorry that he had to do guardian spirit, the genius of the place. it. I know what poverty is; I know what the constant strain of having to has been so, even as much as in his song. seek one's daily bread by his daily labor "There is no charge to Mr. Whittier," is, and I know how hard it is to feed the made a small purchase, and there is no little mouths and clothe little forms that doubt that the example would have been are dependent on the father for every contagious if the independent spirit of morsel and every shred. I have fough with these wild beasts at Ephesus, and the poet would ever have allowed it. These Indian summer days of the still do battle with them daily, after the room alone, and with that remarkable post's life are spent not all in the places manner of men, though mayhap it profitthat knew him of old. The greater part eth me nothing. But I look forward and the remainder of the time finds him cares about next week's market money irritability were the grandest examples of in the house of his cousins at Oak Knoll, The time may never come, but I wish it would come to every man whose three-nati. As one of the leading men in his church, he became president of the board secluded grounds, shadowed by mighty church, he became president of the board of curators of Kentucky university, I be-which birds and squirrels and rabbits took a very lively interest in its welfare,

RUINED BY POLITICS.

the Political Arena.

ple case in his hand, trying to sell some igara. It made me sorry that I was not in the cigar trade, for if I was, and his goods came anywhere near suiting my customers, I should buy from him in preference to any one else. The sight was provocative of sadness in me, and I hurried by without stopping to speak to the old gentleman, for I could not change within as without. Here many of the figure here for many years, and he has latter poems have been sent forth, and had warm friends and ardent well wishhere fledglings have the unwarrantable ers on all sides among the people. His impertinence to intrude with their callow great wealth did not make him purse proud, nor his cilicial position tempt him to be haughty. While governor of Ohio and president of our university he had myself acted as an English minister manuscripts, and here those pests of prominence, the autograph seekers, send their requests by the thousands. But in was still the same simple, unaffected the early fall the poet steals quietly back christian gentleman, he would have been to Ameabury and there awaits election had his station been humble and his day, a period in which he religionsly believes that no man has a right to avoid means limited. Misfortune came and he failed in business. I suppose he must his duty and of which he still thinks, as have made an honest failure else he would "Along the street The shadows meet not to-day be traveling selling cigars by sample. It is honorable and commend-

Of destiny, whose hands conceal The moulds of fate That shape the state

This medicine, combining from with pure restable tonics, quickly and completely furce Drepepting, indigestion, Werkness, topure Blood, Mularia, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia. It is an unlaiting remedy for Diseases of the Eddness and Laver. It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It doesnot in ture the teeth, cause headlache of produce constitution—other from medicines de. A enticher and purifies the blood, attimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, re-lieves Heartburn and Beleding, and strength-are the mission and nerves. For Intermittent Fevers, assitude, Lack of Energy, i.e., it has no equal. East and red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Base saft by BROWS CURRENCE Co., BULTIFICIE, 2.5.

Bade only by BROWN CHERICAL CO., BALTINORE, 2%

GERMANY.4 The steamships of this well-known line are built of iron, in water-tight compariments, and are furnish-ed with every requisite to make the passage both safe and agreeable. They carry the United States and European mails, and leave New York Thurs-days and saturdays for Plymouth (LONDON) Cher-bourg, (PARIS) and HAMRURG. Rates: Steerage from Europe only $18. First Cable, $55, $55 and $75. Steerage, $24. Henry Pundt, Mark Hansen, F. E. Moores, M. Toft, sgentzh Omaha, Groneweg & Schoentgen, agents in Council Bluffs. C. B: RICHARD & CO., Gen. Pass Agts, 61 Broadway, N. Y. Chus. Kozminski & Co-general Western Agants, 170 Washington St., Chica go.III. 2003

Manhood Restored.

y indiscretion or excess will learn of a lim, lerenied, ree, by addressing J. H. REEVES. & Chatliam st. N.

DR. HORNE'S ELECTRIC BELT

ELECTRO MAGNETIC BELT

UNAT T BA

HORNE'S

dies, testedin a Forta

The remarkable growth of Omaheduring the last few years is a matter of great astonishment to those who pay an ecasional visit to this growing city. levelopment of the Stock Yards-the necessity of the Belt Line Road-the finely paved streets-the hundreds of new with the population of our city more than doubled in the last five years. All this is a great surprise to visitors and is the admiration of our citizens. This rapid growth, the business activity, and the many substantial improvements made a lively demand for Omaha real estate, and every investor has made a handsome profit.

Since the Wall Street panic last May, with the subsequent cry of hard times, there has been less demaud from speculators, but a fair demand from investors seeking homes. This latter class are taking advantage of low prices in building material and are securing their homes at much less cost than will be possible . year hence. Speculators, too can buy real esta' > cheaper now and ought to take present prices for futur advant profi a

Th few years promises greate ove'opments in Omaha than the par · years, which have been as good at we could reasonably desire. New m as ufacturing establishments and large anbing houses are added almost weekly, job al 1 add to the prosperity of Omaha. And

There are many in Omaha and throughout the State, who have their money in the banks drawing a nominal rate of nterest, which, if judiciously invested in Omaha real estate, would bring them much greater returns. We have many bargains which we are confident will bring the purchaser large profits in the near future. We have for sale the finest residence property in the north and western parts of the city. North we have fine lots at reasonable prices on Sherman avenue, 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th streets. West on Farnam. Davenport, Cuming, and all the leading streets

The grading of Farnam, California and Davenport streets has made accessible some of the finest and cheapest residence property in the city, and with the building of the street car line out Farnam, the property in the western part of the city

We also have the agency for the Syndicate and Stock Yards property in the south part of the city. The developments made in this section

by the Stock Yards Company and the railroads will certainly double

We also have some fine business

lots and some elegant inside resi-

the price in a short time.

will increase in value.

in that direction.

MANHOOD <section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text> ON

NEBRASKA LAND AGENCY

F. DAVIS & CO., SUCCESSOR TO DAVIS & SNYDER. Genoral Dealars in

1505 FARNAM ST.

Have for sale 500,000 acres carefully selected isndi e Eastern Nebracks, at low price and on easy terms. Improved minas for sale in Douglas, Dodge, Colfar Finite, Burts, Cuming, Sarpy, Washington, Merick Sannders, and Butler Jounties. Taxes paid in all parts of the State Money loaned on mproved farms. Notary Public always in office Correspond

Belgian Boyal and U.S. Mail Steamers SAILING EVERY SATURDAY. BETWEEN

WEW YORK AND ANTWERP The Rhi e, Germany, Italy, Holland and France Biesrage Outward, $20; Frepald from Antworp, $19; Excursion, $39, including bedding, etc. 2d Cabla, $60; Round Trip, $50.00; xcturalon, $100; Balcon from $54 to $90; Excursion 110 to $150.

AF Peter Wright Sons, Gen Agents. 45 Broad-Galdwe'l Hamilton & Co., Omaha. P. E. He man & Co., 205 N. 16th Street, Cmaha; D. E. Kie despair she was driven to commit the crime. She got off with five days' imprisonment. ARRESTING INNOCENT PARTIES.

The storekeeper not only relies upon his employes to detect this kind of crime, but has also the help of professional and private detectives. These men, dressed in civilians' clothes, mingle in the crowds, pretend to see nothing suspicious going on and suddenly pounce upon some one they have been watching for a long time. If the party pounced upon does not turn out to have stolen or attempted to stea anything the detective does not feel alarmed if he can prove that the party has ever been arrested for a similar offense. If the person arrested has ever MEAT SAUCE for all kinds of salads, fish, before been guilty, no matter how inno-cent she may now be, the detective talks tharply to her and tells her to "Get" uick When an innocent party is arrested it is a very different matter, particularly if just was John McCormick, under sengood character or social position can be tence for larceny, who escaped and was proved. The storekeeper generally sufrecaptured. fers in an action for false imprisonment. It is this that deters them from making more arrests. They prefer to let ten sin-

on scollops. See?"

nibble is not always a bite.

Manitoba for the first time. The subherel

Savvy/

felt, as, again skaking my hand he said: he sits with his fame about him-what "A la guerre comme a la guerre. C'est storms and what delights, what struggle bien bon de venir me voir." In a giuet and what victory? With all the deep and In a giuet and what victory? With all the deep and natural way he then praised the kindness wonderful humility of spirit that he bears of the Germans of Wilhelmshohe; nor before God and man, yet it is doubtful if did a single complaint escape him during he could find one day in it that he would our conversation. He said he had been change, so far as his own acts are connor did he abuse any one, until I men-tioned Gen. Trochu, who deserted the right in bearings as ever. His eye is as Empress, whom he had sworn to defend, black and burns with as keen a fire as and gave Paris up to the mob, when the when it flashed over the Concord mob. Emporer remarked, "Ah' veila un droie." and sees beauty everywhere as freshly During half an hour he conversed with as when he cried with the "Voices of me as calmiy as in the best days of his "reedom" and sang the "Songs of life, with a dignity and resignation which Labor:" as his smile is the same smile might be that of a fatalist, but could that has won the worships of men, and of hardly be obtained from any other creed; women too, for sixty years and over. more depressed at the destruction of their own; not that they deem such vital-Paris and at the anarchy prevailing over ity and power and spirit can ever cease, France than he was at his own misfor- but that they are warned of its apothetunes; and that the communists should osis, as it were, into loftier regions, have committed such horrors in the pres- where his earthly songs shall be turned ence of their enemies, the Prussian to the music of the morning stars as they sing together.

Wives For Sale Cheap,

In some parts of England men who get tired of their wives sell them as low as sixpence aplece. Sometimes a wife is traded off for a quart of beer. Both husbands and wives in such cases are very disagreeable persons. Possible they are the victims of dyspepsia and liver complaint, and their health is badly run lown. Such people may not be worth doctoring, but nice people who are run down by these ailments, should try Brown's Iron Bitters, which will bring them right up. Jumping from the Train.

Chicago Herald. The best coral grounds yielding the "Talking about prisoners jumping most and best coral are still those on the through car windows to get away from Algerian coast, fished for that purpose their keepers," remarked an old sheriff, from the middle os the sixteenth century, as he kept his eye on two men who were the others being the coasts of Sicily. handcuiled together and occupied the Corsica, Sardinia, Spain and Balearic seat in front of him, "let me tell you a Isles, and Provence. Isles, and Provence. little story. About fifteen years ago I

"When they got home after the war little story. About fifteen years ago and bragged how they'd fit, bled and was taking a chap up to Joliat one night died, the other fellows that staid at and as I alwas thought myself good enough for any one man, and, as he was a quiet one, anyhow, I took the clamps off him. I had had him in charge several months, and I thought him a big coward; so when he asked permission to go into the closet I let him go, feeling confident he more discussion to so into the confident he more discussion to so the several months and the several months and thought the several monthese the several months By using Dr. Frazier's Throat and Lung Bal home used to tell 'em they were putting enough for any one man, and, as he was a quiet one, anyhow, I took the clamps in scollops. See?" a quiet one, anyhow, I took the clamps in savvy. How did they get over off him. I had had him in charge "Some of our fellows brought the seed over on the Mayflower. Take a quart?" "Not now. I'm looking 'round for Annanias, and if I don't run agin him would never jump with the train going using it, and discovering its marvelous power. It is put up in large family bottles and sold forty miles an hour. He didn't come for the small price of 75 cents per bottle. Sold 'round here I'll come back to you.

The Colorado man walked quietly away and the stall man allowed that a forty miles an hour. He didn't come back directly, and then I got scared and looked for him. The window of the closet was wide open, and it was too plain he had made the jump. I stopped the train and we run back, got out lanterns and looked for him. I expected to find him dead by the side of the track, but not a sign of him did we discover, except that I found his hat where he had jumped. The train went on and I stayed there, swore in a posse from among a lot of section hands, and offered a reward. DURKEE's SALAD DRESSING & COLD vegetables and cold meats. Cheaper and better than home made. No sauce equal to it was ever offered not a sign of him did we discover, except placed one in a railway ment seal, and it jumped. The train went on and I stayed has kept perfect time ever since, and has pumped. The train went on and I stayed has kept perfect time ever since, and has The cat-o'-nine tails was lately used in

of section hands, and offered a reward. but I never found him-not even a track nor a sign, save that hat. It was always Is a very prevalent and exceedingly disone of the greatest mysteries to me how agreeable disease, liable, if neglected, to he got away. The fall must have hurt develop into serious consumption. Being

"Bright's Disease" is regarded by many him, as there was a high bank there, a constitutional disease, it requires a as incurable and it is well nigh so, except and how a man could get away constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsa-"Bright's Disease" is regarded by many ners escape rather than arrest one inno- when opposed with HUNT'S [Kidney and so quick after such a terrible jump parilla, which, acting through the blood, cent. The private detective very often Liver] REMEDY. This old and reliable was more than I could understand. Ten reaches every part of the system, effect-cent. The private detective very often is compelled under these circumstances to let his suspicions lead him no further than to eye with fierce diatrust the per-son he himself is perfectly well assured by physicians. Liver] REMEDY. This old and reliable was more than I could understand. Ten years afterward I came across that man in the pen at Joliet, where he was a ten-bladder. It is purely vegetable and is year burglar. He told me how he had igot away, and laughed so over it that 1'll Mass.

able in the old gentleman to knuckle down to work, but I wish he had his fortune back, and if the prayers of one poor sinner for his success would avail, he would not have long to wait until he did have it back.

Weakness, Night Lossa, by Dreams, Pimples on Me Face. Lost Manhood, y ositively curred. There is no experimenting. The appropriate render that once used in each case. Consultations, per-onal or by letter, sacredly confidential. Med-tings pent by Mail and Express. No marks on wernes to indicate contents or sender. Address I have been afflicted with an Affection of the Throat from childhood, caused by diph-theria, and have used various remedies, but have never found anything equal to BROWN' BRONCHIAL TROCHES. - Rev. G. M. F. Hamp ton, Piketon, Ky. Sold only in boxes. h. JAMES, No. 204Washington St., Chicago, III Nervous Debility Guick permanent cure. Hook free

Mr. Jay Gould is getting some inkling at this time of the place he holds in the general estimation. Whatever he is supposed to have anything to do with is immediately tainted with suspicion.

SKIN DISEASES CURED,

By Dr. Frazier's Magic Ointment. Cures as I by magic: Pimples, Black Heads or Grubs, Blotches and Eruptions on the face, leaving the skin clear and beautiful. Also cures Itch, Salt Rheum, Sore Nipples, Sore Lips and old, Obstinate Ulcers, Sold by druggists, or mailed on receipt of price, 50 cents. Sold by Kuhn & Co. and C. F. Goodman.

or great-coat.

How many women there are working o day in various branches of industryto say nothing of the thousands of patient housewives whose lives are an unceasing round of toil-who are martyrs to those complaints to which the weaker sex is liable. Their tasks are rendered doubly hard and irksome and their lives are

STOP THAT COUGH

Catarrh

shortened, yet hard necessity compels Phonix Augurance Co., of on, Cash Assots State Structure them to keep on. To such Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" offers a sure means of relief. For all female weakness it is a certain cure. All druggists.

WE GUARANTEE SIX BOXES

To cure any case. With each order received by us for six bottles, accomplished with $5.00, we will send the purchaser our written guarantee to refund the money if the treatment does not effect a cure. Guar-anteed issued only by JOHN C: WEST & CO., Jy 28-maze-ry 562 Madison St., Chicago, III.

P. S.-We ask those who have property for sale at a bargain to give us a call- We want only bargains. We will positively not handle property at more than its real value.

RASKA

Du.

The Fatal Touch. Philadelphia Ledger, Nov. 8.